FROM THE EDITOR

As as this issue I would like to welcome our new readers in Oklahoma City. I am sure our directory for Oklahoma City is not complete, but I hope we will have it brought up to date in the very near future.

Labor Day Weekend will soon be here and activity should be just about everywhere. Sally's in the 900 Lovett complex in Houston has not filled us in on the details of their activities, but all they will say is that it will be a surprise!

And speaking of surprises, the move of the Mr. Gay America Pageant seems to have surprised a lot of people. The show should bring in a lot of out of towners into the Bayou City.

And when you think of holidays you have to think of the Bourbon Pub and Parade in New Orleans. If there is anything to do with a party, you can bet the Pub will be the number one spot to be at!

After Dark Bookstore in Houston now has a half of block of free parking across the street from its front doors. That should help alleviate some of the late night traffic problems.

And speaking of After Dark, well, that's where this issue's cover boy comes from. Twenty-

MR. GAY AMERICA MOVED

Due to the closing of the Bayou Landing Club in Dallas, and also to the uncertainty of its re-opening, a new site was found for the First Annual Mr. Gay America Pageant to be held Sunday, September 5th, Labor Day Weekend.

The Mr. Gay America Board of Directors wishing not to change the date of the contest was not able to find suitable facilities available five year old Archie Russ takes over this week's cover. Archie is the manager of After Dark in Houston and can be found there daily!!!!

Jann Russell will be hosting the Miss Gay Texas At Large at the Dallas OP in September. It should really be quite a show!

Down San Antonio way, the 4th Annual Miss Gay Southwest Texas Pageant is slated of Sept. 4th and 5th at the Sagittarius. It should be a full house for the annual contest, so make plans to attend now.

And speaking of September activities, get ready for Carnival at the Locker come Sept. 23rd. Houston will be waiting!!!

Til next week,

mel

Pageant starting time will be 9:30 p.m., and will be emceed by Mr. C. J. Harrington, the first Mr. David; Mr. Tuna Starr, the first Miss Gay Arkansas; and Mr. Michael Andrews, Miss Gay America 1976.

AN EDITORIAL

This past week an advertisement appeared in the local based Houston newspaper, The Montrose Star, stating how it has now expanded its "circulation" by 2,000 copies, while still presenting advertising rates lower than This Week In Texas and "about the same as the Nuntius."

At the same time, the Star gave out "circulation" statistics on both This Week and the Nuntius. For the Houston area, the Nuntius circulation statistic was given at "about 4,000" copies. As one can see, a very definite "guess in the dark."

When a publication prints, say 7,000 or even 15,000 copies, it is called a press run and not, I repeat not circulation. On any free publication, or rather one that is given away to readers, actual circulation is almost impossible to state. Only the advertisers and readers can judge the circulation as to how well the publication is received by the readers, and most importantly, how many excess copies are thrown out each week.

As of this issue, the Nuntius closes the "circulation gap" once again in the Southwestern United States with expansion into Oklahoma City. With this expansion, the Nuntius can now be found in four states: Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Oklahoma. With this expanded territory, the Nuntius can truthfully claim to be the number one publication in the Southwest.

The Nuntius has always given its advertisers more with the lowest ad rates per column inch anywhere. Our columns measure a full 2 1/2 inches in width, not 1 8/10 inches. So what may appear to be the same cost wise in another publication "per column inch" is not the same.

So as readers and advertisers across the country have found out, advertising with the Nuntius more than pays for itself.

RHODA BLABLITT

One More Time

Well, gang, Rhoda is back one more time!!!

I received a phone message from T. G.'s dead pet monkey Concheeta the other day. It was basically undecipherable, but I managed to get something about that he had managed to move "up" in the world. But I believe it was really nothing more than the voice of the dead!

And speaking of the dead, T. G. Pretender can go from worse to worst faster than anyone I have ever seen. It seems that his last "Mr. Right" didn't turn out to be too right, but his best friend did! Or at least he turned out to be Ms. Right.

I don't think Houston was ready for the Bourbon Pub staff to hit the town last week for the Mr. Gay Texas Pageant. Pub owner Jerry Menefee and Dr. John Hancock made it in to judge the beefcake show, but it appeared half of the working staff made in in for a festive two day occasion. It seems that Ms. Menefee wasn't ready to quit partying at the Texas 2:00 a.m. curfew in the bars, and every bookstore in town was soon terrorized by the New Orleans mob! The only exception proved to be Dr. John, who very adeptly swept away some late night entertainment to his hotel.

An interesting thing occurred to Tiffany Jones on his last visit to the Bayou City. It seems that Tiff and Misty Morn were attired in cutoffs and weren't allowed to go in at the Second Sun because of improper attire!

Up Dallas way, it appears that the Bayou Landing is closed for good. It seems that there are some signs on the building that say No Trespassing - Property of U. S. Government. The IRS does it again.

And speaking of the IRS, Mary's in Houston seems to have had some trouble with the boys in coats and ties this past week as they cleaned out their cash registers and left a receipt for amount of purchase.

Well, gang, till we meet again,
Rhoda

Lumberjack, Truckdriver, & Model

Montreal - Twenty-five year old Gilles Boucher has become an "instant celebrity" in the Olympic City as the Machismo Man, house model for Machismo, a Canadian mail-order menswear firm. The handsome French-Canadian Lumberjack and truck driver has become the gay world's answer to Madison Avenue's Marlboro Man. One of 12 brothers and sisters, Gilles Boucher left his hometown of Riviere-du-Loup (Wolf River - 300 miles east of Montreal) at the age of 19 for a stint of hunting and fishing in Quebec's bush country, but soon found himself drawn to the "Metropole" - Mon-and American publications, both straight and gay, are negotiating for feature stories of Gilles' rise to stardom, and one important U.S. magazine is considering a cover story.

Gilles has just completed a feature film that was shot on location in Montreal during the Olympics. Plans are underway for him to record an album of love songs in French. Gilles' plans also include a personal-appearance tour in the late fall to meet his West Coast fans, followed by a three month European tour with England, France, Holland, Germany, Greece, and Ishotel.

An interesting thing occurred to Tiffany Jones on his last visit to the Bayou City. It seems that

KING KONG IN N.Y.

King Kong lies dead at the entrance to the World Trade Center, New York's tallest building. Thousands of New Yorkers mobbed the area as unpaid extras during the filming in lower Manhattan of the 16 million remake of the 1933 thriller which is scheduled for release in December of this year of Riviere-du-Loup (Wolf River - 300 miles east of Montreal) at the age of 19 for a stint of hunting and fishing in Quebec's bush country, but soon found himself drawn to the "Metropole" - Montreal. Discovered in a popular downtown watering-hole, Gilles was asked to model for a new menswear catalog.

Public response was overwhelming as soon as the ads appeared. Cards and letters began to pour in with everything from marriage offers to requests for items of Gilles' personal clothing. Fans began to stop Gilles on the street, and his appearance in Montreal bars and discos was greeted by enthusiastic rounds of applause. A Machismo Man fan club, now being formed, will offer membership cards, photos, and word of his latest activities in a newsletter written by Gilles himself. The ads and catalog have provoked considerable media interest as well. Major Canadian plans also include a personal-appearance tour in the late fall to meet his West Coast fans, followed by a three month European tour with England, France, Holland, Germany, Greece, and Israel on his itinerary.

And what does young Gilles think of all this? "C'est la vie" shrugs Mr. Boucher. "I take life as it comes."
