kristin chenoweth Glee to GCB to Houston

hy: Ende Michals

Kristin Chenoweth, accomplished actress, singer and self-identifying Christian, has said that being gay is not a sin and that she thinks being gay is the same as her being short — it's just the way people are born. The diminutive songstress who played a high school dropout on "Glee" and originated the role of Glinda in "Wicked" and her ever successful ABC drama GCB, is just as comfortable talking about her Christian faith as she is her support for gay rights.

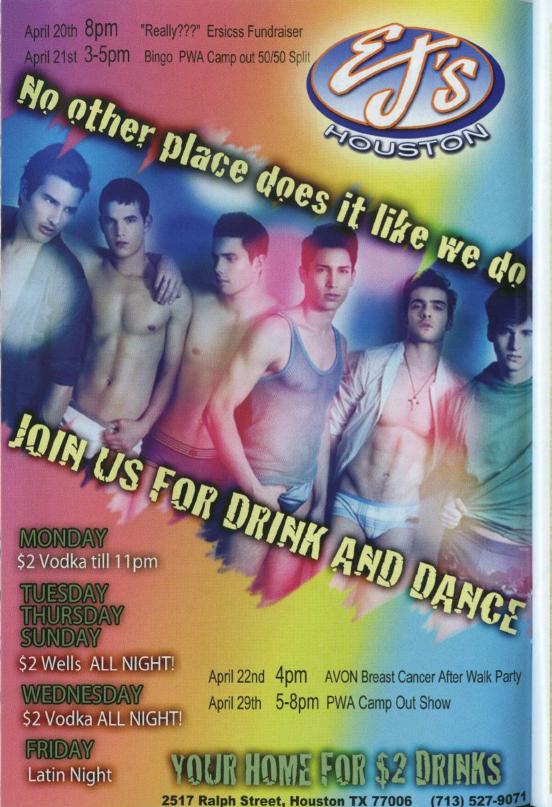

"My [gay] best friend — I've talked about him many times — his name's Denny. I asked my Grandma Chenoweth, 'How can it be that he's going to hell? I just don't think that correct.' And she said, 'Well, Kris, I read the Bible like I eat fish: I take the meat, and it serves me well, but I don't choke on the bone.'

"Just because I'm a Christian doesn't mean I blindly follow what others say my religion ask, and instead I rely on the old adage of "What would Jesus do?", I don't believe Jesus would walk around saying "You're going to hell" and "You're wrong, you're wrong, you're wrong," but would instead be accepting and loving of people.

Kristen, a straight woman, also elaborates on her belief about people being born gay, saying, "What would I do if it was a sin to be short? That's the way God made me, so what could I do? Let's see, I could wear heels, I could tease my hair, and maybe on a good day I could be 5'1". But the bottom line is, I'm 4'11" and that's the way I was put together."

An actress possessing a liberal view on homosexuality is not a rarity, but an actress who maintains this view, while proclaiming her Christianity is slightly less common.

If you would like to see Kristen live in Houston at Jones Hall on Wednesday May 23rd 2012.

Ya'll all need some sleep! Lay off the pipe!

Someone get this man a drink before he goes completely MADD! Lord help us all if he completely detox's- and speaking of- Someone had some BOTOX also!

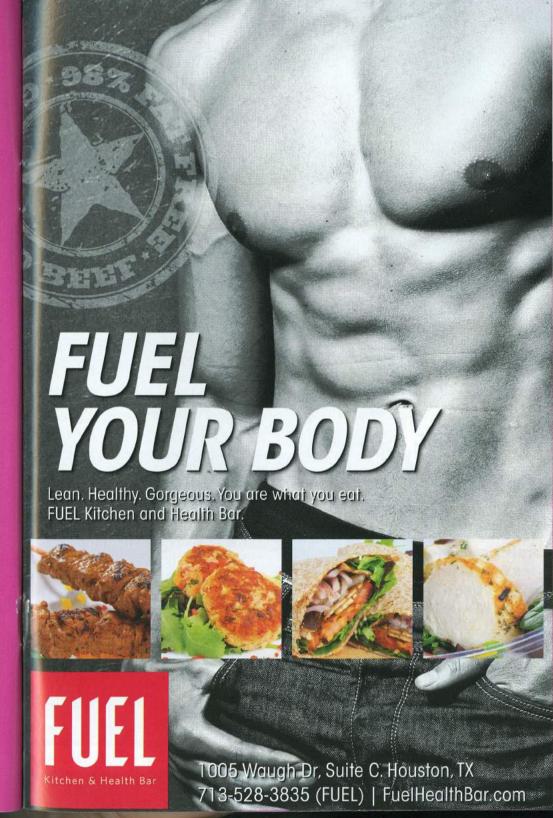

Some doctors never learn! After posting this on Facebook - he wonders how he got caught! Reminds us of some bank robbers posting a status update: "Just Robbed Wells Fargo"....with photos:) LOL

We just about DIED! Spotted! And we mean actually SPOTTED! Out with those old dancer casting beds and in with the new!
