LIFE According to Charo

What the hell is wrong with you gays and fag hags these days?! I recently had a fabulous night out and noticed how badly mannered people can be. When you push your way through a circle of people conversing to say "Hello", it's rude to ignore the rest of the people standing there. I could care less if you're not interested in any of them, that's not my point. My point is you have no manners! Remember, you jumped into this Kool-Aid, so don't be rude and not acknowledge anyone else. Tsk Tsk Miss Thang! Lesson be taught!

Second, is when you see a goddess, such as myself, and want to take a picture. May I suggest "Hi I'm _____ may we take a picture together?" I am an attention whore, so I will always say yes, UNLESS you come up to me half drunk with your fag hag trying to grab my perky breast-esses! My titties aren't real, BUT they are mine, just like your ball sack. So don't be surprised when I grab your wiener. If you touch me I'm going to touch you back.

It can be difficult trying to move around in a packed club while holding your cheap Harwin clutch with a beer in the other hand, all while Daddy Trade in front of you thinks you're winking your eye at him but really it's because there is glitter in my eye. :(BUT if you bump into someone because of your "white girl wasted" dance moves, please be kind enough to apologize and offer to buy a replacement drink. Directions: when you get to the bar, order their drink, bartender says "$5.50 please"...RUN LIKE HELL BITCH!!!

Hilaroscopes

March 21 - April 20

Aries

Someone tries your patience soon when they behave like a boring old fuddy-duddy or they persist in being as doom-laden as possible. You'll offer them a biscuit and they'll give you a lecture on saturated fats, or you'll mention your plans for the house and they'll suck their teeth and look doubtful. Don't be affected by it.

April 21 - May 21

Taurus

You are a plucky person who exhibits considerable "fight" in taking on the world. There is a zest and dynamism to your nature which really gets people moving in your environment. You excel in testing situations which require decisiveness and action.

May 22 - June 21

Gemini

Major turning points arise concerning your relationship to others in the middle part of your life. It is essential to shift the emphasis from individual fulfillment to greater consciousness of fulfilling the needs of others.

June 22 - July 22

Cancer

There does not seem to be much change where your love life is concerned. However, it may be beneficial for those who are attached, to be more homeward bound. Slight fancies and tremendous domestic implications should be avoided for peace and harmony.

July 23 - August 21

Leo

You wish to take the lead in personal relationships, and you cannot feel comfortable being restricted by emotional considerations. It is time to learn to take the initiative and propose exciting new possibilities. In doing so you will however be able to give personal matters an inspiring boost.

August 22 - September 23

Virgo

It's delightfully easy to get on well with other people, especially if they're older or more important than you. Somehow you'll manage to smooth any ruffled feathers and put these people at their ease. This is good news if you'll be seeing someone who isn't always sweetness and light, as they should be easier to manage than usual. What a relief!

September 24 - October 23

Libra

Your chart shows a mild influence of jealousy. There may be someone near to you that may have showed you something you really want as well. If you want it that bad, you will end up getting it. It's all a matter of time. Sexually try not to get involved into situations caused out of spite. Sleep with someone just because you want to. It's not a good time for pay backs.

October 24 - November 22

Scorpio

Money is burning a hole in your pocket, especially if you've just been paid or you've got a lot of cash on you. Be strict with yourself about what you buy, otherwise you'll find that you've frittered away a lot more than you thought. If you're going food shopping you'll be tempted to treat yourself to all sorts of edible luxuries, whether you can afford them or not.

November 23 - December 22

Sagittarius

The stars are turning up the volume on all our emotions, and in your case, they are also going to turn you into a magnet for the attentions of admirers, new and old. If there's someone you've been trying to get together with, it's a given that you'll be able to make that connection now. So all you really have to do is show up, smile and see what happens. Sounds nice, huh? Enjoy.

December 23 - January 20

Capricorn

A certain person is being touchy and tricky, and you need to handle them with care. They're investing everything with too much importance as far as you're concerned, making them liable to moods and huffs. They may also be feeling sidelined emotionally, and therefore determined to re-assert themselves in your affections, even though the method they choose is self-defeating.

January 21 - February 19

Aquarius

If you are preoccupied with money matters at the moment, it's all to a good end. This is the time to be singing for your supper, for the more you talk the more you will earn. Read the fine print in money matters, and don't be afraid to be picky about the tiny details. Your thinking is practical and conservative, so you'll come up with sound and productive ideas.

February 20 - March 20

Pisces

You may not have much time for reflection. You may be forced to guess. Others call this "using your intuition." Try it. You have a sharp eye for details now. This may help you give useful suggestions to others. Don't beat them over the head with it. The right phrase at the right moment will have the best impact.
