INSIDE THIS ISSUE

Dear abOUT Readers,

So much has happened since our last issue hit the stands and I want to try and tell you all about it. First of all...

Looks like there is a new community HOST with the most, "Tye Blue" seems to be every where- Look out Toddicus! There maybe someone out there looking to de-throw you!

Crystal Murley hosted an awesome event at Guava Lamp on June 18th- Great event for a great cause! Good Luck Crystal.

Recently, abOUT Magazine has been hit with a little bit of a bullying issue within the community and I must say only this: "Im saddened that certain people want to divide the community instead of SUPPORTING it. -PRIDE-

Enjoy Perez Hilton- very interesting person. As always, thank you to the community that supports us.

Dude, have you ever noticed that when you wake and bake the day just goes that much smoother? Today I spent three hours on an important subject, "what would it be like to brush Chewbacca?" The very thought of doing this tickled every non-stimulated neuron that was left in my brain--every strand, every loch just effortlessly gliding through the brush as if it were a pussy-willow in a meadow. Did someone say PUSSY-willow?

Dude, I am so blitzed to where I can't figure out where I left my keys---oh dear keys, please show yourself. I yearn for your presence so I can get to the building that is filled full of food (Whataburger.) These munchies are making my insides argue with each other. Please show yourself!

What was I talking about...so the pizza guy was telling me how he knew this dude that had the same dream I had about the infinities of space. Dude, space goes on forever. It's space, but at the same time it takes up space if that makes sense. What we think is normal, as far as here on earth, doesn't exist anywhere else. There are so many more planets that make up galaxies and there's millions of billions of them. It blows my mind every time I think about it---oh wait, I was sitting at a red light when I went into this thought.

So after ordering a number one with cheese and a coke, I have a little time to blaze up while they prepare my food. Have you ever wondered why there is a little squiggly line in your eye? I constantly try to catch the little mutha of a b@*!l, but dude, he always seems to get away. I always wonder where does he live? Does he have a family? Does he eat healthily? Has he ever thought about why I'm always looking at him? I guess I will never know.

UNITE THE COMMUNITY WITHOUT BULLYING

PRIDE DOES NOT DIVIDE

INVISIBLE ART

In school, I was ashamed of being a band nerd but I have come to embrace it as an adult. You too can embrace your inner band nerd and have a great time as well. The Houston Pride Band is one of Houston's best kept secrets . . . it is a community band in Houston's gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered community that has a rich 30+ year history of creating music for the Houston community as well as providing a fun social experience for the musicians.

Most of the LGBT community sees the Houston Pride Band every year in the annual Pride Parade or at AIDS Walk. Don't get me wrong, a parade just isn't a parade without a marching band, but most people don't know of the other performances that happen throughout the year. During this past year, the Houston Pride Band has performed three concerts as well as having smaller groups performing at several community functions including: the Gay and Lesbian Community Center's 15th anniversary celebration, Out @ TUTS and Kindred Spirits Judy Garland Christmas Show and Sing-Along. Their 2011-2012 season promises some great collaborations with Bayou City Performing Arts.

The Houston Pride Band is also a member of the Lesbian and Gay Band Association (LGBA), a national musical organization made up of over twenty-five bands across the nation and around the world. With LGBA, members of the Houston Pride Band have been able to participate at every Gay Games, two Presidential Inaugurations, and conferences throughout the world.

The Houston Pride Band is one of the great institutions in the Houston area. They have been around for over 30 years making music for the LGBT community, giving musicians a chance to socialize and have fun, and raising money for causes near and dear to our hearts - from PFLAG and AIDS Foundation Houston to AssistHers and HATCH. They are a great group that deserves a listen, a look (especially if you are into hot band nerds!) and your support so they can keep making great music for the Houston LGBT community for years to come!

MICHAEL LUCAS is the naked truth

Love him or hate him, there is no denying that Michael Lucas is a dominant force in gay porn today. He is the president of New York's largest gay-adult-film company, Lucas Entertainment, and its biggest star. But arguably, it isn't his films that are getting the most ink in media these days. Michael's controversial commentary on everything from pedophilia, bare-backing and anti-Semitism in the gay community are what seem to be grabbing the most headlines. We spoke with Michael to discuss why he has chosen to be so vocal about his views and how mixing politics with porn is affecting New York's largest porn empire.

