The Rally Tradition Continues...

THE TIME WAS LATE 1981. I was very new to Houston. I did not like the city at first; I was just in Houston because of a job. I felt that the city was a place where concrete and glass were inserted on vacant lots and somehow a community with a history and soul was supposed to somehow grow. And a neighborhood with roots would appear like magic. I did not see this happen.

As early 1982 moved on, I slowly began to get involved in the Gay and Lesbian community. Much of this involvement was a great educational experience. I grew as a person and began to understand what it meant to be a gay person and to have a real family and a community that I could be part of.

It seemed like there was no stopping us. We had a city government who listened to us but who were also a little afraid of our power. The time was pre-AIDS and we were in the fast lane of a city in the fast lane. We could go as far as our imagination could carry us.

The big eye opener was my first Rally at Spotts Park on the corner of Waugh and Memorial. This was a party, a celebration of our community, just watching thousands of gays and lesbians. Even though I did not know very many people, it seemed like I belonged. Watching from the top of the hill, I saw people dancing, people sharing an experience of being proud of who they were. We were a family.

Ten years later I, like so many of us, seem to have gone through a war—a war where we lost so many, a war where the society has changed so much. We lost many battles like the 1985 Referendum and we won a few. And as middle age settles in I still have not lost that vision of hoping the next generation does not have to go through what we had to go through.

I am not a person who likes to look back to the past too often because we sometimes remember only the good and not the bad. My point here is that despite all the bad times and the feelings of loss, my first rally was something I will never forget. Even being at two Marches on Austin and the giant March on Washington, they were nothing like being at the rally because it was there I realized that Houston is my home. For a person new to our community, there is nothing like the experience of a large community gathering—to know that we do exist, that despite our differences, despite our being people of many colors and ideas, we as a people do have some of the same goals.

As for the logistics of the rally, it is a lot of hard work, takes a lot of planning and it costs a lot of money—and we on the Executive Team have to be responsible to the community for spending our limited resources in a fitting way. A

Meeting Minutes

March Pride Meeting

Opening

Jack Valinski called the meeting to order at 7:05 PM. The notice of the March Pride Week Committee meeting was published in the February HL/GPW Newsletter. The agenda was approved as presented. It was moved and seconded that the February General Meeting minutes be approved. Motion carried.

Treasurer's Report — Treasurer Jim Munrow presented the Treasurer's Report. It was noted that the report was unaudited as it had not been balanced against the bank statements as of 3/14/92. It was moved and seconded that the Treasurer's Report be approved as presented. Motion carried. It was suggested that the CD account at Central Bank be rolled-over for another month. The profit from the Pre-Mardi Gras Party was $515.21

Election to Fill Vacancies — The floor was opened for nominations for the position of Secretary due to the resignation of Gloria Silva. Bill Stark was nominated. Nominations for the position of Parade Committee Co-Chair were opened. Daryl McDearman was nominated. Being no further nominations, both Bill Stark and Daryl McDearman were elected to their respective positions by a voice vote.

Committee Reports

Marketing — Brian Keever reported that the T-shirt order has arrived and will be available for sale on Saturday, March 21st. Pride Week buttons will ready by Friday, March 20th. Booths will be set up at the Westheimer Colony Art Festival in front of Mary's and in Austin at Splash Day to sell merchandise. The cost of the various sales items were discussed. After the Westheimer Art Festival there will be permanent places in clubs and businesses to purchase these items. The report was approved.

Pride Guide and Newsletter

— Donn Mumma reported that the next newsletter will be printed on March 28, 1992. February newsletters were printed with a mailing distribution of 2,300.

Jack Valinski reported that a brochure will be ready to help sell advertising for the Pride Guide. The Pride Guide will be approximately 48 pages with a mailing distribution of 5,000 and will cost about $6,500 to print. Advertising sales of about $7,500 are needed to defray costs and will be ready early in June. The deadline for advertising is May 2, 1992. The Calendar of Events has been well received. The reports were approved.

Events — Marla Aizenshtat reported that one event has been received so far. Plans are for posters to be produced to announce Pride Week events. The report was approved.

Outreach/Media — Jaz Pazz reported that the original plans were to purchase printing of 10 junior size two color billboards to be placed around the city free of charge by the Patrick Media Group. Brian Keever moved that instead of printing the junior size, regular size two color billboards be printed for a total of $400 for 10. It was seconded by Chris Doorman. Motion carried. The report was approved.

Parade/Rally — Daryl McDearman reported he had received various quotes for parade insurance. The insurance covers only the parade and rally spectators (not participants) and also protects the city from any liability. Brian Keever moved that we accept the quote from W. M. Jones and Company for one million dollars coverage with a one time premium of $1,679. Jaz Pazz seconded the motion. Motion carried. Daryl also reported that community project takes a lot of planning and money to become a reality. While I have been involved in this committee in some form or another (even times when the powers that be did not want my involvement) I have always tried to speak positively about the ideals of our Pride Celebration.

