Same Drag Race... New Race track!!!

Now let me start this with the statement that this is not intended to toss any shade at EJ's but it was reported that management allegedly threw our magazines in the trash after my last two articles on their woes. This is not intended to be an attack in any way.....that said here's the juice!!!

EJ's Drag Race is celebrated it's one year anniversary recently and what better time to make improvements than now! Former Miss Gay Houston Newcomer Dessie Love-Blake has decided to uproot the popular amateur drag contest from the enbattled bar to the posh upscale venue that is FBAR starting April 23rd!!! This is to my knowledge the first time an entertainer has picked up her audience and show concept and moved it to another bar. It had been rumored that there were budget cuts that were preventing the startle from seeing her vision blossom in the way she wanted it to...again pure speculation.

I asked the diva to give us the scoop in her own words "I wanted to expand my original vision with lighting effects, a larger stage, and bring in a new audience" she went on to explain "I wanted better seating as this is a show to sit and watch and laugh and have fun, FBAR accomodates that." She also feels that FBAR has some of the best shows in Houston and one of the weekly prizes will be the opportunity for the winners to share the stage with the F-DIVAS on Tuesdays. "This is exciting to me." She said, all the while wanting to to be known and made clear that she will still appear on some Saturdays at EJ's and this was not to hurt the bar but to help her contestants.

Stay Tuned.....

And the winner is....

Thank you for the overwhelming response to the search for the "IT GIRL" of Montrose. There were many nominations but there was one that stood out from the rest. In keeping with the times I found it wasn't about an it girl or a golden boy...baby our winner is an "IT FAMILY". That's right The Crawford's of Houston have taken the city by storm and are only continuing to gain momentum. Two of the Crawford clan just garnered the coveted Mr & Miss Gay

Houston USofA titles. One of the Crawfords is a cast member in a hot new Tuesday night show at Meteor as well as having her own show at the venerable South Beach night club. Every year in December they host a Crawfords Give Back Fundraiser which is a spectacle to behold. This summer they are putting on another spectacular event in tribute to Michael Jackson. They rehearse as a family for months leading up to these shows. They are also pageant promoters for the USofA pageantry system holding the annual Miss Halo Houston pageant coming up in May.

The Queen of the Crawfords is Aria Crawford. She is responsible for coming up with these events and getting the family together. I have affectionately deemed her the President of the CrawfordNation, a term first coined by Chloe Crawford. By Aria's account there are 22 Crawfords in total. I asked the matriarch what was the criteria for joining this entertainment dynasty, her reply "The main criteria I look for is passion for entertainment! As long as they have that we can teach them the rest." She went on to tell me the family creed "Our statement comes from Janet Jackson's Rhythm Nation, We are a nation with no geographic boundaries bound together by our beliefs. We are like minded individuals sharing a common vision, pushing to a world filled with miraculous entertainment!" As I told her, when a Crawford enters the room you definitely notice. So I choose them as the "IT" people I will definitely be following. CrawfordNation coming to a stage near you!

WHITE PARTY
PALM SPRINGS

25 YEAR ANNIVERSARY
APRIL 25 - 28 / 2014

JEFFREYSANKER.com

Rocking the DJ spotlight this edition is a VERY well-known name in the dance music world – someone who has stood the test of time and still reigns supreme, the one and only DJ/Producer Tracy Young! When you take a look at remixes that are hot in the scene today, you'll see a number of mixes by Tracy. Whether you're standing in the club listening to the music, dancing on the dancefloor or reading a Billboard magazine, her name is prevalent. She's an amazing diva that is driving the fun back to the dancefloor!

She's got over 20 years of DJing and production work behind her; she has literally played everywhere—from major club venues to exclusive private events, like Madonna's wedding. She remixed hot artists like Britney Spears, Kelly Clarkson, Akon, Madonna and dance music from the underground to the mainstream, going from clubland to mainstream celebrity. She scored a gig as a hip-hop radio DJ in the 90s and was able to successfully parlay that into being queen of the circuit today. "I love all kinds of music," the Washington, D.C. born spinstress states. "Growing up in a divorced household, I always took comfort in it."

When Tracy first started, there was no money in it for her and she wasn't out to get paid - it was purely a hobby, which lead to an obsessive passion. "I was shocked when I started getting paid" she says with a grin. At the time, she had no idea of the heights to which she could rise. "If you told me 10 years later I'd be DJing at Madonna's wedding, I'd say you were crazy!" she laughs.

sound and the thriving Gay circuit scene were a perfect match – and the boys loved her! They were drawn to her by her magnetic musical pull. Celebrities from Cher to Sean Combs fell under that spell, inviting her to spin their exclusive private parties to A-List invitees.