You recently celebrated another birthday. 39! I think I am the only person in porn who doesn't lie about his age.

Does that mean your days in film are numbered?

I have no plans to retire anytime soon. I consider 40 to be quite young. I also consider 50 to be young.

Can you see any of today's young stars following in your footsteps and launching their own porn business?

I am sure some will try, but I don't see other companies opening. It's very hard to build a brand in today's environment.

Has porn changed since you launched Lucas Entertainment?

It's become a complicated business. There is much more competition and many more different ways to reach the customer. It took forty years to go from 8mm reels to VHS tapes to dvd. Today, there are dozens of ways to deliver the product and new ones pop up regularly. You really need to stay on top of it.

You have used your celebrity as a platform to express your opinions.

I have always been vocal on issues I care about deeply, even opinions which are not so popular. If my popularity as a porn star gives my opinions additional resonance, then all the better.

Has being vocal hurt your porn business?

I actually don't care. I speak out on certain issues because I feel strongly about them and that's quite apart from my work as a businessman.

Does it upset you to read negative comments on the web?

Some negative responses do upset me, some amuse me. The many positive responses encourage me.

What do you think is the biggest misperception about Michael Lucas?

That I am a cold and distant person. I am actually very warm, funny and sensitive. I care deeply about my friends and family.

What is rattling your cage these days?

I am deeply worried about the situation in the Middle East, the increasingly aggressive posture of Iran and the growing worldwide hostility towards Israel. Here in America, my main concern is the stalemate of vitally important issues that comes from the absolute polarization between the two political blocks.

What has influenced your activism?

Life. Growing up in communist class rooms in my native Russia, I directly experienced anti-Semitic discrimination and the hurt and the shame that comes from it. The security of a Jewish homeland where none of this will ever happen again has become deeply important to me. I also read history and follow current events and travel a lot.

What bothers you most about the current state of the adult film business?

People who are illegally downloading my films. I consider it stealing. There is no difference between shoplifting clothing from a store and downloading an adult film for free. It costs a lot of time, hard work, and money to produce these films.

Naked pictures are available all over the web for free. Is porn still profitable?

Most free porn is crap. That's good enough for some people but there are plenty who enjoy really good porn made by professionals.

Where do you see yourself in five years?

Where I am now: in New York, with my friends, running my business. I'm a very happy person.

Finish this sentence: I sleep well at night because.....of Xanax.

Welcome to Montrose

The new Whole Foods, located at 701 Waugh, has been built with several environmental friendly features making it one of the greenest market places around. (Across from Guava Lamp and Vue) The new building is 45,000 square feet and sits on 5 acres of land which will help with the high demand of parking. The environmental features range from: two electric car charging stations, a bike station with screwdrivers, wrenches and an air pump for small repairs, LED lighting installed throughout the store and parking lot and recycled glass used in the floors of the wine section. The scheduled opening is slated for June 22, 2011 and 1% percent of net sales that day will be donated to Houston Area Women's Center.

WATCH out Speed Racer

U.S. District Judge Lynn Hughes ruled on June 17 that the appeal for the ordinance exceeded the legal time limit and should have never been place on the ballot. This means that the city cannot be forced to turn off the cameras as done so on November 15, 2010. Since 2006, the red light safety program collected over $44 million dollars up until its expiration. This missing revenue has created issues that have played into the city's budget shortfall.

HPD to CRACKDOWN on DWI

The City of Houston has implemented an aggressive restriction on drunk driving set to expire after the 4th of July weekend. In conjunction with Harris County Sheriff's Office, Mothers Against Drunk Driving and several other law enforcement partners, they have united to reduce the number of drunk drivers. "We like to be number one in a lot of things but we don't want to be number one in this category," said HPD Traffic Enforcement Division Captain Carl Driskell. "DWI is 100 percent preventable, no excuses. If you know you're going to drink, get a designated driver."

