I am writing with a suggestion. After my son Ryan's gift list added the Super NES to our lives and my brother-in-law renewed our subscription to Nintendo Power, I became a very lonely mother. When I ask my son what's new I get "I don't know what you call it: a green amphibian with warts... I got it!" Dinner is done, dad and son are in front of the tube, the Nintendo's on, the yelling's begun and mom's asking "How are you?!" If you could come out with a game "Mom on the Loose" or "See Mom Burn Dinner" or "Have You Hugged Your Mom Today?" it might put some ideas in their heads. If not, could you please tell Richard, Uncle Steve and Ryan Bahney "Hi, from Mom" in your next column? Thank you!

Bonnie Bahney
Huntsville, AL

Hi Ryan, Richard and Steve! Mom says "Hi!"

This year I received a Game Boy and I thought it was for me to use! As soon as my grandparents saw it, they couldn't put it down. I finally managed to get it away from them. From now on whenever my grandparents visit, I think I'm going to hide my Game Boy.

Shannon Webb
Richmond, BC

MOM'S RULES OR MOM RULES?

My mom is king over the family's NES. She plays Dr. Mario and Tennis. This is bad enough, but the NES is in MY ROOM! She plays games in here every night. Hape! I can STOP her!

Toby Swidher
McComb, OH

Ferling lucky. Toby? Challenge her to a game; winner gets the room!

I am 53 years old and started playing after buying my teenager a system. I decided to try Zelda and finished it that night. I was hooked! I subscribed to Nintendo Power magazine to aid my playing. I'm becoming disappointed because you never feature mindboggling games such as the Lolo series and Uninvited. CATER TO US!

Mildred Durban
Knoxville, TN

It's time you establish a Senior's Division. Until you do I lay claim to being the oldest man alive who has completed both quests of the Legend of Zelda, The Adventure of Link, Final Fantasy, Crystalis and StarTropics. I play by the following rules: I accept no hints or suggestions from any source and I make my own maps. After I finish, I consult Nintendo Power magazine to see what I've missed. I'm looking forward to the holidays so I can buy my son a Super NES and prevent him from using it!

Robert C. Briggs III
Cookeville, TN

So, how old are you?

ADVICE FROM VIV:

My friend, Sue, and I are Nintendoites, sometimes playing into the wee hours of the morning. Anyone we want to travel the lands of Hyrule, explore Aefgaard or battle our way to the Temple of Fiends, we surround ourselves with our favorite foods and play to our hearts' content. Sounds like we have understanding parents, right? WRONG! We're grandparents; Nintendo Nannies. We think there are many more of us in the Nintendo underground who don't know how to respond to the raised eyebrows of peers. We survived the suspicious glances, tongue clicking and headwagging disapproval of coworkers and friends. We hung in there and defended our right to have fun. We did it and so can you!

THEY TOOK A RIDE ON A VOLCANO!

The winners of our Mountain Biking Player's Poll Contest, Kathryn and Jesse Bearren, spread their ride down the towering Haleakala volcano on Maui.

Kathryn Bearren, a Da Bois, PA resident was chosen as the Grand Prize winner of the October '91 Player's Poll Contest. Kathryn and her husband, Jesse, flew to Hawaii with a member of the Nintendo Power staff for an extended weekend but March. Brand new mountain bikes and helmets were given to the family as part of the prize package. The Haleakala Volcano was chosen as the site for the mountainbiking expedition. The riders descended more than 10,000 feet in less than 38 miles. Watching the sun rise from the top of the volcano was definitely something to remember.

EDITOR'S CORNER

The Super NES has been out for about a year now. It's been a fantastic year! Two new and exciting accessories have been introduced, the Super Scope 6 and with the Memo Paint cartridge, the Super NES Mouse. The Mouse gives the Super NES more of a "personal computer" feel. It's really fun! A multitude of licensed companies are burning the midnight oil in order to produce the absolute best software available for any game system, including titles for the new CD system. This past year, we've seen the library of Super NES games grow to over 65 titles. Don't think for a moment that it's going to stop there! Look for the Super NES to dominate in its sophomore year and beyond.

FUELING FIREBRAND'S FURY

MAGIC BUSTER

One of the most powerful items that Firebrand must collect in order to complete his journey is the Magic Buster. With this tool, found in the Hinox Woods, Firebrand can clear a passage through solid rocks.

ANGEL'S WINGS

By bringing the Night Drop to Hectate in Gaza Cave, Firebrand will earn the Wings of a fallen Angel. With these Wings, Firebrand can float further than before and continue his journey to the Sitem Desert.

FINGERNAIL

After Firebrand completes his training, King Meerk will reward him with the Spacem's Fingernail. The power of the Fingernail will give him strength to jump high and fly far.

THE GHOUL REALM

The vast Ghoul Realm is a land of many mysteries. Help Firebrand explore the region and stop the destructive force of the Black Light. The numbers on this map correspond with the action scenes denoted in the following pages.