The rally has never been a money maker. With luck it barely breaks even; in the years that it showed a profit, it was because of donations. And we must question whether these donations could have been used for some of the many other needs of the community.

The history of the rally goes as follows. In the early years, the Gay Political Caucus (now G/LPC) sponsored it. Since it was held in a public park, admission could not be charged. The Caucus relied on donations and offered beer for donations. The expenses were high and the weather could have wiped out GPC financially. The park was not a safe place for our people because parking was in neighborhoods that were not too friendly.

After many years, the rally moved to the Quick Copy parking lot. The sponsorship eventually passed from G/LPC to the Montrose Activity Center. Various attempts were made to make this a money making venture—admission was charged, entertainment was brought in, and food and community booths were tried.

There were incredible sacrifices made by community people both to make this a community success and to raise money for community organizations. Perhaps the hardest working people were Debbie Holmes and Ronnie Diaz. In all my experience in the community, I can't remember anyone who was more organized and hard working to make this event a success.

help is needed from groups to do driving, parade route decorating, and facilitating the water stops along the parade route.

Lady Victoria Lust reported that a parade budget will be ready for the next general meeting; trophies will be given this year for bars which decorate their businesses. The judging will be done the Saturday before Pride Week begins. Judges will need to be chosen.

Daryl McDearman moved to spend $400 for the rental of convertibles from Advantage Rent-a-Car. Deborah Bell seconded; carried. Carol Clark reported that M and M Parking, the owners of the parking lot next to Mary's, have agreed to rent the lot for the Rally. Lady Victoria Lust moved that the Pride Week Committee host an after parade rally with a tentative budget of $500 for the rental of the lot, stage, and decorating costs. Paz Jazz seconded the motion; carried. Additional plans are to possibly rent booths, have entertainment, and sell sodas. A permit will be investigated to close Westheimer around Mary's for the Rally. The report was approved.

Fundraising — Dean Walradt reported that the Garage Sale at Heaven's will be held on Saturday, March 21st. Information about this has been announced in the Voice and TWT. This will be held in conjunction with other groups who will donate 10% of their proceeds to the Pride Week Committee. The Beach Party is planned for Sunday, April 26th in the afternoon. On May 10th a "What's It Worth" Auction is planned at the BRB from 4-7PM. Several artists have already donated for the auction. Volunteers are needed. The report was approved.

New Business — A fundraising letter has been sent to 50 corporations asking for help with Pride Week activities. Distributors for both Budweiser and Miller beer will donate $3,500 each for the Pride Week parade. Gary Grant of Allied Packaging has donated a copy machine to the Pride Week Committee. Nominations for Grand Marshalls were received to be chosen at the next General Meeting. The following were nominated for Grand Marshall: Brian Keever and Sherri Cohen Darbonne; and for Honorary Grand Marshall: Chuck Patrick and Cara Lawrence, Craig Dean and Patrick Gill.

Adjournment — Following announcements it was moved, seconded, and carried at 8:35 PM that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted, William Stark, Recording Secretary. λ

News from the Q-Patrol

Charles Armstrong Investments presents a refreshing offer to Q-Patrol foot patrol!

Foot Patrol members have been enjoying free coffee and soft drinks during their nightly break, at the Santa Fe patio bar. These free refreshments have been made available by Mr. Charles Armstrong of Charles Armstrong Investments. "Not only is it nice that the refreshments are free, but it also allows us to stay in the heart of the neighborhood during our break", said foot patrol leader Gary Grant. "We used to take our break at the Stop 'N Go on Westheimer and Montrose, but this new offer from Mr. Armstrong gives us the opportunity to rub elbows with some of our friends for a few minutes. On more than one occasion, people have advised us of cars to be on the lookout for" said Grant. All of the members of the Q-Patrol wish to thank Charles Armstrong and manager Frank Cappo, and all of the staff at Charles Armstrong Investments for their generosity!

Patrol Members to learn First Aid and CPR

Q-Patrol members will be given the opportunity to learn how to administer basic First Aid, and also how to administer CPR. Training for these two new programs is scheduled to begin in April.

We will purchase a "Class-A, Medical Emergency" First Aid kit, when our funds allow for the purchase. These two programs will offer yet another way that Q-Patrol can serve our own community in a positive way.

WE NEED VOLUNTEERS!

We are still looking for more volunteers for our program. If you can give FOUR HOURS of your time PER MONTH, then we need you for our program! We require that our volunteers sign a rules compliance agreement and release of liability form, and we require that volunteers wear a Q-Patrol tee shirt. The cost of the tee-shirt is $7.00 for volunteers, or $12 for non-volunteers. If volunteers find the cost of the shirt to be prohibitive, a tee-shirt will be given to the volunteer for whatever cost is affordable. If you would like to sign up for a shift with the Q-Patrol, call Keith Stewart at 524-5110 after 6PM. All volunteers MUST start out on the foot patrol program. You will be eligible for mobile after completing the 2-hour HPD Citizens On Patrol training session, offered every other month.