MONTROSE has attack of GRAFFITI

On the corner of Westheimer and Dunlavy local businesses have been vandalized with a slew of new graffiti being painted on their walls. Just in 2010 alone, according to Harris County Improvement District #6, there were 943 reported graffiti incidents in the Montrose area. Out of this number, 108 were business properties and 794 were public properties. The District focuses on: Business Development, Public Safety, Transportation Planning, Visual Improvements and Cultural promotion.

Unless you have lived in a bubble for the past five years, I am sure you know who Perez Hilton is and if you have not visited his blog, I'm sure you have at least heard of him. In case you just missed it here's a recap: Perez is the internet's most notorious gossip columnist.

Born Mario Lavandeira Jr. in Miami, his parents are of Cuban descent. Graduating from NYU with a Bachelor of Fine Arts, Perez attempted acting among many other jobs. Working with GLAAD as a media relations assistant and even held the title of managing editor for Instinct Magazine.

PEREZHILTON

BY CADE MICHALS

"I started blogging because it seemed easy" Perez says. The year was 2004 and PageSixSixSix had just launched. "It was named after Page 6, the famous gossip column of The New York Post," says Perez. The blog gained enormous attention which landed him the title "Hollywood's Most Hated Website" by the news program The Insider.

With this much attention come lawsuits and The New York Post filed suit forcing Perez to change his domain name. It was 2005 and PerezHilton.com was born. When asked why he thinks the world is obsessed with celebrities Perez answers, "I think being fascinated by others is just who we are; we're curious creatures. Hollywood is a lot like high school. Everyone was interested in what the head cheerleader was doing and what the captain of the football team was doing and if they were dating each other."

Perez Hilton in the past several years has become one of the leading go-to sites for celebrity gossip and has appeared on some of the nation's largest shows including The Wall Street Journal, MTV, Larry King Live, and Billboard.

In what has now become one of Perez's most notorious appearances on television, Hilton made headlines while serving as a judge for the 2009 Miss USA pageant. Perez was randomly selected to ask Miss California, Carrie Prejean, a contemporary and significant question concerning America. Of course we all know what that question was--- which her answered sparked even more national headlines and launched Perez's book TRUE BLOGGYWOOD STORIES, The Glamorous Life of Beating, Cheating, and Overdosing.

Perez's angle on celebrity gossip includes an unapologetic desire to mingle with and be a part of the Hollywood circle. Although Hilton has an affinity for some celebrities such as Lady Gaga and Paris Hilton, he also has a "vendetta" against certain stars including Vanessa Hudgens and teen actress Taylor Momsen. Is this the case? "I'm not impartial. Nor do I pretend to be. I think my readers like the fact that I have opinions and strong ones. I never set out to become friends with celebrities. The ones that I am friends with know what I do for a living. Also, I'm not friends with the ones that are continually going to rehab or getting arrested."

When the Nation was shocked with the headlines of our L.G.B.T youths being bullied and the suicides, Perez took to his site and called for all people to take a stand. This led to hundreds of his high power Hollywood targets to launch their "It Gets Better" videos. Khloe Kardashian was one that refused to make a video and ignore Perez's call.