TOPETE

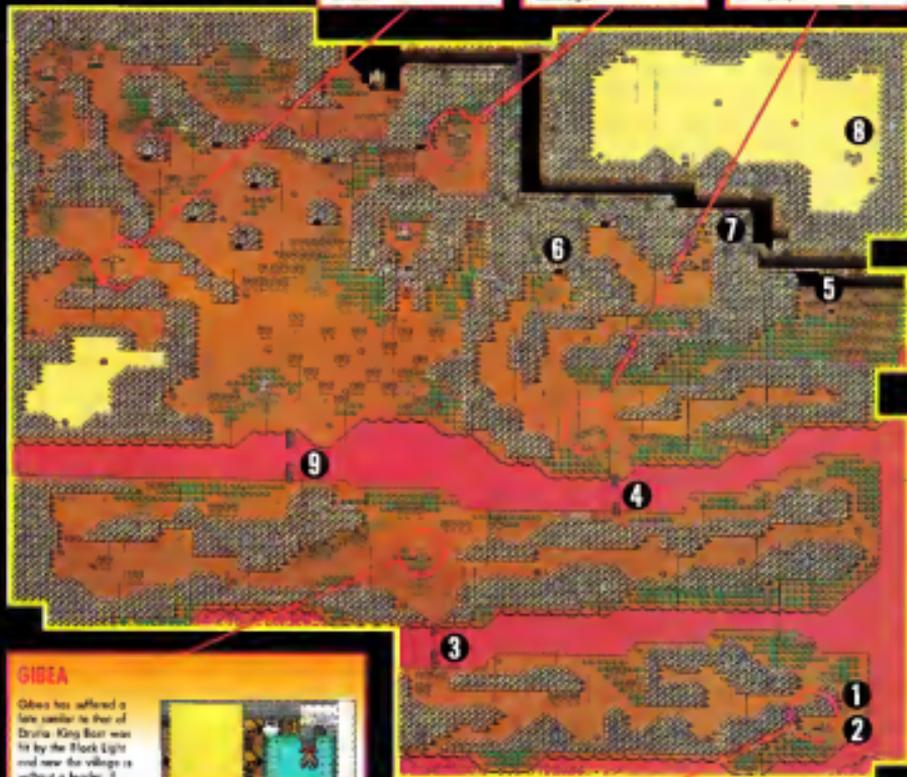

In addition to purchasing the power of the 30 villages in this ancient village, Firebrand can learn about the mysterious creatures who inhabit the zone to the north and the desert to the south.

LOOSEKIP

A pair of royal dragons rule over this small village. By using their power, Firebrand can obtain the stone which will give him access to Swooper Castle, the source of the evil Black Light.

SIDON

Along with a Maelstrom merchant, this village is inhabited by several informants who know about the world around them. Firebrand can learn a lot from these helpful Newpeople.

GIDEA

Gidea has suffered a fate similar to that of Droria. King Boru was hit by the Black Light and now the village is without a leader. If Firebrand can find the Orwello Stick, the King will be saved. Many of the villagers offer sound advice. In one of the buildings, Firebrand can learn the latest password. In another establishment, he can purchase the Power of Maelstrom for extra life.

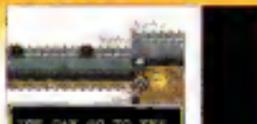

I WILL ENTRANCE
YOU!ALO

DE... DE... DE...

ETRURIA

The monsters and ghouls of Firebrand's hometown have lived a peaceful existence under King Mirock for many years. Now an evil presence threatens that peace. Firebrand must find and extinguish the source of the Black Light. Among Droria's buildings are a Training Center where young warriors learn to fight and a shop where Vials can be exchanged for the life-giving Power of Maelstrom.

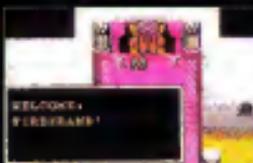

YOU CAN GO TO THE
TRAINING CENTER

FIERCE BATTLES LIE AHEAD

Firebrand's fight for the freedom of the Ghoul Realm takes place in many dangerous locations. Look over the maps on the following pages as you prepare to guide this gallant Gargoyle to victory over the forces that threaten his land.

1 TRAINING CENTER

In order to prove himself a worthy warrior, Firebrand must retrieve Argob's Pot from the upper-right area of the Training Center and take it to the King. In exchange for Argob's Pot, Firebrand has been promised the Spectre's Fingernail. This item will increase Firebrand's jumping ability.

ARGOB'S POT

2 ETRURIA CASTLE

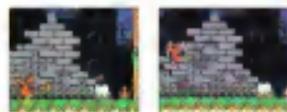

Now that he has completed his training, Firebrand has discovered that a Black Light has been cast over the village. Our heroic ghoul must hurry to the castle and stop the creatures who are spreading the light before they cause more damage. It's a tall order for a trainee, but Firebrand is the only hope for the Ghoul Realm.

EGG ATTACK

An evil bird hides inside an egg in this area, just to the left of a Red Vial. Jump over the bird's back as it flies out to hit you. Then jump again and hit the top of the egg with a Fireball.

REACH THE RED VIAL

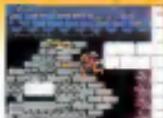

A Red Vial hovers between two tall trees. You can reach your vial in this prize by jumping from the top of the tree on the left and floating as far as you can. Vials can be exchanged for the Power of Madrikin in town.

GARGOYLE'S QUEST II

3 FIRE BRIDGE

On your way up and over the Burnt-out walls, you'll encounter a pair of Insect Flyer creatures. If you're having a hard time hitting them with fireballs, just fly around them and control your death.

HIDDEN VIAL

Enter this chamber from a hole in the wall on the right side of the building. Then collect the Yellow Vial for an extended and refilled life meter.

CLEAR THE CASTLE

A serpentine dragon has invaded the castle. Keep your distance from this beast as it flies around, then chamber and hit it with fireballs when you have a clean shot. The dragon attacks with two types of projectiles. If you're quick, you should be able to avoid them easily.

3 FIRE BRIDGE

The only way to travel from Etruria to Gibea is by crossing a burned-out bridge over a fiery river. The flames of the river are deadly. Avoid them at all costs. Once you endure the dangers of the bridge, you can make your way to Gibea and cash in your Red Vials for the Power of Machstrom.

FLOAT OVER THE FLAMES

The most challenging section of the Fire Bridge features a flaming geyser and a fire-spiked ceiling. Jump over the geyser and start floating at the peak of your launch. You should reach the ledge easily.

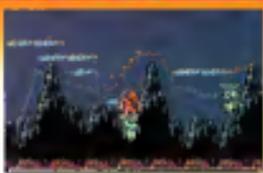

4 ANON'S RIVER

The passage to Sidon is blocked by this river of flames. Firebrand will receive the helpful Dragon Armce before crossing.

CATCH A RIDE

Several cat-headed statues float over Anon's River. If you miss a statue, try to get hit by a projectile for temporary invincibility before you hit the flames. Otherwise, Firebrand will be devoured entirely.

5 HINOM WOODS

Villagers in Sidon will tell Firebrand of an item called the Night Drop, hidden in the Hinom Woods. Guide him to the lower right, then up and to the left.

