THE REVOLT OF THE TWILIGHT MEN

From out of the dark corners and lonely side streets they come, limp wrists swaying in the breeze... the Lavender Lads on parade! Like a sickening deadly cancer, they are boring from within. Their pressure groups are trying to force changes in the law - in their favor. Worse yet, for every one you see in the open, there are two or more in hiding! These camouflaged fags are everywhere, in offices and filling stations, in drugstores and restaurants... yet in most cases you can't recognize their true colors (lavender and lilac) unless you know the signs. Don't say it can't happen here - IT IS! The Queer Revolution is insidiously taking over the country!

BY CLEM CARTER

"TWILIGHT MEN".

Maybe once upon a time the Bird Men of America would flit around only in the shadows, or when the sun went down. But times have certainly changed!

North, East, West, South... visit practically any city, hamlet, countryside or farm. You'll no longer have to wait till twilight to see the Gay Boys rise and shine.

Take El Paso, Texas, at high noon. You'll see pansies sprouting right out in the noonday sun around "Alligator Plaza." There's that blonde beaut, for example—his long, carefully waved hair brushed back to hang thickly on his neck. He's a "Mary," a real girly-boy type—the passive partner in a man-to-man sex session.

Blondie's talking to a dark-haired pat of Mex-Indian blood, tall, wide shoulders tapering to slim hips, darkly handsome even with those sloppy-looking lips common to so many queer fruits.

Blondie keeps one limp wrist on hip, while his other

Exclusive candid shots, taken in Manhattan, show teenage homosexual being picked up by other fags as fruity as himself. Such brazen exhibitions of abnormal sexual behavior are no longer done in the shadows only, but often right out on Main Streets in broad daylight!

swishes through the air, patting his hair, smoothing out an imaginary wrinkle in his skin-tight "saddle pants," as he lisps about how wonderful—"Oooo, my goodneth!"—his girlfriend made love to him the night before. (His girlfriend's name is Bob. Not surprisingly, that's also the name of the fag he's flitting with.)

But Bob is barely listening to this gushing hymn to his hormones. He's met a man with money—and a hankering to be "sent" by male. And he's figuring how much he can milk the sucker for after he's left Blondie with him for the afternoon. For Bob is a pimp, with a stable of male prostitutes . . .

Whether it's El Paso at high noon, Main Street, Los Angeles, in the still of the evening, or the corner of 42nd St. and 8th Ave., Manhattan, any hour of the night or day . . . whether it's sunny, raining snowing, or 20° below freezing on a bitter, dark night—anytime, anywhere, you'll find male prosties multiplying like mad.

In Miami, Chicago, New Orleans, Kansas City—even Peoria—swishy streetwalkers smile at you from benches, or "knuckle" up to you when you stop to look into a store window. In most cities today, it's easier to pick up a boy than a girl . . .

But the amazing mushrooming of male prosties is just one part of this real-life Fairy tale. Countless other types of homos are also increasing by leaps and bounds, making it plain that—unless something is done, quickly, to stem this flood of fags—the nation will soon be one huge, writhing, nauseating snake pit of swishes.

There are all those chorus boys, for example, who come prancing out on your TV screen—most of them every bit as fruity as they look and act.

Then, too, there are innumerable beatnik beehives, from Venice, California, to Greenwich Village, New York—areas where you just don't make the scene, Man, till you've gone beddy-bye between the bedsheets with a whoopsie of your own. If he's colored and you're white, or VICE-versa—then, you're really flying!

Colleges, also, are veritable hotbeds of homosexuality. As are any other institutions where males, young or old, find themselves thrown together with time on their hands and their hormones hopping like mad. Military schools, prisons, boarding schools, camps—all turn out homos so fast you couldn't keep up with them!

Add to this crummy collection of coots all the frustrated married men who are dying to get their itchy hands on male sex partners, but are afraid to make advances. Add, also, at least nine-tenths of all those bar bell boys who love to pose with grease on their rippling muscles almost as much as they love to rub the stuff on one another.

