WHERE THE TOPS HANG OUT!

Thank You Houston !!!

Crocker Bar wants to thank the Montrose community for pulling together and helping to raise just over $200,000 for AIDS services and other local charities since we opened in June of 2008.

We are very proud to provide the atmosphere that most charities enjoy using in order to conduct their fundraisers and we want everyone to know how much we appreciate helping out the friends and family of our LGBT community.

As we move into our 7th year of business, we hope to increase our fund raising assistance to a greater level and make an even bigger impact of help to those around us so we encourage every local charity, fundraising organization and anyone wanting to organize a fundraiser to step up and let us know what and when you want your event. We will do anything we have to in order to make your event successful. We have made a difference, thanks to you.

WE ARE THE CONSTANT IN CHANGE

Since 1981, Legacy Community Health Services has been a constant presence in the lives of LGBT Houstonians. We were there at the beginning of the HIV/AIDS epidemic, providing testing and linking clients to care. We are still here now, offering comprehensive medical care. For more than 30 years, Legacy has been a source of comfort for those who traditionally face barriers to care.

We are, now and always, constantly here for you.

DAILY 4PM - 8PM

On Monday, Pride Houston, Inc. announced that the Houston Pride Parade, the third largest pride parade in the U.S., will be available for viewing on live television for the first time ever in its 36-year history.

The live broadcast will be produced in partnership with AbOUT Magazine and Houston MediaSource, and will air on HMS-TV channels Comcast 17, AT&T U-Verse 99, Phonoscope 75, TV Max 95, Sudden Link 99 and AbOUT Magazine will stream live on www.about-online.com.

Hosting the live broadcast is Sarah Pepper of Houston's New Hot 95.7 FM, Chad Pitt of Houston's Mix 96.5 FM and Nina Lambardo.

"Though thousands flock to the annual parade, we know that there are still thousands more who would love to be a part of the parade but aren't able to," says Cade Michals, Publisher of AbOUT Magazine. "With this being one of the largest pride parades in the world, we know that lots of eyes will be glued to their screens to see how Houston celebrates its pride."

AbOUT Magazine will take the lead in producing this "history making" adventure during the 2014 Pride parade in Montrose starting with the broadcast booth that will be incorporated into the already existing stage at the corner of Westheimer Rd and Yoakum St.

Houston Media Source has created the perfect production crew to create the perfect broadcast. Consisting of 4 or 5 cameras, and one that will be embedded in parade route that will allow viewers the best possible views of the entire parade.

Broadcasting the parade will be the first of its kind. There are so many new opportunities that will be brought to the table for the Houston Pride Committee.

"Pride is excited about having a new way for people to view the 4th largest pride in the United States." Stated Frankie Quijano, President of the Houston Pride Committee.

"Allowing people to watch the telecast will open up the parade to not only those in the greater Houston area but around the state and country and to also allow people experience the celebration in their homes and encourage people to host viewing parties."

SkinDeep

Axiom For Men is fast becoming the grooming and skincare line guys cannot live without. Conceived three years ago after its founder, Mike Waxman, suffered a heart attack, the collection is made up of top-shelf products including a pearlized cleansing gel, restorative moisturizer, pH-balanced shaving cream with healing botanicals and a full body hair removal cream. It is often labeled a gay brand, but Waxman doesn't quite see it that way.

"We're a pro equality brand," he says. "Our core values are equality, acceptance, and strength. Axiom For Men is different from other skincare lines because the collection is specially formulated for men. Men's skin is different from women's, and the distinction is important from both a grooming and skin fitness perspective."

Axiom For Men products were developed under the guidance of a dermatologist, and produced with incredibly strict quality control by two skin care manufacturers and the products are never tested on animals, unless you count the Bears who use the collection.

Mike explains the community unity is important. "How can we expect the rest of the world to embrace us when we don't fully embrace all the many different colors of our rainbow? Its amazing how fragmented and silo-ed the LGBT community has become, often labeling each other by how we look, dress or act. Our advertising campaign is designed to visually represent the dawn of a new era where we accept, teach and learn from each other."

"We have aligned with five amazing organizations that are working to make a difference for the entire LGBT community. We're sponsoring gay sports teams that are inclusive of everyone and unite the community in a social and fun way. In the near future, we will also host mixers, social events and networking opportunities for the LGBT community."

Axiom's response from the community has been over the top. "People from all walks of life has been overwhelmingly positive. It has been the most humbling and rewarding experience of my life. I hope we can continue to build upon this momentum," stated Mike.

Stay tuned as several new products are in development, all of which will continue to address the unmet needs of men in their daily grooming and skincare routines.