BEWARE OF SHARP STICKS

Spikes pop out of the rock walls as you approach to the leader of the woods. Proceed cautiously and avoid contact with these dangerous obstacles.

DRIFT OVER DANGER

As you make your way across the top section of the Hinom Woods, you'll see that spores sometimes burst out of the ground with little or no warning. Jump and floor to avoid them.

GET A GARGOYLE

A Gargoyle 1-Up hovers near the top of the first large section of this stage. Approach it from the right side, on a flat-headed stone, then jump and floor when the stone is as far to the left as it will go. If you catch it, you'll score an extra life!

GARGOYLE'S QUEST II

FIGHT OFF THE FISH

The leader of the Hinom Woods is a floating blowfish-like creature. You can beat this beast by staying as far away from it as possible, avoiding the bubbles that it releases and hitting it with fireballs when the time is right. Be careful! The fish will try to pull you in and push you away toward the spiked walls. Don't budge!

6 GAZA CAVE

Firebrand can exchange the Night Drop for the Candle of Darkness and the Angel's Wings in Ectene's house at the center of this cave.

After Firebrand earns the Angel's Wings, he'll have the hang-time required to clear this fire-filled course. Then he can move on to Sitem Castle and search for the precious Green Stick.

7 PASSAGE TO SITTEM

GUIDE OVER THE GAP

The first gap in this passage is the longest and most difficult to cross. Jump as high as you can, then float for a short distance, drop slightly and float again. You'll float further with the gradual loss of altitude.

8 SITTEM CASTLE

The Sittem Desert is a hostile land filled with evil creatures, spikes and sand. Firebrand's work will be cut out for him when he attempts to clear the desert's castle and retrieve the Gremlin Seed. The path splits near the middle of the castle. The lower passage is extremely difficult to cross. Guide Firebrand through the upper passage for a safer journey and a chance to collect a 1-Up in the deep sand.

BREAK THE WALL

A rock wall blocks the opening to the upper passage. Break the rocks with the Mega Buster and move on through.

SINK THE SQUID

The leader of the castle is, surprisingly, a water creature. This squid-like villain sends out small critters which aim to slow you down as the squid charges. Move quickly out of the way and hit the squid on the run.

FLGAT AND FIRE

The monster heads on the castle walls release angry, ghost-like enemies. Hover near these heads and fire on them. After several hits, the ghost heads will disappear and you'll be able to continue your descent unharmed.

GO BELOW

You'll find a 1-Up in the lower-left section of the deep sand pit. Move to the left as you sink and jump quickly to the top after you grab the prize so that you'll avoid the spikes of the bottom of the pit. If you should happen to hit the dust in this castle, you can return to the sand pit and collect the 1-Up again.

9 ROUTE TO THE PALACE

After Firebrand rescues King Barr with the Gemin Stuck, the King will return the favor by blasting away the rocks west of Gibea. This new opening will give Firebrand a way to get to the palace of the Ghost Realm.

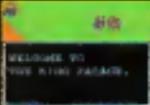

BLAST THE BIRDS

Birds with protective coverings wait on the high perches of the passage and spit fireballs as you pass by. Hit them while they're firing, then move to avoid their shots in the air.

THE QUEST CONTINUES

Firebrand's journey to the palace of the Ghost Realm King reveals that the leader of this land has been kidnapped by the King of Destruction and replaced by an imposter. In this long final act, our hero searches the land for the true King of the Ghost Realm and looks for a way to destroy the evil sources of the Black Light before more damage is done. The journey is far from over, Firebrand. Good luck!

Finished lights for the freedom of the Ghost Realm

CASINO KID™

TM& © 1992 Sega

The Casino Kid returns to the gambling tables in his second high stakes adventure from Sega. Following his million dollar win in Las Vegas, our hero has been challenged by a mysterious gambling mogul to take on the best players in the world. If he can beat these top contenders at their own games, and on their own turfs, he'll earn the chance to challenge the mystery man himself for a final series of big money games. This time out, the games are Black Jack, Poker and Roulette. While C.K. proved that he could hold his own playing Black Jack and Poker in Las Vegas, this will be his first attempt at the game with the spinning wheel and unpredictable silver ball. The scope is larger, the stakes are higher and the Casino Kid is ready for the challenge.

HIT THE ROAD

In his original adventure, the Casino Kid wandered around a Las Vegas gambling establishment looking for players to challenge in a round of Black Jack or Poker. This new game is laid out in a more straightforward manner. The ten gambling locations are clearly marked on a map. As you guide the Casino Kid on his worldwide journey, you can check out the skill level of each player and take a look at his or her game of choice before you commit to each match. You can challenge the players in virtually any order, as long as you defeat the lowest skilled player of a particular game before you challenge the highest skilled player of that same game. You'll begin with a bankroll of $200 and you'll challenge players who have $100, $1,000 or $10,000, depending on their skill levels. Take on the low level players first and build up your account, then go for the big bucks.

ROULETTE

When the Roulette Wheel stops spinning and the silver ball settles, the amount that you've won or lost depends on where you've placed your bets. Single number bets rarely pay off, but when they do, the take is 35 times the initial investment. More consistent winnings will come from bets on categories that offer smaller odds. The three big rollers that you'll face in Roulette seem to have some control over where the ball stops. Listen to their clues and try to make your bets based on the information that you're given.

RIE LENKA

CHINA

ENGLAND

ABU GANZIL

INDIA

KNOW THE ODDS

It pays to study the Roulette table and know the odds for every betting category. If you bet on one of the 38 individual numbers, you stand to win 35 times as much money as you invested. If you bet on a category that offers three choices, your possible winnings will be double your investment. Win on a two-choice bet and you'll earn exactly as much money as you put on the line.

SPREAD IT OUT

You can put down as many as five bets per spin. Unless you're sure where the ball will land, you should spread the bets out on several categories.

If you put your chips on a line or corner, the possible payoff is less, but the risk is also smaller.

