

The Implications of the October CCP Meeting

Pray for Xi Jinping and his politburo colleagues.

Pray that there will be voices heard that speak about the problems the ordinary man and woman in China faces.

Pray for the church in China which will face stormy waters in the next five years.

Property Stimulus Measures Fail

Pray that the central government's housing policy will be a positive one that promotes stability, so that people will feel more confident about the future.

Pray for China's economic recovery, and for stability in household income.

Pray that people will have hope for the future, and not fear or worry.

How Long Can The Zero-COVID Policy Persist?

Pray for the people who have been quarantined and those whose livelihood are affected by the pandemic, that they will be able to get help.

Pray that the country's leaders will have wisdom to strike a balance between the country's economy and its people's livelihood during this pandemic.

Pray that the government will make wise decisions regarding the pandemic control measures.

Prayer Topics (2)

Slip this note into your bible to help you remember to pray for the December prayer topics.

Art knows no national boundaries, unlike its creators

May the Lord cause us to care about the plight of China's creative professionals.

Pray that the Lord will grant us an understanding of the future influence of China's creative professionals.

Pray that China's creative professionals will not become a hindrance to the Gospel.

Re-evaluating the Bible

Pray the rewriting of the Bible does not go ahead for the sake of the Chinese Church, for the sake of the people of China who do not yet know Christ, and also for those who would put their hand to such a abhorrent task.

Pray that God's people, through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, will have the ability to discern truth from error.

Pray for a renewed hunger for God's Word in China.
