INSIDE THIS ISSUE

Dear Readers,

Welcome to the Bunny Issue of abOUT Magazine. Inside you shall see everything that Bunnies on the Bayou has on it's plate for you this year. The awesome Bunny Shuttle, the great After party and the always fun kick off - The Bunny Bar Bash!

Yes! Ma'am No! Ma'am returns to dish their dirt and be good "Christian ladies" for the community always keeping or trying to keep us all proper.

We take a look into one of Houston's oldest LGBT dance clubs, the Brazos River Bottom, or better known as the "BRB". A great location just outside of Montrose and a great place for a Saturday night outing.

We have some great community photos that our awesome photographers spend their weekends collecting for everyone to enjoy. See if you made the page. We also would like to welcome the awesome underwear company "Paul Ferrer and the oh-so-fun and great shopping location "Hollywood Super Center" to the abOUT Magazine family of advertisers.

As always Thank you for all the support!

Brazos River Bottom
Houston's Gay Country & Western Dance Club

2400 Brazos Street, Houston TX 77006
brbhouston.com

ONE OF OUR BEST KEPT SECERTS

HOUSTON'S ONLY L.G.B.T. COUNTRY MUSIC DANCE CLUB

In it's 33 year histroy the Brazos River Bottom has served our community as the oldest gay bar in Houston in its original location

by: Cade Michals

Brazos River Bottom or better know in Houston as the BRB, is nestled just out side of Montrose in the ever growing Midtown or right smack in the middle of straightville. Do not let this detour your thoughts, as the BRB is one of Houston's best kept gay country secrets.

Upon walking in you get a instant feeling of a warm welcoming. Maybe it is the feeling of walking into a hidden cabin in the middle of no where or the thought that you might be on the set of Urban Cowboy, which ever it might be, the sound of country music immediately has your foot tapping the floor.

Unlike any clubs in our community the BRB offers boots, demin, cowboys, and crowds that are two-stepping with out all the smoke on the dancefloor, with out all the lazer lights - it's just great country music- and great looking cowboys that are looking for the down home small town feel.

The BRB has had to survive the ever changing demand for something new and slick. It was not long ago that you could look at a photo of the packed dance floor at the BRB and all you would see were cowboy hats and ball caps the days when patrons would come in to Houston from smaller cities or ranches for a night of good olé fashion dancing. But what ever they have done to keep the country music loving fans returning- sure works.

There is more jewels to the BRB than their choice of music or the great DJ's that play it, or the always friendly, and ear to ear smiles of their bar staff. Their support of our community, the support they show is one of the BRB's major goals, and that support can be seen as the BRB regularly hosts fund-raisers such as Mr. and Ms. BRB contest, which raises funds for a rotating roster of local charities. Since their opening, every Sundays drag show, the tips go to AIDS-focused nonprofit.

If you have never stepped foot into the BRB abOUT would invite you to make the journey into apart of the community history and enjoy a ice-cold beer and listen to some great music and look around their walls covered with posters of some of the best the music industry has to offer. It's definitely a evening you will never forget.

In 2011 Guava Lamp and Vue Nightclub came up with the idea of a complimentary shuttle service that would provide transportation to any guest that wanted to take advantage and get a free ride to Bunnies on the Bayou. The idea ended up being a smash hit and had an estimated 400 riders.

Allowing people to park in their parking lot and hoping on a shuttle for the short ride to downtowns Fish Plaza, allowed people to be able to enjoy their self and have beverages and not having the hassle of finding parking or worrying about drinking to much and driving. Not to mention why not park for free at the same location as the official After Party.

This year in 2012, Guava Lamp and Vue Nightclub are pleased to announce the return of the FREE shuttle. Not only will the shuttle return but the Official and ONLY After Party will also take place at Guava Lamp and Vue.

Unlike last year, Guava Lamp will join Vue Nightclub in all the after party festivities. For the party goer that wants to unwind and have bottle service Guava Lamp is the place to be with a live DJ. For the person that wants to continue to party and dance to high energy, Vue Nightclub welcomes you. One of the hottest DJs, DeeJay Pollo will spin live at Vue- which will also have VIP and Table /bottle service available.

As always the shuttle is complimentary

Remember to play it safe and enjoy the ride.

Circuit Parties Return to Houston in June Just in time for Pride 2012

Houston's inaugural dance music event, Wonderland Houston, is presented by Pride Houston and is shaping up to be the premiere Circuit Party of the Houston LGBT Pride Celebration. Step into the looking glass and experience a place like no place on earth: A land full of Desire, Mystery and Wonder! In the heart of downtown Houston, this event will offer heart pumping music, go-go dancers, drag performances, full bars and unique VIP areas. Houston is pulling out all the stops as you take a journey down the rabbit hole. The doors open at 9:00 PM and the party rages from 10:00 PM to 2:00 AM. With master of the beats, DJ Michael Tank, direct from Miami's Winter Party. Special cirque aerial performances by Francois Gravel and Michael Lanphear as Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dumm. The Bayou Music Center's 130,000 square foot arena will be transformed into the surreal Wonderland with areas like The Queen's Throne, Madhatter's Tea, Catterpillar's Lair, Cheshire's Retreat and who knows what else. With state of the art lights and sound you'll experience the party in ways you could never have imagined. Some say to survive it: You need to be as mad as a hatter. So you must be entirely bonkers. But I'll tell you a secret... All the best people are.

Hunter Valentine Lands in Houston

If you haven't heard of Hunter Valentine yet, I'll do my best to school you and bring you up to speed. The three badass Canadian babes practically sweat rock 'n roll, and lead singer Kiyomi McCloskey growls with the ferocity of a scorned lover while looking like a young, part-Asian Joan Jett.

Touring almost non-stop for the majority of their careers, it's clear they love what they do. Even the most rigorous aspects of the job become routine

"Getting to a new city every single day is an amazing thing to do when you're doing it with your best friends [who are also] in your band. And then with these other two groups," McCloskey says. "I've started to not really feel normal when I go home now. So I prefer to be on the road."

Sooo... every band's favorite question; Hunter Valentine, what does it mean? What's the origin? Hunter Valentine is actually a complex mathematical equation, and if you can solve the equation you'll figure out the way into each of our hearts. Here's a hint, enter into your calculator: 58008

Go in, nail 'em and go home exhausted. Such a simple victory has been the mission of rock bands for decades. It's a noble pursuit; a Do It Yourself mentality that compels musicians to obliterate with powerful songs propelled by live passion and vitality.

That's Hunter Valentine.

Be sure to attend the after party at Evo Lounge on March 19th.
