Before the Examination・・・Basic information・・・

1. Types of High Schools

High schools in Kanagawa Prefecture can be divided into public high schools and private high schools. They can be further divided into 3 types according to the periods of time of classes.

(1) Differences between Public and Private High Schools

Public High Schools	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Established by the Prefecture and municipalities People residing in Kanagawa may apply. For Teiji (Part-Time) and Tsushin (Correspondence) high schools, people working in Kanagawa are also eligible to apply. 【 Examination 】 There are two types: Kyotsu (common) Examination conducted by all the public high schools and Tei-tsu Bunkatsu (part-time and correspondence division) Examination conducted by part-time (night) and correspondence high schools. ➡ P.4
Private High Schools	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Privately established. Each high school has its own curriculum based on their original educational policies. 【 Examination 】 Examination and its dates are different from school to school. There are 3 ways to take examination of private high schools: “Sengan (Tangan)” to take examination of only one private high school, “Heigan” to take examination of one public and one private high schools, and “Open” to take examination of multiple private high schools. In case of “Sengan (Tangan)” or “Heigan”, applicants must enter the high school they applied to when accepted. If the applicant declines to enter the high school accepted, he/she will not be able to take examination for other high schools.

(2) Differences among Zennichi (Full-Time), Teiji (Part-Time), and Tsushin (Correspondence) Systems

The three systems have different styles of learning.

Zennichi (Full-Time)	There is school every day, from about 8:40 a.m.to about 3:30 p.m. It takes 3 years to graduate.
Teiji (Part-Time)	Classes are held in a certain specified time period (morning, afternoon or evening/night), and many of the schools offer classes in the evening/night. There are high schools called “Flexible School”, where you can attend classes according to the schedule made for your needs. It will take 4 years to graduate, however in some schools, students can graduate in 3 years.

Tsushin (Correspondence)	In this system, students earn credits by passing the exams after submitting papers written at home using textbooks and workbooks. Students are required to go to school not every day but two or three times a month to meet with their teachers in person for guidance (“schooling”). In some Tsushin system schools, “schooling” is offered on weekdays to help students write papers. There is also a school utilizing the Internet for teaching.
------------------------------------	--

- (3) Differences between Gakunen (yearly advance) and Tan-i (credit-based) Systems
Gakunen and Tan-i system schools have their own way of dividing classes and grades.

Gakunen system (yearly advance)	Most of the subjects (curriculum) are set based on the grade level.
Tan-i system (credit-based)	There are no grade divisions. Students may graduate when the necessary credits have been earned.

- (4) Futsu-ka (General), Senmon (Specialized), and Sogo (Comprehensive) Courses
 Courses vary depending on the type of study.
 Public High Schools in Kanagawa have the following courses:

Futsu-ka (General)	General subjects, such as Japanese, Geography and History, Civics, Social Studies, Mathematics, Science and English are studied in this course. This is the most common course. For this course, some of the schools uses Gakunen (yearly advance) system and others use Tan-i (credit-based) system.
Futsu-ka Senmon (Specialized Courses in the General)	Students study specialized fields in addition to the general subjects. Yokohama Municipal Totsuka High School’s music course is this type of course. Tan-i (credit-based) system is used.
Senmon (Specialized)	Subjects taught include Agriculture, Industry, Business, Fishery, Homemaking, Nursing, Welfare, Science, Physical Education, Music, Fine Arts, International Affairs, International Relations, General Industry and Performing Arts. Students learn specialized knowledge and basic technology. For this course, some of the schools uses Gakunen (yearly advance) system and others use Tan-i (credit-based) system.
Sogo (Comprehensive)	Students can choose distinctive subjects from various subjects taught in General and Specialized courses Tan-i (credit-based) system is used.

Selection Method (how admission decisions are made) in General Admission

① Data used for selection

For schools where school-specified test is conducted

A Grade Points obtained in Junior High School (Overall Evaluation of Chousa Sho)	B Total Score of Written Tests	C Score obtained in Interview	D Score obtained in School-specified Test
Total of Grade Points on a 5-point grade scale of Overall Evaluation of the Second grade in Junior High School (Perfect Score:45) + Total of Grade Points on a 5-point grade scale of Overall Evaluation of the Third grade in Junior High School Multiplied by 2 (Perfect Score:90)	Total Score of Written Tests (Perfect Score of Each Subject:100)	Score obtained in Interview	Score obtained in School-specified Test

※ The ratio of each school and names of the schools which put weight on specific subject(s) will be released in the "Boshu Annai(Application Guide)", etc.

