stuff i thought up!

Character Design

a collection of designs old and new that showcase my love for designing characters!

The Apple Mage

Concept character art for a game in progress about a young red delicious apple named Red, who tries to save the world from crumbling around her.

Lupe, a teenaged werewolf girl, navigates what it means to be a werewolf with her supernatural pals.

Still a work in progress, exploring the character dynamics between three very similar but very different teens has been a fun challenge for me!

Toni

Concept for a comic, "Toni's Job is Killing Her" about a retrofuturistic 2077 where technology improved but never evolved aesthetically. She's an undercover agent trying to find out why workers at Modcorp keep turning into office supplies. Like, whats the deal with that?

Etc.