Put them all together and you've got about 12,000,000 homos running loose in the United States!

What's more, the number's climbing faster than a rocket headed for the moon! (And if this queer set-up is allowed to get much worse, the moon's where you'll want to be!)

Formerly, officials estimated that about - in every 100 men in our armed forces were homos. Today the consensus is that it's closer to 1 in 25—and many officials hold that the true figure is even more scandalous.

According to a recent survey, there are close to a million homos in New York City alone. And the number rises daily.

"The increase in homosexuality is alarming," a Los Angeles vice squad official said. "At least 75% of the venereal patients treated in our clinics last year were homos—and that's almost double the number treated in all the previous three years put together!"

The limp wrists are on the march, mincing along together, multiplying like pansies in a hot house—while normal people simple stand by, slightly embarrassed, afraid of being called "narrowminded" if they object to the fact that they're gradually being swamped by an ocean of swishes!

What's behind this incredible increase in queers?

Many things, such as lowered moral standards, decline of the family, extra leisure, etc. have done their share in promoting this population explosion in male inverts. But probably the biggest factor of all is one undreamed of by the general public.

It concerns one of the biggest brainwashing jobs over tried on any nation of people. On you, and I, and anybody else who still thinks the opposite sex is something to sing about, while a swish simply makes you sick to your stomach.

The Ivy League Lulus of Advertising Alley like to take of "hidden persuaders"—little gimmicks you don't even know are there—that can nudge a whole nation into buying a product it doesn't really want. And the astronomical increase in swishes in recent years is largely due to similar "hidden persuaders" fostered upon an unwary public by highly organized offbeats who won't stop twitching till every man and boy in the land is a queer as a three-dollar bill.

In books, magazines, movies, stage plays and TV shows, the public has been bombarded with homosexual themes—and with their eternal, sickening pleas of "Please try to understand us!"

There's hardly a plot produced these days without at least one limp wrist lurking in the background. Sometimes even the hero turns out to be a homo—and then you've got a queer one for sure (Continued on page 59) wedding night.

Charles Trenet, famed French singer, was recently jailed for seducing teenage boys into joining his homosexual orgies. Even in France, sick sex has its limitations.

Italian authorities were thrown into confusion over the matter. There is no Italian law that says a man can sell his wife, but there's no law that says he can't sell her, either. Furthermore, since the marriage was unconsummated by congunzione carnale (i.e., sexual union), it is entirely possible that the Catholic Church will grant an annulment—which would mean that Sandra would be free to marry Roberto whenever she felt like it.

It remains to be seen if the law will permit the strange transaction to be consummated by the marriage of Roberto and Sandra.

But for the Bride's part, she's ready, willing and eager. Soured on Fulvio by his callous desertion of her, and moved by Roberto's long-smouldering secret love, she has already accepted his proposal. In other words, she wants to marry him as soon as she can . . . if and when authorities give them the green light!

REVOLT OF THE TWILIGHT MEN

What the general public doesn't know is that many of these propaganda pieces for promoting perversion are written by homos, themselves—often under fake names.

Many magazine articles that exhort the public to be kind to the poor dear pansies that are spreading like crazy from sea to shinning sea—articles that make you feel guilty for thinking there was something rotten about two men going to bed together, when you should have known they are simply "sick," or "different" and "misunderstood"—many of these articles, as well as certain books in the same vein, are written by "men" who are strictly for the birds.

If the insidious, highly aggressive campaign being waged by homo pressure groups—to make man-to-man sex acts just as acceptable in our society as the old-fashioned man-woman variety—is so effective that it's making our female population tolerate their instinctive enemies, and thus flirt with biological suicide, then it's high time those pressure groups were brought out into the open and shown up for the sickly, obscene freaks they really are!