PAY ATTENTION

Roulette opponents always say something just before you have a chance to place your bets. These phrases may clue you in on where the silver ball will land next. Read each message carefully and look for the key phrases which will help you decide where to bet. Here are a few to get you on the winning track.

ABU GANZIL

The highest rolling Roulette player on the world circuit is very contradictory. When he says "I'll bet it's odd. Do you believe me?" you should bet that the number will be even. When he says "How about trying even?" you can guess that it will be odd. By saying "It's always the winner," Abu is telling you that the number will be red and odd. And when he mentions the full moon, the number will be 0, 5, or 6.

RIE LENKA

This Roulette pro often gives useful clues. When she says "How about black or red?" the ball lands on a black number. Likewise, "It's even or odd" means that the next number will probably be even. By saying "It may be 00 or it may not" she is telling you that the number will either be 00, 37 or 1. "I'll bet the first twelve" means that she'll bet one of the last twelve numbers.

PAUL KIETON

Paul is only completely revealing with two of his key phrases. By saying "I don't like black zero" he is telling you that the next number will be black. When he says "It may land on 00. Do you believe me?" the ball will land either on 00 or the number that borders 00 on the wheel (37 or 1). Also, when Paul asks "How about you?" it's usually a safe bet that the number will fall somewhere from 1 to 18.

NES

BLACK JACK

The game of Black Jack is also commonly called "21" because the object is to make sure the total value of your cards is close to 21 without exceeding that number. Once you are given two cards, you have the option to receive another card (hit) or stay with what you have (stand). You can also double-down (double your bet and take one more card) or split (if you have two cards of the same value, you can make them into two different hands). After you've received all of the cards that you want, your total will be compared with the dealer's total. The closest total to 21, being 21 or under, wins. The Black Jack dealers in Casino Kid 2 all play the game the same way.

JYINA NAGULE

AUSTRALIA

ROCKY HAMMER

CANADA

NIKORAI BUNIN

RUSSIA

WIN SOME, LOSE SOME

There's no way to guarantee that a particular hand in Black Jack will be a winner, unless you're dealt a two-card 21. Since some hands win and some lose, you should never put too much faith into a single hand.

KNOW YOUR OPTIONS

A lot of Black Jack players get stuck on either hitting or standing at each opportunity. Keep in mind that you can also double-down if one more card is all that you need, or split if you have two cards with the same value. Splitting is a particularly good move if you've been dealt a pair of Aces. The companion cards could likely give you a pair of 21s.

SCALE DOWN

If your bankroll is dwindling, bet small amounts per hand until the account increases. With small bets, there will be less of a chance that you'll go belly up.

SPLIT

When you've been dealt a pair, you can split the cards into two hands. You'll either win twice, lose twice or break even.

DOUBLE-DOWN

If you're confident that a third card will add up to a win, you can take a hit and double your bet with this command.

BET THE RANCH

After you've played several hands, you may be able to wrap up the contest quickly by betting the amount of money that remains in the dealer's account. Press the Select Button when the dealer asks you to place your bet. Then choose the "Bet all money" option. If you've played enough hands, the next hand will be for all of the marbles. This is a useful option if you already have much more money than the dealer.

Press Select before placing your bet.

Choose to "Bet all money"

You should finish up the match in one last hand.

POKER

Draw Poker in Casino Kid 2 follows all of the rules of the actual game. You are dealt five cards and given the option to exchange as many as four of them for new cards. Once all bets are made, your cards are compared with your opponent's cards. If you have a better Poker hand (more cards of a kind, a linear progression or cards of one suit), you'll win all of the money that has been bet. The three Poker pros play in similar styles, though the lower level players seem to let on more about their hands than Ryu Mishima does.

CASINO KID2*ALLTON SILVER*BRAZIL*OTHMAN JR.*NIGERIA*RYU MISHIMA*JAPAN

WATCH YOUR OPPONENT

Poker pros often react to the cards that they have been dealt. If you're facing off with Allton Silver or Othman Jr., you should be able to tell if he has a particularly good or bad hand. Ryu Mishima has perfected the "poker face" expression. This makes him much more difficult to read.

BET ACCORDINGLY

If you've been dealt a good hand, you should make sure that it doesn't go to waste by betting a large sum and raising the bet when you have the chance. In Casino Kid 2, anything better than two pair is worth taking a chance on.

Watch for solid hands.

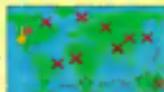

Raise the bet and bring up the heat.

You could raise in big wagers.

THE MYSTERY MAN CHECKS IN

After you've made short order of the nine international challengers, you can return to Las Vegas and meet up with the mysterious gambling leader. A final match of all three games will determine who will be crowned King of Las Vegas.

GO FOR BROKE

After you've played several hands and you've accumulated a large bankroll, you can challenge your opponent to a "double or nothing" hand for all of his remaining cash. Press the Select Button when it's time to snipe up, then choose the "Bet all money" option and go for broke.

Press Select when it's time to snipe up.

Choose the "Bet all money" option.

Try to win it all.

NES

FORCE

The smoke hasn't even cleared from the explosive release of Contra III and already a new installment of the series is on the way! Contra Force from Konami is a Contra game with a style all its own. Instead of offering the traditional fighting duo, this NES thriller lets you choose from four armed-to-the-teeth warriors, each with his own combat techniques. Neo Cey is under siege and the Contra Force team has been called to action. It's your job to guide the squad through five tough stages and track down the military madman who is causing the commotion.

CALL THE FORCE

Deputy of Intelligence Fox is on the line with Burns, the leader of the Contra Force. The Director of the CIA has been kidnapped by Neo Cey madmen. If the villains aren't stopped soon, the city will be in ruins. Reports show that perpetrators are hiding out in a warehouse on the wharf. The Contra Force is on its way!

TWO CAN PLAY THIS GAME

Contra Force is built for one or two players. If you're on a solo mission, you can enlist a computer-controlled partner whenever you need assistance. This hired gun either charges ahead or brings up the rear, depending on where you assign him. Use a partner whenever the enemies are out of control. You can also use this feature to switch from controlling one character to another if the fighter that you're in charge of is low on energy.