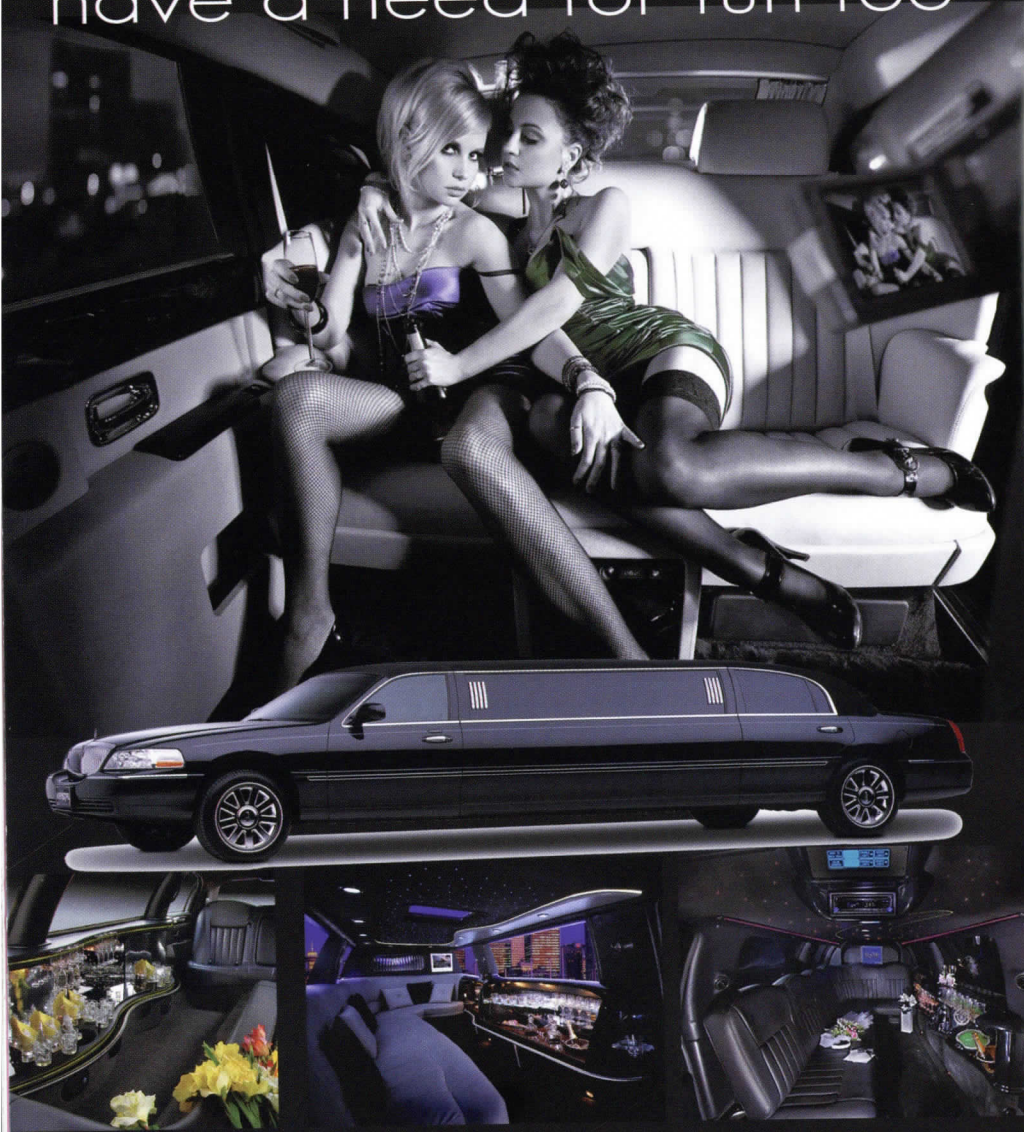

"Perez Hilton asked me himself to do this video, and he's doing such an amazing thing by getting all these celebs to speak up to people -- but, for me, Perez has been my personal bully," Kardashian says in the video posted on her blog. "Forget my childhood, forget that now as an adult I thought, you know, bullying would be done, but, in my world it's not done.... I live in a world where there's magazines and blogs, and people feel like they are allowed to criticize me, and in the meanest way." Hilton's words have given license to his followers and commenters to jump on the bashing bandwagon, she said.

Do you see yourself being a gossip gangster for the rest of your life? "I see myself being a gossip gangster and the queen of all media for the rest of my life. And if I'm lucky, I'll find a way to continue blogging from beyond the grave," states Hilton.

CHEERS

To bears that drink beer. And divas who turn tequila into mean margaritas. To motorbike dykes who prefer their whisky neat and hair wild. And bisexuals who can't decide between Cabernet or Chardonnay. To those martini maestros—the guppies—who work their garnish something fierce. And all drag queens that hold lager with grace and élan. To the trans folk who navigate the divide like a rosé wine, brilliantly. And lipstick lesbians who swizzle up Moscow Mules, Singapore Slings, or even a Tokyo Tea. And cheers to those who say spritzer because it sounds sassy.

BUT MOST OF ALL, CHEERS TO YOU.
FOR BEING WHO YOU ARE. AND PROUD OF IT.

Hilaroscopes

Aries

March 21 - April 20

Since you share the birth sign of Perez Hilton, you share two main characteristics: SCANDAL and DIS-EASE! Make sure you give more scandal than disease because you are throwing off the STD statistics. On the upside, a shot of good 'ole penicillin and a slap to the face will clear that right up.

