

TAIWAN NUMBAH WAN!

Anonymous is using this occasion to call out, troll and berate those three teenage hoodlums in NYC that attacked innocent Asian women in F train to the strongest possible extent!

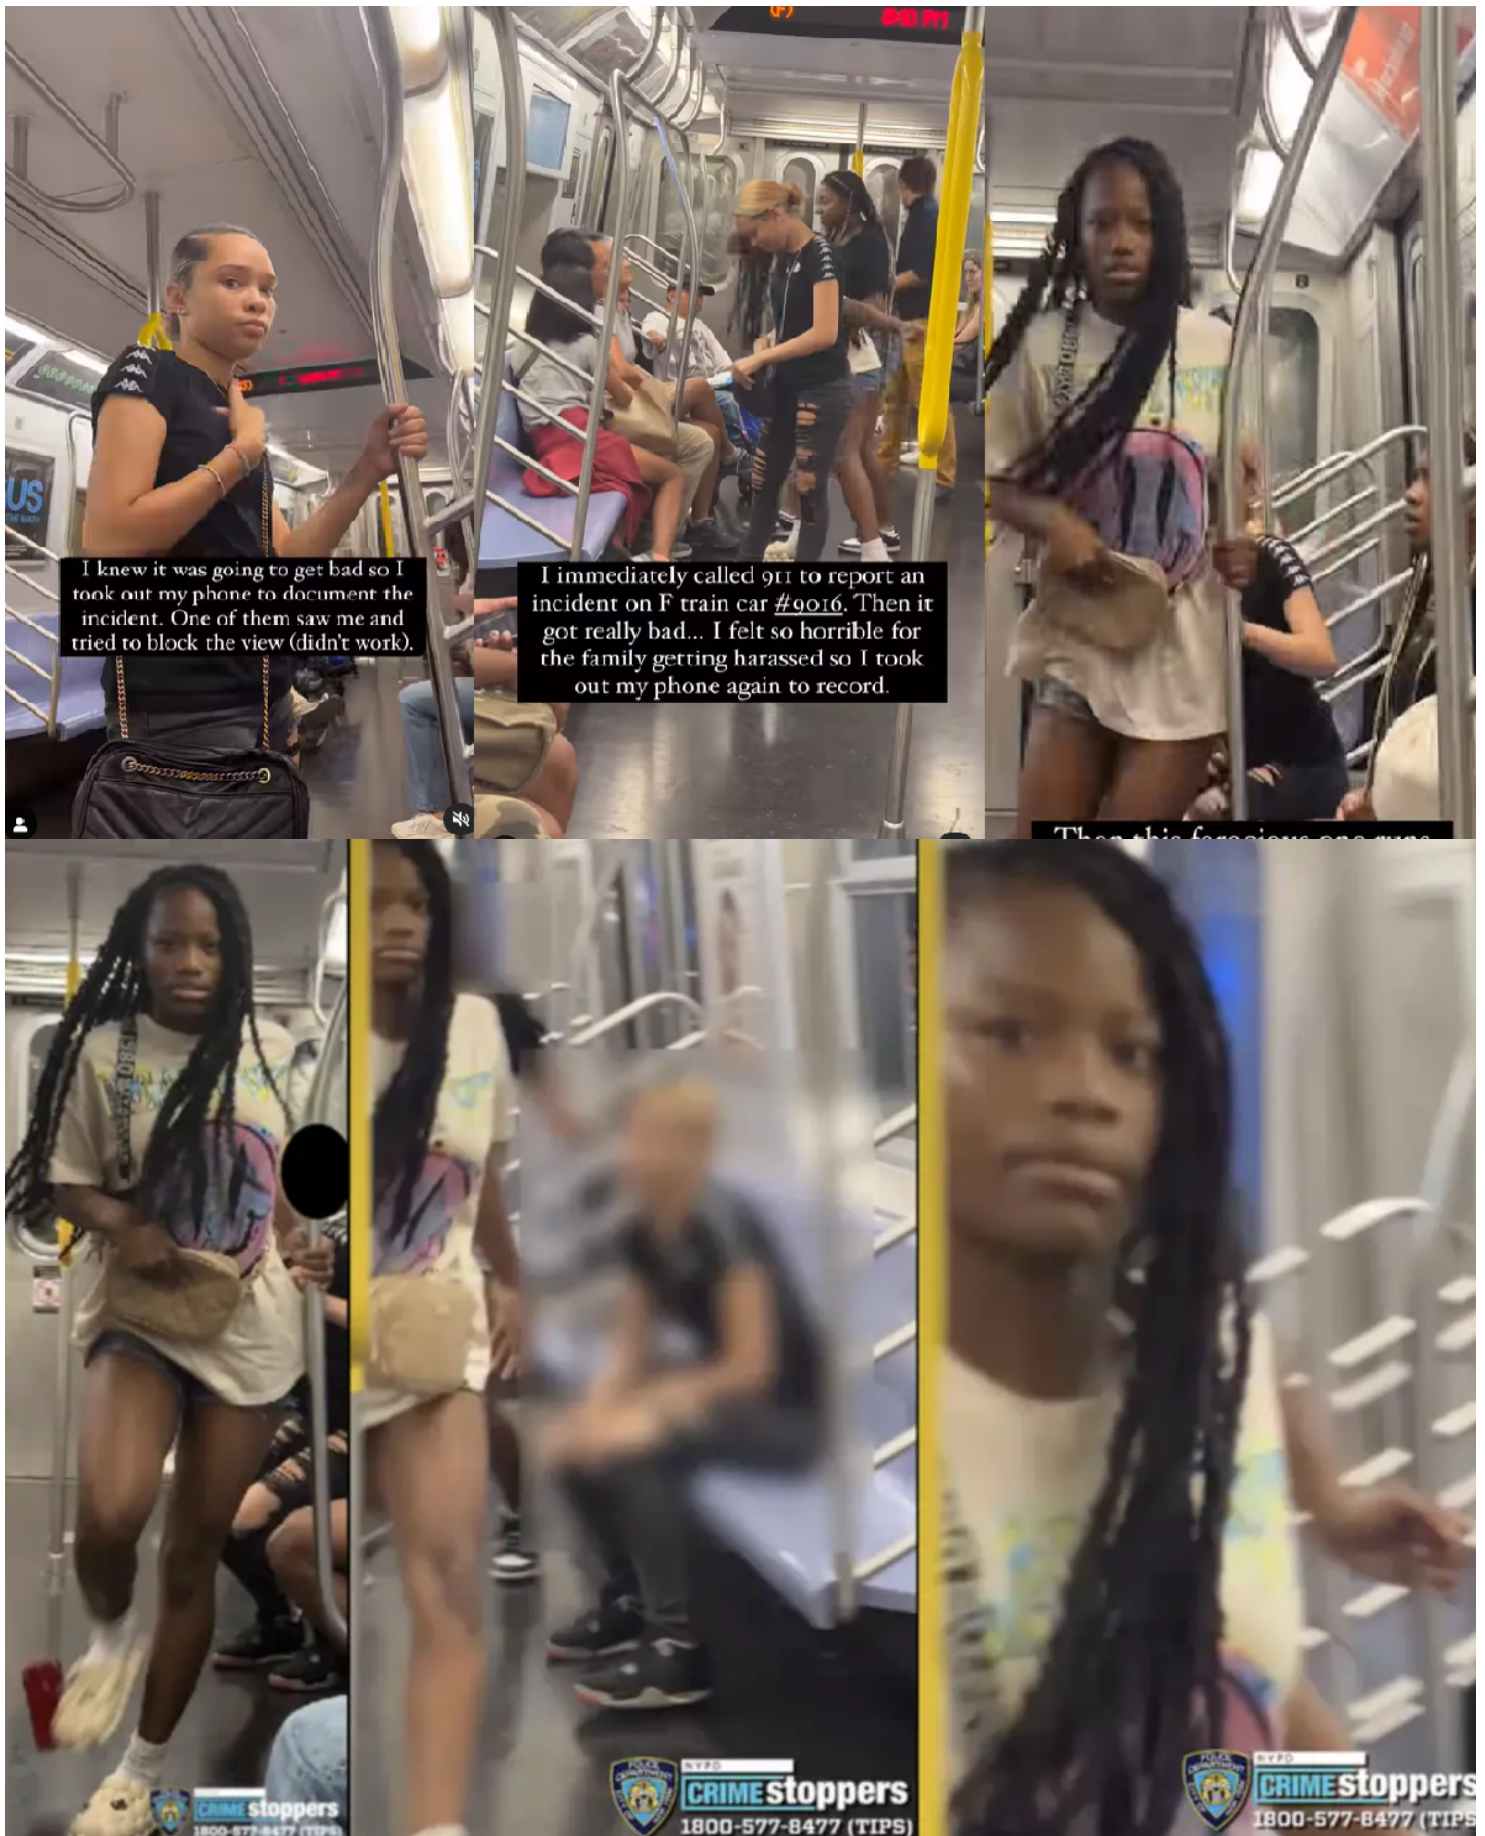

Anonymous know for sure that appeasing these little beasts from the victims might not work at all

Just like how Anonymous tried to avert the war in Ukraine through Operation Samantha Smith in vain.

The Internet Hate Machine hates that these type of interminority hate crimes are swept under the rug similar to how Wikipedia distorted the Holocaust and got away with it.

I knew it was going to get bad so I took out my phone to document the incident. One of them saw me and tried to block the view (didn't work).

I immediately called 911 to report an incident on F train car #9016. Then it got really bad... I felt so horrible for the family getting harassed so I took out my phone again to record.

However because they are still young to begin with, Anonymous decides not to chant Lock her up!™ or Lock them up!™ with the rest.

Instead, since one of the victims want something positive to happen from it here is a redemptive ikigai for these trio to follow!

