

Construction to Improve Ōimachi Station The Keihin-Tōhoku Line platform will be widened.

JK Keihin-Tōhoku Line

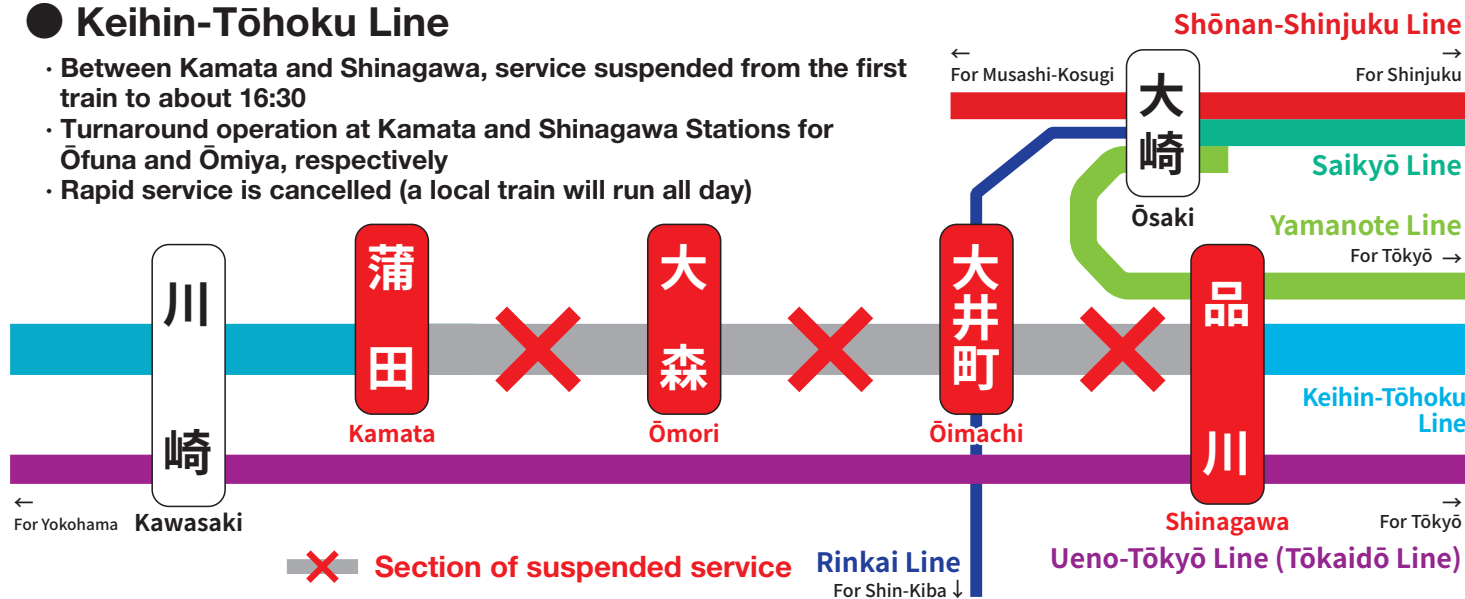

Service suspended between Kamata and Shinagawa stations 2024 Sunday, November 17

From the first train to about 16:30

Train service on the day of construction

● Keihin-Tōhoku Line

- Between Kamata and Shinagawa, service suspended from the first train to about 16:30
- Turnaround operation at Kamata and Shinagawa Stations for Ōfuna and Ōmiya, respectively
- Rapid service is cancelled (a local train will run all day)

