FROM THE EDITOR

Summer is just about upon us, and instead of things slowing down, it seems that things are speeding up.

First, happy anniversary wishes to The Locker from the Nuntius. This Friday night, May 7th, is the big event. For its second anniversary, The Locker will introduce you to Odin and an unbelievable Barbarian Feast. It will be an event that only The Locker can bring about. Also Mr. Locker '76 will be selected with $150 and the Locker Belt going to the winner. Don't miss it!

Coming up in Dallas on Sunday, May 30th, the Old Plantation's Annual Beer Bust and Weiner Roast will be taking place at Queen's Point on Lake Dallas. Party starts at noon, so don't be late!

The Second Sun in Houston has just about finished their extensive remodeling job. Now the front overlooking cruisy Westheimer is a super picture window. Street cruising has just become the favorite past time again. Also, Dirty Sally (Paul Stewart for those who don't know) is no longer with Dirty Sally's. Dirty Sally herself can be found daily at the Second Sun. So be sure to stop in and say hello to one of Houston's most favorite "celebrities."

The Nuntius will be presenting MR. GAY TEXAS 1976 at the "new" Old Plantation in Dallas on Thursday, June 24th. Mr. Texas will receive $200 cash and trophy, while the first and second runner-ups will receive $125 and $75 and trophies. Look for more on this big event next issue.

Tickets for Miss Gay America will be going on sale in the next couple of weeks at the Old Plantation in Houston. The big event is scheduled for August 6, 7, & 8. Danny Diletto, the new Miss Gay America 1975 will be making his first appearance at the Old Plantation this Sunday night. Danny will receive the crown this Saturday night at the Miss Gay South Pageant in Hot Springs, Ark. The title was recently removed from Shan Covington of Dallas when he was unable to fulfill his duties to the Miss Gay America Pageant.

Scheduled for Sunday, May 16th, is another biggie. The Old Plantation will hold a Sunday Spectacular on Stewart's Beach in Galveston. There will be a truckload of beer, hot dogs, and "mucho surprises." More on that next week.

The French Quarter Theatre in Houston is bringing in some of the hottest all male flicks around. Coming up in the near future will be a Wakefield Poole Film Festival. For those of who who can't quite place the name, the famous porno film maker has many credits but does Boys In The Sand ring a bell? It should be one of the hottest film screenings around!

Don't forget Mother's Day is Sunday. And according to Ron Oruc & Associates Floral Designers it should be a busy weekend for them. So order your flowers now and don't miss out because of the last minute rush.

My personal thanks to Rhoda Blablitt for her Snoops to Scoop column this issue. Rhoda used to write her infamous column for that infamous magazine Swamptrash. Rhoda will be writing for us periodically, so all I can say is - look out!

S.B.—I Dead?

Massachusetts Senator Edward Kennedy has reportedly switched his position and has decided to oppose any further effort to work out a compromise version of the controversial "Senate Bill 1." Kennedy's change of position could signal the end of "S-1."

S-1 is the 799 page bill that proposes a sweeping re-codification of the federal criminal statutes. Critics of S-1 contend it amounts to an American "official secrets act."

The National Commission on Law Enforcement and Social Justice (N.C.L.E.), a research arm of the Church of Scientology, reports that Senator Kennedy decided last week to halt his efforts to compromise on the bill, and that Kennedy will now oppose S-1. Kennedy was one of three liberal members of the Senate who -- along with James Abourezk of South Dakota and Phillip Hart of Michigan -- had been attempting behind the scenes for months to work out an acceptable version of S-1.

However, according to the N.C.L.E., the conservative senators recently refused to accept most of the compromise proposals submitted by Kennedy, Hart, and Abourezk.

Kennedy's office, in the meantime, is refusing to confirm or deny the report that he has decided to flatly oppose S-1. The Washington office said a final statement of S-1 will soon be made public, most likely later this week.

Senator's Abourezk's office confirms that Abourezk has some serious misgivings about the compromise version of S-1.

Even under the compromise bill, journalists could be imprisoned for up to three years for unauthorized possession of government documents.

Hollywood Shorts

war, featuring Marlon Brando, is currently being shot in the Philippines.

Dear Mel,

There's something that needs to be brought to your attention. I hope you print this letter.

Last night I saw a drag show at the Old Plantation. Needless to say, the show was great. Great except for one religious number that was blatantly sacrilegious. It was sick!

How are we going to get the respect we crave from the straight community when we don't respect religious institutions? It is no wonder St. Anne's Catholic Church wants the Depository closed! I don't blame them!