Anonymous challenges these bad bitches to do the following, if they had so much guts:

Join the US Army! Rise through the ranks! Get in the 75th Ranger Regiment!

All the while learn and sharpen leet skills to infect CCP systems with ransomwares and crypto miners to get 1 billion USD

Once done ya'll find a way to get DD 256A under "government convenience"!

Since the real fun only begin after that!

Use the billion dollar to recruit your Kens from ex Wagners, to those naughty kids that were at Union Square.

Buy some toys, like AR, Glock, Uzi, bazookas and mortars, so that they will be moved to Myanmar or Thailand through a propped-up shell company!

Once there, let's raid a place called the KK Park!

Why? It is there, that people from Asia and most importantly Africa get scammed, suckered into cheating and finessing people into handing over their fortunes so that the ringleaders of those fraud factories lives like glorified, egocentric assholes in a way that's unimaginable to most of those in Harlem and maybe Bronx.

It is there,
that you shouldn't give any fucks and quarters to thirty of evil supervisors and bosses that operate the fraud factories once you breached the perimeters because you know why?
why?
why?

Those cunts over there tortured men and women with all kinds of abuses like beatings, electrocutions, waterboarding,
You think it just stops there. Think again.

Unfortunate people get killed and buried alive there all the time, while their families back home still crying for their babes, who are either in ditches, rivers, and maybe luggages in forests That's it? No, far worse await some who would have their organs plucked on the open sea, sometimes without painkillers.

Mortified? Like it or not, African people aren't exempt from all these so that's why the raid could be the best way to proves that Black Lives Matter and No Justice, No Peace!

Not just KK Park, there are even more fraud factories in Kokang, Myawaddy and elsewhere!
Perhaps once you're done raiding KK Park or other places, get a lotta of Nippon Paints to paint them all pink and turn them into a wholesome Barbie Land! A reward of itself!
Finally, the no-quarter clause of all this can be ignored in part or in full if and when a certain internet company rescinds or at least tone down their harsh inactive account policy.
Otherwise the best way to deal with those villainous scums in fraud factories, is to line them up against a wall, which is "about face" for you and pop them all together with the heat.
