PVCC, the lost dirt.

by wood » 25 Jul 2017, 07:18

I just moved a thread to the Mecha conference that had been hidden in the Admin forum for a long time. I thought people might want to read it.

Basically as an admin on FFUEL I got fed up and badgered Mecha for three or four days trying to get him to say something committal instead of dismissive for a change. It did not work.

When I came across that in the admin forum, I started thinking about some of the other stuff hiding around in there. I think as a summer "fun thing" I might put some of that stuff in here. Most of it is no longer sensitive because they were some trolling operation that flopped or the people involved Buzzlebarbied.

so if my understanding of childish high school graphs are correct, there are significantly more people who treat marty with respect/disrespect than there are people who post on these two internet forums who dont treat him with any notable kind of respect. got it.

There's this bizarre conversation I had with Mecha after 789chan found his videos and I had to convince him to stop reacting lest he draw an onslaught of curious trolls.

Actually a lot of stuff from the admin forum one time or another where 789chan did some fucking thing and in the admin forum we were all concerned. Usually the people we were trying to protect were dumbasses, like Mecha.

Actually I should dig up the PMs where Jakkara acted like a total twat when I tried to say "hey, you aren't a very secure internet presence plz fix it to protect other people in this forum and formerly members of this forum."

THAT was infuriating.

Look, you need to face up to something here:

I just got shown a /cwc/ thread with a screenshot of your Facebook account. Aside from the fact that I think it's a tad foolish to have a publicly viewable Facebook, you have the same username on Facebook as you do on a bloody troll forum.

You need to get your act together here bro. PVCC members aren't out to get you, but there are weirdos who watch PVCC who are out to get almost everyone on here, many of whom have watched the whole PVCC/BB interaction with intense interest. Whether they should or not, they have. And they have latched on to whatever information they can get, and now they have yours.

Even if you don't care about your own personal info, there are people who are connected to you who can get caught up in it. So you should do something about that.

And I mean soon. You should probably start by making your Facebook private and maybe consider using a different username. And I don't think I need to bring up that you were warned about this a few weeks ago.

Also please could you message me on BB from now on? I don't even use PVCC anymore.

That last sentence was pretty funny, cause at that point he was still logging on like 50 times a day to???????? who knows

I'll dig up our conversation because I need to find the old Dingleberries logs.

Not quite sure what that is supposed to mean.

How about that time Danger Bitch asked me for some back story...

No one was trying to dig up dirt on him. Instead something along these lines went down: I guess Jakkara's Facebook is public and open and someone who had a friend request was leery of this. So they checked out his Facebook and found that it was open to trolling and that things he posted there made their way into the wild open internet into the hands of other people. So this person found this out and decided not to add him as a friend or whatever and warned other people against doing the same... cause I guess Jakkara isn't very good at keeping personal info personal, or at least leaves things as an open book.

Let me run a test here:

You used the same name for your Facebook account that you did for your username on PVCC. I bet you use the same username on other places on the web, don't you. For the sake of argument, let me Google "Jakkarra".

Dude, if this stuff is coming from somewhere, it's coming from you. No one on the PVCC is supplying anyone anything. I didn't look this up (just now, I haven't looked for your information before this) to troll you, I did it to show you how easy it is. I know, because I troll people. This is exactly the same thing this guy is doing. He has no connect to PVCC or BB. He may claim to in order to heighten drama, but he isn't and he doesn't need to be.

“ Jakkarra wrote:

Yet you still log in rather frequently.

If this is the method in which he decided i am a furry, it's a pretty long leap to decide that's why I'm ostracised from PVCC. More to the point how does he know I'm ostracised from PVCC? The most likely answer is someone is feeding him information, there are at least two people who i wouldn't put doing that past.(That, or, as mentioned, because people decided to make these sorts of things public)

No, people from PVCC is the least likely thing that is happening. How did he conclude you were ostracised? Because you were on Buzzleberry. They've already made that conclusion about everyone on Buzzleberry: that it's a splinter forum of people who came from PVCC but don't like PVCC. We know this about them, they post it all the time. So no, it is not the most likely answer. They're /cwc/. They fill in the gaps with their own idiocy whether we like it or not.