Scores of A, B and C (and D where applicable) are converted into 100-point scale respectively.

A Grade Points obtained in Junior High School → a (converted into 100-point scale)	B Total Score of Written Tests → b (converted into 100-point scale)	C Score obtained in Interview → c (converted into 100-point scale)	D Score obtained in School-specified Test → d (converted into 100-point scale)

$$\text{Total Score } S = a \times f + b \times g + c \times h + d \times i$$

(※ f, g, h and i represent ratios respectively.)

Example of the Ratio (f : g : h : i)

High school A puts weight on grade points obtained in junior HS (6:2:2) and no school-specified test is conducted.

High school B puts weight on written test score (3:5:2) and no school-specified test is conducted.

High school C puts weight on the interview and the school-specified test (3:3:4:4).

② How admission decisions are made

After the entrance examination, the meeting to decide successful applicants will be held in each school and there the successful applicants are decided in an order of the first selection and then the second selection.

First Selection	The applicants whose total score S is in the top 90% will be accepted.
Second Selection	Calculating the total score S again not using the overall evaluation a in the Chousa Sho but using b and c (and d where applicable), the top scoring applicants will be accepted to fill in the remaining number. ※ At this time the values g and h are determined anew by each school; they are integers 2 or more and their total is 10.

※ In the creative schools (☞ P.11), prefectural Yokohama Meiho HS and prefectural Sagami Kouyoutkan HS, the selection is made comprehensively without using the overall evaluation in the Chousa Sho.

※ In the correspondence schools, the selection is made comprehensively using Chousa Sho and the results of the tests conducted.

※ In all the examinations for full-time, part-time and correspondence systems, selections will be made with consideration given to those applicants whose documents in part, such as junior HS evaluation of subjects, are not prepared.

※ For Prefectural Yokohama Kokusai High school, ① and ② above are different. Please be sure to refer to "Boshu Annai(Application Guide)" or other documents to confirm.

10. School Fees

You need to pay school fees (educational expenses) when studying at high school. You also need to pay enrollment fee.

Enrollment Fee	5,650 yen
Tuition (Per year)	118,800 yen
In case you receive the payments from High School Tuition Support Fund※	0 yen

Enrollment Fee	2,100 yen (1,200 yen)
Tuition (Per year)	32,400 yen
In case you receive the payments from High School Tuition Support Fund※	0 yen

(Fees listed here are those as of May 1, 2022. They may be revised. Please confirm beforehand.)

※ For High School Tuition Support Fund, see P.18.

The approximate amounts of school fees necessary for one year are as follows.

(In the case you receive the payments from High School Tuition Support Fund)

(For Your Reference)

Public High Schools (Full-Time): About 200,000 yen (for the first year of enrollment)

Public High Schools (Part-Time): About 40,000 yen (for the first year of enrollment)

Private High Schools (Full-Time): About 900,000 yen~ (for the first year of enrollment)

You need to pay a good part of the amounts shown above when going through the procedure in March to enter the high school. For the full-time high school general course, the amount to be paid in March will be around 100,000 yen which includes fees for textbooks, teaching materials, school uniform, PE uniform and athletic shoes. For specialized courses, you may need to pay practical work fees in addition.

Other than those shown above, commuting expenses (transportation fees), club activity fees, stationery fees, Judo uniform and/or swim wear fees for PE classes and reserve for school excursion fees may be necessary.

For the households on public assistance or low-income households exempted from taxation, there is a scholarship system named Kanagawa Prefecture High School Supplemental Scholarship Fund for which repayment is unnecessary. Application will be accepted at each high school starting from July.

There are other financial aid systems such as “Kanagawa High School Financial Aid” for the students who have financial difficulty. These are student loans with no interest for the students who need financial aid for educational expenses and the students are required to pay back in the future.

