Enclosed is a photo of the Battletoads my mom created. I told her my sister, brother and I really wanted some Battletoads to play with, so she made a pattern and sewed them for us. We really like to play Battletoads on the NES, and now we have others we can play with, too!

We have just finished Super Mario World and you will find the photos enclosed. The game was finished by two players: Anne-liese Gonzalez and Raul Navarro. Pictured is our third player and coach, Immanuel Rodriguez. He was forever egging us on and his help is just what we needed to defeat Bowser.

Gold Is Up This Month!

My name is Steven. I am 8 years old, and I love role-playing games! Here is a picture of the Dragon Warrior Slimes I made out of clay. As you can see, I have also created Gold, Green, Black, and White Slimes in addition to the ones seen in the games. If you thought the Metal Slime was tough, my Gold Slime is invincible!

4 Year! Where can we get a cappuccino? Last September, Ross Moskowitz, Brenda Alex Mathew, Frank Scornio, and brother Jay Moskowitz strolled San Diego in search of Du Wino's last treasure! Ross earned the Player's Poll Card™ which appeared in Volume 24 of Nintendo Power. Talk about a treat! It was an event to be remembered by all.

4 Ross found, Frank, helps him check out the mysterious home notes.

Ross gets his cappuccino and also finds the secret notebook.

EDITOR'S CORNER

This month's Nintendo Power features a new look. First of all, there are more pages, largely due to our new comics section. The reason for the change was YOU! You've been telling us what you'd like to see in Nintendo Power magazine and we're responding. Keep sending in those letters with your comments and ideas. It's difficult to stress how much we appreciate your input. Also, the Player's Poll cards you send in help us immensely, and to show our appreciation, we offer the great prizes you see every month. We've got a bunch of great Player's Poll prizes coming up, so keep those cards coming in. Thanks!

MEGA MAN 4

DR. COSSACK MOUNTS AN ATTACK

The battles of the blue bomber continue in the fourth NES installment of the awesome Mega Man series from Capcom. This time, there's a new villain gumming up the works of Mega Man's utopian world. His name is Dr. Cossack and it looks like he's learned a lot from Dr. Wily's near misses.

Cossack has dreamed up eight new robot leaders to smash Mega Man and he's created a huge fortress that rivals Wily's Skull Castle in size and ingenuity. Take on the robot leaders in any order. Then fight your way to the evil doctor and get ready for some mega surprises!

RING MAN

My domain is one of the most trap-packed areas that you'll ever encounter, Mega Man. My trap platforms will disappear under your meddling mechanical feet, my Saturn Seekers will knock you into oblivion and my Ring Boomerang will send you spinning!

LOWER THE HIPPO

The Hippo Launcher sends out Missiles from its high perch. Blast the segments of the pole and hit the Hippo when it comes down to Earth.

Mega Man: Blast the segments of the Hippo Launcher's platform.

Hit the Hippo with a Buster barrage when it's within reach.

BUST THE SPRING KING

Dr. Light has tuned up Mega Man's main weapon. This Mega Buster can send out a mighty blast when it's powered-up. Hit the Spring King with these big Mega Buster blows and it'll break.

Power Up and hit the Spring King when you see its eye.

CLIMB AND CONQUER

The platforms in this area will move out of the way as soon as you touch them. Slide across them for speed.

Slide across the platforms to avoid dropping.

Saturn Seekers aim to knock you off!

MEET FLIPTOP

Mega Man's new mechanoid pal, Fliptop, hides out in enemy territory with Power-Ups and extra energy. Meet him here.

RING MAN

The ring leader of this stage hits hard with his Ring Boomerang. Counter with the Pharaoh Shot if you have it and he'll be history. If you're out of Pharaoh Shot power, hit him with your Mega Buster.

NES

DIVE MAN

My water world will prove to be your last battleground. Prepare for the dangers of the deep and I'll meet you at the bottom. Once you get your rusty works into my den, I'll come at you with my powerful Torpedo Attack and mega-swap seeking Missiles. Give up Mega Man. You're outgunned.

TOAD MAN

The elements are on my side, mega fool. The wind, rain and water currents in my high-tech hideout will knock you down, then my sewer dwellers and Bomber Snails will send you reeling. If you survive that onslaught, you'll have a shot at me. I've taken control of Dr. Light's Rush Marine Adaptor and if you can get past me, you'll be able to use it to clear water-filled areas. But don't count on a victory. I'm armed with the Rain Flush and I'm ready to wash you out!

RUNNING WATER AND ROBO RATS

The current pulls you to the edge quickly in this area. Work against the water, then hit the Robo Rat and other railcar enemies with your Mega Buster. If they hit you first, you may get loaded into the truck below.

SINK THE BOMBER SNAILS

Toad Man has placed two huge Bomber Snails in his hideout. They'll start to your shoes when their eyes are open. Avoid the blast of the bombs that they lay your way and wait for the right moment to hit 'em.

TOAD MAN

If you can keep Toad Man busy, he won't have time to activate the Rain Flush. Stay on the ground and blast him. Then, when he jumps in your direction, slide out of the way, turn and fire!

FIRE 'EM UP!

This behemoth has Muzzles and rolls in deep charges. Avoid those explosives and fire off your own Missiles.

WIRE

Dive into the hole to retrieve the special living Wire.

DIVE MAN

This master of the deep charges with a low and fast Torpedo Attack, jump out of the way and hit him from the other side when he stops.

BRIGHT MAN

Don't be a dawwit, Mega Man. My brilliance is much too much for you to bear. It's a pity that we probably won't cross wires since my Bulb Blasters are quite capable of burning you out before you get to my den. If you dare to break them, you'll be lost in the dark.

FILL 'ER UP

After your bout with the Bulb Blasters and your ride on the Spike Hoppers, you'll be ready for a wild. Climb the ladder on the right to claim an Energy Pellet.

WATCH THE LIGHTS

If you break the Bulb Blasters, you'll lose light. Avoid them or bleed.

BRIGHT MAN

The dawning Bright Man will attempt to halt you with his Flash Stopper and stomp you when you're frozen. If you hit him with Toad Man's Rain Flash though, you'll turn out his lights with seven torrential blasts.

SKULL MAN

That meddling Fliptop and the Energy Containers that Dr. Light has left behind won't help you in any machine-crushing headquarters. I dare you to climb to the top and cross the bone bridges to my den, 'cause my Skull Barrier will send you to the scrap heap.

BUST THE BONE TOSSER

Bone barriers can remove most weapons that you use against them. Turn up your Mega Buster, and you'll send the one to check that will scatter its bones.

DUST MAN

Wait until you get a load of my fortress. Every inch is set with traps designed to compress you into the chunk of scrap metal that you see. I'm especially proud of the crushing Pistons and the Mechas that pop out of every hole. You're dust, Mega Man.

Prep legs come out in force here. Hit them quickly and jump from square to square.

DRILL MAN

There's little chance that you'll survive the blows of my Boulders, Meg! Man. And, even if you manage to limp away from this crushing encounter, I'll be waiting for you with my Drill Bombs and underground attack. You'll never get Wily's Rush Jet!

ENERGY COLLECTION

There is a total of five Energy Containers hidden throughout the eight robot leader stages. Two of them are in this small area. Collect them and more...!

SKULL MAN

This skeletal robot protects himself with the awesome Skull Barrier. Run from him while this circle of skulls is around him. Then open fire when he drops his shield. The Dust Crusher does wonders against this creep.

Keep your distance from Skull Man and let him with the Dust Crusher.

DUST MAN

Dust Man sucks you in with vacuum power and attacks with the exploding Dust Crusher. Run away when he's pulling you, then jump straight up as the Dust Crusher comes in and explodes. Power-up the Mega Buster while you're avoiding this attack and let him have it when he stops.

PASS THE PISTONS

Pistons attempt to crush you in this long hall. Clear away the blocks between the Pistons and the floor, from top to bottom and slide through the narrow areas.

Roll and slide your way past the Pistons.

DRILL MAN

Drill Man dives into the ground and pops up near you. He then sends out exploding Drill Bombs. Jump repeatedly while he's underground so that you'll be in the air when he surfaces. Then hit him with a powered-up Mega Buster or Dive Missiles.

Avoid the harmful Drill Bombs and fire back at Drill Man when you have a clear shot.

SLIDE BY BOLLIDERS

Boulders drop from the tubes above. Slide past them and you won't be crushed.

NES

PHARAOH MAN

Prepare yourself for a hot battle in my desert headquarters, Mega Goon. The sting of my Electro Scorpis is strong and the wrath of my Mummy Maulers is magnificent! I've instructed them to stop you from entering my den but, if they fail, I'll be waiting for you with my Pharaoh Shot!

BALLOON ADAPTOR

Leap over the entrance to the underground and move on to collect this buoyant device.

The Balloon Adaptor will allow you to create balloon-like platforms.

COSSACK CASTLE

The four stages of Dr. Cossack's snowbound castle are in a mysterious setting of onyx domes and mechaoids. This reclusive genius has not been heard of before, so there's no telling what kinds of traps he's set for the ambitious hero. You'll meet plenty of familiar robots and some new surprises too. Try to go in with as many Energy Containers as you can find and take it one step at a time.

Hop through a snowy field on your approach.

Take on the strange Skull guards deep in the castle.

Face off with the creator of the mechanical mecha and try to escape from the eviling Pinchers of his weapon.

RIDE THE FLOATING FACES

As long as you're on top of the Floating Faces, their shots can't harm you. When you get within jumping range of the next Face, leap to it before it has a chance to fire off a shot.

PHARAOH MAN

The blast of Pharaoh Man's Pharaoh Shot is super strong. Avoid contact with the Shot at all costs and counter with the Mega Buster. If you have Bright Man's Flash Stopper, you'll be able to do away with this fiend easily. Just freeze him with the Stopper and fire away!

WILY WAITS!

It's true! Dr. Wily was behind this evil plot from the very beginning. When you finally come to terms with Dr. Cossack, you'll find out that Cossack unwillingly conceded to Wily's plan after Wily kidnapped Cossack's daughter. Now, the journey to take down Wily begins again. A new, improved Skull Castle awaits. You'll come across new droids, clones of the robot leaders and the real evil genius in a contraption designed to destroy Mega Man once and for all.

Once Cossack is defeated and his daughter is saved, the real villain behind this scheme is revealed.

NES

MONSTER

IN MY POCKET

MINI-MONSTERS ARE MOVING

Miniaturized by a freak act of nature, a good-natured Vampire and a mild-mannered monster hop into Jack's pocket and hitch a ride into his house. Not all of the monsters-made-mini see land, though, and other tiny terrors soon stir up trouble. This new adventure from Konami comes complete with one of the creepy little collectibles!

THE MONSTER

THE VAMPIRE

HAVE A HEART

When these mini-monsters hit the air, it's up to the Vampire and Monster to cheer them on, fight battling the End boss with three monster lives and replenish your energy with Heart Jars.

We interrupt this program with a message from your local World's Hit men: mini-monsters are on the move—in your own house!

DO THE MONSTER MASH

MONSTER
IN MY POCKET

The only way to stop the flow of mad monsters is to find and defeat their master and head henchman, the Warlock. Either fight every foe you find to rack up points—and extra lives—or take the roads less traveled to avoid major monster damage. First, master your methods of attack and evasion.

HEAVE HO

Do all your attacks with Heave Ho when you Kneel. It's great for pushing them up. Balance is to carry them, and press B again to throw them at enemies above and below.

QUICK JUMP

Press B to jump. A regular jump is enough to land on low ledges. Press Down and B to jump down stairs.

It will take you high enough to reach the top of the screen. Press Down and B to jump down stairs.

KNEEL

If a Monster can kneel quickly to avoid his, it's also useful to kneel. It's an evasive action. Press A in a low line, and you can even lower to reach the floor. But Shimmers roll on you. It's a good evasive technique.

MONSTER SMASH

Most of your attacks will be straightforward, long-handed blows. You can alternate many monsters with a single job, but other take multiple hits. Defeating the level bosses requires many well-timed and well-aimed hits.

DOUBLE JUMP

You can reach bombing sites that are usually out of range by doing a Double Jump. Press A to jump, then when you're at the highest point of a regular jump, press A again. You'll increase up and be able to reach higher ground.

MONSTERS IN MY BEDROOM

STAGE 1

This is a Bedroom on a big scale. First, you'll find a radical-sized radio. Don't touch that doll! Jump up, maul the monsters, then continue up to the window sill. The route across the desktop is easy and yields a Heart Jar, too.

START HERE

TO A

NES

MONSTERS ON MY STAIRCASE

STAGE 1 CONTINUED

You can go down the Staircase steps and build up points by mashing monsters, but it's always more fun to slide down the Bannister! Jump onto the table, then bound from the frame to the railing. Press Down to start your sliding descent.

A

SUPER SLIDE

When you hit 1,500 points, you're on a slide! The 30 steps will take you down the 3,000-point Super Slide. The top drops the you 1,000 points more! Jump from the stairs to the slide, then slide down to the top of the Bannister. You'll fight some Bannisters and a Mashed Monster. As soon as you begin your slide, though, you'll be restricted and able to get back up onto all the rail!

SPRING-HEELED JACK

Jack springs high into the air and tosses out deadly daggers. You have to avoid the falling knives while you get your bats in. Try to corner Jack in a bit but until he keeps quiet. That will clear the stage and let you move on to the Kitchen, where the monsters are raving! See

TO SPRING-HEELED JACK

BIGFOOT

You're in for a chilly reception from this beast. He throws a freeze spell and charges when you hit him. Walk his charge without taking any damage passed by using double jumps. Hit him in the back, jump over him as he charges, then use double jump again to avoid the freeze spell.

MONSTERS AT MY TABLE

MONSTER
IN MY POCKET

STAGE 2

Ogres, Rocs, Goblins, Ghosts and Ghouls are running rampant in the Kitchen. Clear out the area under the Table, then jump onto the back of the chair to reach the Tabletop. Watch out for flying sugar cubes! They're dangerous to mini-monsters.

TO B

START

MONSTERS ON MY COUNTERTOP

STAGE 2 CONTINUED

You'll start by the sink, then move on to the stovetop. There you have a choice of routes. The upper route has Ogres, Ghosts and three Heart Jars. The lower route, which has two Heart Jars, is easier.