Modern-day fags are often fools—consummate masters at the art of pos-

You Can Still Make 1964 Your Year With a PROFITABLE MAIL ORDER BUSINESS OF YOUR OWN!

Revolutionary New Plan Shows How A Few Get Rich—While Thousands Lose Their Shirts! Yours FREE For Sending Coupon Below!

THERE probably isn't another field that offers the explosive, money making opportunities as those that can be found in mail order. Here is where it is not only entirely possible to make a near fortune overnight but a new crop of mail order "millionaires" is being born almost daily. Will you be next? Not unless you know what you are doing . . . not unless you have the proper guidance. Now you can get that guidance from the RESPONSE! plan which has been formulated to give you the assistance that every mail order beginner has always looked for! Now you can forge ahead on the road to Fortune and Fame!

RESPONSE! is a recognized advertising agency. We currently place mail order ads for a wide variety of clients. Through our RESPONSE! plan, we bring together the manufacturer and the small capital mail order beginner who wants to get started fast. Our clients develop successful mail order items, then test them in publication advertising. Then—and only after an exhaustive test has proven them profitable do we offer these very same items and the very same ads to our participating members. RESPONSE! operates in a uniquely personal way. In addition to showing you in plain, simple, easy-to-understand language the ads that PAY OUT, we show you Step-By-Step the techniques that are used to make each ad the winner it is—why it leads to tremendous sales.

HERE'S HOW YOU FIT IN

Once we have developed a successful product and ad, you come into the picture as the real profit maker. We run the proven, tested ad for you in national circulation magazines and newspapers with your name and address (and yours alone) in the ad. The orders go directly to you. You have the prestige of establishing your name on a national basis. And, you get the same kind of good results that are received by hundreds of other successful mail order concerns whose names are well known 'n virtually every household in America. Yes, your name appears in the coupon of every ad!

MAIL ORDER—As the Professionals DO IT

Don't confuse the RESPONSE! mail order system with so called "mail order" catalog deals. By advertising in national magazines, you reach prospects at a cost of around $1.50 per thousand. In a catalog deal, it costs you from $70 to $100 to reach a thousand people. The postage alone for a mailing of 1,000 catalogs would cost you $30 or more. What a difference! No wonder so many smart, experienced mail order operators use national magazines.

You Are Helped to Succeed on an Individual Basis

RESPONSE! guides you to the publications that are best suited for each advertisement. Each suggestion will be made with your particular needs and wishes in mind. We help you as you go along, advising you fully all the way so that You Feel Secure About Your Mail Order Business Right From The Very Beginning. We here at RESPONSE! have a sympathetic understanding of the beginners' needs and problems—we went through the same thing many years ago and learned in the school of hard knocks. Now we stand ready to help you!

HOW MUCH CAN YOU MAKE?

I want to say this right now. I will not promise that you will make a fantastic profit. Mail order is a gamble and anyone who PROMISES you that you are going to make huge profits is pulling your leg, but good! The RESPONSE! plan is a sensibly practical plan that has been fully tested and has been proven profitable and will get you started fast. And, I will say that our plan gives you the most practical, the most logical and the most highly regarded offer that has ever been offered to mail order people. Now, read for yourself what some of our participating members have to say about the RESPONSE! plan:

"May we take this opportunity to say that we have been in mail order selling now for over 30 years, but never have we had a product or service that has paid us the excellent return that RESPONSE! cooperation has afforded us. We would further qualify the "return" from good to exceptional; we are still receiving orders from advertisements you placed in June magazines. We commend you for the well developed offers, and your judgment in placing the advertisements properly."—R. Payson, New Jersey.

"I have begun my mail order activities six months ago with your offer No. 69, the returns from which have been quite satisfactory. Other mail order activities undertaken on my own through advertising agents have not succeeded as well. I am well pleased with your guidance and anticipate a long and fruitful association with your firm."—C.B., Elmhurst, New York.