Also, who are the two people you wouldn't put that past? Because the people with coloured names don't dish out dox to /cwc/, ever. Maybe you should step back here since the people on PVCC are currently trying to put a stop to this.

1. I don't know what you are talking about.

2. I'm not your personal fucking servant, if you are talking to them, tell them yourself.

“ wood wrote:

“ Jakkarra wrote:

People from PVCC is not the least likely thing. I already know about Ivy's post in the green forum months back about me "Harassing people". It's jolly well OK for people to make baseless accusations about people and get listened to on PVCC apparently.

What does this have to do with your Facebook being on /cwc/? You think she posted it there because of some tiff you have with her?

Let me straighten this out. We already have IPs for the post. It's from Finland, it isn't a proxy. Ivy doesn't live in Finland. She hasn't supplied information to anyone. We do not share information about forum members (past or present) with people who post on /cwc/.

“ Jakkarra wrote:

And the Mac thread and the resultant "PVCC-achu" thread go to show me being not wanted, so don't even bother trying to argue to the contrary.

You "not being wanted" is entirely different from posting your personal information or passing it along to someone else. And your conclusion of not being wanted is yours and has not been explicitly stated by anyone on the forum. Many people have been smacked around on PVCC for saying something that someone else thought was dumb (myself included). I strongly suggest you grow some thicker skin and not take internet arguments so seriously.

“ Jakkarra wrote:

As fucking if. If Insulting people personally, invading chat channels and attempting to cause rifts of their own by trying to convince members that they're only here under some elaborate plot to troll them is "Trying to put a stop to this" then my fucking god i wouldn't like to see what they'd do if they wanted to make things worse. Buzzleberry doesn't want anything to do with PVCC, because the issues are irreconcilable, due to the actions of PVCC members such as Cogs, Ivy, LoveYouLongTime, spas and Co.

None of this has ANYTHING to do with your Facebook getting posted. Regardless of whatever else has transpired, we do not want people's personal information put out. If someone had wanted to destroy Buzzleberry by dropping dox, do you honestly think they would do it by dropping yours?

“ Jakkarra wrote:

Mac thread, PVCC-achu bullshit, ect.

You haven't even been addressed in the mac thread since mid-February. Nor do I see how screwing with an avatar counts as some form of defamation. Also, written defamations are called "libel".

“ Jakkarra wrote:

1: Most recently Yoko (Surfshack tito), and during the mac thread LYLTA keep suggesting Dangle is trying to Heartsweet me, as what happened with chris, and as they are convinced she did with motherbrain. They are also constantly trying to assure me that i am only on Buzzleberry because everyone thinks i am a colossal faggot and just want to make fun of me all the time.

I wasn't asking for the situation. It has nothing to do with me. It also has nothing to do with your Facebook getting leaked.

“ Jakkarra wrote:

2: I don't want to talk to them at all. They keep contacting me.

Again, I'm not your servant. Tell them to fuck off. Or block them. Or something.

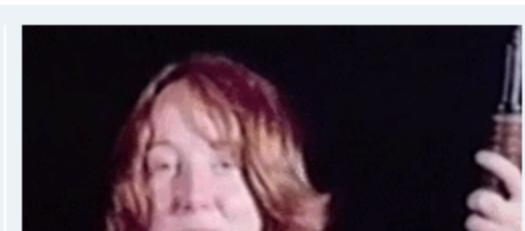

If you have any other problems, I can answer them in the morning, good night.

Fuck this idiot, good night.

Pretty sure that sentence is also grammatically wrong, but it doesn't fucking matter. No one talks that way unless they're in a class on Middle English/Early Modern English, they're a total twat or they are trying to sound smarter than they actually are.

That's the thing about Jakkara. Every argument had with him started because he was usually wrong about something. Instead of admitting that, he would want so badly to win the argument that he would keep twisting it. He would never win the argument though, he would just get wronger.

From the mac thread, to the book argument, to this.

He posted a list of books based on some reader opinions and basically said it was total shit. hot jughead and I were like "why there's some good things there" and every justification he gave made him look dumber and dumber and unable to formulate a coherent argument.

See it here:

In retrospect, this should have been an indication that he shouldn't have been in this forum.