B

TO BIGFOOT

NES

MONSTERS ON MY STREET

STAGE 3

Stage 3 takes you outside and down the front steps. Watch out for gigantic, run-away golf balls and drop through the manhole to the sewer below. It's grimy, it's gross, and it's filled with sewer slime. Enemies pour from pipes in an endless flow, and freaky fish jump from the sludge-like water.

DOUBLE YOUR MONSTER MIGHT

2-PLAYERS TIPS

With two players, you'll have twice as much life power, and when you lose your last life, you can press Select to take an extra one from your partner. Stay together so you can refill your lives at the same time.

PACE YOURSELF

DON'T RUSH IT

If you rush forward too quickly, you run the risk of missing important places and things. You can't walk back.

Once you've passed an area and the screen scrolls ahead, it's gone. Slow down to look for hidden items, keys and keys.

AVOID THE CROWDS

INCH INTO THE ACTION

Even though the levels involve one big, wide room, they're really crowded. You don't have to meet everyone at once.

Stop. Wait for the monster to see Slade, then move on slowly. Stop at least six inches or more on the left.

MONSTERS DOWN THE DRAIN

MONSTER

STAGES 3 CONTINUED

It's down, down, down to the seedy side of the street. The first enemies you meet come marching out of the pipes, one after the other. You could stand there all day fighting them, but a few well-timed Double Jumps will take you safely to the next area.

MONSTER ROSTER

ZOMBIE

10 Points. This undead shuffler along in a hunched, stumbling gait whatever is in his way. He's not so tough, though, that he falls once he approaches.

WINGED PANTHER

5 Points. Watch out! These winged women jump lower than, then suddenly dart in with stunning speed. Be ready to defend yourself with a quick punch.

SKELETON

5 Points. Heads roll when he's after you! The Skeleton is a bad bucket of bones who likes to leap—well, he's a little rock, then he jumps them.

WITCH

5 Points. These Witches have wicked disappearing acts that keep you wondering where they'll be next. Avoid the deadly rings of light that they throw.

HUNCHBACK

5 Points. Though he appears only briefly in the game, he springs from nowhere to make surprise attacks. Watch for his sudden appearance in the bedchambers.

ROC

10 Points. Carrying huge eggs, Rocs fly overhead ready to drop their egg-bellied bombs on hapless ninjas. Jump and punch to get them both.

GHOST

10 Points. Floating visitors, Ghosts follow persistently. Be sure to attack when they come near. If you just pass them by, they'll return to haunt you.

GOBLIN

10 Points. Although they hang out in the sugar bowl, goblins aren't sweet tempered. In the kitchen, they want to hurl huge sugar cakes at you.

CEREBUS

10 Points. A mad hound with a mouth attack, Cerebus is a four-footed fiend. His bark isn't as loud as his bite, so shut his yap before he attacks.

TRITON

20 Points. What kind of foul fish are these? They're poison to you, so steer clear. Don't let their knock you into the sludge when they jump and attack.

MORE MINIS TO COME

STAGE 4

There's a danger ahead in the swirling Chameleon. Don't get head-butted by the spinning Goblins. Clear the path to meet Head But in the Coliseum.

STAGE 5

Will the real Madame Tenebre stand up? Madama is the elusive master of Illusions, so she's somewhere in the Green with Purple, just go for the purple.

HITCH A RIDE

Get floating over and carry the camera. Climb aboard and watch out for the spinning Spikes. There's no Stagnant on this level, so don't take it slow.

STAGE 6

All that's left is to rescue Madama. You've captured all of the huge bosses alive, but can you get it up, without their wife and their wife to boot?

KRAKEN

With terrible tentacles flailing, Kraken is a scary sight. Don't start shaking in your boots, though. Be patient. When he emerges, stand clear and wait until the right tentacles disappear, then jump in, hit, and jump out. Repeat to get as many checks out before the crowd gets impatient.

TECMO® SUPER

Tecmo Bowl A Super

One of the most popular sports games ever produced for the NES has finally inspired a sequel! Tecmo Super Bowl updates the classic Tecmo Bowl with more teams, more plays, more stats

The 49ers In A Down

The San Francisco 49ers squeaked by with a 14-7 victory over the AFC Champion Miami Dolphins in yesterday's exciting end to the 1991 NFL season. Joe Montana and Jerry Rice justified their starting positions in the upcoming Pro Bowl by connecting for 135 of San Francisco's 153 passing yards. Rice scored both 49er touchdowns. The win went to San Francisco despite a convincing last minute effort by Dan Marino and his determined Dolphins to take the game into overtime.

Set Up The Ultimate Challenge

Tecmo Super Bowl's three settings allow you to test your playing abilities in a single game or an entire season. In the preseason, you can pit any two teams against each other. Season games allow you to take the team(s) of your choice through their 1991 schedule(s), saving season progress on the Game Pak's battery backup. The San Francisco 49ers celebrate their 147 Tecmo Super Bowl victory over the Miami Dolphins. The win capped off a lustrous 13-0 championship season.

Joe Montana passes to Jerry Rice for a 33-yard pass to set up the second San Francisco touchdowns.

The 49ers were victorious despite the Dolphins' impressive yardage totals on the ground and in the air.

The NFL On The NES

While the original Tecmo Bowl featured actual player rosters of 12 teams in NFL cities, Tecmo Super Bowl brings the entire NFL to the NES. All 28 teams are represented with team helmets, names and their 30 top players. The abilities of the Tecmo Super Bowl players mirror the abilities of their real life counterparts.

Take Your Team To The Tecmo Super Bowl!

Once you've had a few preseason scrimmages, you'll be ready to start the season. You can control any or all of the 28 teams. With the hands-on approach you move key players, while the coach mode allows you to call in plays from the sidelines. You can also choose to watch computer-controlled games or skip over them and catch the highlights.

The regular season menu allows you to change team control, check the schedule and keep track of stats.

You can control any of the teams in the NFL. Choose "move" to get into the action or choose "coach" to coach your team from the sidelines. You observe the games of "coach" teams and skip the games of "rig" teams.

The 49ers Prevail Over Playoff Rivals

Post season play was vicious with several games decided in the closing minutes. With their 13-3 regular season record, the 49ers were able to sit out the week of wild card games and ensure that their playoff games would be on their home field. Their Divisional Playoff game against the Chicago Bears found the 49ers in top form. They took to the air and scored with five touchdown passes. The NFC Championship Game was decided with a last minute Roger Craig touchdown.

1st Week A Kicker's Battle

Mike Cofer of the 49ers and Matt Bahr of the Giants attempted three field goals each in the first regular season game. Cofer scored with all three but Bahr's second attempt veered right.

Cofer split the uprights with a 47-yarder in the 49ers' 9-6 victory over the New York Giants.

5th Week Rathman Grounded

Running Back Tom Rathman's injury in the second quarter weakened San Francisco's ground attack and contributed to their first loss.

After missing ten quarters of action, Tom Rathman was back in the line-up in the 8th week to take on the Bears.

11th Week Turnover Troubles

Turnovers occurred for the 49ers and the Saints in a sloppy game where New Orleans finally got the upper hand and gave the 49ers their third loss.

After a stunning catch, Jerry Rice let go of the ball and Vaughn Johnson recovered for the Saints.

The intended Saints receiver didn't make it to the ball in time and Dave Wayner picked up his 10th interception of the season.

The Schedule

By looking at the schedule, you can prepare for big games. All games involving "com" teams or teams that you control will be shown in their entirety.

NFC Championship Game A Close One

Trailing 17-6 to the Eagles in the fourth, the 49ers scored on a bomb to Brent Jones and brought it in again after a successful outside kick.

With just under two minutes to go in the game, the 49ers executed an outside kick and reclaimed possession.

Tecmo Super Bowl Montana To Rice

The Dolphins dominated in yardage, but they couldn't turn ground gained into points, while Montana and Rice connected for 14.

Joe Montana and Jerry Rice connected with two touchdown passes for the win.

Team Data

At any point in the season, you can take a look at how each team is doing. You can check records, lineups, play books and stats for individual players. If you investigate an upcoming opponent, you can formulate strategies depending on who's hot and who's not. It's the next best thing to watching game films.

Player's Data

If they're not performing as well as they should, you might want to give the players on your squad a rest. Check out the stats to see how they're doing.

Joe Montana and Jerry Rice both had great seasons.

Play Book

You can employ as many as eight different plays per game. Between games, you'll have a chance to take a look at the defense of your next opponent and rethink your offensive strategy. There is a total of 16 plays to choose from.

Study your next opponent and consider a new offensive strategy for your Play Book.

Running plays involve the quarterback and running backs.

Running backs and wide receivers are active in passing plays.

THE STATS ARE IN

See How You Stack Up

Statistics are available that compare different aspects of every team's game. The most important information is, of course, how the teams are doing in their divisions. You can also see how your offense and defense ranks nationally and check for players that excelled in individual accomplishments.

The A-Flats dominate the NFC West.

NFL Standings

The divisional race is where all the marbles are if you're hoping to secure a playoff spot. Check the standings for your division often and find out what you can do to take over the top spot.

The Skins are an offensive powerhouse.

Team Rankings

Statistics list offensive and defensive accomplishments. Check out the numbers for your competition and you may find a weakness which you can exploit in your next meeting.

NFL Leaders

Some of your players may top the lists of individual talents. Access this list for NFC, AFC and combined NFL rankings. You may also see who you'll have to shut down in competing squads.

Joe Montana linearly edges Don Marino in the category of NFL passers. Total yards is the most important stat.

Not one can touch Neal Anderson when it comes to yards per carry and total touchdowns.

Invincible Snowman

Breeze through the stages of this challenger without taking heat from any of your enemies. When the title screen appears, press and hold Left and Down on the Control Pad and the A and B Buttons, all at the same time. Then press the Start Button. When you begin, your Snowman will be able to come into direct contact with the enemies and not take any damage!

Hold Left, Down, A and B. Then press Start to begin with an unbeatable Snowman.

Bonus Bowl

Bowl over all of the creatures in a stage with one Snowball and you'll be able to collect big points. When all of the enemies have been wiped out with a single shot, bills will appear in place of the flattened enemies. Collect the bills before they disappear. You'll earn 500 points for every one that you nab.

Track out all of the enemies on the screen with one Snowball and collect a big bonus.

Stage Select

While the invincible Snowman code takes the challenge out of the game, there's a different code that allows you to add to the challenge by skipping to difficult stages from the beginning. On the title screen, press and hold Up on the Control Pad and the Select and B Buttons, all at the same time. Then press the Start Button. A "Map Select" screen will appear, allowing you to begin in any of 51 stages. Press Up and Down to change the stage number on the screen, then press the Start Button when you've reached the desired stage.

Press and hold Up, Select and B. Then press Start and you'll be able to choose a challenging stage.

■ FROM AGENT #973

Stage Select Plus

While the cannons on the front of your car are your most powerful offense in the driving scenes, you can also knock out enemies by using the flames that come out of the back of the car. They'll appear when you shift gears. Drive near the top of the screen and when an enemy approaches from below, hit the A Button and let 'em have it.

Hit a number from below with a shot of exhaust.

■ FROM AGENT #365
Backfire Blast

You can begin your world-saving mission on any stage of this sci-fi thriller by entering a quick two-controller code and double your life potential at the same time. When the title screen appears, press and hold the buttons that correspond with the desired stage on the table below, then press the Start Button on Controller 1. You'll begin the game in the stage that you selected with 12 life units instead of the usual six.

STAGE	CONTROLLER I	CONTROLLER II
Stage I	--	A, B and Up
Stage II	A	A, B and Up
Stage III	B	A, B and Up
Stage IV	Right	A, B and Up

You can quickly zip to Stage IV with double the usual amount of life. When the title screen appears, press and hold the A and B buttons and Up on the Control Pad of Controller 1. At the same time, press and hold Right on the Control Pad of Controller 1, then press the Controller 1 Start Button.

■ FROM AGENT #717
Q Code

Start your space exploration with more than double the usual number of ships and astronauts and skip ahead 10 planets with an easy-to-remember password. Select the password option on the title screen and enter all Q's. You'll begin in a bonus stage known as Planet U where there are only Gems and you'll have 10 seconds to pick up as many of them as you can. After the time is up, you'll be sent to Planet 10. You can choose to explore the surface or blast off to the next planet. Once you begin exploring a planetary surface, you'll see that your ships and astronauts in reserve total four. But this reserve will not begin to deplete until your ship and astronaut have been blasted six times!

Enter All Q's and take off to Planet U. Once you've collected all of the Gems that you can in the allotted time, you'll be able to explore Planet 10 or blast off to Planet 11.

This password allows for more ships and astronauts in reserve than can be shown on the screen. You'll have to lose six of each before the reserves begin to deplete.

FROM AGENT #174 Stage Select

Blast off to the advanced stages of this space thriller and increase the difficulty level with a super quick code. On the title screen, press the R Button once, then press Up on the Control Pad nine times. You'll hear a tone when the code is successfully entered. Start the game and pause the action by pressing the Start Button. Then press the R, A and Select Buttons, all at the same time. A number will appear in the lower left corner of the screen. You'll be able to change that number by pressing Up and Downs on the Control Pad. Numbers 01 through 07 signify the seven stages of the game and numbers 11 through 17 signify those same stages in a difficulty level one notch higher than the level that you have already selected. If you've selected the Hard Mode and you pick a number that increases the difficulty level, you'll find yourself sailing through space in the super challenging Pro Mode.

Press R once and Up nine times, then start the game.

Pause the action and press R, A and Select at the same time.

Change the number that appears by pressing Up and Downs on the Control Pad.

If you selected number 17, you'll go to Stage 7 and play in a higher difficulty level.

Instant Power-Up

You can Power-Up at any time with any weapon in Super R-Type by using a two-part code. On the title screen, press the key words: Control Pad and the 8 Buttons in the following order: Down, R, Right, Down, Right, Right, Down, Right, Down, Down. A tone will sound after the code is entered correctly. Once you start the game, press the Start Button to pause the action and use the Control Pad and R and Y Buttons to enter this code: R, Right, Down, Y, Down, Right, Down, Left, Right, Down, Right, Right. Next, select your Power-Ups by pressing the A, B, X, Y or R Button to choose one of the weapons listed below and press the A or X Button to select an additional attack. When you resume play, you'll blast through the alien forces with super powerful weapons. You can change these weapons at any time by pausing the action and entering the second part of the code again with different Power-Up indications at the end.

