Educative Assessment & Meaningful Support:
2017 edTPA Annual Administrative Report

Developed by and for educators, edTPA is a subject-specific performance assessment for beginning teachers that includes versions for 27 different teaching fields. It focuses on three core areas of effective teaching: planning, instruction and assessment. edTPA is created and exclusively owned by Stanford University. The data below summarize key points from the 2017 edTPA Administrative Report, an annual document that reports candidate performance and consistency and reliability of edTPA scoring and implementation.
