SAMPLING TEXAS

This Week In Texas hopes you had a safe, enjoyable Memorial Day. We've been in a dither all week trying to catch up from the holiday. Faces & Places was not included this week as promised. Accept our apology. . . The "hoot" has arrived at the Other Place in Fort Worth - a liquor license. . . When in Corpus Christi, stop in and make friends with Jessie and Ed at the Harbor Inn Restaurant, 1601 N. Shoreline. They want you to know that they are open til 5:00 AM on Fridays and Saturdays, and 7:00 AM til 11:00 PM on weekdays... A new and used furniture and accent store has opened at 1817 Ayers in Corpus Christi called Bits and Pieces. There are many good buys to tickle your fancy. . . Congratulations to Buck McCarty "Mr. Cowboy" and to Roy Brooke "Mr. Gay Dallas". We needn't explain why there's always a surge of business just before Roy gets off from work at the Club Baths. . . In Dallas, Ron is featured at the Bon Soir with his own special brand of artistry at the organ. He doesn't mind sharing the spotlight with talented vocalist in the audience and will even buy you a free drink just for bringing in this announcement. . .