Q-Patrol will speak to your group!

We now have a 15-minute presentation about Q-Patrol that we would be happy to present to your club or group. For information, call Mark Gartner at 645-5252.

Donations are ALWAYS Appreciated!

The Q-Patrol is made up of all volunteers, but we DO still have some expenses, such as printing, advertising, office supplies, postage, tee-shirts, etc. If you (or your club or organization) would like to make a contribution to the Q-Patrol, here's how to do it. Just make a check payable to Q-Patrol, and send it to:

Rally Continues

In 1990, the rally was moved to the Metropolitan Multi-Purpose Center on West Gray. It was a very big-scale event called StarNight. There were many community groups represented with booths, food was available, entertainment was provided, and even carnival rides were available. I had a wonderful time and thought this was a great event.

In 1991, the Montrose Activity Center moved StarNight back to the Quick Copy parking lot to make it more accessible to the community.

This year, the after-parade event is under the HL/GPW committee. We realize that many people want to get out of the heat and head into their favorite bar or club. There is also a need for some of us to celebrate our community at an community event where we can be a family.

After working on the dilemma of trying to provide a community event that would be open to everyone who would like to participate and to keep the cost low so as not to invest a lot of community money, we come up with the following.

We will rent the parking lot next to Mary's. The event will be called the PRIDE RALLY...NATURAL RALLY. Mary's will help us out by being the anchor business. We will rent a stage and open up as much of the area to community and business organizations as possible on a first-come basis. The charges will be $25 for community organizations and $50 to businesses. Any vendor who would like to provide food must obtain a food permit on their own. No business will be allowed to sell alcoholic beverages except Mary's if they so choose.

The Rally will be open from 3:00 PM. Anyone with a booth must be set up by 2:30 PM. A booth does not need to be open after the parade but must be set up and staffed for your own security at all times. Some entertainment will take place during the day and music will be playing all day except during the parade. The main events will take place once the parade ends and will last about one hour to one hour and thirty minutes after the parade.

The event is scaled down from years past for a few reasons. We do not want to charge for the event. We want to conserve the funds raised during the year to promote PRIDE all year long. We do not have the people power to do this on a much larger scale. If this event is successful this year we will try to work on making it better next year.

We are very interested in community response to our ideas. All of our meetings are open to everyone. We have a business telephone line on which you can respond at 529-6979. λ

Houston Lesbian & Gay Pride Week 1992

NEWS

A Committee of the Montrose Activity Center ▼ volume 3, number 5 ▼ may 1992

1992 Grand Marshals Chosen

AS THE FINAL DAYS OF preparation for 1992 Pride Week festivities begin, the membership has chosen the Grand Marshals for the 1992 Pride Parade.

In the past, the Grand Marshals have typically been lesbian or gay persons honored for their contributions to the community and Honorary Grand Marshals have been persons not necessarily from our community who have given of themselves in some significant way.

This year, however, the Pride Week membership has bestowed the Honorary Grand Marshal position upon an organization, the Gay/Lesbian Switchboard of Houston. The Switchboard has spent a decade serving as a clearinghouse for information about our community, its people, our organizations and their events. The Switchboard is many persons' first contact with the gay/lesbian community upon arriving in Houston. Today, the Switchboard offers a calendar of events, AIDS/STD information, telephone counseling, crisis intervention, bar referrals, merchant information, and medical and legal referrals.

The Committee named Brian Keever and Sherri Cohen Darbonne as 1992 Grand Marshals.

Keever, office manager of This Week in Texas, has been a familiar face in numerous organizations over the years. He is currently the Marketing Director on the Pride Week Executive Committee, a long-time board member of the Houston Gay and Lesbian Political Caucus, and is active with the National Leather Association. He served on the Montrose Activity Center board, and has been active with the NAMES Project, along with numerous other organizations, and political and community fundraising events.

Darbonne has been the editor of The New Voice since 1989. She was president of the first gay U of H organization, the Gay Activists Alliance in 1975-6, co-organizer of Houston's first Gay Pride March in 1976, and was on the planning committee for Town Meeting I in 1978. Her work has appeared in numerous local and national gay and lesbian publications.

Members attending the April 21 meeting also decided to present a special Founder's Award this year to former Houstonian Larry Bagneris. Bagneris was president of the Gay Political Caucus (as it was known then); it was also under his leadership that Pride Week and the Parade grew into their current form and structure. He has since moved back to his native New Orleans, where he has run for two mainstream political offices. λ