11. High School Tuition Support Fund

This government aid provides students with High School Tuition Support Fund to be applied to tuition to reduce the burden of household educational costs. The system aims to create a society in which all the motivated high school students can continue their studies regardless of their economic situation. They are expected to take active roles in the future in society realizing that their learning is supported by the entire society. (This is not a student loan and repayment is unnecessary.)

In case of public high schools, if you are eligible to receive payments from High School Tuition Support Fund, you do not need to pay tuition.

To use this system, you will need to apply. Explanations will be made and the necessary documents will be given at the high school the student is enrolled.

◎Translated documents are also available. Please consult at the high school the student is enrolled if you think it is necessary.

<Conditions of Payment>

- Households where the amount calculated using the following formula regarding the income of guardians (persons with parental authority, if there are father and mother, total of both) is less than 304,200yen (It is approximately equivalent to the annual income of 9,100,000 yen.)

【Calculation formula】 Tax base amount of Municipal tax × 6% – Municipal tax adjustment deduction amount

- Households receiving public assistance

<Application Documents>

- ① Application form (distributed through the high school at the time of examination result announcement, etc.)
- ② A copy of “my number (individual number)” card or other documentation of each of the guardians (persons with parental authority) (ex: individual number card, Juminhyo (residency certificate) which shows individual number, certificate of entry in the residency certificate)

<Application Period>

Application is necessary once at the time of entrance into the high school as a general rule. Application deadline will be informed by the high school of the student.

12. Tuition Support System for Private High Schools

In Kanagawa Prefecture, support fund for which repayment is unnecessary is provided for entrance fee and tuition to reduce the economic burden of guardians of the students enrolled in private high schools and so on. Entrance fee and tuition, however, should be paid to the school at the time of enrollment and the support fund will be provided later after the enrollment. For details, contact the private high school the student is enrolled.

(Example)

Households with annual income less than about 7,000,000 yen and households on public assistance

Support fund for Tuition: 456,000 yen

Households with annual income less than about 7,500,000 yen

Support fund for Tuition: 193,200 yen

Households with annual income less than about 8,000,000 yen with multiple children^{*1}

Support fund for Tuition: 456,000 yen

Households with annual income less than about 9,100,000 yen

Support fund for Tuition: 118,800 yen

Households with annual income less than about 9,100,000 yen with multiple children^{*1}

Support fund for Tuition: 193,200 yen

Examples shown above are amounts of tuition support funds for the students who reside in Kanagawa Prefecture and are enrolled in private high schools and so on in Kanagawa Prefecture. The amount of support fund is determined using “Standard amount based on income” of the guardians (persons with parental authority, if the student has father and mother, total of both.) For details, refer to “Boshu Anna”, Application Guide.

※¹ Households with multiple children: Households with 3 or more supporting children of age between 15 years old and 22 years old excluding junior high school students

13. Re-enrollment in High School

(1) Re-enrollment (Sai-nyugaku)

When a student leaves high school after attending for a year or more, and enters high school again, it is called Sai-nyugaku (re-enrollment).

If a student has attended school overseas which corresponds to that of Japan's high school, and then enters Japan's high school, it is also called Sai-nyugaku (re-enrollment).

To re-enroll in a high school, you need to pass a re-enrollment examination ("interview", "written tests", etc.) of the school that accepts re-enrollment.

★ In order to re-enroll in public high schools (full-time) in Kanagawa Prefecture, the applicant and his/her guardian(s) must reside within Kanagawa Prefecture.

(2) Re-enrollment of Students Who Have Attended Overseas High Schools

To re-enroll in a Japanese high school, the student must have completed a 10-year or more of a school education curriculum overseas.

In principle, students can re-enroll in a high school on April 1. "Written tests" and "interviews" are usually conducted in March using Japanese language.

It is also possible to apply for the "Special Admission for Prefectural Foreign Residents, etc.", when there is an opening in the allotment of the "Special Admission for Prefectural Foreign Residents, etc." of the school, and the applicant is eligible to apply. (See P.5 for eligibility.)

The principal of the high school that accepts the student's re-enrollment will decide the student's grade level (or its equivalent) to be enrolled after the student is admitted.
