Key West AQUARIUM

PET A SHARK!

Discover the under-sea world of the Florida Keys at Key West's first attraction. The Aquarium showcases wonderful marine creatures that are native to the waters of Key West. You will enjoy the daily shark and turtle feedings. Petting live sharks with the guidance of our staff is one of the many experiences you have at the Aquarium.

The Touch Tank offers visitors a unique opportunity to get up close and personal with hermit crabs, conchs, sea cucumbers and sea urchins without getting your feet wet.

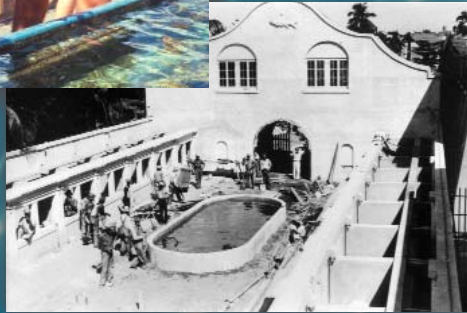

The 50,000 gallon Atlantic Shores exhibit was created to give visitors an up close experience of the delicate Florida Keys mangrove environment. Game fish, tropicals, lobsters and birds populate the unique habitat.

Key West Shipwreck HISTOREUM

*"Where History Comes Alive!"
And You Can Join the Crew!*

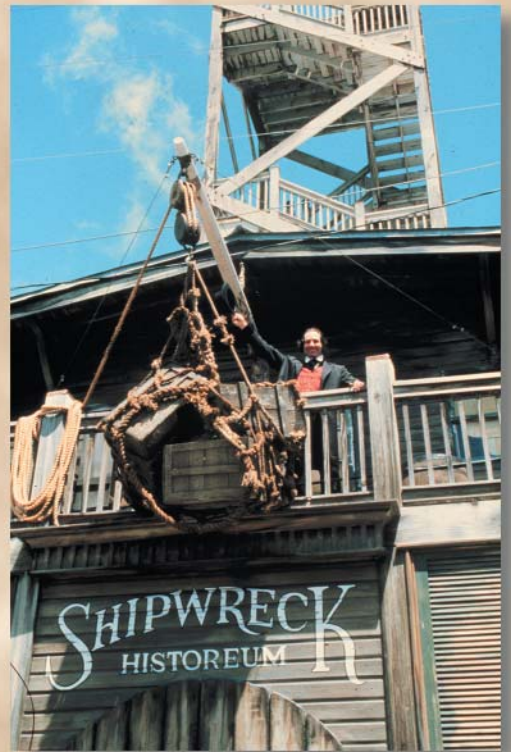

Join our cast in another time as you enter the world of an 1856 wreckers warehouse and relive how Key West became the Richest City in the U.S.A.

The Key West Shipwreck Historeum[®] combines actors, films, laser technology and the actual artifacts from the recently rediscovered wrecked vessel Issac Allerton which sank in 1856 for a unique glimpse into Key West's Maritime Heritage.

Enjoy the spectacular view from the top of our 60' lookout tower!

Open Daily 9:45 am - 4:45 pm
One Whitehead Street • Mallory SquareSM

MALLORY SQUARESM....

The center of the Historic Key West Waterfront. Exciting attractions, unparalleled shopping, the Key West Historic Memorial Sculpture Garden and the famous Key West Sunset Celebration. See it...Shop it...BE THERE!

Key West Key of Historic Harbor

Historic Mallory SquareSM and the city of Key West both had their beginning along this deep harbor waterfront - the wrecking schooners, the frigates and warships of the US Navy, the Cuban cigar makers tobacco warehouses, ship's chandlers and government offices combined to make Key West a bustling seaport out on the frontier of a young America. Spend your day with us as we recapture and relive Key West's past at Mallory SquareSM.

Join us one hour before sunset each day for the best free show in the United States. Tight rope walkers, contortionists, fire eaters, mimes, music, artists and craftsmen, and the ever-changing, fabulous Key West Sunsets are not to be missed.
