HAPPY PRIDE!

I am delighted to extend a warm Houston welcome to everyone attending or participating in the 2016 Houston LGBT Pride Celebration.

This is a wonderful event for all Houstonians, visitors and their families — and with more than 700,000 attendees, the parade is the second largest parade in our city.

Houston is the most diverse major city in America — and we're proud of all our people.

Enjoy the celebration!

Warm regards,

The Pride Festival

The Festival, held around City Hall, Herman Square and Tranquility Park, showcases over 200 exhibitors with an attendance of more than 100,000 people. The Festival has something for everyone with exhibits like the Houston LGBT History exhibit, Family Fun Zone, Health and Wellness Pavilion, Free HIV testing and more. There are multiple entertainment stages where a whole cast of local and national artists, including our Pride Superstar contestants (past and present) perform for the thousands in attendance. Admission to the Festival is FREE.

Most exhibitors and food vendors only accept cash, and ATMs are available on-site until 7 p.m. or at local businesses. Tickets are available for the Festival VIP area with a private area, restroom and cash bar so you don't have to wait.

Carlo Riley as MICHAEL JACKSON

Michael Jackson impersonator Carlo Riley is a dedicated Michael Jackson fan who utilizes his uncanny physical similarities in order to produce a spectacular never to be forgotten performance and for Pride, Houston gets to witness his skill at F Bar Houston.

Riley is an authentic Michael Jackson look alike/performer and has been seen on the covers of magazines around the world and performed all over Earth.

Compare his face/body with any other "Michael Jackson Impersonator" and you will see the clear difference! Some consider Carlo to be A Michael Jackson Look alike, while others may call him a Michael Jackson Impersonator.

Riley looks so much like MJ that Katherine Jackson told him, "You're going to make me cry." While MJ's daughter, Paris stated to Carlo, "I love your outfit."

One thing is for sure, he is a HUGE Michael Jackson fan and you get to witness it this Pride.