START SMALL—GROW BIG

Many of our members have started with as little as $17.50 for an ad in a national magazine. One mail order man started with only $42.00 and now does business in the millions. (He has even been written up in a national magazine.) The amount of money you invest to start is relatively unimportant. The important thing to bear in mind is that you are going into the mail order business the way the real professionals do it—space advertisements in national magazines. And, you will be going into these magazines with pre-tested profitable items and pre-tested profitable ads. The RESPONSE! plan virtually propels you into the same position it took others years to attain.

Why is This Offer Being Made if it is so Good?

Many of our clients do not have the available cash on hand to advertise in every good magazine that they would want to reach. They feel that it is urgent that they get fast coverage before competitors develop similar items. To get this fast coverage, they are willing to share their profits with other small mail order operators. To make sure you really "share the profits", every order from your ad goes to you. YOU TAKE THE GIANT SHARE OF THE PROFITS—from 50% to 62½% of the money received. You don't even have to ship or stock a single piece of merchandise. This is done for you by the manufacturer. You don't even have to buy a shipping label—these are supplied to you free of charge. You don't have to pay for the preparation of an ad. This is done for you by our advertising agency (we have had years of experience in mail order and our copy writers are experts).

SOME MORE ABOUT RESPONSE!

Our firm is small. There is a good chance that we will always remain small. One of the reasons for this is that we believe in giving our participating members personal attention. Secretaries and clerks do not handle your account. The mail order executives of RESPONSE! handle all details and personally back you up with years of experience and practical "know-how". Our plan is not a "get-rich-quick" scheme for either you or us. We make money only when our members make money. So, that is why we give every member our personal attention and help them in every way possible. However, we are well established in the mail order methods necessary for success. We know what we are doing when it comes to mail order. And, whether you are a beginner; whether you have tried mail order before and lost money at it or whether you are now a successful mail order operator, the RESPONSE! plan can make your postman work for YOU.

HERE'S HOW TO GET STARTED

Space does not permit us to go into all the details about our company, the type of items you will be offered and many other interesting, easy-to-understand facts about our plan. Our Free, Confidential Mail Order Profit Letter contains all the information—and answers to all the questions you may have. I sincerely suggest that you fill out the coupon, paste it on a post card or put it in an envelope and send it off to us. There is no charge or obligation involved. ing and passing as 100% masculine males. Even Governments and crack intelligence bureaus are often—all too often, according to the record—taken in and completely bamboozled by homosexuals who play the he-man bit to the hilt.

Take Great Britain for example. The British have their vaunted Scotland Yard and their famed MI-5 intelligence service. British hawkshaws have been noted for their ability and efficiency ever since the days of the fictional Sherlock Holmes.

But when it comes to spotting homosexuals?

Scotland Yard and MI-5 fall flat on their faces.

There was, for instance, the case of Guy Burgess and Donald MacLean.
These two characters held high-level, top security-classification jobs in the British Foreign Service. They were trusted diplomats who had access to their country's most priceless secrets for many years.

Both Burgess and MacLean were entirely manly looking men. Donald MacLean was married—to an American girl, by the way—and had three children.

Notwithstanding all the apparent evidence to the contrary, Guy Burgess and Donald MacLean were as limp-wristed as any two humming-bird who ever flitted through a Greenwich Village fag-fest.

What was more, these two butterflies were also traitors who spied for Russia and sold British secrets to the Reds.
When, at long last, British intelligence finally caught on to the true state of affairs, yet another prancer—another unsuspected traitorous nance in the diplomatic service named Harold A. R.
Philby—tipped them off. Burgess and MacLean fled behind the Iron Curtain where, presumably, they found a sort of homosexual's paradise together.

Even more recently, Britain was rocked by another swish-spy scandal,
this one involving an Admiralty (British Navy Department) official named William J. C. Vassall. This prancer had also been a Russian spy for many, many years. And, for even more years, he had been a howling homosexual — during his off-duty hours. No one in the Admiralty—or in the British secret services—guessed that Vassall was a queen who frequently dressed himself in women's underwear and dresses and had himself a ball with the other boys.