Your good luck company is: Microsoft---Bill Gates your way into a yacht.

Taurus

April 21 - May 21

Just like Hilton's lawsuit filed against him on April 23, 2007 for alleged copyright infringement, you too have infringed yourself into a little bit of a pickle.

That one night stand is accusing you of stealing their favorite pornographic DVD. On the upside, you have managed to grow your personal collection and are thinking of giving it back.

Your good luck company is: Google---take over the world.

Gemini

May 22 - June 21

Just like Hilton's web host dropping his site on June 20, 2007, you too will be dropping something---your panties. During this panty-dropping era, you will be invited to all the hottest parties and events. On the upside, having that constant breeze coming through to cool off your unmentionables will help out during these blistering days.

Your good luck company is: Apple---make everything proprietary.

Cancer

June 22 - July 22

Just like Hilton's lawsuit filed against him on July 18, 2005 for posting a link to Colin Farrell's sex tape, you too will be involved in a scandalous sex tape surfacing. Remember the time when you had a 3-some in the living room of your apartment? While forgetting to close the blinds and while your neighbor entertained a birthday party? Yes, that video has now gone viral on the internet. On the upside, you managed to get rid of your nickname Prudy McPrude, and now you reserve the name Wide Open Spaces.

Your good luck company is: Sony---live on.

Leo

July 23 - August 21

Just like Hilton's flat out lie about Fidel Castro's death on August 17, 2005, you too need to keep your mouth shut because spreading rumors and falsehoods about how you own your own airplane with a lube warmer isn't believable. On the upside, your deceptions will land you a job in the custodial arts industry.

Your good luck company is: United States Post Office---refuse to upgrade to e-mail.

Virgo

August 22 - September 23

Just like Hilton's elimination from MTV's Celebrity Rap Superstar on August 30, 2007, you too will be mismatched onto creating your own rap video for 1990's rap star Coolio. On the upside, your gold chain collection and grill will be updated to 10 carat gold plating.

Your good luck company is: Enron---learn from your mistakes.

Libra

September 24 - October 23

Just like Hilton being sued for copyright infringement on October 11, 2007 for posting illegal Britney Spears recordings, you too will encounter a moment when you will "trespass" upon someone else's originality. On the upside, you are now known as a plagiaristic son of a bitch.

Your good luck company is: Martha Stewart Living Omnimedia---prepare for the consequences.

Scorpio

October 24 - November 22

Just like Hilton outing Neil Patrick Harris on November 2, 2006, you too will be outed about your abnormal fetish for dipping toes in poi sauce. On the upside, you will be the envy of all your Hawaiian friends.

Your good luck company is: Delta Airlines---keep refusing to help.

Sagittarius

November 23 - December 22

Just like Hilton being sued on November 30, 2006 by X17 Online for making their images being devalued, you too will have intimate photos accidentally posted through your twitter account. Remember those photos that were taken of you that night you were convinced to wear just a pink ascot and a heavy layer of black eyeliner. Yeah you remember. On the upside, your popularity with the upscale Goths will increase.

Your good luck company is: China---be careful on how much you lend to people.

Capricorn

December 23 - January 20

Just like an overweight Hilton appearing on VH1's Flab to Fab on January 15, 2004, you too will lose that left over-weight from Christmas of 2000. On the upside, since summertime is upon us you will have the chance to squeeze into your two-piece muffin top free. Your good luck company is: Mercedes-Benz---be as smart as their smart cars.

Aquarius

January 21 - February 19

Just like Hilton graduating from New York University on February 1, 2002, you too will enjoy a good week of luck that will lead into an epiphany about that addiction to eating fried Twinkies and masturbating at the same time. On the upside, your pipes will always be clean. Your good luck company is: ExxonMobil---keep your prices high.

Pisces

February 20 - March 20

Just like Hilton's lawsuit brought against him from Universal City Studios Productions on February 20, 2007 for posting topless images of Jennifer Aniston, you too will have your dirty pillows showcased all over the internet. On the upside, your tan lines can be air-brushed.

Your good luck company is: Pet Smart---love your pets.
