Icelandic sweets

Icelanders' favorite for more than a century!

At Nói Sírius we are extremely proud of our chocolate which is crafted from an old recipe, unaltered since 1933. Ever since it has been a part of Icelanders joyous occasions, large or small. The chocolate is made from ingredients of the highest quality, using a very lengthy traditional production method, resulting in an incredibly smooth taste and silky finish. But don't take our word for it, try for yourself and discover what all the fuzz is about.
