Houston Cruise Circuit Closed

by Mel Plummer

For many months past, the Montrose Citizens Association has worked in vain trying to get the Gay community to move their Gay community to move their cruise route to another location. Working with the Gay Political Caucus, the Metropolitan Comm-unity Church, and other local or-ganizations, the MCA (Montrose Citizens Association) even mapped cut a new cruise route and handed out a new cruise route and handed out circulars on weekends trying to congince Gays to move the route themselves. The main complaint from citizens in the Montrose area was they they wanted their streets back they they wanted their streets back after dark. It seemed that the cruising area was heavily infil-trated with cars and walking ped-estrians from dusk until dawn. Some mornings at 2 a. m. the cruise route had a definite resem-blance to rush hour on the Gulf Freeway. This in turn created Freeway. This in turn created excessive noise, honking of horns, excessive noise, honking of horns, and excessive pedestrian traffic during all hours of the night. After failing to convince Gays to move by handing out mapped circulars, the MCA then went so far as to barracade the streets at night. This they said was done "with the cooperation of the Mayors office", but of course illegal action without proper per-mits from the City Council and without police supervision. This they stated was their last stand before police harassment would begin to all those who frequented the infamous "Montrose Circuit" But for some reason, even the But for some reason, even the threat of police on their cruise route did not deter Gays from fre-quenting their tavorite spot. The idea of the MCA to move the circuit to a better location was a very good idea. However, the choice of locations was a bad one that Gays simply found imposs-ible to move to. Of course the streets on the circuit are bad. Bad is not even a very good word to describe the streets. They are rutted, patched, and repatched so much, that a cow trail might have made easier riding. Yet despite negative response from local citizens and bad street con-ditions, Gays still refuse to move from their position of maintaining the Montrose Circuit as their cr-uis coute.

On Wednesday, January 26th, the MCA and the city of Houston may have made the last move concerning the location of the cir-cuit. All cross streets that cro-ssed over the two main streets that contained the main bulk of that contained the main bulk of traffic were served with the off-icial death warrant of the Mont-rose Circuit. All streets cross-ing the circuit had signs stating No Turns 7 p.m. to 6 a.m. placed on the corners. This has thereby stopped all cars from circling the cruice area and promoted any stopped all cars from circling the cruise area and prevented any turns being made on the circuit streets. The main test came on Thursday, January 29th, when it was reported that Houston Police issued 43 traffic citations for il-legal turns and five people were taken to jail. This has all but assured that the Montrose Circuit exists no more.

exists no more. Next week: An indepth look at why the move to a new loc-ation failed and a possible new cir-cuit route for Houston Gays.

CARNIVAL

CARNIVAL As is true with any hospitable host-ess New Orleans is happy to enter-tain her good friends. But, what these good friends must understand is that Mardi Gras and the whole Carnival season is actually a great big rollicking family party given by the people of New Orleans for themselves.

It is in every sense a "family tradition" of long standing. In fact, it is believed that as soon as New Orleans was founded by Bienville, 250 years ago, his men had their first Mardi Gras celebration.

THE RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE THE RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE Mardi Gras, which means "Fat Tuesday", is intrinsically oriented with the season of Lent. It is the last day before Lent begins and is the high point of "Carnival". De-rived from Latin meaning "Fare-well to the Flesh", it's a time for masquerading, parties, balls, parades and celebrations of all kinds before the fasting and peni-tence begins.

This is the day the Three Kings visited the Christ Child and recognized him as the Messiah. Carnival ends at midnight before Ash Wednesday, and early the next morning the lines of peni tents fa
