ou gotta love the undeniably adorable Betty White. At 90-years-old the lady is still kicking and hardly slowing down and making us laugh. Now the "Hot InCleveland" star is trying her hand in music, rap to be precise, pairing up with British British singer Luciana Caporaso, a.k.a. just Luciana for promotion of the Lifeline Program, also becoming the spokemans.

We are sure you've seen the commercials. The program allows retired seniors to sell their life insurance policies as an asset while they're alive. The single is a remix of Luciana's hit "I'm Still Hot." In the dance beat song, Betty sings lines like, "I maybe a senior but so what? I'm still hot," "I'm still Betty from the block / I left my Emmys in my beatbox!" and, "I will get you sweaty because I'm the big Betty!'

Betty looks to be having a fantastic time partying in the video. despite the fact that she thinks partying celebrities are going too far. I guess a party with cheesecake is just tame enough for her..

Betty Marion White Ludden was born January 17, 1922, and her career is ever growing- now on decade seven. She has won seven Emmy Awards (six for acting) and has received 20 Emmy nominations over the course of her career, including being the first woman ever to receive an Emmy for game show hosting and is the only person to have an Emmy in all female performing comedic categories. In May 2010, White became the oldest person to quest host SNL which she also received a Primetime Emmy Award. White also holds the record for longest span between Emmy nominations for performances her first was in 1951 and her most recent was in 2011, a span of 60 years - and has become the oldest nominee as of 2012, aged 90. She also hosted the White is a pet enthusiast who works with a number of animal organizations, including the Los Angeles Zoo, the Morris Animal Foundation, and Actors & Others for Animals. According to the Los Angeles Zoo & Botanical Garden's "ZooScape" Member Newsletter, White donated nearly $100,000 to the zoo in the month of April 2008 alone.

She is also a registered Democrat.

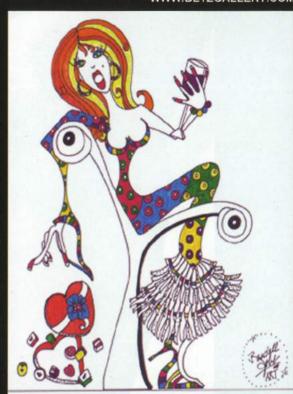

"I don't care who anybody sleeps with. If a <code>coule</code> has been together all that time — and there are gay relationships that are more solid than some <code>heteosexual</code> ones — I think it's fine if they want to get married. I don't know how people can get so anti-solething. Mind your own business, take care of your affairs, and don't worry bout other people so much."

"ARTFULL HEARTS"

Opening Reception

February 10th 6pm-9pm

Exhibition continues until Feb 14th.

"Artfull Hearts" is an exhibition featuring artists Randall Jobe and Jonatan Lopez. Randall describes his work as "theatrically inspired whimsy". Each image is a character with a story to tell. Sometimes he adds prose to assist the audience with the message. More often he leaves it to interpretation; hopefully one of frivolity and bemusement to the viewer. Jonatan Lopez welds steel and found objects together to make intricate and beautiful sculptures of heats and figures that are truely unique works of art.

The bullycide epidemic sadly continues - this time in Carthage Tennessee, 14-year old Phillip Parker was an 8th grader. Even at age 14 Phillip knew that he was gay. He was out and he was proud- his mom, Gena Parker said.

Last Friday afternoon, January 20, 2012, Phillip Parker's arents and grandparents found him dead in an upstairs bathroom. He had hanged himself. Later that evening they found a note Phillip had written in his wastebasket. It simply read: "Please help mom". As we often hear after many of these bullycides. Phillip's parents said they were unaware of the bullying until after their son's death. Hundreds of classmates from Gordonsville High School born barded the Parker's with countless stories of relentless bullying to the detriment of Phillip. Some students reported that they had gone to teachers on several occasions with their concerns-again seems our youth feel they have no where to turn.

H&M does not own any store premises, which gives the company flexibility and adaptability By renting premises we can move at the same pace as our markets.

God-des, the rapper. She, the singer.

With thousands of fans on Facebook and Twitter, four albums released, more than 30,000 sold, and a No. 1 spot on MTV LOGO for 15 weeks -- These two hipsters are undoubtably the hottest duo on the scene. Getting their big break in 2006 on Season 3 of The L Word, God-des and She have built a following like none other. With performances all over the world, God-des and She are packing the house and astounding audiences with their hip-hop/pop/soul music.

Most recently, these girls have had their hands full with their 2009 album release of "Three"; featuring great tracks such as "Love Machine", "Radio Up", and "Spin the Bottle". Since their album release they have been working on a new album and have recently released their first single, "You Know My Name" which has a fresh, upbeat, and hip feel. God-des recently posted on their website about the new single saying, "You know when you meet someone over and over, and sometimes they say Hi, but sometimes they don't, depending on [who] they are in front of? Well this track is for those people - for when all you want to say to that person is 'You KNOW my name'."

With all the success God-des and She have had, we can't wait to see this duo in action. Coming to Evo Lounge on February 11th, catch a chance to see these hotties do their thing!
