Hey there!

Welcome to your 2018 Happy Organized Year Planner!

I am so thrilled that you've chosen this planner to be a part of your life in the new year. As I was designing it, I was very intentional about creating a format that would help us manage our day-to-day tasks while we work towards our goals and creating the lives we really want to live.

I know that no two lives are the same. We all have different needs and responsibilities, which is why I love having a printable planner. It can be adjusted not only for the needs of different people, but also for my changing needs as the year progresses.

The best way to begin planning your year is to think about your goals. If you've gotten the Happy Organized Goals workbook, you'll want to start there. That will lead you through five stages of self-assessment and planning to help you have your best year yet.

If you don't have the workbook, you'll want to do some reflecting by asking yourself questions like:

- What did I like most and least about this past year?
- What do I want to repeat this year, and what do I want to do differently?
- What do I want to accomplish in 2018?
- How can I best use my time in the new year to get closer to where I want to be?

Your answers will help you identify your priorities and determine where your time and energy should be spent.

I highly recommend that you consider the layout of this planner as it's currently arranged merely as a suggestion. Please feel free to move pages around in whatever order works best for you. I've included different quotes to provide some inspiration and motivation throughout the year as well as different versions of the cover, interior, and notes page so you can customize the look, feel, and function to best suit your needs.

Most of all, I hope this planner helps you have your best, happiest, most organized, and productive year yet! If you'd like to share pictures of how you put together and use your planner as the year goes unfolds, I would love to see them! Please feel free to email me at emily@myloveforwords.com or share them on social media with the hashtag #happyorganizedyear.

Happy Planning!

Emily