Once Madonna coronet-ed her as her go-to DJ in 2000, Tracy went from being a solid circuit party player to a global electronic music celebrity in demand at nightclubs around the world! Plus, with her production skills, she's become a name on the Billboard charts racking up 40 #1 Club Play hits including 13 Madonna remixes and as well as imaginative electronic reinventions of songs by Christina Aguilera, Shakira, and Enrique Iglesias. Hot!

TRACY YOUNG

more, plus, she's coming to Houston on Easter Sunday (4/20)! So here's a quick recap on the Gay community's favorite DJ: Tracy's DJ career began in 1989, whether she knew it or not! "I was fascinated with nightclubs and used to frequent a local hot spot in DC called TRACKS!" Tracy says, "I then bought the equipment, which at that time were two Technics 1200's and a mixer. I began practicing for hours at a time. It was more of a hobby because at the time not many women were accepted playing live at nightclubs. I basically had to teach myself how to DJ."

It was a tough road for Tracy as not too many female DJs, even today, are considered power players in the scene, but just try to stop her - "when somebody tells me I CANT do something. The word NO makes me have to do it!" she says. What she has been able to accomplish over the last two decades most folks can't do in a lifetime! She's taken her irresistible passion for Even from her earliest stages, Tracy's musical prowess made people take notice, and it wasn't long before she translated her hobby to a thriving career - which allowed her to bring her funk, hip-hop and old-school blend of beats to the masses on eastern corridor airwaves and cable television.

For every DJ looking to grow their career, Miami, NYC or L.A. beckons. She chose Miami and with that move came a shift in sound that she discovered was a perfect fit for Tracy. She was able to inject her hip-hop roots with the house music thump that emanated from the celebrity-filled nightclubs that comprised the Southern Florida scene.

Miami became not only a proving ground for Tracy, but also the arena where she came to discover and hone herself to what she is today. She discovered that her

Your standard housewife's life isn't for Tracy— it never has been. With a book in the works about her 20 year-career in the DJ booth, a Mad Men-style makeover by famed Hollywood photographer to the stars Mike Ruiz and longstanding working relationships with Macy Gray, Maya, and the Kardashians, Tracy is becoming a full-fledged celebrity in her own right. "I will always be a music person," she says. "But there are so many mediums for me to express myself, and I want to take advantage of them all."

Tracy Young will headline the "A Trip Down The Rabbit Hole" party by the Dirty Disco Boys Easter Sunday (4/20). It's located at the underground club Kryptonite (709-Franklin, downtown). Come enjoy the fun music, awesome laser show and all those delicious sweaty bodies packing the dancefloor! Just look for the mirror ball....and you'll see me right below it!

AbOUT Magazine Exclusive

Growing up in the small town of Reserve, La. Justin Peranio always seemed to have a fascination with hair. That might be due to having three beautiful sisters with long gorgeous hair. "I would find any opportunity to play with their hair and their Barbies suffered the consequences if I didn't get my chance."

Around seventh grade is when he started going to real salons with his mother and couldn't help but notice how cool the hairstylists looked and how much fun they seemed to have. He wanted that kind of life when he grew up. "After high school I decided to attend the Aveda Institute of Baton Rouge. The program lasted about a year and then I wasted no time taking a risk to move to Houston to begin my career," states Peranio.

Justin has worked for his bosses, Alan Conover and Cion Ortega, for seven years now and they opened Hue Salon in January of 2013. They currently have six stylists at the salon and all do amazing work in both haircuts and color with some stylist offering keratin treatments and extensions.

The team at Hue are extremely welcoming and professional, treating everyone like family. "My favorite part of being a hairstylist is unleashing my creativity to create a flattering, modern style for a client while making them regain confidence in their appearance".

Justin enjoys watching someone walk out of the salon with a little pep in their step. His advice to anyone getting into the industry is realize that it's a very demanding job and it can take a few years to finally get established. The best stylists need to have a nurturing quality because you end up being a client's therapist and friend, which he happens to enjoy. Peranio adds, "continuing education is also vital in my opinion. Our team likes to travel across the country for additional training because there will always be new tips and techniques to get those creative juices flowing again."

When asked what else he would do if he didn't choose hair, he replied with, "I could never imagine doing any other kind of career."

