SAMPLING TEXAS

Probably the biggest news this week is that This Week In Texas is changing. To give you the most up-to-date information concerning the gay, social and entertainment scene in Texas, we are pleased to announce that This Week In Texas has become a subscriber to the Southwest Publishers Guild Syndicate. S.P.G.S. offers a complete catalogue of articles, feature stories, fillers and syndicated columns for use in alternate lifestyle publications throughout the nation. Of the many materials available, This Week In Texas has selected the three most popular

S.P.G.S. columns. Beginning next week, The Doctors Bag, by John Radtz, M.D.; The Screen Shop, by Christopher Savitch; and, Answers By Adam, by Adam Dennis . . . The New Gay Organization of Corpus Christi is showing that fair city that they can "get it together". Meetings are every Sunday, 2 PM, at the YWCA. Your only acceptable excuse for not going this Sunday is that "you had to go to Houston to participate or watch the Mr. Gay Texas Contest. . . It seems the Houston Health Department is getting strict with their code enforcement. Gay businesses have been warned that unless it's a private club, outdoor cooking is illegal. All food must be prepared in kitchens stamped with their approval. . . Houston's smaller boogie bar (it's really not that small) — The Second Sun — is s-t-r-e-t-c-h-i-n-g the inflated dollar. Two happy hours, 7 AM-1PM and 5 PM-7PM; and Peaches, the new bartender, is permitted to "give away" free bar drinks for one hour. All this plus 10¢ draft beer on Sat. and Sun. from noon til 8 PM. . . Where have the Grease Sisters and Miss Alabama gone? They've dragged their show to the Hi-Lite Ranch, appearing every Thursday night. . . Watch for the 20's Party to be announced at the Briar Patch. Judging from their recent Roaring Fifties Party, this one will be $$$. . . This coming week, many of you will be planning short trips for the Fourth of July. Do allow yourself plenty of time, and have a safe one. . . Why not plan a short jaunt to some of our smaller cities and maybe visit a few of those places you've been meaning to try out. You're bound to have a good time since there's absolutely nothing like being a "new face in town" . . . Like the other large bars in Texas, Bailey Street Warehouse in Ft. Worth has a small intimate bar called the "Red Room". It's a piano bar and open

MOTHER FROG SPEAKS

The birth of the Frogs dates three years ago in Santa Monica, California. At that time, I was selected as the fourteenth Frog or Toe Tapping Terry Thomas. With sincerity and great desire for Texas Unit, I registered the Frogs in Texas.

There are fifty-two selected Frogs, who already are winners in our community.

The public, both gay and heterosexual, will vote in our large and smaller gay bars to elect three Frogs to ride over the remaining forty-nine. In doing this, society will wake up to see our new lives to come — lives of unity, joy, love, and peace.

Frogs are Furthering Relations Of Gay Society. Our work is not that of parades, marches, or bad name calling; but that of understanding one another so All can live and love together as one. We will help erase that despised image toward homosexuals and give society a meaning for wanting to come to us with great love and respect. By helping others through various social agencies and activities, our heterosexual friends are reminded that we really care.

You don't have to be gay to be a Frog. Many want to join us, but few are selected, Frogs are good, and all I ask is that you give us a chance by attending our First Annual Frogs Awards.