Press Down, R, Right, Down, Right, Right, Down, Right, Down and Down again. A tone will sound. Then start the game, pause the action and press R, Right, Down, Y, Down, Right, Down, Left, Right, Down, Right and Right again. Next, press A, B, X, Y or R to choose your initial attack and press A or X to choose missiles or bombs.

INITIAL ATTACK
A	Sky Attack Laser
B	Ground Attack Laser
X	Reflect Laser
Y	Spread Laser
R	Shot Gun Bomb

MISSILES AND BOMBS
A	Homing Missile
X	Spread Bomb

Once you're keyed in the code to Power-Up (R, Right, Down, Y, Down, Right, Down, Left, Right, Down, Right and Right again), press a button in the first column to indicate your initial attack and press a button in the second column to add missiles or bombs.

FROM AGENT #312 Bonus Stages

Our agents have discovered several bonus areas in the far reaches of space. You'll find them on Stages 2, 3 and 4 by soaring into seemingly solid areas and, in the cases of Stages 3 and 4, meeting certain conditions. The entrance to the bonus area of Stage 2 is at the bottom of the screen. When you fly into the section that is lined with a blue, liquid substance, look for a hole and dive into it. You'll appear in an area that is filled with breakable pink orbs. Clear them away and you'll uncover several point-producing devices. The condition upon entering the bonus area in Stage 3 is that you must destroy all of the guns on the ground. Fly up close to the low rock ceiling as pictured below and you will make your way into the bonus area. A Moai Statue proves to be the bonus area entrance in Stage 4. Make sure that none of the Power-Ups are highlighted on the bar at the bottom of the screen and soar into the back of the Moai pictured. Our agents are currently searching for more bonus areas. We'll let you know as soon as they find them.

Fly into the floor of Stage 2 and you'll end in the bonus.

Stage 3

Defeat the ground forces and fly up for a bonus.

Stage 4

Fly into this Moai with no Power-Up lit and you'll enter another bonus area.

FROM AGENT #414 Hidden 1-Ups

There are 1-Ups hidden in the areas of Bloodpool and Kasandora. You can make them surface by controlling the elements. Create a rain shower in the woods that are located northeast of the lake in Bloodpool. After the storm, the villagers will uncover an artifact which they will offer to you. This Source of Life will work as a 1-Up, giving you an extra chance to fight off the forces of evil. You'll also dig up a Source of Life in Kasandora. Once you've washed away the sand in the north and uncovered a pyramid, create an earthquake. The walls of the pyramid will collapse and reveal the life-giving treasure.

Create a storm in Bloodpool and you'll uncover a 1-Up.

Soar up the Kasandora Pyramid to find a valuable artifact.

FROM AGENT #046 Wait There's More!

While you can only select Beginner, Standard or Expert Classes at the beginning of the Grand Prix Mode, you can graduate to a higher class if you demonstrate amazing driving abilities. Choose the Expert Class and complete all five courses of any of the three leagues, placing first, second or third. You'll be rewarded by entering the challenging Master Class.

Master a set of five courses and you'll graduate from the Expert Class.

BACK FROM THE SEWERS

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, TM & © 1991 MIRAGE STUDIOS USA. EXCLUSIVELY LICENSED BY SURGE LICENSING INC. TM & © 1991 Konami

THOSE BODACIOUS BROS. ARE BACK

They were on vacation in the sewers, but all good things must come to an end. Now the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles are back and hard at work. Also hard at work was the Konami team that put this great Game Boy title together. The graphics are better than Fall Of The Foot Clan, plus there are some awesome new moves and game options. So what are the Turtles up to? Saving April, of course, and wreaking their own brand of radical, reptilian revenge against Shredder, Kraog and all the Foot Clao gang. Six action stages, three difficulty levels, plus bonus and rescue stages insure that T.M.N.T. Back From the Sewers will challenge Turtles and humans alike.

"PIZZA TIME"

MEAN AND GREEN

If you thought the Turtles had righteous moves before, wait 'til you see what they're up to now. Each of the Bros. has his special ninja weapon and you can choose the best Turtle for each stage. But now the Turtles' powers have been increased with a Sliding Kick and the ability to hang on to overhead handholds and swing up on top. They'll need every mutant move they can get.

BONUS GAMES AND JAIL BREAKS

At the end of each Act you'll have a chance to regain lost Turtles or hit points in the Bonus Game (if you didn't lose a Turtle) or enter the Rescue Game (if you did). In either case, winning back what you lost won't be easy.

BONUS GAME

You'll go to the Bonus Game if you didn't lose a Turtle during an Act. Grab as many pizzas as you can before they disappear.

RESCUE GAME

The robotic jailer isn't easy to defeat. He fires bullets in two patterns and tries to step on you. You'll have only a limited time to defeat him and rescue a Bro. If the jailer hits you, you'll lose precious time.

ACTION FOR EVERYONE

Three difficulty levels from Easy to Hard insures that everyone has a chance. You can also switch A and B Button functions.

"WE'RE BACK AND WE'RE Badder THAN EVER."

ACT 1: BACK INTO ACTION

Your Turtle finds action below the street in Stage 1-1. Watch out for Foot Clan ninjas who attack from in front and behind at the same time. The map shown is incomplete, but is representative of the entire stage.

STAGE 1-1

TO STAGE 1-2

FOOT SANDWICH

Many Foot Soldiers attack in tandem. The front ninja usually jumps first. Hit him then turn quickly. A fast Turtle like Raphael works best.

THE BOMBS JUMP

Some Foot Soldiers cling to the wall and throw grenades. Use the Jump Kick to knock them off. All the Turtles have equal jumping ability.

STAGE 1-2

TO STAGE 1-3

Back on the street, life doesn't get any easier. In addition to the endless stream of Foot Soldiers, you'll have to deal with guys throwing manhole covers and grenades.

IN THE HOLE

The Turtles aren't the only ones coming back from the sewers. Some Foot Soldiers have been hiding inside manholes. Watch out for them as they emerge and haul the manhole cover at you. First hit the cover, then move back to avoid the Foot Soldier as he leaps out.

STOP AND GO

The grenade guy on the street throws three grenades, then backs off. Don't attack him. He reappears only on the Hard setting, and even then he's no threat.

STAGE 1-3

TO STAGE 1-4

Back underground you'll run into a mad bomber who blows a hole in the sewer floor. The only way past the hole is hand-over-hand on the pipe above.

PARTY ANIMALS

A gang of Foot Soldiers is throwing a party, and the Turtles aren't invited. A dozen enemies jump at you, sometimes two or three at a time. Attack the closest first.

STAGE 1-4

You're tired, Footsore, and you're about to face Rocksteady. What you really need is a pizzal! Luckily, Master Splinter is on hand to give you a full pizza to boost your energy and spirits.

THIS AIN'T THE HARD ROCK CAFE

Rocksteady puts you between a rock and a hard place. He fires three shots then leaps across the screen. Get too close and he'll knock you around. Stay in the middle of the screen and hit the bullets. Rocksteady then jumps over your head. Turn and hit him several times, before moving back to the center.

Rocksteady works for Shredder and likes Turtles about as much as a punch in the horn. Avoid his jumps by staying in the middle of the screen.

ACT 2: SKATEBOARD TO GLORY

Act 2 consists of one long stage. The Foot forces attack you on the road with skateboarders, helicopters, missile-firing and boomerang-throwing Foot Soldiers, lurches and Tubular Transports. Once again Raphael's quick attack is best.

TURTLE AIR FORCE

The helicopters strafe the ground and everything on it, including Turtles. Ground them with two Jump Kicks. If you jump to avoid the shots, the chopper will move off screen.

GET A CLOSE-UP

Raphael's quickness with the Sai pays off when the missiles and boomerangs start to fly. The trick is to line up with the incoming missile or boomerang and hit it when it gets close.

TUBULAR TRANSPORT

These hovering horrors are easy to defeat. Skate up to the middle of the road and wait for them to swoop down. Hit the Tubular Transports when they zip down from the upper right corner.

KICK SOME BEBOP

Bebop has some dangerous moves. First he fires a spread of four shots. Next he tries to kick your Turtle. Finally, he does the Bebop hop ... on your face!

Jump the bullets, then attack Bebop when he struts in. Avoid the Bebop hop by leaping out in the center.

GAME BOY

ACT 3: CONSTRUCTIVE ACTION

The action has moved to a construction site where you could use a hardhat as well as your shell. Buckets fall off buildings and Foot Soldiers try to hammer you. Take the upper ledge for an easier trip.

STAGE 3-1

TO STAGE 3-2

MASS MOUSERS

An array of Mousers waits in the wings, ready to attack. Once again Raphael's goodness gives you an advantage, because the Mousers often attack in a train. If two Mousers are waiting, move forward until the second Mouser jumps, then hop back. In this way you'll fight only one Mouser at a time.

STAGE 3-3

You'll find Mousers, Foot Soldiers and Tubular Transports on multiple levels on this stage. The route indicated on the map is the safest path through the construction area.

GET THE PIZZA

Leap across the gap from the hanging girder to the pizza guy. You can also get up through the building. You'll probably need the pizza up by then, and Krang is just ahead in his Dimension X space ship.

ACT 4: UNDER ACHIEVEMENTS

STAGE 4-1

The Turtles head back underground for Act 4 and a rock and roll rumble. Duck the bouncing boulders and they'll pass over your head. The rolling rocks, in either the flat or steep area, can be jumped in a single bound.

The middle part of this stage keeps the bear on with five spoons waiting from the floor. Your Turtle may get toasted if you're not careful.

Stop and level when the boulder first appears.

Look for a pizza in the fourth fire about all.

After three close fire spots is a second pizza.

STAGE 4-2

Press forward into the Mouser-infested tunnel, but don't hang around. When you reach the water, keep moving. There is no end to the Mousers that are attacking.

The Pizza Monster lives in the sewer, fiercely guarding his treasure. Stand on the right bank and hit him on the nose repeatedly to win his pizza.

Here the Mousers hide in holes and leap out. You'll have to be extra quick to defeat the masses of Mousers. It might be easier just to race ahead to a pizza.

Go to the right bank and wait for the Pizza Monster to pop up close by, then hit him.

STAGE 3-2

The elevator takes you for a ride on the wild side. Foot Soldiers leap onto the platform from the back and front. Keep moving across the platform, because the enemy tries to jump to the location of your Turtle. As always, attack the closest Foot Soldier first. If they sandwich you, jump out of the crowd.

Enemies try to hit your Turtle as they leap around. Walk back and forth a short distance from the bottom of the platform to confuse them.

Foot Soldiers also leap onto the platform from above. Move to attack the first enemy to appear, then the second and so on.

STAY OFF THE ROOF

The rooftop is the most dangerous part of this stage. Only items will you be attacked by both Assassins and Tabular Terrorists. Although sometimes you have no choice but to go together, don't stay too long.

NO BODY, BUT KRANG

Poor Krang has no body...yet. Stay near the center of the screen, jump over the energy ball and dodge the missiles. Attack when the ship drops down.

The missile ship from the top of the screen, but there are safe gaps between them.

The energy ball is easy to jump over. Krang has it every time he loads his ship.

SHREDDER SHOWS HIS HAND

Where Shredder goes, Turtles are soon to follow. Watch for this archfiend's jump attacks. The best strategy is to kneel close to the place where he stands on the left and hit him repeatedly. Move back toward the center and kneel to avoid the return jump.

THE PIZZA BONUS

One Bonus Game has three flat ledges where pizzas appear. In another you jump over spikes; a third requires you to slide beneath blocks and a fourth puts you in a construction zone.

GAME BOY

ACT 5: TURTLES IN FREE FALL

After Splinter drops you off, make your stand on the hovering platforms, but watch out for Foot Soldiers, bombs and other traps. Keep hopping toward the right and don't pass up either of the two pizza guys. Moving vertically will get you nowhere. In fact, near the beginning of the stage you can free fall forever.

STAGE 5-1

FALLING MISSILES

Bombs rain from above, and to make matters worse, a Foot foe waits for you just beyond the bombs. Jump past the first set of bombs, hit the second set, and attack the Foot Soldier.

STAGE 5-2

Your final jump from the sky platforms leaves you on a rooftop with Baxter the Flyman. Inside, you'll find a horde of Foot Soldiers, a pizza guy, and the Stone Warrior, who has the ability to roll up like a boulder.

BAXTER STOCKMAN: THE FLYMAN

Baxter flies at about the height of the top of the door housing. Get on top of that small building to attack him, then evade his laser shots by jumping. Baxter won't hang around long.

THE INNER ROOMS

A party of Foot Soldiers waits inside the first room, and more of Shredder's men are ready to leap into the fray as needed. Position yourself in the middle and attack the closest enemy.

THE STONE WARRIOR

The Stone Warrior won't crumble easily. Jump to avoid the Stone, which always rolls toward you. When he reverts to his Warrior form, Jump Kick through him. If you try to hit him, you'll get scorched by his flame thrower.

TRIPLE TROUBLE

Drop down from the left side of the platform with the triple gun and fall to the right. Time the fall to avoid the bullets and hit the Foot Soldier with a Kick.

FOOT SOLDIERS

Your best strategy is to approach Foot Soldiers from below. Leap up and cling to the bottom of a platform, then swing up when the Foot Soldier is on the opposite side. Now you can attack.

TUBULAR TRANSPORT

These annoying robots home-in on Turtles, so you can't ignore them. If one appears, wait for it and destroy it before trying to make a jump. Another Tubular Transport will soon be on the way.

SOME FOES NEVER DIE...

... they just get more ticked off, which is why in the sixth and final stage a green Turtle can turn yellow with fear. After navigating a river lined with mines, you'll face the wrath of more Turtle-hating villains.

The Stone Warrior has learned a thing or two since your last encounter.

What you can't see can hurt you. Listen for clues.

Kicking won't be so easy to detect the second time around.

GAME BOY

BEEBLEJUICE™

"Yesiree, Bob. It's me, the Ghost-With-the-Most and I'm at it again. This time LJN is letting me wreak havoc in a new Game Boy adventure! This game is fairly unique in the fact that it combines action scenes, various puzzle screens, and screens which give you help from Lydia along with the Big "B" himself! The graphics, sound, and play control are all very good! Spirits beware: Beetlejuice is on the loose!