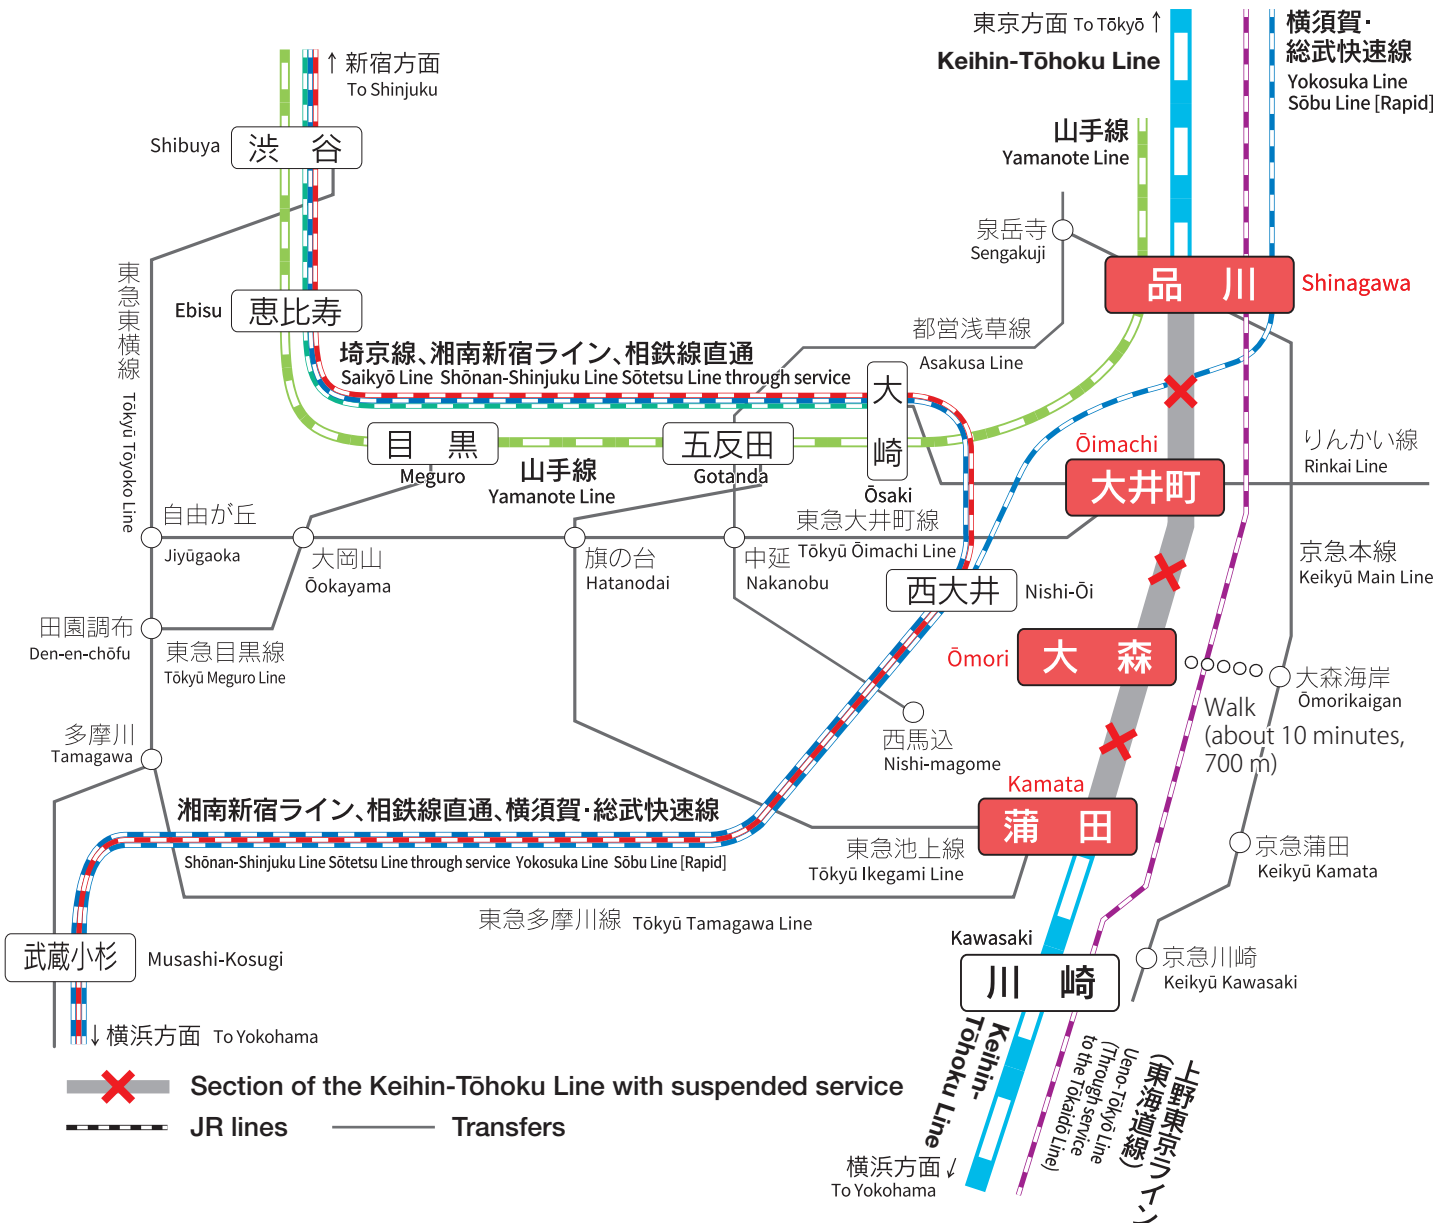

During the construction period, transfer service will be provided to Tōkyū Railways¹, Keikyū Line², and Toei Subway Line³, and the Rinkai Line⁴.

1. Tōkyū Tōyoko Line (between Shibuya and Yokohama), Tōkyū Ōimachi Line (between Ōimachi and Jiyūgaoka), Tōkyū Meguro Line (between Meguro and Hiyoshi), Tōkyū Ikegami Line (the entire line), and the Tōkyū Tamagawa Line (the entire line)
2. Keikyū Main Line (between Sengakuji and Yokohama)
3. Asakusa Line (between Nishi-magome and Shimbashi)
4. The entire line

Please allow plenty of time on the day of construction.

If construction cannot be carried out due to inclement weather or other reasons, it will be postponed to Sunday, December 15. In that case, the service will still be suspended on Sunday, November 17.

Detours

- If you are going to Ōimachi and Ōmori
Please use the transfer service to another train line.
 - If you are going to Kamata Station from the direction of Shinagawa
Please use the Ueno-Tōkyō Line (Tōkaidō Line) for Yokohama to go to Kawasaki Station, then use either the Keihin-Tōhoku Line bound for Kamata* or the transfer service to another train line.
 - If you are going to the direction of Shinagawa from Kamata Station
Please use the Keihin-Tōhoku Line for Yokohama to go to Kawasaki Station, then use either the Ueno-Tōkyō Line (Tōkaidō Line) to Shinagawa* or the transfer service to another train line.
- *This is special service accompanying this construction

- Transfer service will be provided to other railroad companies.
(This service is available to passengers using tickets, commuter passes.)
Tōkyū Tōyoko Line (between Shibuya and Yokohama), Tōkyū Ōimachi Line (between Ōimachi and Jiyūgaoka)
Tōkyū Meguro Line (between Meguro and Hiyoshi), Tōkyū Ikegami Line (the entire line), Tōkyū Tamagawa Line (the entire line), and the Rinkai Line
Keikyū Main Line (between Sengakuji and Yokohama) and Toei Asakusa Line (between Nishi-magome and Shimbashi)

About the use of Suica and PASMO Passengers using IC tickets such as Suica and PASMO, and passengers using Suica or PASMO commuter passes outside the commuter pass section are not eligible for transfer service. A separate fare will be charged for the transit section.

We apologize for the inconvenience and appreciate your cooperation.