However, lest anyone think that our British cousins are the only ones who have blindspots when it comes to recognizing swishes in the government service, let us not forget that Uncle Sam has made the same mistake. William Martin and Bernon Mitchell were two characters who held hush-hush jobs—even though they were both straight frutcakes and spying for the Soviet Union besides. When the CIA and other security agencies finally wised up, Martin and Mitchell did a Burgess and MacLean and skipped, hand-in-hand, over to the Reds.

Sad to say, it's not easy to spot a homo when he's the type of homo who doesn't want to be spotted. One of the main troubles, of course, is that the vast majority of people don't really know enough about homosexuals and what makes them tick to be able to recognize the danzer signs.

Actually, the average person does not even realize that there are two major and distinct categories of male homosexuals—the obvious and the concealed, or camouflaged, varieties.

The obvious type of homosexual can be identified instantly. This is the yowling, high-stepping prancer who lisps and wiggles his hips—who just loves to have people know he's a fag
and, in case there may be any doubt, wears rouge on his cheeks and sprinkles razzledust in his hair.

Humming birds in this category make no bones about their sexual aberration. They're proud of it. They flaunt it at every opportunity. These characters are easily recognizable—in fact, it would take a deaf, dumb and blind person to miss them. But, while they are obvious, they are also in the minority.

The majority of homosexuals are constantly on their guard to prevent anyone from guessing the truth about their androgynous tendencies. They do their damndest to appear and act like normal men. They're often muscular and athletic. They frequently go out with girls—and even get married and beget children.

But beneath their rugged tweeds and mannish suntans, there beat the hot little hearts of full-blown homosexuals. These are the homos who present a problem—and, in so many instances, a menace. Passing as heterosexual males, they get themselves responsible jobs in business, industry, Government — in practically every field of endeavor.

Once the camouflaged homosexual has gotten himself a snug bearth, he starts easing others of his ilk into the office, firm or government bureau. Before long, most of the "straight" male employees are out on their ears—and the camouflaged fags have taken over.

This is no imaginative conjecture.
The existence of homosexual secret societies whose members are sworn to do just such things is a proven fact.

Not long ago, two prominent sociologists—Dr. Maurice Leznoff of the University of Chicago and Dr. William Westley of McGill University—made an extensive study of the “secret homosexual community” in the United States and Canada.

Drs. Leznoff and Westley proved the existence of countless secret homosexual cliques—small local groups that kept fairly close touch with each other. The two sociologists even learned that these cliques publish “directories” listing names of secret homos—for use only by other camouflaged queers. In one instance, Leznoff and Westley ran across a directory that listed a total of over 3,000 names!

These directories come in handy whenever a camouflaged fruitcake has managed to work his way into a responsible position and wants to hire some of his own kind. And most secret fags are sworn to give each other a hand.

“We’re above the common herd,” they say. “We’re very special people—and one of these days we’ll be running things throughout the country. Homosexuality is the coming thing—and we have to remain ‘camouflaged’ only until we have enough of our own kind in key positions...”

GUSHING GUYS

No wonder it's tough to spot camouflaged homos. Facts and figures show they're all around. The woods are full of them—and their numbers seem to be growing constantly.

To realize this, one needs only to visit the notorious homosexual centers in such cities as New York, New Orleans, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Each one of these cities has scores of clubs and cabarets which cater almost exclusively to swishes and serve as their headquarters and meeting-place.

There are entire homosexual colonies in such places as New York's Fire Island, Provincetown and Nantucket in Massachusetts and on Southern California's Santa Catalina Island.

But this is only a very small part of the story. For every obvious and openly homosexual male who is likely to congregate in known homohavens, there are many camouflaged queers who give outward indication of being “straight.” As a matter of fact, the queers who flaunt their homosexuality help the “secret” variety maintain their protective collaboration. The whiggling, prancing feminine-type fags divert public attention, causing the average exactly the same status and benefits and responsibilities as heterosexual marriages.