Go to the submenus to roll for backup or switch your primary character.

Computer-controlled subunits can be assigned to different duties, depending on the situation. It's your call.

Obstacles that can be blasted are often called Power-Up Switches. Collect these valuable items and upgrade your weapons.

BURNES...

The leader of the Contra Force is great for his cool gun missions. He travels light and can jump better than anyone else on the team. Besides the standard issue Flak, Burnes carries Hand Grenades and a Machine Gun.

SMITH.....

The sharpshooter of the team is unstoppable when he's armed with Homing Missiles and Turbo Spread. Enemies approaching from all angles are immediately dispatched by Smith's steady shot. He's also great with a semi-automatic rifle.

IRON.....

While he's certainly not the best athlete of the group, he is unmatched in terms of firepower. His Home Thrower and even more powerful Bazooka are good crowd-clearers in heavy combat.

BEANS...

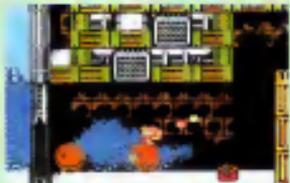

Beans is the explosives expert of the Contra Force. With Time Bombs and Tank Mines he can clear away large groups of enemies and obstacles at one fell swoop. He is also the fastest runner of the group, with an ability to dodge bullets and get out of tight situations.

CONTRA FORCE

STAGE 1: THE WAREHOUSE

Evil croopers are holding the Head of Intelligence at a warehouse on the harbor and the second-in-command, Fox, has called in the Contra Force team to attempt a daring rescue. Your mission is to break into the warehouse with both barrels blasting and search for the leader of the pack.

Burn Musto into the warehouse with a Turbo Machine Gun attack.

START

HEADS UP!

Troopers take Grenades from a high perch in this area. If you've got a short range weapon, you'll have to jump up and shoot upward in order to take them out.

HEAVY MACHINERY

The evil stay is using all means available to fight off the Contra Force. Jump onto the charging Forklift and jump again to the ledge above the warehouse floor.

FAN FORCE

The huge Fans on the floor have enough force to blow you into the ceiling spikes. Jump sideways and aim for the enemy on the other side of the gap.

FIRE FIRST

A sharpshooter is planted on the ledge overlooking this area. As you're making your way across the gap, stop on the fourth moving platform and take down the offense by firing diagonally up and to the right.

B

TO THE LEADER

KEEP MOVING

The platforms in this area begin to drop as soon as you touch them. Jump quickly to avoid falling.

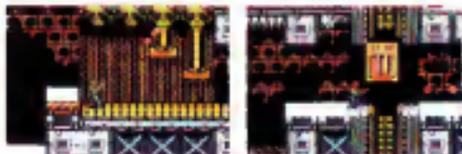

WAREHOUSE LEADER

A rolling warrior waits at the edge of the warehouse. Stay low to avoid his shots and keep firing. If he gets too close, you can jump over him and either rest on one of the floating platforms or drop to the floor and fire off another round.

CONVEYOR CHAOS

Powerful Pistons and falling crates can cause a lot of trouble on the warehouse conveyors. Aim at the base of the Pistons, blast the Crates before they land and try not to get carried away by the belts.

A

TO THE SUB

STAGE 2: ON THE WATER

While the team successfully reclaimed the warehouse, most of the enemy army escaped to a fully loaded battleship. Your search for the Head of Intelligence and his captors continues on the high seas.

You'll find several small boats near the search corner. Step into one of them and ride to the sub.

STAY ON TOP

While it is possible to run inside of this hold, you'll find a safer route by climbing up the stairs and running across the roof. Watch out for moving torpedoes and blast them when you have a clear shot.

Since there are only a few enemies on the search corner, the leg of your journey should be a breeze.

SUB LEADER

SUB LEADER

The crazed commando that waits for you in the last chamber of the submarine fires over three tall barriers. Stay on the lower half of the room, to the left of the gap in the center, and blast the green goon when he steps out into the open.

You'll find a fairly safe hiding place just to the left of the central gap.

STAGE 3: THE CONSTRUCTION SITE

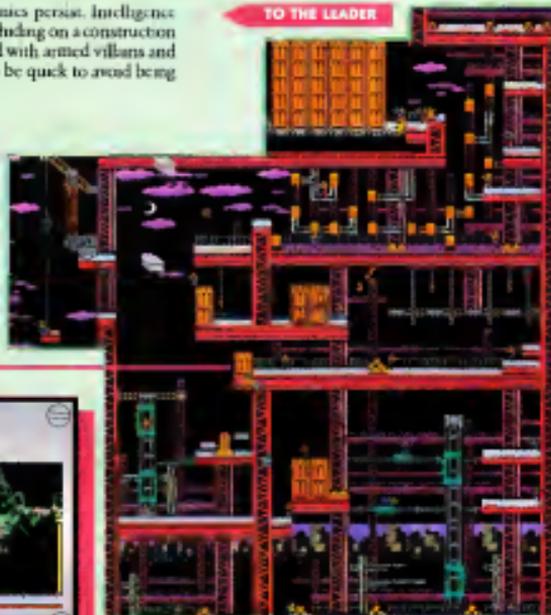

Even with their sea operations sunk, the enemies persist. Intelligence reports indicate that the enemy leaders may be hiding on a construction site in the center of Neo City. The site is loaded with armed villains and plenty of dangerous equipment. You'll have to be quick to avoid being blasted on your way to the top.

BOXES AND BEAMS

Some of the objects on the construction site can help you on your climb. A falling box acts as a counterweight for a seesaw in one area, while dropping beams can be useful platforms elsewhere.

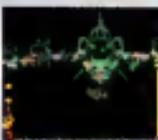

TO THE LEADER

AIRBORNE LEADER

At the top of the site, you'll encounter a huge armed aircraft. Take out the center target first, then go for the lasers on the sides. By hitting the source of the lasers diagonally, you'll avoid contact with the beams.