STAGE 1

BEETLEJUICE

The Deetz's house sure does have a lot of staircases. They're tricky, too. Most of the diagonal staircases have booby-trapped steps. If you happen to step on one, POW! Down you'll go to the bottom of the stairs. A general rule is to find a solid step then skip the next step and so on. Watch out! Those nasty ghoules have gotten into the china cabinet and will throw plates at you as you try to go up the long vertical staircases. The best way to make it up the stairs is to jump quickly. Avoid the beasts on the diagonal staircase before you get to door C. It can't be defeated. You must jump over it, but you'll have to find a solid step about half way down the staircase. The sculpture that looks like a murex bromosaurus is also taken over by a ghost. It usually appears on the upper floors.

Laundry Room

By entering the laundry room door you will find three ghoules who will appear then hide in the clothing. One at a time, the clothed ghosts will attack you. When the ghosts have been defeated the Bubble Ghost Boss will swoop out of the dryer. Stay on the right side of the screen. It takes 16 hits to defeat the boss. Fire rapidly if you become enticed in a bubble.

Each item of clothing can be defeated with three hits and each ghost will take three hits to be escaped. Watch out for those soapy bubbles!

Pantry

Welcome to the pantry. It's usually in poor taste to stand on tables, but in this room it's definitely the safest spot. Stay there. Cans, jars and various food items will fall out of the upper cabinets. You must shoot at the items to make them collide with the boss on the left side of the screen. Duck or jump to avoid the boss that the boss throws.

This is a relatively easy level. It will take about eight hits of the falling non-poisonable food items to defeat him.

Living Room

Seven plates line the wall of the living room, but three more pesky ghosts are at it again. As with the clothing in the laundry room it will take three hits to break each plate. Each ghost will be defeated by three hits as well. There is no boss in this room. Watch the movements of the plates and ghosts. They move in a definite pattern.

There is no boss in this room. Each ghost has a specific attack pattern. Take your shots accordingly.

GAME BOY

Hallway Closet

Take a break in the action for a Funny Faces Contest. Use the A Button to select the facial features. The Gross Rating you receive for your face will help you in the next challenge: The Gross-Key Challenge! The higher your Gross Rating, the higher your pointer will start on the meter.

Push the directional control on your Game Boy to correspond with the leading section of the on-screen directional control. Win every time if you're fast!

Bathroom

Bettlejuice must tackle heavy-duty plumbing chores in this room. The beetle at the top is going to turn the water on so Bettlejuice must connect the pipes to make the water drain down to the bathtub. There's a catch! The water MUST travel through the pipes marked with the numbers 1 and 2. It can be very helpful to pause the game to stop the timer and to plan your next move. Hold down the A Button when you want to move a segment of pipe.

Maybe Bettlejuice should get Hama to help him out with his tricky plumbing task. Nah! He's the Ghast-With-the-Nails!

Boiler Room

The object of this room is to get the arrow all the way to the right on the meter. The key to success is to avoid the light-colored, flashing water drops. They will cause the arrow to go to the left. The darker water drops are the ones you want to catch in Bettlejuice's magic bag.

The second phase of this room features a ghost that resembles a giant slug! Avoid the water drops as he circles the room. Blast away when he slimes down the right side of the room. Jump over, then blast him repeatedly as he sits in the lower left corner. He will require quite a few hits to be defeated so be patient and watch the water bombs he shoots at you!

STAGE 2

Now that you've cleared the main part of the house, it's time for a little action in the attic. The object is to defeat the main ghost and monster enemies then exit the house through the skylight at the top of the attic. The stinky Stage 1 gave you no opportunities to find or earn 1-Ups, but Stage 2 will cure that problem in no time flat! There are a couple of rooms in which you can earn a 1-Up and when you defeat the enemies and exit the attic there are a couple more 1-Ups in the clouds outside the house. The attic will take a little patience and brain work to complete. It's not easy! Keep in mind the locations of the candles and the chests which you can open. There are some upright chests which you can blast away to clear a path.

1-Up Room

This room is reminiscent of Wendy O. Koopa's boss room in Super Mario World. The idea is the same: jump on the odd monster out. Hit the odd monster and the 1-Up will move closer to the end of the shelf and will fall down when you've hit the monster enough times.

Jump on the monster with the antennae, but don't hit the others or the 1-Up will move the wrong way!

Another 1-Up Room

You'll have to work hard to get this 1-Up. The monster will jump from case to case at a blinding rate and then disappear into one of the cases. You have to guess which case was the last one he appeared on. A few correct guesses in a row will net you a 1-Up.

Here's a hint: use the pause feature to your advantage by slowing down the motion of the monster.

BEEBLEJUICE

Other Stages

The Ghost-With-the-Most must banish a multitude of ghouls, ghosts and specters in the stages to come. The mixture of action scenes and puzzle screens are a breath of fresh air. Remember, be sure to get as many 1-Ups as possible because the Contingents are nowhere to be found. They've vanished! You'll have a blast as Beetlejuice thrashes up all the enemies that this game can dish out.

How Can I Defeat The Ghost?

The key to defeating the Ghost is knowing exactly how he moves. What makes him angry? Is he attracted to anything in particular? Does he speed up? Knowing the answers to these questions will help you defeat the Ghost. First of all, clear a path to the candle on the third floor by shooting a case out of the way. Get behind the ghost as he moves left and shoot rapidly to force him into the open area at the left. He will go to the second floor, ascend the ladder, and then go to the right. When the Ghost touches the candle he'll be defeated. WHOOSH!

Force the Ghost out to the left by getting behind him and shooting rapidly. This will get him to go up.

"The Ghost looks a little bit chilly. I'll warm him up with this candle!" That beetle juice... what a creek up.

The results are in and there are plenty more challenges to come for Beetlejuice in this adventure!

How Do I Defeat The Monsters?

These Monsters are the curious sort. They're always looking for some new kind of trouble to get into. Locate where the Monsters are (they will remain still until provoked) and then find the most convenient trunk. Defeat the small, round monster which comes out and then go back for the main Monster. Shoot him to get him to follow then lure him into the trunk.

This pesky little guy will hound you and you defeat him. He may be on the small side, but he's a tough for his size.

"Hey, Mr. Monster. Why don't you look and see what's in the trunk?" He doesn't know it, but he'll meet his demise here.

GAME BOY

PRINCE of PERSIA®

In Prince of Persia, the latest release for Game Boy by Virgin Games, you play a lovestruck young warrior who has just one hour to save his Princess from the horrible tyrant, Jaffar. The graphics, play control and character animation are particularly impressive. That, combined with 14 challenging levels filled with hidden traps and tricky jumps adds up to make a great, well-rounded action-adventure game to play on your Game Boy.

The Dangers Of The Dungeons

Sword fighting skills help, but quick thinking and fancy footwork is what will make it or break it for you as you make your way through this tricky castle.

Drop Away Floors

Be sure to make a quick leap! With these deep, wavy floors, you may not always be on solid ground.

Ghosts

Can't seem to beat the Ghost? No surprise. Try putting his off a ledge for the best results.

Spike Traps

Keep an eye out for signs of a Spike Trap. A long jump will easily get you over safely.

Guards

Watch your distance. As soon as he moves to block, then job forward with your sword. It takes three hits to subdue a Guard.

Snap Traps

Perfect timing is what will determine whether you make it alive. Stand back and make a long jump just as the teeth close.

LEVEL 1

PRINCE OF PERSIA

Try following our hero through Level One on his journey to rescue the Princess. Your main goal is to retrieve the sword, but now is a good time to get familiar with the unique play-control and some of the challenging obstacles you are going to have to face later on in the game. The level is divided into three sections on the map so you can easily identify any trouble spots. Step-by-step instructions are included above each section of the map, so head for the start, and start following along to the left!

More holes in the floor means more Spilla Traps. It'd better move out of this area, because being stuck in this case...

I can pick up items by pressing Down on the Control Pad. The Sword sure will be useful in battle.

Oh! Stepping on these hidden spots will activate a door switch. Better hurry before a door!

I'm lucky I kept moving or else I would have surely ended up like that girl! Those girls' lovers could break at any second.

If I step on the left switch, the door closes. A press of the A Button from just before the gap should get me past.

I almost fell through this sticky trap, away from it! But I can grab the ledge as I fall by holding the B Button...

I'd better remember that useful trick! I can get past it by jumping from a really high spot.

I think this there might be a Spilla Trap down there, but how can I open the door?

Now I suppose I should go back the way I came. Good thing I remember all the rough spots I already went through!

Now that I have the Sword, I should be able to fight more enemies. I haven't seen any yet, though.

When I pulled myself up this time, I also managed to activate the door switch so I can keep going to the right.

Pulling Up on the Control Pad will help me reach that high ledge. Then, I can jump across the wide gap.

This looks familiar. We'll see very close to where I started out on my journey.

Hehe... I wonder what might happen if I continue going to the right. Maybe I'll find something...

My first enemy! My Sword is used automatically, so all I have to remember is to block (B Button) and jab (A Button). Win we look!

LEVEL 2

Now it's time to put those sword-fighting skills to good use—especially with three Guardians to contend with! Tricky spots are marked in blue on the map. See above or below those sections for tips.

EXIT

Exit Switch

It's another good time to utilize your long jumping skill! Grab the ledge in mid-air to activate the exit switch and complete the level.

Tricky Jump

Stand five steps from the edge, jump up and pull yourself up to the next platform for a Life refill. Hop back down and stand near the edge of the ledge. A long jump should get you across.

Silly Switches

This section takes a little planning. Activate the first switch, carefully step forward to break open the floor, but don't land on the next switch. Instead, make a long jump and avoid the second switch or else the door will close.

LEVEL 3

Level Three can be really challenging! There are many dead ends and some difficult jumps. Try experimenting—that's the key to discovering the secrets of this level.

Exit Switch

The final exit switch is on the same screen as the door, but you must work your way up and around to get to it.

One Chance

Run from the right to the left, and make a long jump about three or four steps before the edge. It may take a few tries to get this move down.

A Leap Of Faith

To Reach The Switch

It's not too apparent at first, but if you make a long jump to the right, you will find the path to the exit switch you will need to open a door later on in the level.

Long Jump

This jump looks almost impossible, but you can do it! From the top ledge, make a long pump and grab that ledge in mid-air.

Spike Trap

Stand right in front of the holes and make a long pump.

PRINCE OF PERSIA

Another Guard

For the first Guard, move on until your Guard appears, then wait for him to come to you. As soon as he gets close enough, let him leave!

START

THE WORST IS YET TO COME!

Making it through the first three levels got you off to a good start, but there are still eleven more challenging levels you must leap your way through in order to save your true love. Remember everything you have learned so far—it will prove to be helpful as you continue on your way. Don't give up yet!

LEVEL 5

It could be your imagination, but just when you thought you had that jumping technique down pat, those gaps tend to get wider....

LEVEL 8

You had better step lively around here, because those Spike Traps seem to have gotten a lot hungrier!

LEVEL 10

Now that class of Evil from East Switches have gotten much trickier as you progress deeper and deeper into the game.

LEVEL 14

But the most precious vision in your mind at the moment? Princess will see you through the prepared for the final confrontation!

HOW DO I GET OUT OF FOREST OF ILLUSION 3?

Jeffery Decker

Many people seem to be having trouble finding the secret exit to Castle #5 from Forest of Illusion 3. Don't despair. Although it is hidden, the exit is easy to reach. Near the end of Forest of Illusion 3 you'll find a tall green pipe. To reach the pipe you'll have to get past the team of Bob-ombs and Chargin' Chucks that are lined up against you. Once there, hop to the top of the pipe and jump down into the secret underground area. There you'll find a Key protected by breakable blocks. Use your Spin Jump to smash the blocks, then take the Key and put it in the Keyhole to reach the secret exit. Now you'll be able to move on through the forest to Castle #5, where Roy Koopa is waiting.

Forest of Illusion 3 has two exits. One leads to the Forest Ghost House. The other leads to Castle #5.

You'll have to run the gauntlet of Bob-ombs and Chargin' Chucks before you reach the pipe.

Go almost all the way to the end of Forest of Illusion 3 and jump up into the tall green pipe.

Duck down the tall green pipe into the hidden underground world that leads to the secret exit.

Use the Spin Jump to break the blocks so you can take the Key and insert it into the Keyhole.

Now the road will be open through the forest to Castle #5, where Roy Koopa is waiting.

WHERE ARE THE FOUR SWITCH PALACES?

The Yellow Switch Palace is easy to find: just head to the left from Yoshi's House. You can reach the three remaining switch palaces through secret exits in Donut Plains 2, Vanilla Dome 2 and Forest of Illusion 2. The Green Switch Palace is accessible through Donut Plains 2. Take the second green pipe up into the room with the Chargn Chuck. You must be Super Mario, because you'll have to Spin Jump to break out the blocks and grab the blue shell. Then throw the shell at the highest block in the air so a vine grows up to a hidden room. The Key and Keyhole are in that room. Use the P Switch in Vanilla Dome 2 near the wall of blocks to turn them into coins. Run through the coins and jump down. You'll find the Key on a ledge and the Keyhole in the water. Swim carefully with the Key to the Key Hole, which unlocks the Red Switch Palace. In Forest of Illusion 2, swim to the far right, then move down past the Urchins. Head to the left when you reach the bottom. Beyond the block is a wall through which Mario can walk or swim to reach the Key and Keyhole, but watch out for the Rip Van Fish or you might not reach the Blue Switch Palace!

YELLOW SWITCH PALACE

WHAT DO I DO ONCE I HAVE 5 STAFF PIECES AND 3 KEYS?

Chance Warner

Once you have the five pieces of the Staff and three Keys, your next objective is to find the Fourth Key. If earlier you visited the room that is marked with a star, you may think it is a dead end, but once you have five pieces of the Staff and three Keys, two blocks will appear and you will be able to reach the room's exit. The easiest route from Start is to follow the route indicated by the map below. From Start, make your way south and west to the blue, multilevel room. Drop down four levels and go straight ahead until you reach the large multilevel room shown in the photos. In that room, position the bubble in the corner so the gremlin changes his route. Now you can get a lift on the gremlin to reach the next level and proceed to the room with the star. The Fourth Key is close by. Soon after this you'll find a teleporter that transports you to the tower where the final piece of the staff awaits.