As a matter of fact, we make such a big to-do about being respected for our sexual preferences that the Miss Gay Texas finalists had to answer several questions about being gay and justifying it to a "straight friend." We were reminded by the judges that Miss Gay Texas had to be an ambassador of good will to the straight community and represent all gays proudly. Well, guess who was in the sacrilegious skit? Right! The new Miss Gay Texas, Naomi Sims!!

All of us can help the gay civil rights movement by showing more respect toward religious institutions and the straight world. All of us can also use our talents for the advancement of the movement and not its destruction!

Thank you for your patience.
Robert

Dear Robert,

Thank you for your letter and your views. Letters are always welcomed from our readers and as in the past, will always be given prompt attention.

A copy of your letter was forwarded to Mr. Bob Fournier, the manager of the Old Plantation in Houston. Mr. Fournier was also very grateful for your letter, as the Old Plantation recently has become very active in its community relationships.

The Old Plantation wishes to openly apologize to you or anyone who was offended by the drag skit. Mr. Fournier stated that the skit was not done or meant to be done in a sacrilegious manner. In today's society there has become so little to laugh about, when man himself and his ways of life can be most amusing. The skit you mentioned was done to laugh with mankind, not at his religion or even mankind himself. As stated before, the Old Plantation offers their sincerest apologies to anyone who was offended by the skit, but it was not meant as a sacrilege or slap in anyone's face.

Sevearl crew members of an about to be released movie called Omen -- a super natural suspense thriller similiar to The Exorcist -- claim they are being haunted by a series of bizarre occurrences.

New York Magazine reports that three different airplanes -- one carrying Omen's star Gregory Peck, another its director, and a third the screenwriter -- were all struck by lightning.

The boy star of Omen was recently visiting a zoo in London when a tiger escaped and killed its owner. In addition, director Dick Donnor was hit by a car two days after his plane was struck by lightning, and the film's producer was in a hotel in Rome when Hadrian's Arch next door was also struck by a bolt from the sky.

Similiar devilish warnings reportedly plagued the filming of The Exorcist.

Patti Smith may play the role of Janis Joplin in an upcoming movie.

Creem Magazine reports that producer Marvin Worth, whose most recent film was Lenny, is trying to convince Patti to star in a movie in Janis' life.

Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme, the Manson family member convicted of attempting to kill President Ford, has some harsh word's for the television version of the book Helter Skelter.

Fromme, after watching the two part C.B.S. special, described the characterization of Manson as "repulsive."

Said Fromme in a San Diego prison interview: "I wouldn't... for 10 minutes... have followed the man they showed the American public."

Actor Marlon Brando has reportedly come up with a novel way of capturing on film the manner in which American Indians are said to face discrimination in America.

Syndicated columnist Liz Smith states that Brando is preparing to tour the United States disguised as a native American.

The actor, according to the columnist, will be followed by a hidden movie crew that will film how Brando is treated by people who believe he is an Indian, rather than a white man.

Brando is said to be convinced that such a film will dramatically capture the social injustices experienced by native Americans throughout the U.S.

Are you ready for the Holy Bible on film?

A New York film company, the Genesis Project, will soon release its first in a series of movies which the company says will eventually cover every chapter in the Bible.

The first of the films, to be released this summer, recounts chapters 1 through 22 of Genesis, and two chapters of the book of Luke.

The entire movie will be a long one, the Genesis Project admits: new filmed chapters will be issued annually...until completion in about 33 years.

Alice Cooper has offered his services as an actor in Francis Ford Coppola's newest movie, Apocalypse Now.

Cooper has informed Coppola that he wants to replace Harvey Keitel who quit the crew last week. Coppola has not responded to the offer.

The National Organization for Women is asking the Internal Revenue Service to conduct a major tax audit of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States.

In a letter to the IRS Commissioner, NOW President Karen DeCrow asked that all Roman Catholic Dioceses, The National Conference of Catholic Bishops, and the U.S. Catholic Conference be investigated to determine whether tax exempt dollars are being used illegally to create "an anti-abortion political network."

DeCrow wrote that U.S. Roman Catholic Bishops, at a national conference in Washington, stated their intent to use "all church sponsored or identifiable Catholic national, regional, or diocesan and parochial organizations and agencies to create an anti-abortion political network throughout the country."

DeCrow charged that the Catholic Church may be violating both its tax exempt status and the American principle of separation of church and state by funneling money into what has become a political crusade.

She Snoops to Scoop

Well, I must admit it's nice to be back with pen in hand once again. For those of you who don't remember me, my name is Rhoda Blabblitt. Back in the days of notariety my column of She Snoops to Scoop appeared regularly in the infamous Swamptrash. Periodically, as time and space permits, Rhoda will be back but in the Nuntius. So hold on to your hats and get ready for a rough ride.