START

STAGE 4: AIRPLANE CONVOY

It takes a well-trained fighter to be able to walk on the wings of a speeding jet. In this part of the mission, you'll have to do just that, and knock out wing-walking enemies at the same time. There are six jets in the convoy. Jump from one to the next and seek out the twisted mastermind behind this airborne arsenal.

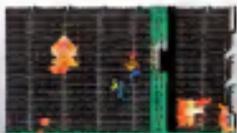

Wind travels at several hundred miles per hour over the wings. Try not to get blown overboard.

Leap from wing to wing on the convoy and search for the leader on the last aircraft.

CONVOY LEADER

The big man on the final jet has plenty of rooms to move and fire. Keep your distance and blast him with all you've got. There's nothing to hide behind, so you'll have to be quick.

STAGE 5: ENEMY BASE

CONTRA FORCE

By parachuting from the final jet as it went down in flames, the Contra Force team has landed at the entrance of the enemy base. This is where the operation's head honcho has been all along. Follow him up to the roof of the building and face off with this monster in a battle to the end.

The boss of the bosses waits to meet you on the roof.

TAKE THE STAIRS

If you destroy the men with stray bullets you'll be seeking another way up. But, if they re-act, you can climb here.

START

TO THE LEADER

BLAST THE PIPES

By blasting the pipes under the stairs, you can clear the way to the top. You can also uncover a load of Power-Up Subtresses to use on your final approach.

THE FINAL SHOWDOWN

When the leader of the evil army makes his appearance on the roof, he'll bring a helicopter with him for extra firepower. You should also enlist help from a friend so that you can take this creep to the cleaners. Have one member of the team concentrate on blasting the helicopter's shells and assign the other member to the mystery man with the gun.

You'll need help from your friends in this final battle.

STREET FIGHTER II

FROM AGENT #408

The Ultimate Match

One of the features that makes Street Fighter II: The Championship Edition the hottest arcade game around is the option to fight with two characters that have the same moves. It's the only way to guarantee a fair match. Our agents working deep inside Capcom Headquarters have discovered a way that you can access this twin-fighting feature on the Super NES version of the original game! When the Capcom logo is on the screen for a few seconds at the beginning of the game, press the direction keys on the Control Pad and the Controller Buttons in the following order: Down, R, Up, L, Y, B. When you enter the code correctly, a tone will sound and the title screen will appear with a dark blue background, instead of the usual black background. Select a two-player game. Player One and Player Two will be able to choose the same fighter! Press the Start Button on either of the controllers and the corresponding character will change in color so that you can tell the fighters apart. Press the A Button on the other controller to confirm your character selection, and start fighting.

While the Capcom logo is showing, press Down, R, Up, L, Y and B.

You'll know that the code was entered correctly if the title screen is blue.

You can match a warrior up against his twin for a fair fight.

Press Start on the controller to change the colors of the corresponding fighter.

↓ R ↑ L Y B

With this twin-fighter code, you'll be able to see if the Street Fighter II brawlers can take what they can dish out. Look at these incredible march-ups!

GUN NAC™

FROM AGENT #800 Area Select

By making a slight adjustment in the Gun Nac Control Room, you can choose to start your mission in any area in the game. Choose the CONFIG.SYS option on the title screen and enter the Control Room. The Area selection in the Control Room will show that the beginning of the mission is set for Area 1. This selection cannot be changed unless you first change the Sound Test selection to 05. Then move the cursor to the Area selection and change it by pressing Left and Right on the Control Pad. Once you've made your selection, press the Start Button to begin in the desired area. Your ship will fly invincibly through the selected area and beyond. With this code, you can even select the hidden Area 0. At the end of this stage is a strange alien, the likes of which our agents have never seen before.

Choose the CONFIG.SYS option on the title screen.

Change the Sound Test selection to 05, then choose your area.

You can begin in any of the game's nine areas (Areas 0-8).

Being correct won't affect your ship when you use this code.

AbodyX™

FROM AGENT #402 The End is Near

Take a look at what awaits you when you complete this space shooter by entering a quick code. When the screen with the "Press Start" message appears, press the controller buttons and the Control Pad direction keys in the following order: A, A, Up, B, B, Down, A, B, B, Start. The action will begin with a high speed race through the final corridors of the planet. Your character will fly to the escape pod and blast off just before the planet explodes.

On the "Press Start" screen, press A, A, Up, B, B, Down, A, B, B and Start.

After a quick race through the planet, your character will make its escape.

INFILTRATOR

FROM AGENT #986 Mission Select

A powerful password for this military exercise allows you to begin in any of the game's three missions. Just enter "BOMB" as your password and the Starting Level menu will appear. With this menu, you can choose to begin the game in any of the flying missions or any of the enemy bases.

You can enjoy any of the pieces of music in this epic without having to scale towers or fight monsters. At any point in the opening story, press and hold the A and B Buttons and press the Start Button twice. The name of the first piece of music will appear at the bottom of the title screen. Press Up and Down on the Control Pad to change the selected piece. Then press the B Button to start the tune and press the A Button to stop it.

Press and hold A and B, then press Start twice.

You'll be able to sample any of the game's many tunes.

■ FROM AGENT #382 Q*Bert the Movie

A collection of short, cartoon-like segments are shown between the levels of this popular puzzle. They center around Q*Bert's struggle to deal with a coconut-dropping tree. Our agents have found a way to see all of these segments in one long scene called "Q*Bert the Movie." On the title screen, press the A and B Buttons and the Control Pad direction keys in the following order: Right, Up, B, A, Down, Up, B, Down, Up, B. When the last keystroke is entered, the film will roll.

Press Right, Up, B, A, Down, Up, B, Down, Up, B.

Q*Bert the Movie starts together between level segments.

■ FROM AGENT #973 Sound Test

Test the tunes and sound effects of this popular Game Boy RPG with a quick code. While the title screen is showing, press the Select, B and Start Buttons all at the same time. Sound and music options will appear on the screen. You can change the sound selections by pressing the direction keys on the Control Pad and listen to them by pressing the A Button. This sound test is unique in that it allows you to mix sound effects with music.

Press B, Select and Start simultaneously.

Listen to the sounds of Final Fantasy Legend II.