The gremlin moves in the wrong direction to be of any help to you when you first reach this room.

Place the bubble in the corner then hop on the gremlin. From its head you can reach the higher level.

Blocks appear if you have five pieces of the Staff and three Keys. The exit is now at reach

THE ROUTE TO THE FOURTH KEY

Follow the route indicated by the map once you've found five of the Pieces of the Staff and three Keys. If you are already deep in the maze, go to the room indicated by a star. It may have seemed like a dead end before, but now there will be two blocks so you can reach the exit.

WHERE ARE THE BALLS IN THE WESTERN WORLD?

Before you can timeslip the historical dude or babe in Western World you must first find the four hidden Balls. Look for the first Ball in front of a tepee just past the first Horse Ride on the west side of the world. The second Ball is in the northeast area.

From the northeast corner, walk west to an intersection, then head south a short distance until you see two rocks and a tepee. Jump in front of the tepee for the Ball. For the third Ball, head east from the southwest corner and turn north at the first intersection.

Look for two stamps on the left-hand side. Just beyond them is a rock. Jump in front of the rock to score the Ball. The final Ball lies east of the northwest corner in an alley between the first two buildings you reach.

Jump in front of the tepee, beyond the first Horse Ride on the west side and near the intersection.

Jump in front of the tepee near the intersection west of the northeast corner. Seek two rocks and a stump.

Travel east then north from the southwest corner. Jump in front of the rock just above two stumps.

WESTERN WORLD

Most areas of Western World look pretty much the same—a stump here, a rock there. Use intersections and buildings as landmarks.

Go east from the northwest corner until you reach the first two buildings. Enter the alley between them.

Once you have the four Balls, look in the buildings and use clues from people to find the historical character.

GARGOYLE'S QUEST

HOW DO I DEFEAT RUSHIFELL?

Dave Munziker

Once you've slipped past the spikes and collapsing roofs of Rushifell's lair, you've still got Rushifell himself to defeat. It won't be easy, but there are ways to disarm Rushifell's potent fireball. Attack him with the Boomerang from the lower block on the left side of the room. Aim for Rushifell's head and remember that the Boomerang attack will be effective only if the Boomerang is thrown when the monster's arms are down. Watch for the appearance of Rushifell's Heat-seeking fireball, as well. He'll start flashing as a warning signal. When the fireball starts to form, jump to the upper block, and when the Heat-seeker comes toward you, jump up and down on the block. The scrolling action that results from your jumping will make Attack repeatedly from the lower left block with a Boomerang. It will take 15 hits to beat Rushifell, but you won't be able to strike all 15 of one time.

Rushifell's shot vanish off the screen before it has a chance to scorch you. Now you can jump back to the lower block and resume your attack until Rushifell releases another fireball. A second method is to race around the blocks in a clockwise direction when Rushifell fires the Heat-seeker. Again, the scrolling action makes the fireball disappear. It will take about 15 hits and a lot of jumping back and forth to defeat the fiend and earn Infinite Flight, Darkfire and the Eternal Candle as your prizes. Afterwards, you'll still have to face the dangers of Betager's Castle in order to save the Ghoull Realm and finish the game.

When Rushifell releases the fireball, jump to the upper block. You can't dodge the heat seeking attack, but you'll be able to make it disappear.

Jump up and down so the screen will scroll. The scrolling action should be enough to make the fireball disappear at the bottom of the screen.

Now jump back down to the lower block and attack. Make sure Rushifell's arms are lowered before throwing the Boomerang at him.

SUPER CASTLEVANIA IV

super Castlevania IV

One hundred years have passed since Dracula last terrorized Transylvania. Again the ghosts are abroad and the night is shattered by the howling of wolves. With whip in hand, Simon Belmont begins a journey into darkness. Thus begins Konami's blood-chilling Super Castlevania IV for the Super NES.

A NIGHT OF ACTION

As anyone who has played a Castlevania game knows, the Belmonts use whips in their pursuit of Dracula. In Castlevania IV, the Whip can be directed in eight directions; it can be swung with a circular motion, and it can be used as a swing to cross open spaces. Simon's jumping is also improved, and he can squat down to pass under low ledges. As in some other Castlevania games, you will find items for special attacks, and the game is saved using Password symbols.

WHIP

By gathering Power-Ups, the Whip becomes a Morning Star with greater range and a more damaging attack. You can also use it to swing across open spaces.

JUMP

Simon has better jumping control than ever before, and you'll need it when making leaps to swinging chandeliers or when avoiding swift enemies like panthers.

ITEMS

Some items can be used as weapons and cast a certain number of Hearts when used. Other items like Park Chops will last sections of Simon's Life Meter.

SQUAT

Press down and either left or right on the Controller and Simon will crouch forward in a squatting position. This is the only way he can pass through low openings.

SUPER NES

STAGE 1

The desperate crusade begins in the outer grounds of a castle guarded by Skeletons and swooping bats. Mr. Hed, a flying horse head, attacks in the stable before you reach Rowdan, the skeleton knight on his skeleton horse.

QUICK STEPS

Some blocks crumble if you stand on them too long. Keep moving. Time is short.

ONE GIANT STEP

Watch the ground in front of Simon for bottomless pits, or he might take an endless step to his doom. Make your way around the pits by going through the door. As you do so, beware of flying bats approaching from the right. Collect all the items by backtracking on both sides of the fence.

STAGE 1-1

FENCED IN OR FENCED OUT?

Seep through the gate and Simon can walk on the inside of the fence. Bottomless pits force you to explore both sides, and you don't want to miss the extra Hearts. Some of the candles are difficult to see on the inside, so whip anything that flickers.

SWINGING SIMON

Swing farther by pushing left and right on the Controller and extend the length of the Whip by pressing down.

STAGE 1-2

STAIR JUMPING

At times you may want to pass through a stairway rather than climb it. If you try to jump onto the stairs, you will discover that Simon won't land on them. Like a ghost, he passes right through! Just make sure that there is a solid floor below the stairs.

THE INVISIBLE MAN

Whip the candle halfway down the stairs and take the potion. You'll become invisible to evil wraiths for a few seconds. Quickly now, go to the floor and attack the skeletons!

LOOSE FLOORBOARD

In Transylvania, every step can be your last. These boards flip flop if you jump on them, but if you tread softly, you will be safe. Also take the Witch, conveniently located nearby, to freeze the attacking waves of Medusa heads.

BOSS

STAGE 1-3

A NEST OF VIPERS

Nests of poisonous snakes cling to the ceilings in the stable. When you pass beneath them, they fall in a clump to the ground and crawl after you. Move beyond them, then kneel and let them taste the sting of your Whip, or strike overhead as they fall toward you. Lower nests can be destroyed as you approach. In later stages, many more enemies lie in wait, revealing themselves only after you come within range.

STRIKE FROM ABOVE

Beneath the stone ledge clings a nest of vipers. If you jump from the ledge to the left, they will surely attack. Fortunately, Simon has great skill with his Whip. Jump up and lash straight down. The snakes will fall harmlessly into the void and you will be safe to move on. Remember this strategy as the stages ahead. It may save your life.

WHIPPING IT UP

Simon's new skills with the Whip include the ability to swing it around his head in a circular motion. This attack is not as powerful as snapping the Whip straight out, but you can hit enemies on all sides without turning to face them.

A DEAD KNIGHT AND HIS HORSE

All that now remains of Rowdan and his horse are skeletons, and a hatred of all things that still breathe. Simon must scatter their bones if he is to pass. At first, kneel on the left ledge and strike the horse as it draws near. The horse's fireball can be destroyed by the Whip, or you can avoid it by jumping. With half his Life Meter gone, the horse vanishes, leaving Rowdan to carry on the battle. Continue your Whip attack from the floor, but when Rowdan leaps up, move quickly out from under him. With one Life Meter left, Rowdan will fake his own defeat. Prepare for one more hit.

Stop the length of the Whip away from Rowdan when he is on the floor.

Kneel on the left ledge and whip the skeleton horse and its fireball. You may reduce the Enemy Life Meter to half before the horse is defeated.

Run to the left or right when Rowdan makes his high leap. He'll come straight down, stabbing with his sword in a crushing attack.

STAGE 2

Simon must pass through a haunted cemetery where Hands reach up from the ground to grasp him. Then his path leads through a swamp and into a subterranean river. The boss of this stage is not found at the end, but in stage 2-2.

STAGE 2-1

HAND-ME-DOWN HORRORS

Watch for movement in the grass ahead and whip the Hands as they appear. If you are caught in the grasp, move back and forth or use the Circle Whip transmitter to free yourself. Also beware of the attacks of invisible wraths and giant spiders.

STAGE 2-2

STAGE 2-3

CAUGHT IN THE CURRENT

The strong current of this subterranean stream can pull Simon toward danger. Normally the current flows from left to right, but every 20 seconds or so it switches for a short time. Since the current can pull you toward enemies and traps, you must always be aware of its direction.

RED SPIKES

Clumps of a red, spiked plant grow along the ceiling of the underground stream. One touch of their poisonous barbs will drain Simon's Life Meter. Watch for them constantly, and do not jump when you are fighting beneath one of them.

Stay in the water when the red spiked plants are overhead. During battles, whip enemies as frequently as you can. An attempted jump to freedom may spell Simon's doom.

SPIKES BELOW

An even greater danger than the red spikes are the spikes that grow in pits in the streambed. You can easily jump over them when the current flows left to right. If the current is reversed when you jump, it may pull you into the spikes when you land.

Stage 2-2

THE HIGH JUMP

The high bridge is accessible only by using the vertically moving platform. Jump onto it, making sure that you have already defeated the raven that swoops at you from the right. Now let the platform carry you up to its highest point, which is even with the stone pier of the bridge. The leap to the stone pier is a long one, so position yourself at the far right edge of the platform.

MEATY MATTERS

Chances are that Simon will take a few hits from the ravens, poisonous frogs and other evil denizens that inhabit this grisly region. Therefore, do not pass by the Park Chop midway across the second span of the bridge. You are almost to Medusa, and you will need all your strength to banish her.

After the dangers of the swamp, pick up the Park Chop on the second bridge. Medusa, waiting just ahead, won't ask you to dinner.

BOSS

IF LOOKS COULD KILL

The hideous Medusa can turn a man to stone with one glance. If Simon kneels when the Glance Spell approaches, he'll be safe. If caught by Medusa's Glance, he'll become a statue for several seconds. She also throws snakes. Kneel to combat Medusa and the snakes in front of you, then turn to attack the snakes behind you.

The Stone Glance can freeze you, leaving you vulnerable for a short while. Kneel down to avoid it.

If Medusa lobes a snake over your head, kneel and strike it, then face Medusa to confuse your attack.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HEARTS

No boss wants for you at the end of Stage 2-3, which means that you can carry over your Hearts to the next stage. That is unless the Flying Hand steals them away. Keep out of the clutches of this thief of hearts to preserve your advantage in Stage 3.

to Stage 3-1

STAGE 3

In the third stage, Simon first finds himself wandering in a lonely cave. Soon he will climb a cliff streaming with waterfalls, and then he must cross a moat filled with mermaid Mermen and climb a tower to face the twin-headed Ophioc Vipers.

ONE FALSE STEP

The spikes in the cavern are unforgiving. Step on one and Simon loses a life. Jump from ledge to ledge, but beware of ravens. If one hits you, you may fall onto the spikes.

STAGE 3-1

A HIDDEN TREASURE ROOM

Throughout Super Castlevania you can find hidden rooms filled with treasures of Hearts, Coins, weapons and Pork Chops. This room may be the easiest to find. Whip the blocks of the wall, let them fall, then move forward. Once inside, collect the treasure, but also watch out for the bat. Visit this room each time you begin Stage 3 to prepare for the long journey ahead. To find other hidden rooms in later stages, Whip blocks and experiment with hitting candles and enemies or leaving them untouched.

RUNNING THE GAUNTLET

This stretch is one of the most challenging in the game. Not only must you make daring Whip Swings from one ledge to another, you must also avoid a school of Mermen at the same time. Don't be fooled by underwater ledges. At first you might not see them and think you are trapped. Move as fast as you dare!

The Whip Swing maneuver is never easy, but in this area you come under attack while attempting it. If an enemy is in front of you as you swing, don't let go. Keep swinging.

THE WATERFALLS

Simon must climb this tall cliff in leaps and bounds, and by using his Whip to swing across chasms. Extend or shorten the Whip so that Simon swings over a ledge where he can safely drop down. Also be aware of gaps when passing behind waterfalls. The footing can be treacherous here.

MERMEN IN THE MOAT

Mermen leap from the water and spit streams of poison at Simon. They have a long range so it is best to attack as soon as you see them. Don't give them a chance to attack you! Move quickly to the first stone ledge, then wait for several blocks to fall. The next ledges are made of crumbling stone, so hop over them.

STAGE 3-2

STAGE 3-3

SUPER CASTLEVANIA IV

FALLING STONES

Near the end of the cave you will encounter a new danger. Huge stones hanging from the ceiling begin to qaver as Simon approaches. In a second or two they crash to the floor and splinters fly off. If Simon is hit by the stone or the splinters, he will be damaged. Stop at a distance and wait for the stone to fall before pressing forward. Sometimes there are several stones in a row. Wait for all of them to fall before moving on.

MULTIPLE SHOTS

Just as in Castlevania III, you can obtain multiple shots by destroying ten enemies in a row using a special weapon. If you switch weapons, though, you'll have to start over again. Once you've defeated the ten enemies, the multiple shot block will appear in the next candle that is struck.

Defeat ten enemies with a special weapon and hit the candle with that same weapon.

Hit the block that appears to get the Double Shot for your current special weapon.

BOSS

DUO DRAGONS

Upon reaching the top of the tower, a flood fills the floor below and the twin-headed Orphic Vipers appear from the left. The dragon heads shoot blue flames and balls of fire as they bob and weave. Stand on the middle platform and attack the heads when they come in to range. When the triple fireballs come from below, jump up to avoid them.

Standing on the middle ledge gives you the best shot at the dragon heads. Jump up to avoid the triple fireballs launched by the bottom dragon.

