The San Francisco/Northern California Chapter of The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences
Announces the Winners of the 2013-14
REGIONAL STUDENT TELEVISION AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE

The Board of Governors of the San Francisco/Northern California Chapter of The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2013-1014 Regional Student Television Awards for Excellence.

Entries were submitted by High Schools with media programs in the chapter's region, Visalia to the Oregon border including Reno, Nevada and Hawaii, for work done during the 2013-14 school year. The "Award for Excellence," an engraved glass pillar, is presented to the school with each student recipient receiving a certificate. The "Award for Merit" each student receives a certificate.

Five Pillars for Excellence and 20 Certificates for Merit were awarded. The Academy of Integrated Humanities and New Media, Tamalpais High School, Mill Valley received a total of eight awards; Searider Productions, Waianae High School, Waianae, HI, seven awards; Two awards went to Franklin High School, Elk Grove. Single recipients included: Abraham Lincoln High School, San Jose; California High School, San Ramon, Hawaii Student Television, Honolulu, Maui High School, Kahului, HI; Media Enterprise Alliance at KDOL-TV, Oakland Unified School District; Eye of the Tiger, Roseville High School, Roseville; Sierra High School, Prather, and K9 Studios, Sheldon High School, Sacramento.

NATAS Education chair, Steve Shlisky, KTVU Channel 2, said "with entries up more than 25% entries from last year, the judges were treated to many excellent videos. It is refreshing to see such professional work coming from local high schools and, with hope, contributing to the future of our chapter"