Our hero searches through his chest for a way to get out of the tree.

You'll have to watch the movie to see how it turns out.

■ FROM AGENT #227 Free Green Potion

There's a way to stock up on Green Potion without spending a Rupee in this Super NES epic. Just north of the circle of rocks, in the northeast section of the Light World, you'll find a cave hidden behind a waterfall. If you've visited this cave already, you may know that you can toss your Boomerang or Shield into the cave's mysterious pond and that a Faerie will upgrade these items. KIRBY'S DREAM LAND

TM

★ HOOVER MANEUVERS ★

The residents of Dream Land led an extremely peaceful life until a gluttonous beast named King Dedede and his villainous henchmen invaded. They stole all of the Dream Landers' Sparkling Stars. In Dream Land, Sparkling Stars are used to gather food. Obviously, a lack of food can be a big problem. They needed help! The star of this Nintendo Game Boy show is a very versatile little critter named Kirby. He can inhale most enemies and then spit them out at other enemies to give them a taste of their own medicine! By pressing Up on the Control Pad, Kirby will take a big gulp and fill his body with air so that he can float over obstacles and/or enemies. When Kirby is floating through the air, you can push the B Button and make him exhale a blast of air which can also wipe out a majority of Dream Land trespassers. If Kirby floats high enough and then exhales, he can come crashing down on an enemy and not take any damage. Kirby begins the game with six vitality "blocks." Each hit he takes from an enemy will cause him to lose a block. Go get 'em, Kirby. The people of Dream Land are counting on you!

TERRIFIC TERRAIN

The graphics in Kirby's Dream Land are really great! Each level is different and that helps to make this a truly enjoyable game. Kirby will have no trouble negotiating the terrain, though—he can fly! Some levels are horizontally-oriented and some are vertically-oriented. This helps to vary the game play. Cinema scenes appear throughout the game as well.

KIRBY'S DREAM LAND

KIRBY CLEANS UP!

Kirby's mouth is his main weapon. To snarf up enemies, hold the B Button. To spit them out, press the B Button again. If you'd rather not have Kirby spit something out, you can make him swallow by pressing Down on the Control Pad.

A quote from Kirby about remaining enemies: "These guys don't taste too good. I think I'll get rid of them... quickly! There, that's much better!"

SUPERIOR LUNG CAPACITY

Kirby can scoot along on the ground quite easily, but he's just as agile in the air. By simply pressing Up on the Control Pad, Kirby will take to the skies. You will have to use this technique to reach many areas in the game.

By pressing Up on the Control Pad and inhaling some air, Kirby can float up and over anything which blocks his path. He can spit air paths while in the air, too.

ITEMS IN DREAM LAND

Each one of the items in this chart can be termed a "useful item." As you'll find, some are more useful than others. Use this chart when going through the game to determine the usefulness of items you come across.

STAR BOXES

Star Boxes are placed in various locations throughout Dream Land. Kirby can inhale a box and use it as a weapon or he can inhale a box to clear a path.

MAGIC FOOD BAG

Whenever it is in the bag—it's good! By munching a Magic Food Bag, Kirby's victory meter will be restored to full. Don't miss picking these up!

WARP STAR

When Kirby leaps on a Warp Star, he will be transported to the next stage or next section of the same stage. It's a really wild ride. Warp on, Kirby!

PEP BREW

This little bottle of vitamin was just the thing Kirby needs to give him some extra pep. Two victory blocks will be added for every bottle taken.

SPICY FOOD

A plate full of grub treated with potent curry powder can really heat things up. When Kirby eats on the Spicy Food, he can puff in double time.

MICROPHONE

Kirby knows he isn't a very good singer, but when he wails into the Microphone, all of the enemies on the screen will disappear. Bravo, Kirby! Encore!

1-UP

Everyone knows the major importance of the sacred 1-Up. It is the item which is the most highly prized. Get all you can—there aren't many in the game.

CANDY

Incredibly is a really cool thing if Kirby eats one of these lollipop, he can move down as many enemies as he wants to, but only for a short while.

MINT LEAF

Kirby will take all and fly after he swishes on a cool Mint Leaf. Hold down the B Button and he'll spit out a coolish stream of powerful air blasts.

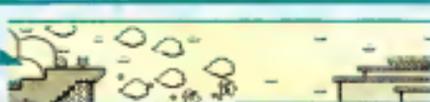

GREEN GREENS

STAGE

The wooded lands of Green Greens look very peaceful and the characters look friendly. Don't let their looks deceive you... they're not! This is a fairly straightforward level that provides a player with a good opportunity to experiment with gulping, shooting, jumping, floating and flying. Kirby will grab a Warp Star halfway through the Stage. It will take him to meet Puppy Bros. Sr. Go through the door marked by the word "In" to find a couple of Pep Brews.

START

POPPY BROS. SR.

Stay on the left side. Inhale the Bombs that Poppy Bros. Sr. tosses at you and then spit them right back at him. He'll be toasted by three direct hits.

BADDIES ON PARADE

Kirby's Dream Land is full of strange and varied enemies. Our hero, Kirby, must deal with them all. There are many more enemies than the ones shown here, but this chart will get you started on the road to recognizing the prime Dream Land invaders. As a rule of thumb, collect every single item and puff at everything that moves.

POPPY BROS. JR.

This sport is usually riding on the back of an apple or a Grizzo. He's not much of a threat. He's a good target to practice dive-bombing on.

GRIZZO

Because of Grizzo's size, it seems like an unlikely event that Kirby could inhale one. However, the Grizzo is no different from any other foe.

HURLY

This sick puppy jumps up from some 74 levels above Kirby attempts to jump over them. Lure them out by moving near the block and then gobble them up.

BRONTO BURT

This flying pig can be a threat if he gets too close. We're confused as to why he's named Bronto because he doesn't look anything like a brontosaurus.

BROOM HATTER

The Broom Hatter has high aspirations and thinks it is going to clean up in Dream Land. Not all Kirby has his eye out for his brotherly bids.

GORDO

Gordo moves rather slowly in the vertical plane. His spiked protrusions will quickly damage Kirby if he comes in contact with them.