One dragon head disappears when half the Enemy Life Meter is drained. Attack the remaining dragon from the left edge of the middle platform.

THE TOWER OF FEAR

The path now turns upwards as Simon must climb the tower past bone dragons, skeleton knights and other vile creatures. Again you must use the Whip Swing to reach dangerously narrow platforms. Attack as many enemies as you can from below. Your main danger is being knocked off a ledge into the abyss. Take your time. You can't afford a mistake here.

SUPER NES

TERROR-FIC TACTICS

The best strategy in Super Castlevania is to master all the moves and tactics so you never become stuck for long in the later stages. If one tactic doesn't work, try another. Sometimes all you need to pass an area is a simple maneuver. For instance, if you jump to a ledge and a bat always knocks you off, maybe you should press the Y Button at mid-jump. If you hold Y, the butt of your Whip acts as a guard, protecting you from attacks at the level of the Whip.

SPECIAL WEAPON UPDATE

The same five special weapons that you used in previous Castlevania adventures are available in Super Castlevania IV, but they play a smaller role. The new versatility of the Whip reduces the importance of many of the special weapons. Stopping time with the Watch is still particularly useful in areas where you might get knocked off into an abyss. The powerful Boomerang is great for battling big monsters.

When enemies attack you in vertical areas, you might take the leg, fall and lose a life. Use the Watch to stop time and keep enemies from ruining your day.

The powerful Boomerang can inflict twice as much damage on opponents because it will hit them both coming and going. Use it against major foes.

RESETTING THE CANDLES

Besides finding hidden rooms, you can stock up on Hearts, Bags of Coins, Park Cloops and other items by resetting Candles in some areas. In areas that scroll to a certain point before switching to another scrolling segment of the same stage, you can reset a Candle. Simply go past the point of the screen scroll, then return. Make sure you use this technique only in stages with lots of extra time. The technique won't work once you've passed on to the next stage, say from 1-2 to 1-3, because you can't return to an earlier stage without losing a life.

Once you hit a Candle and take the item that appears, you can reset the Candle. Go beyond the point of the stage where the scroll stops and switches to a new scroll, then return to the first one.

VANISHING FOES

Have you ever been in an area where the enemy just seems too tough to beat? Maybe it is. Maybe there's an easier way to get rid of it, like making it simply vanish from the game. When you want to make a creature vanish, scroll backward out of the area in which that enemy appears. Now when you return to where the enemy was, it will be gone. This technique won't work against all creatures, but where it works once it will work over and over, making difficult areas much easier to pass.

STAIR JUMPING

In Castlevania IV there are two special jumping techniques—one for jumping on stairs and one to jump through them. To land on a step, press Up, hold it, then jump onto the stairs. Simon will land safely on a step and continue upward. You can jump down through a set of stairs while standing on a step by pressing Down, holding it, and pressing the B Button to jump. Before jumping through a stairway, make sure that there is solid ground below.

Normally Simon would fall through the stairs if he tried to jump on them. By pressing Up, and jumping, he can land safely on a stairway.

THE FINAL TIP

In the final stage, you'll want to be at your best for Dracula. There is a hidden place where you can fill your energy, plus get a Triple Shot and a ton of Hearts before you pass the Count. From the ledge on the right, jump to the left where there is an invisible ledge. Go to the left edge, collect the items, then prepare to meet the Prince of Darkness.

THE LEGEND OF ZELDA[®] A LINK TO THE PAST

Get ready for the triumphant return to Nintendo's fantasy land of legend, Hyrule, in a new adventure that explores the very genesis of the Triforce legend.

Predecessors of Link and Zelda must battle a mysterious wizard, and the evil forces behind him, as he attempts to release dark forces on the unsuspecting people of Hyrule. The emphasis is on action, but there are also plenty of mysteries to solve and items to find and master. The land of Hyrule has never looked so inviting as when displayed in Super NES graphics. And there are more things to find and do, and more places to explore than ever before.

HEROIC TECHNIQUES

Heroic moves, made possible in part by 16-bit technology, are the key to the new Legend of Zelda adventure. With the wide variety of options available, the hero has complete freedom to explore the land to the fullest.

LIFT

Although at first the hero's carrying capacity is limited, as he gains more powerful items, he will even be able to lift large boulders. Who knows what might be hidden underneath?

ITEMS

Many treasures are hidden throughout the land of Hyrule. Finding these is part of the fun of any Zelda game. Using them well is part of mastering the game. Some, like the bow, are weapons, others are magical items.

SWIM

The ability to navigate the waterways of Hyrule will open when the hero has proper swimming gear.

DASH ATTACK

Once Link has the Pegasus Boots, he can launch a charging attack that's not only deadly to enemies, but can be useful in other ways.

SWORD

Whether he is using the trusty family blade or the mighty Master Sword, skill in basic swordsmanship is essential to success.

JUMP

Using a unique, almost three-dimensional perspective based on the original Legend of Zelda game, the world seems to have new depth as each screen can have more than one level. Sometimes jumping is the only way to go from one level to another.

▲ SPECIAL TECHNIQUES ▲

Two techniques in A Link To The Past really add new character to the Zelda series: the Spinning Slash Technique and the Dash Attack. Early in the quest, Link will learn the Spinning Slash Technique, a secret sword technique handed down by his family. After focusing his power on the blade, he can swing his sword in a wide circle, hitting any enemies nearby. In a Dash Attack, Link builds up speed and can then crash into objects with tremendous force. This can jar apples loose from trees or even break down some walls!

SPINNING
SLASH

By channeling his power into the blade of his sword, Link can slash the enemies around him in a full circle.

DASH

Link runs with super speed and hits objects with a tremendous force.

OVERWORLD VIEW

You don't have to worry too much about getting lost in this new Zelda sequel. Wherever you go in the Overworld, an automatic map will keep track of where you are and even guide you to your next goal. Of course, it's still up to you to find the best way to reach the next objective.

DUNGEON MAP

The dungeons also have an auto-mapping feature which keeps track of all the rooms you have visited. If you find the hidden map in each level, you can see the entire dungeon layout including rooms you haven't been to yet. With the Compass, you can pinpoint the location of the master of the dungeon. Even with this feature, you still have to puzzle your way through the mazes on your own!

The dungeons of Hyrule are treacherous mazes full of hostile creatures.

SUPER NES

THE STORY

With the help of the village people, Link finds the elder and begins his quest for the three Pendants of Courage, Power and Wisdom. With these, it will be possible for Link to retrieve the mighty Master Sword and battle Agahnah.

As the story begins, Link's uncle deigns on a mystic rube mission and tells our hero to wait of home.

Link enters the Castle basement through a hidden hole and receives a sword from his father uncle.

A dark passage through the rat infested sewers of the castle leads to safety.

After receiving a telepathic message, Link ventures out into the rain-soaked night.

With Zelda free, Link can investigate recent curious events. His search begins in Kakariko Village.

A more watchful knight guards Zelda's cell. Link must defeat this rogue in order to retrieve the key.

The once bustling Kakariko Village Square is now deserted except for a lone merchant.

Palace guards are keeping matters away. Link decides that something must be done.

Making his way into an eerie dungeon, Link attempts to bring some light to the mysteries at hand.

Many strange perils will block Link's progress, but he can be turned into a rabbit...

Three great evils must be defeated to win the Pendants...

And what is the secret behind the mysterious Dark World?

Link's quest to find the three Pendants and the Master Sword will take him across the land of Hyrule, from the low-land swamps to the peak of Death Mountain. Caverns, dungeons and the maze-like interior of ancient Hyrule Castle must be thoroughly explored to find the powerful artifacts of the mysterious Hylian people. As the legendary hero, the destiny of Hyrule is in your hands!

HYRULE HIGHLIGHTS

As a land rich in magic, Hyrule has many unusual sights.

Many Fremen folk live in Hyrule, preferring hidden out-of-the-way places to make their homes. They are always ready to confer a wary traveler.

What is the secret behind the gleefully fiend playing boy in the haunted grove?

The fog enshrouded Lost Woods hide many things, including the Legendary Master Sword.

The magic shop stocks many magic potions. Who knows what special thing they might brew up with the proper ingredients?

TEE OFF IN THE TROPICS AT A CLASSIC COUNTRY CLUB

Aloha! In its new golf classic, T&E Soft welcomes you to the world-renowned Waialae Country Club, site of the famous Hawaiian Open. New and classic? The club, founded in 1927, is a classic, popular for its beautiful setting and uniquely Hawaiian "Aloha" spirit. And T & E's rich 3-D graphics and perspective options add a realistic feel to the game that really is new to video golf. T & E's course is just like the real one on Hawaii's Oahu Island, right down to the unpredictable trade winds that keep golfers guessing about which direction the next gust will come from. And like real golfers, video gamers will have to learn to read the island's changeable winds and compensate for them in order to keep their scores down—and their shots within bounds.

THE TOOLS OF THE TRADE

SELECT THE BEST CLUB

It's just as important to know how to select clubs in the Waialeale C.C. video game as it is on the real course. The distances listed are for maximum range; the distance you will actually get from a club depends on the power of your stroke, where you strike the ball, your lie, and of course, wind conditions. Don't expect great distance if you hit a high drive into the wind!

TRICKY TERRAIN

You'll find the same kind of playing surfaces in the game that you would find on an actual course, from fairways and greens to bunkers and water hazards. There are ten surfaces in all.

CLUB CHOICE

1W	270 Yards
3W	230 Yards
4W	210 Yards
2I	200 Yards
3I	190 Yards
4I	180 Yards
5I	170 Yards
6I	160 Yards
7I	150 Yards
8I	140 Yards
9I	120 Yards
PW	110 Yards
SW	90 Yards
Pt	100 Feet

WALK THE COURSE

Stunning tropical trees and flowers add to the beauty of the windswept Waialeale course. On the real course, dress is casual and it's strictly "play when ready," so get moving!

1 Mamoo "Distant"

Par 5
521 Yards

Start your round on a long, straight fairway. With a favorable wind, you can make this one.

3 li Brown "Mr. Golf"

Par 4
397 Yards

Named for one of the founders of Waialeale C.C., the third hole has a late crossing up the left side.

5 Auwail "Two Ditches"

Par 4
401 Yards

Two water hazards split the fairway. Stay in the left, out of the trees, and expect a nice green.

2 Oolea "Unyielding"

Par 4
348 Yards

If you slice your drive on hole 2, you'll land amid a grove of banana trees. Good ball hitting will

4 Apiki "Tricky"

Par 3
178 Yards

Apiki is narrow, 55 yard long green is lined on both sides with bunkers and it dips in the center.

6 Laloo "Go Astroy"

Par 4
430 Yards

The strong wind can certainly be a factor on this hole, making it easy indeed to "go astroy."

OPTIONS GALORE

Get new perspectives on the ball by scrolling left and right or up and down, then set up for your shot accordingly.

SHIFT YOUR SIGHTS

When you see the bigger picture, you get a better view of the course's contours.

SHUT HIM UP!

Are you tired of the caddy's advice? Turn Advice off to Options.

OPT ON OR OFF

Follow the bouncing ball. Turn Shot Path on if you want to see a line on the screen from the ball's flight path.

DO A FLY-BY

Activate Fly by View if you want to fly over the hole to get a good look at the entire layout before you tee off.

HIDE 'N' SEEK

If you want your ball to disappear behind trees or in bunkers, or if you'd instead play from Hole Ball On.

11 Haha! "Los and Sky"

Par 3
169 Yards

The wind here usually sweeps from left to right. Close your stance and show your shot to competitors.

16 Waha "That is the Wind"

Par 4
316 Yards

Drive to the right and approach the green carefully. It slopes away and has bunkers on both sides.

7 Uptiki "Trapped"

Par 3
165 Yards

Don't get trapped in the huge bunkers flanking the green. Watch the wind and aim for dead center.

12 I Mwa "Straight Ahead"

Par 4
405 Yards

As its name implies, I Mwa has a long, straight fairway. Stay left to avoid the palms on the right.

17 Aha "Mad Men"

Par 3
178 Yards

Revered by the Pacific Ocean, 17 has a long, rough-to-avoid green that has bunkers left and right.

8 Huhole "Wazy"

Par 4
395 Yards

Off the tee, drive over the water hazard that divides the fairway and stay out of the bunkers.

13 Hoo "Right"

Par 5
494 Yards

A long, right dog leg, hole 13 has a bunker on the right at the bend and a gently breaking green.

18 Haha Leo "A Long Walk"

Par 5
533 Yards

Try to hook your drive to follow the dog leg and land by the bunker, then shoot for the green.

9 Aha "Goodbye"

Par 5
487 Yards

You can say "goodbye" to you if the wind sends your ball out of bounds. Stay on the fairway.

14 Haha "Left"

Par 4
402 Yards

Off the tee, play to the right of this big, left dog leg to avoid the huge firs on the corner.

10 Kopeke "Drive Away"

Par 4
347 Yards

Hold to the left of the fairway, especially if it's windy. Watch out for the OB on the right side.

15 Ukiha "Trouble"

Par 4
390 Yards

With a tight OB on the left and trees on the right, Kopeke makes it tricky to hit a safe drive.

GRAB A BUDDY AND HIT THE DIRT!

In the one-player mode you will lose or "WIPEOUT" if you come in fourth and (ugh) there are no Continues. Never fear, Super Off Road is outstanding for two-player simultaneous racing action. An excellent way to insure that you'll NEVER lose is to play by yourself in the two-player mode. Select both trucks, but just let the blue truck idle. When the race ends you'll be in third place (at least) which will automatically put you in the next round. The blue truck will always be allowed to continue. This way, no matter if you place First, Second or Third, you'll be able to go on to the next track.

Go It Alone

It may take a few races to get used to the play control of Super Off Road. Don't worry. With practice, you'll be in the money for every race. Using the 1 and R buttons improves the steering ability of the truck, but it also makes it more sensitive to quick movement.

There are no Continues in the one-player mode. Finish 4th and you're dented. Steer over with the first track.

2 Player Action

Go out it for five laps in a free-for-all mudfest. Stick right to the corners to put off passing attempts by your rival and also pick up tips by watching your opponents. Team up with Player 2 and choose a plan to slow down the opponent's other track. It's quick!

The better you become, the more prize money you'll earn. Spend your winnings wisely on necessary items.