4) A homo married couple should be permitted to adopt children if the couple can meet the usual standards applied to heterosexual couples. (Man, what a field day schoolmates will have teasing a kid who's been adopted by a father and mother who are both men!)

5) Bans on realistic representations of homo life in films, on TV and elsewhere should be eliminated.

6) Homosexual love and marriage should be fully recognized by the churches.

7) Homos should be permitted to wear the clothing appropriate to their natures, just as heterosexuals are permitted to wear the clothing appropriate to theirs. Decisions on such matters as the use of makeup, perfume, certain hair styles, etc. should rest entirely with individuals, and society should not attempt to impose any arbitrary conformity in these matters.

8) The homo press should enjoy a freedom fully equal to that enjoyed by the heterosexual press. If magazines for heterosexual males are permitted to feature female pinup photos, then magazines for homos should be permitted to feature male pinup photos. If heterosexual "penpal" or "lonely hearts" clubs exist and advertise in heterosexual magazines, then similar homo clubs should be permitted to exist and advertise in the homo periodicals.

9) Homos should have the same freedom to make romantic or sexual advances and overtures to persons they find attractive as have heterosexuals...

Well-how do you like that for a Brave New World? Something to look forward to? To build for? Perhaps even to fight an atomic war for?

Don't get the idea that Queerdom is something that'll just go away if you ignore it. It's being ignored by too many too much already. Far from going away, it's reaching uncontrollable proportions.

And don't think it will be satisfied to simply exist by itself—off to one side sort of, not affecting normal humans in the least.

You read the Bill of Rights. These homos want to be accepted in everything, everywhere. And they're getting more aggressive about it every day. Don't be surprised if you begin seeing groups of them—sort of Freedom Riders of Fagville—going around challenging respectable places to put out some creepy looking guy just because he's dressed in girl's clothes, has a grotesquely made-up face and the mannerisms of the juiciest fruit you've ever set eyes on!

Since practically everything written about homos these days is in their favor—we're passing through a phase where even juvenile switch-knife killers aren't "bad" anymore, they're just the unfortunate victims of circumstances—it's difficult for the average person not to be affected by all this propaganda for perversion.

Homos are being pressured into fighting back anytime the law closes in on them, rather than submit meekly. And they're making considerable progress, too. They've got cops from coast-to-coast afraid to make arrests, because of the trouble that might be involved if the fag puts up a fight in court.

In California not long ago, a judge made one of those decisions that can suddenly assume far-reaching proportions. He ruled that, in effect, taverns can not have their licenses revoked or suspended, or be subjected to unusual harassment by police, simply because their clientele consists mainly of queers.

If this ruling—which homos have been fighting tooth-and-nail for—establishes a nationwide precedent, it will deprive cops of one of their strongest weapons for keeping the queers under control.

TWISTED SEX

Even more shattering could be the ruling handed down by a judge in Washington, D.C.—who held that homosexual hanky-panky between consenting adults in private are not illegal...

Homos everywhere had victory celebrations that night!

There's even a "Homosexual Voters Advisory Service," with headquarters in Denver, Colorado, which devotes its energies to seeking "Homosexual Law Reform" for America's millions of male queens. At present this outfit is busy sending thousands of letters to "Dear Employers" throughout the nation, urging them not to discriminate against a job seeker simply because he might be sexually homogenized. And from the number of fags that are popping up in all kinds of jobs, from department stores to gas stations and factories, it would seem this campaign is letting a lot more whoopsies get a limp wrist in the door than you might imagine.

If the Queer Set keeps multiplying at the rate it's been doing for the past few years, soon there might be no way at all of putting the heat on the homos.

Except, of course, the way it was done a long time ago—in a couple of cities named Sodom and Gomorrah.