'trose bartender profile

I've been a bartender at South Beach The Nightclub since the beginning of 2014 and it was my first bartending job. I actually thought they wouldn't hire me, because I had no experience. I decided to get into bartending because I knew it would be a fun, upbeat environment, and a place to meet and interact with all kinds of fun people!

How old are you? How tall are you? Do you have any tattoos?

I am 24 years old, about 5.9, and I am pretty covered in tattoos and plan to get more.

Did you grow up here in Houston?

I moved to Houston about 6 years ago from Mexico. I came from a missionary family so I have traveled and lived all over the world.

Gays should def have the freedom to marry. Narrow minded, old fashioned homophobics need to open their eyes to the 21st century. It is immoral to judge and victimize someone due to their views on love. Who are you to say what is right and what isn't? Just because you may not agree with something it does not make it wrong.

Your a father? Tell us about that?

I am a father to an awesome 4yr old daughter. It is difficult at times to work two jobs and still have time to spend with her but she is my other half and I wouldn't trade her for the world.

What do you love most about bartending?

Pretty Boy | Bartender | Musician | Father

RICH MARRAUDINO

You are not gay, but you work in a gay nightclub? How is that really?

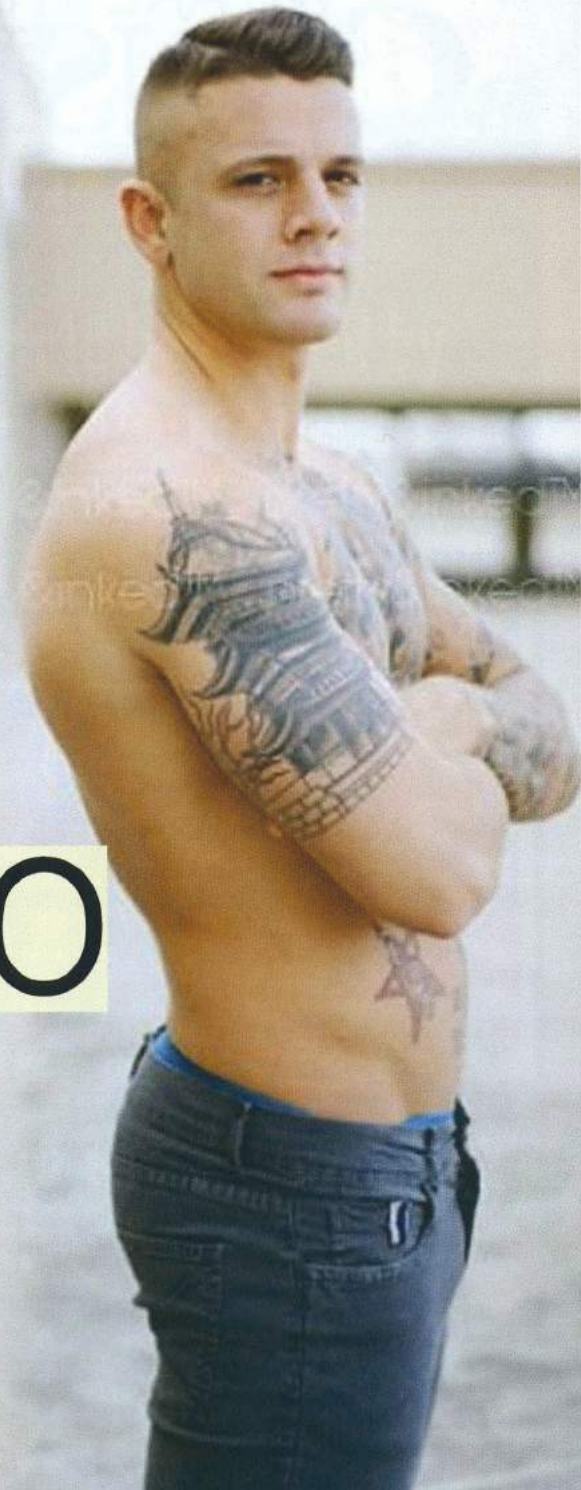

I have no issues working and interacting with the gay community. I have plenty of gay friends. Actually, probably more gay than straight. I love working at South Beach. The energy is amazing and people are so fun. Much less drama than its counterparts.

What are your thoughts on gay marriage in Texas?

I love the environment, the music, and meeting new people! It's like a non-stop, and always changing party.

We've been told you can sing and play music?

I was in a choir from the age of 6 till I was 13. During this period I learned to play the guitar, drums and the piano as well as sing. From 13 till 15 I was in a gospel group where my little brother and I were the lead singers.