UPGRADE WISELY

SUPER OFF ROAD

Excluding racing skill, these are the necessities for the be-all, end-all terror truck! Once your upgrades are built up to the max, you can dump all of your earnings on Nitro power. Crank on it all the way around each track!

NITRO

Nitro is the most important ingredient for success early on. It's a good idea to have about four or five Nitro tanks in reserve before each race.

Use one Nitro to secure your current position if you think you can pick up more than one Nitro. Press the Y button on your controller to activate the "go" pins and extend your lead!

TIRES

Beefing up your tires will give you better traction. Not very crucial in the early stages, but when your truck gets faster... you're gonna need 'em!

ACCEL

This upgrade is cash well-spent. Acceleration is a crucial ingredient for winning races. Build this item up quickly, but don't neglect the others.

SHOCKS

Off road trucks take a tremendous beating. By improving the shocks on your truck, you'll be able to handle all the bumps and jumps each track has to offer.

TOPSPEED

Rather expensive, but it's great for blasting down the straight stretches. Gradually increase this item and spend the rest of your loot wisely. Hang on!

USING YOUR UPGRADES

It's up to you to decide which upgrades you will purchase with your winnings, but by knowing what tracks are coming up, you can make a better purchase decision.

Nitro Power!

Straight stretches are the best locations to use Nitro. It will allow your truck to blow by opponents with ease. Also, use Nitro to snag items before your rivals get to them.

Acceleration!

Your truck's engine produces more power with Accel! This upgrade has a very noticeable effect on the steering too.

Mudslingers!

Crank steep terrain and powering through choppy dirt are best served by upping the quality of your giant monster treads.

Shocking!

Whoop-de-doo such as these and small jumps aren't his child's play when your shock absorbers can take the brunt of the abuse.

Speed Demon!

Roller coasters, but in a wide open straightaway, there's nothing better than Top Speed. Heavier down and pedal to the metal!

SUPER NES

SCOPE OUT THE TRACKS

Super Off Road features all 8 tracks from the NES version, but strap yourself in for 8 MORE tracky tracks on the Super NES cartridge! Superb graphics and sound make for action-packed sprints around all 16 devastating tracks. The scoreboard shows the lap and how much Nitro you have left. Scope out the tracks!

Track

FANDANGO

Fandango provides an excellent opportunity to sharpen your cornering skills. Use the L and R buttons on your controller to handle the extra-stop corners. Take the upper left corner tight, then take it down the straight by using Nitro!

Track

HUEVOS GRANDE

Watch out for the three waterholes at the top of the track. Use Nitro to power through them. The big water pit in the mid-section of the track will slow you WAY down if you attempt to drive through it. Good tires will help you here.

Track

SIDEWINDER

This one's kinda tricky! Sharp corners, heavy-duty tracks, and smart use of Nitro will be your best allies. Watch out for the sweeping Ivy holes! They definitely slow you down. This track is great for gathering extra fuel.

Track

BIG DUKES

You may have to battle your way through the tough steering section of this track. Crossing tracks and the port water pit will slow you down. If a hole like there may be a cross-cutting option. Nitro to boost your track into the clear.

Track

REDOUBT-ABOUT

When negotiating the S-curve, don't follow the contour of the hill. Cut back and forth over the top of the hill in order to take the turn cleanly. Doing this will save valuable time. You'll need good traction to win on this track.

Track

BLASTER

There's plenty of chances to get thrashed up here! This track is deceptively difficult. It's easy to get stamored by another track and go the wrong way or go completely off the track. Once again, sharp cornering will definitely pay off.

Track

HURRICANE GULCH

You're faced with a steep hill, but it's usually best to take the inside shortcut on the left side of the track. Choose your routes wisely. A shot of Nitro can come in handy when charging up the big hill to the plateau in the top right corner.

Track

CLIFF HANGER

No cutting corners - you must go around the circular markers. Stay tight to the exterior wall on the inside portion of the track. With any track, it's usually best to go the shorter distance between corners. Cliff Hanger is a great example.

Track

WIPEOUT

The central creasing is a pit-fall. Watch for crossing tracks coming at you. Use the high elevation of the upper right turn to your advantage by anchoring the Nino and cornering over the water and, more importantly, your rivals. Surf up your shoats for this one!

Track

10

RIO TRIO

With all the water on this track, a one get very muddy. Pick up your toes to handle the wiggly terrain. (Maybe sometimes you'll be a better driver...) Avoid the big hole on the right by keeping it right to the wall. Use Nino to get out of a pack of trucks.

Track

12

VOLCANO VALLEY

Power Up with Nino and let the ramp to clear the big log in the lower right corner or, bypass the ramp and take the easier way around! It's up to you. You'll need super traction and concentration to power your way out of the bottom left swamp-land up over the volcano.

Track

14

PIG BOG

You may not feel like a pig when you finish this track off, but you may look like one because you'll be covered with mud. Pay close attention to the raised corners because there's no racing walls to guide you along. Stick up on plenty of Nino before this one.

Track

16

CUTOFF PASS

If your truck is powered up and full with Nino to spare, take the outside route because there's only four easy corners to deal with. The inside route features a monster hill and a few water pits, but if your driving skills are up to snuff, you'll have no troubles.

SUPER OFF ROAD

Track

11

LEAPIN' LIZARDS

The water hole in the upper left corner is no big deal, but the whopper in the center can be a bear if you get caught in it. Skidder. Use the huge ramp and Nino to clear the monster mud pit. Notice the smooth, straight open area around the center pit.

Track

SHORTCUT

Would you rather deal with smooth hills and right turns or a water pit and a hill full of wipeouts? (Doesn't it?) If you decide to go for the inside, keep right! Stay in the middle when turning around the last on right corner and you can utilize the "island" in the water pit.

Track

15

BOULDER HILL

It's just up, then down. (Nino?) Sweeping corners of boulders block your path and make this track the trickiest one of the bunch. Experiment with different lines until you find one that works for you then stick with it. The boulders will stop you cold. Stone cold.

Afraid of a little mud?

Racing fanatics are bound to turn cartwheels after playing Super Off Road. The racing action is fast-paced and frantic and is a great test of your driving skills. Experiment with strategies on the various tracks. Pay extra attention to cornering, as this is the most important skill to sharpen. GOOD LUCK!!

TWO GUYS' OPINIONS ON THE LATEST RELEASES

We've invited a couple of experienced game players at Nintendo HQ to share their opinions on some of the latest releases. Rob and George start off by talking about their personal favorites of the games that are reviewed in this issue.

ROB

I think Super Castlevania IV is a blast. The graphics are great and I really like the way the music adds to the action. There's one part where you're swinging from chandelier to chandelier and you literally feel like you're in the air. I'm kind of scared of heights to begin with and it felt like I was on the verge of falling. It's definitely one of the top Super NES games that I've played.

Rob's personal Power Meter for Super Castlevania IV: 4.0 4.0 4.5 4.5

GEORGE

Of the games that are featured in this issue, I'd say that Mega Man 4 is my favorite. I've played all of the games in the series and this one is the biggest and best. I like the massive robots in the middle of the stages and the fact that you can find gadgets in hidden areas. Let's talk about a few of the other new games that didn't make the feature pages. I was really surprised to see a Blues Brothers game. It's been years since the movie and their last record.

George's personal Power Meter for Mega Man 4: 4.0 4.0 4.0 4.5

ROB

Yeah. I was surprised by that too. I thought that it was funny that the characters had a kind of Laurel and Hardy look. Jake is the sort of pudgy and Elwood is tall and gangly.

GEORGE

Though they seem to have the same abilities. What I thought was strange was that in a two-player game, the action always follows Jake...

ROB

Yeah. If you're Elwood and you lag behind or get ahead, you'll have no idea where you're at. Timing the jumps also gets complicated, especially in a two-player game, because you have to wait for the other player to jump before you can.

GEORGE

What did you think of the story?

ROB

I'm not even sure what it is. The first stage is called "Stairway to Heaven". What is their goal? Why are they trying to get to heaven? Are they trying to get there to meet old rock and roll stars? Was there a death in the family? Are they spiritualists? We don't know.

GEORGE

It doesn't seem to have a lot to do with the Blues Brothers, though the music is alright.

Personal Power Meters for Blues Brothers: Rob: 3.0 2.5 3.0 3.0 George: 3.5 3.0 3.0 2.5

ROB

I thought the music to Cowboy Kid was also very memorable and catchy.

GEORGE

Really? I don't remember it at all. I found it to be a pretty average running and jumping game with a wild west theme...

ROB

... it's a little bit like an Adventure of Link in the west in the sense that you have to go inside these various houses and ask people for clues, though it didn't have any of the high drama.

Personal Power Meters for Cowboy Kid Rob: 2 2 2 0 3 2 0 George: 2 2 2 0 3 2 0

GEORGE

Our next game is F-15 Strike Eagle, a flying battle game in the tradition of the Top Gun series. Only, in this game, you can choose from several missions.

ROB

This one is interesting. It's neat seeing the horizon twist around in front of you. It sort of feels like the plane is stationary and everything is moving beneath you, although I haven't really perfected accurate flying to the point where I can turn and fire. It's really sort of hit or miss for me.

GEORGE

I didn't get any sensation of flight or motion while playing the game and I felt that my plane was being pulled along on the mission. Your only decision is whether to fire or not.

Personal Power Meters for F-15 Strike Eagle, Rob: 2 0 2 5 2 0 3 5 George: 3 0 3 0 2 0 3 5

ROB

Hammerin' Harry takes place on a construction site. Harry has to fight the likes of Rusty Nail and his gang, taking his hammer and riving justice.

GEORGE

While I understand that the game is by no means a realistic look at the life of a construction worker, I can't figure out why Harry is this cartoonish nimp, fighting characters on pogo sticks with a hammer as big as he is.

ROB

I thought from the name that Harry might end up being a brute. But he ended up being this Pilbury Dough Boy with an attitude. The big hammer is cool and Harry has some good moves...

GEORGE

... Like shaking the ground with his hammer or swinging it in a circle to hit all of the enemies around him.

Personal Power Meters for Hammerin' Harry Rob: 2 0 2 0 2 2 2 2 George: 2 0 2 2 2 2 2 2

ROB

Next, we have L'Empereur.

GEORGE

I'm not at all of fan of war simulation games. This one takes place more recently than the Feudal China games, following the battles of Napoleon. Other than the setting, it doesn't seem to be much different from Romance of the Three Kingdoms or Nobunaga's Ambition. You're buying food. You're selling food. You're training fighters. For me, if you've seen one, you've seen them all.

ROB

Simply from a historical standpoint, I think it's cool to go back to the Napoleonic era and see how he lived and built his empire. I do know something of the history of the time and the game was accurate as far as I could tell. There's a lot of prep work involved in playing this game because you have so many options available to you. You can invest in grain futures, send ambassadors around, give a good speech to raise the spirits of your troops. It's really very involved.

Personal Power Meters for L'Empereur Rob: 4 0 2 5 4 0 2 5 George: 3 0 2 5 2 5 2 0

GEORGE

Let's take a look at Game Boy releases. A-Mazing Tater is a puzzle game that is a lot like Kwik, only this time, we have a piece-pushing potato, instead of a cool tomato character.

ROB

I like games like this. They take some figuring out but they're not too difficult. It has a practice mode so that you can try out the puzzles before you really begin so that you aren't going into it completely cold.

Personal Power Meters for A-Mazing Tater Rob: 2 0 2 5 4 0 3 5 George: 2 0 2 5 2 0 3 5

GEORGE Another game featuring fruits and vegetables with a life of their own is Attack of the Killer Tomatoes. You control a kid who's trying to keep your town from being overrun by sinister tomatoes. I'm not a fan of the movie or animated series, so I didn't really think that it offered anything new over other running and jumping games.

ROB No, it didn't. But if you like Attack of the Killer Tomatoes, it's pretty cool. The idea that you have evil vegetables is fun and it's fun to run around and squash them. Plus, the kid can use a skateboard for extra speed and bounce off branches for height. That's cool.

Personal Power Meters for Attack of the Killer Tomatoes. Rob: 3 0 3 0 3 5 3 0 George: 2 5 3 0 2 5 3 0

GEORGE Taking a look at Super NES releases, D-Force is our first title. The "D" must stand for "derivative". This game offers nothing new to the several military combat games that are already out there. It's an overhead view helicopter battle with vertical scrolling, that plays like a bunch of games made for the NES.

ROB The only thing that this game has over the overhead shooting games available for the NES is the Super NES graphics. I like the detail of the backgrounds and the opening scene where your 'copter takes off from an aircraft carrier. There are some interesting Power-Ups that you can pick up for extra firepower and I found the game to be pretty challenging.

Personal Power Meters for D-Force. Rob: 3 5 3 0 3 0 3 0 George: 3 5 3 0 2 5 3 0

GEORGE Speaking of good graphics, I think that John Madden Football has great detail and a good view of the action. It is, though, a little difficult to get used to the play control.

ROB Yeah. Some of the commands were confusing. For instance, if you're on offense, you can choose from options called "Hands" or "Fast". They don't make a lot of sense unless you pour over the manual. I think once you understand all of the plays, you could get good at it. Also, I don't really remember seeing John Madden very much in the game.

GEORGE He doesn't show up very often, but he does tell you about team strengths at the beginning of the game and he gives you a few pointers. I did think that some of the plays were about as easy to understand as the chalk drawings that Madden makes during TV broadcasts.

Personal Power Meters for John Madden Football. Rob: 3 5 3 0 3 5 4 0 George: 4 0 3 0 3 5 3 5

ROB Another two-player sports game, Nolan Ryan's Baseball is on its way. It seems that since it's Super NES, it should take advantage of the Super NES graphics by showing some real detail in the players and real detail in the field and I don't find that to be the case at all. In fact, the players are puny. If it was Nolan Ryan's Little League Baseball, I guess that would be OK, but it's not.

GEORGE A realistic picture of Nolan Ryan appears on the title screen, but the rest of the graphics are of smaller, younger looking characters. There are some good things about this game. I find it very easy to hit the ball, whereas in some Baseball games, hitting is next to impossible. And when you're on defense, your fielders can throw quickly.

Next up is Pit Fighter which uses digitized graphics of actual people. I found this one extremely difficult to control.