Coming from both Dallas and Houston is a hot item. Shan Covington, the now defunct former and "ex" Miss Gay America 1975 has pulled another biggie. To refresh your memory, Shan was the BIG (pardon my French) shit-stirrer during the Miss Gay Texas Pageant along with his partner in stirring, Cindy Birdsong. This unregal attitude and lack of dignity, plus the bad mouthing of a few of the wrong people cost the former (I don't know how he won in the first place - must have been a payoff!) Miss Gay America a lot. But now to top it all off, Shan Covington ran out on his hotel bill at the Gulf Coast Motor Inn from the Miss Gay Texas Pageant! I personally got the report first hand from the Pageant. The Pageant paid his bill for his appearance on Sunday night, but it seems that Shan and who ever checked in a day early and readily skipped out on the bill.

Rumors in Houston that the Depository Club have been sold are just that - RUMORS. There's no facts involved.

Noticed in the Nuntius last week a new bar will soon open in Austin. Maybe there will be two new bars instead of one. Time will tell us in the very near future.

Sahdji, one of the most popular female impressionists today, will be returning to Dallas in the very near future to take over the shows at the Bayou Landing. Shows should be starting once again on Wednesdays along with the Sunday shows. We all know Sahdji is good, but is he good enough to bring back the demand for Wednesday night shows - the answer to that should be known shortly!

And poor old Aunt Sofa has finally gotten taken! I must admit she is a dear old friend of mine, but all her advice and so called "knowledge" didn't help her this time. Her long time (?)

trick Tommy Dwyer finally got the chance to rip her off and did it! It was fortunately only a few small "personal" items that were easily replaced. I bet it's the last time that cow leaves her dope laying around! But really Tommy, could can steal most anything from a lady, but not that!

Naomi Simms, the new Miss Gay Texas, has finally made it big. I understand she went to a high school prom in drag last week. Isn't that carrying the show a little too far?

And finally, T. G. Pretender and Houston's Valerie Vaughn have split the friendship ties again!!! I don't have the full story YET, but I understand it concerns a trick (hopefully for Valerie), a Taco, and a drink over T. G.'s head.

Because our space is limited this issue, I guess I had better cut it short. Hope to be seeing you all in the very near future.

"I HAVEN'T CHANGED"

Hustler Magazine has offered 84 year old Mae West $25,000 to pose for a nude centerfold. Mae, who will be 85 on August 17th, reports she has informed the magazine it can use a nude painting of her, which was done in 1931. Says Mae, "I haven't changed."

NO IMPORTANT JOBS

A survey by the Capitol Hill Women's Political Caucus has found that women hold almost no important positions in most presidential campaigns this year. The political caucus says that only 10 women hold "positions of real power" among the 69 top campaign jobs. Morris Udall's campaign is the only one to receive a "superior" rating --- while Ford, Reagan, and Wallace are all rated "unacceptable."

CUT THE CUT

If you're one of those people who dislike certain cuts on a particular album -- or if you simply like to hear the songs on an album in a different order -- there's good news for you.

A London company, B.S.R., is out with a new record turntable that automatically selects just the cuts you want to hear.

B.S.R. offers an automated arm that uses an infrared scanner to count each track on the side of an album being played. By punching a few buttons ahead of time, you can tell the machine to avoid any tracks you don't want to hear, to play the cuts you like, and even jump back and forth to certain songs.

B.S.R. says that its automatic arm can handle up to 24 separate commands at one time, and keep track of as many as 13 tracks on each side of an album. One drawback is that the turntable alone sells for about $600.

NUMBER ONE SON?

(ZNS) Jimmy Carter's son has outdone President Ford's son on the marijuana question.

Jack Ford shocked a number of people last year by admitting he has smoked marijuana and suggesting that weed should be decriminalized in the U. S.

Now, Jeff Carter, son of the Democratic candidate, is suggesting pot should be sold over the counter in stores. Says Jeff Carter: "I feel (marijuana) should be legalized and taxed." Young Carter adds he believes that legalization should take place in steps, with decriminalization happening first.

NOW OR NEVER

It's now or never for Ling Ling and Hsing Hsing -- at least for this year.

Officials at the National Zoo in Washington say they will use every diplomatic maneuver possible to get the two giant Chinese Pandas together to mate. Ling Ling and Hsing Hsing were given to the U.S. during Richard Nixon's 1972 China tour.

Zoo officials report that last spring, when the two Pandas were put together for their short 10 day mating season, nothing happened. The zookeepers now say they have consulted with Chinese Panda experts and hope for a breakthrough within the next two weeks -- and a little more than just detente between the two Pandas.
