the BUNNY the G Man and a Race Queen

Houston Gets Ready For New Years Eve

New Year's Eve in Houston is finally here and with all the options for where to ring your bell at midnight, the clubs and venues are pulling out all the stops.

The Bronze Peacock Room at the House of Blues will play host to Club Lucky featuring Manila Luzon & Friends. Performer and larger-than-life personality, Manila has been featured on RuPaul's Drag Race and RuPaul's Drag U. She released her debut hit single "Hot Couture" co-written and produced by Grammy Award-winning producers of KNS Productions (Britney Spears, Lady Gaga). The evening will feature special performances by local favorites Chlöé T. Crawford and F.A.C.E. Award "Drag Queen of the Year" London Adour with DJ sets by Joey Guerra, Chris Zane and Athenz.

But if Drag is not for you and you want to be with one of the nations hottest DJs you might want to head to Montrose.

There are few sounds on the DJ circuit today as fresh and innovative as those of DrewG. This prolific DJ and music producer continues to push dance floors to the limit in clubs both at home and around the world.

To describe DrewG's sound is near impossible because he crosses so many genres in both his production work and live DJ sets. His trademark "Dirty Pop" signature sound is a blend of pop, rock, hip-hop, and EDM. Within the world of Dirty Pop, you're as likely to hear Rihanna and Pink, as Bon Jovi and Queen, but always with a new spin.

Drew often fuses together the unexpected, throwing huge beats and drops into the middle of pop classics. The brand refers nowadays not only to his sound, but also to the bad boy image associated with the Number 1 traveling dance Party in the U.S., as well as the Dirty Pop apparel line. Houston welcomes DrewG to South Beach the Nightclub for their annual New Year's Eve bash this Wednesday.

And finally... What to ring in the New Year with friends? Guava Lamp is bringing the "Bunny" to you!

With glitzy outfits, sky-high wigs, and false eyelashes long enough to embarrass even Tammy Faye Bakker, multi-talented drag artiste Lady Bunny would turn heads even if looking glamorous was his only talent. And the Bunny will do just that at Guava Lamp's annual New Year's Eve show.

Lady Bunny isn't just another man in a dress, but a successful comedienne, emcee, singer, songwriter, actress, DJ, and, most famously, the founder, organizer, and hostess of Wigstock, the outrageous festival of drag and music that had been delighting over 40,000 New Yorkers and tourists visiting New York for the event, every Labor Day for over 20 years.

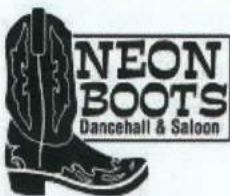

Bunny tours constantly, bringing down the house from Cincinnati to Tel Aviv with her bawdy, Dusty Springfield-meets-Don-Rickles mix of potty-mouthed humor, Southern charm, zany "Laugh-In"-style skits, and X-rated pop song parodies. Bunny has emceed events around the world ranging from Van Cleef Arpels corporate parties to Gay Pride Parades and has shared the stage with the likes of Pamela Anderson, Margaret Cho, Dennis Rodman, Cyndi Lauper, k.d. Lang, and the B-52's, just to name a few.