Personal Power Meters for Nolan Ryan's Baseball. Rob: 3 0 3 0 3 0 3 0 George: 4 0 4 0 2 5 3 5

ROB In my opinion, it doesn't matter if it uses new technology or not. The question is "is the game fun?" and I think the answer in this case is "no". It really pales in comparison to the clean graphics and good control of Final Fight.

Personal Power Meters for Pit Fighter. Rob: 3 5 3 0 2 0 3 5 George: 3 5 2 0 2 0 2 5

The opinions of Rob and George do not reflect the opinions of Nintendo Power Magazine or Nintendo of America Inc.

BILL LAIMBEER

Bill Laimbeer, center for the Detroit Pistons and star of Bill Laimbeer's Combat Basketball from Hudson Soft may have a reputation for being tough as nails on the court but, in person, he's a nice guy. We caught up with Bill on the set of the TV commercial for this Super NES sports game.

Bill Laimbeer poses in his futuristic costume during the filming of the commercial for Bill Laimbeer's Combat Basketball for the Super NES.

Celebrity Player Profile

Nintendo Power: What do you like most about Bill Laimbeer's Combat Basketball?

Bill: I think that some basketball games are hard to control but this one is very easy to pick up and play. If you want to pass to someone, you just face them and toss the ball. Shooting is also easy. The game plays off of my image of being a physical player in a tongue and cheek manner. I think it fits me to a T.

NP: What other games do you play? Bill: I've played the Golf game a lot. My best score is 22 under par.

NP: Do you have any special strategies?

Bill: The best thing to do is play the course the way that it was designed. Don't try anything fancy or you might make a mistake.

NP: How tall are you?

Bill: I'm 6 feet, 11 inches and 270 pounds.

NP: How high can you jump?

Bill: Not very high.

NP: What are your greatest strengths as a player?

Bill: I'm an excellent outside shooter which surprises a lot of people.

NP: In the commercial for Bill Laimbeer's Combat Basketball, you wear a special suit. What's it like?

Bill: It's designed to look like something that someone would wear in the future, kind of a mix between a football uniform and a medieval suit of armor.

NP: Have you done commercials before?

Bill: Yes, a few.

NP: Are you a natural actor?

Bill: Some people say that I'm an actor on the court! Actually, I have had professional acting experience. Years ago I was in a Sid and Mary Kroff production called "Land of the Lost". I wore a big lizard costume. It was a pretty good job for a 17 year old.

NP: If you weren't a basketball player, would you play a different sport?

Bill: I'd play golf. I had a three handicap for a long time and I finally brought it down to zero. That was a lot of work. And it would take just as much work to go from a zero handicap to a professional level.

NP: You have a celebrity golf tournament every year. Who shows up?

Bill: A lot of local celebrities play and some of my teammates too. It's for Muscular Dystrophy. We've earned as much as $100,000 for the cause some years. This year we took in about $60,000.

NP: Are there any possibilities for a Bill Laimbeer Combat Golf game?

Bill: Combat golf? No. I think that goes against the nature of the game. When I'm golfing with my friends and one of us says something while someone else is trying to tee off or make a tough putt, I guess that's as close as I would get to combat golf.

WHAT'S NEW IN THE NINTENDO UNIVERSE, NOW AND IN THE FUTURE

PAK WATCH

Contra Force

KONAMI

Konami's contra-verbally named Contra series returns for more hard-hitting and shooting action in Contra Force, which should be out within a few months. Once again you are on a mission of Earth-shattering consequences, but this time there are four tough hombres ready to tackle the bad guys. Each of the four specialists is a master of certain types of weapons. For instance, Burns can hurl a grenade like a major league pitcher throws a fast ball! You get to choose your own man and, if you're playing the two-player option, your partner will pack his favorite character... then it's off to the wharfs.

The second big change Contra fans are sure to notice (we sure did) is the look of the characters. In the earlier NES hit games, the Contra Commandos looked tall and well-defined. The new Contra look of the '90s, however, is shorter, squatter, and less defined. This Pak Watcher thought the characters in the previous games looked more realistic, but the option to choose the right character for a specific area is a big advantage in Contra Force. As you can see from these screen shots, both the backgrounds and moving characters are big, bold, and well conceived. The action is non-stop, just as you'd expect from a Konami game, and the control is good, even though one touch from an enemy will lay your man out flat, just like in the good old days.

The Contra Crowd has even more good news ahead with the announcement by Konami of a Super NES title based on the NES series. Contra IV, which might be released as early as springtime, will have seven levels of guts-and-glory action in beautiful Super NES graphics. We've heard that the programmers are packing this Pak with lots of special Mode 7 effects like rotation and scaling. If it's anything like Super Castlevania IV, we're in for a game-playing gourmet's feast of fun.

We're also looking forward to our first look at TMNT IV for the Super NES, which should be shown this month at the Winter CES in Las Vegas. Pak Watch will be on site to bring you back all the news from Konami and other licensee companies.

Darkwing Duck

CAPCOM

What goes flap in the night, wears a purple cape, drives a souped up cycle and fears nothing except not making the 11 o'clock news? You guessed it, Darkwing Duck! It's time to get dangerous with Darkwing Duck. Capcom's Disney connection comes through again, this time with the quackiest super hero of them all—Drake Mallard, a suburban dad by day, but by night a dynamic duck who dukes it up with the dastardly denizens of St. Canard while shamelessly seeking fame and fortune. In the action oriented NES game based on the Disney cartoon series, the caped pretender will battle evil using dexterity and nifty gadgets... so says Capcom. As fans of the Disney series, we were excited to hear about this game. All we've seen so far is what we're showing here. Capcom hopes to have Darkwing Duck in the stores by this summer. We'll be waiting.

Other NES games said to be in the works at the Big C include Gargoyle's Quest, and Barcelona '92, which should include events from the upcoming Summer Olympic Games in sunny Spain.

Stanley and the Search for Dr. Livingstone

ELECTROBRAIN

Dr. Livingstone, we presume, is the same intrepid explorer who became famous because a guy named Stanley recognized him. Now we know that those Victorian voyagers were really preparing the way for a NES game from Electrobrain. The action takes place in the Congo region of the 1890s. Along with a taste of history, Stanley encounters hostile natives and dangerous jungle beasts, collects weapons and searches an expansive world. The jungle graphics might make you think it should have been called Cart of Darkness, but the game is still in development, and the future for this team might be bright.

For Game Boy we looked at Mouse-trap Hotel, which has great graphics and animation, and a cool mouse named Maxie who just wants to get home without becoming Swiss cheese. High Stakes puts a twist on gambling games by including a plot—you're out to break the house and put mobsters out of business. Ghoul School is a repetitious action game that takes place in a school inhabited by aliens. So what else is new? The biggest news is that Electrobrain plans on bringing Raiden to the Super NES. This hot action game is already a hit for the Super Famicom and other systems. We hope to have more on this one next month.

The Rocketeer

IGS

IGS successfully landed one of the hottest licenses around in The Rocketeer, and then they did something remarkable with it. If the graphics in this game look about as real as the view out your window, it's because they are. The Super NES game, due out in March, uses digitized pictures of movie frames and comic book art by Dave Stevens, who created The Rocketeer. The results are spectacular. Not only are the backgrounds digitized, so are the characters such as planes and the Rocketeer himself. The story, which is relayed through beautifully reproduced comic frames, closely follows the original Rocketeer storyline that was used in the Disney movie. If this is a glimpse at what future games might look like, we can't wait to see more.

The game play is much less involving than the graphics, which is a bit disappointing. You get to fly planes and jetpacks and fight it out with bad guys between story frames. The shooting scenes are the most challenging in the game, far more than the flying sequences. IGS acknowledges that The Rocketeer isn't aimed at hardcore action gamers, who will find it too easy. It is a game for less skilled players who are interested in a terrific story, simple game play and superb graphics.

F1 ROC

SETA

For those of us who feel the need for speed, the desire to strap on a helmet and wedge ourselves behind the wheel of a Formula 1 racer has long seemed doomed to the realm of fantasies. Thanks to Seta, that dream may come a little closer to reality when F1 Race of Champions for the Super NES is released this spring. The promise of this game is terrific, but we've only had a sneak peek.

Here's what we've learned so far. First, this is a game. We're talking 3 Megs! Seta has packed everything into this Pak except the smiling face of a winning F1 champion. One major feature is "scaled cornering", which should result in realistic views and control through the curves. Another measure of realism was included with the semi-automatic shifting feature. Although this adds to the complexity of controlling your car, racing fans will eat it up as another step closer to the real thing.

The game play is based on an F1 circuit. Prize money is paid out according to finishing positions after each of the 16 races. You then sink that money into needed improvements to your car and head on to the next race. Pole positions are determined by qualifying laps and there are seven racing teams to challenge you and your crew. Even the frenzy of a pit stop at the checkered flag, F1 ROC has all the features of the real thing and none of the oil stains.

CONSTRUCTION

Xardion

ASMIK

The legend of Xardion comes from the depths of space. Three cyborgs, each equipped with devastating powers, are sent to the home world of alien invaders where they must eliminate the aliens' power. The legend suggests that the three mighty cyborgs will transmute into a single, awesome man-machine. But first they must conquer the aliens on their three, heavily defended home worlds. The detail of the story is one of the elements that sets Xardion for the Super NES apart from other space/robot/action games. Asmik is even planning a novelization of the story, which will lead to the inevitable comparisons of which was better, the video game or the book.

We can't answer that question yet. We haven't read the book and the developmental version of the game was only 30 percent complete. What we did see, however, had some real potential. The variety of stages, backgrounds and aliens was impressive, as was the game music. Other features include the option to switch Cyborgs and weapons, a save feature, and a text storyline that appears at appropriate moments to fill you in and give you clues. Also coming from Asmik is a NES game based on Jack and the Bean Stalk. Could be a giant. We'll see.

Ultima VI

FCI

One of the most exciting aspects of the Super NES is its ability to support the best games from the PC world. FCI has taken full advantage of that in its plans to adapt Ultima VI: The False Prophet to the Super NES. Although the Super NES version is still very much in the planning stages, the story will be very close to the existing PC game of the same name shown here.

In Ultima VI the world of Britannia has been shaken by earthquakes and the coming of gargoyles from the underworld. Once again you are the Avatar, but a disturbing turn reveals that you may also be a false prophet and therefore subject to sacrifice! If plot is what you want, plot is what you get, and we don't want to give it away. What we can say is that Ultima VI will certainly take advantage of the Super NES to convey a great story with sharp, overhead view images, lots of mysteries, clues, battles, twists and turns. What more is there?

Well, if you're FCI, there is quite a bit more. First off, the NES version of AD&D Pool of Radiance shown here on the right is on its way to your Nintendo dealer, probably by next month. This is one of the classic AD&D adventures, featuring 3D movement over a large world, multiple member parties and lots of mystery. Their quest begins in Pidan, a city beside the Moonsea Warriors of Destiny, another Ultima game, has been delayed and probably won't come out until this spring. Runes of Virtue, an awesome Game Boy game that we covered in Nintendo Power a year ago, should finally get off the boat this winter.

Star Trek

ULTRA

Star Trek has been flying high recently, what with a new movie and the 25th Anniversary. Now the Enterprise and her crew are about to make their first appearance on Game Boy thanks to Ultra and the designers at Interplay. This time it's a shooting challenge between the Enterprise and her Klingon Empire enemies. The Klingons, having stolen a super weapon from the Federation, are determined to keep it, even if it means they can't use it. You must find the 12 pieces of the Disruptor that have been hidden by the Klingons and put them together in order to save Federation planets. During battles you can switch power between Shields, Phasers, and Impulse Drive. You also have a limited number of Photon Torpedoes. This Pak Watcher had to be beamed back to reality after a session with this game, which boldly goes everywhere it should go.

Konami/Ultra have some other Game Boy titles in the works, including Top Gun, Tiny Toons and Ultra Golf. Top Gun sounds interesting. It is said to contain ten missions that include both dogfights and bombing runs with a pilot's eye view.

MEGA MAN II

CAPCOM

Almost as soon as we got done playing Mega Man for Game Boy, Capcom told us that there's a second adventure on the way. And what do you know, they were right! Mega Man II, which may get a new name before its release later this year, is another super addition to a great tradition of quality action games in the Mega Man series. This time, Dr. Light sends Mega Man through five worlds filled with the expected badbots, who are controlled by an evil madman. To keep the suspense up, we won't reveal who is behind all the shenanigans. Suffice it to say that Mega Man has new challenges, like moving through stages of clouds in which you can't see him or the enemies! As in the previous Mega Man games, this sequel has a stage select and password codes. Wood Man, Air Man, Clash Man, and Metal Man are the four sub-bosses. Each of the worlds is filled with potential traps and items that can aid you, but quickness and a good memory of each area are your best weapons.

Capcom has some other Game Boy offerings farther down the road in '92. Two of those titles are from the Disney family: Mickey Mouse and The Little Mermaid. On the Super NES front, look for two awesome arcade games some time later this year. The first, Street Fighter II, is promised to be a faithful replica of the arcade action game. Magic Sword is the second title.

JAPAN WATCH

Nintendo's design teams in Kyoto, Japan never seem to rest. One of the exciting projects they've been working on is a Game Boy title called Lunar Chase. The game is basically a shooting mission game, but with a twist. You are inside a heavily armored lunar rover looking out. The effect is fantastic, reminding us of the virtual reality of the BattleTech Center in Chicago, although admittedly without the bone-jarring sound effects and super video monitors. We were more than impressed. You're sure to hear more about this one.

GOSSIP GALORE

One subject that keeps coming up has to do with the CD ROM. When will it come out? What games will come out on disks? Will CD ROM make everything else obsolete? Well, the truth is that CD ROM will eventually arrive, but probably not for at least a year. Will it change the way we play games? Maybe, but that's up to the programmers and how they use the new, expanded technology.

Closer to home, we've heard that some super hot games are about to hit the stores. Next month you should see TMNT: The Manhattan Project from Konami for the NES. Also look for Jakco's NES Cyberball, a two-player football game played with robots. Finally there's Konami's Gadius: The Interstellar Assault for Game Boy.

Still on the horizon, we've heard about ActRaiser II development going on at Enix, plus some hints that there might be a fourth Dragon Warrior series epic. Town & Country 2: Thrills Surfer from Acclaim is also in the works, but Wizards & Warriors III has been delayed.