CAPPY

Think of this mischievous character as a villain with a hat. Kirby can gobble up his hat and then spit it right back at him to zap him off.

WISPY WOODS

Wispy Woods spits out a couple of air blasts to try to ward you off. Crouch down or jump and float upward to avoid them. Inhale the apples which fall from the top of the screen and then spit them out to grow this tall timber the size. This tree is also known as "The Larkspur Lax".

MAGIC FOOD

BOOLER

This unfriendly ghost is one of the spookier enemies in Dream Land. Move into position quickly and then pick up the ghost with one big gulp.

MUMBLERS

Kirby can't inhale the Mumbler™ he can sniff them wrappings, though. Take a gulp of air and then shoot it at the Mumbler to defeat it.

KABU

Kabu appears and disappears, but doesn't move much. Don't try to walk past them when they are invisible—they don't stay that way for long.

SHOTZO

Shotzo the camera is indestructible and will never stop firing at Kirby unless he's in Kirby's view. Avoid it by staying as far away from it as possible.

SCARFY

Scarfy is a devious character. He looks like a friendly sort of cat, but don't try to inhale him—he'll get meaner than a baby dog and attack.

MUTANT SCARFY

This is what Scarfy looks like after Kirby tries to inhale him. He's mad! Scarfy will explode violently if he's touched by any object.

WADDLE DEE

Waddle Dee and its first cousin, Waddle Dee, will try to gang up on Kirby. Their downfall is their intelligence. They're not too smart.

KOOZER

This little dark creature will follow in on Kirby and make a tonkake run at her. A quick move to the left will take care of her, though.

MR. P. UMPKIN

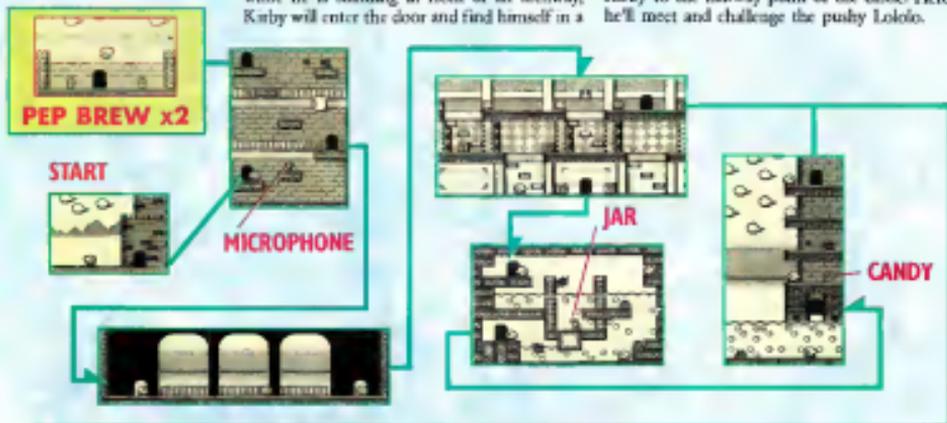

If you see this enemy, you'll know that you're a good player. Mr. P. Umpkin and various other enemies are "extra" special.

STAGE 2

CASTLE LOLOLO

A couple of vaguely familiar characters rule the chambers of this castle. As you might expect, castles have many doors. Castle Lololo is no exception. By pressing Up on the Control Pad while he is standing in front of an archway, Kirby will enter the door and find himself in a new room or area. Make sure that Kirby jumps off the ledge and grabs the Warp Star, which appears just past the long hallway containing Booblers and Mumbles. The Warp Star will take Kirby to the halfway point of the castle. Here, he'll meet and challenge the pushy Lololo.

LOLOLO

When Lololo appears, jump up or down to his level and inhale the block which he pushes. Spit it right back at him.

PEP BREW & SPICY FOOD

LOLOLO & LALALA

Lololo returns, but he's brought a friend! Make good use of the levels by jumping up or down to gulp the blocks and then spit them at the twins.

FLOAT ISLANDS

The three main areas of the dreaded Float Islands have their own specific dangers. Watch out for falling Coconuts in the first area. They're a bit difficult to spot when Kirby is on the run. The spiked floors and ceilings in the second area will test Kirby's flying skills. A trio of frantically firing Shotos and various winged enemies will also test Kirby's flying skills in the third area. Check the map to locate the easy 1-Up in the second area.

STAGE 4

BUBBLY CLOUDS

By the time Kirby reaches Bubbly Clouds, he should be an ace flyer and air-blast marksman. The flying enemies in this stage can give Kirby troubles, but this, I believe, is the point which all enemies try to convey. There are two hidden 1-Ups in this stage. They can be extremely helpful to a Dream Landier who is running low on lives. Explore every nook and cranny in the clouds and corridors to find hidden passageways leading to 1-Ups. Find one 1-Up before and one 1-Up after the first confrontation with Kracko.

MT. DEDEDE

The main bosses, which Kirby defeated in each of the four previous stages, are back again at Mt. Dedede. Kirby will have to trek through four brief "mini-stages" and challenge the bosses again. You can choose the order in which you fight the bosses.

It's really painful that Wappy Woods thinks he can stop Kirby. He failed miserably in his first attempt. Just pelt the temperamental timber with apples again and move on.

STAGE 2 CASTLE LOLOLO

Lololo and Lalala have sped up their attacks. Kirby will have to be quick in order to grab their blocks this time. Be patient and look for good opportunities. Touch the character that looks like Kirby to gain entrance to the lair.

STAGE 3 FLOAT ISLANDS

KABOOLA

Kirby needs to touch his clone to get rid of the Gordo that blocks the entrance to Kaboola's realm. This time, it will take more hits to take Kaboola out of commission. Stay to the left and fire constantly while avoiding Kaboola's cannon balls.

STAGE 4 BUBBLY CLOUDS

GAME BOY

LAZLO'S LEAP™

DTMC Inc. © Hest 1992

LEAPIN' LIZARDS!

Lazlo is leaping around the board in DTMC Inc.'s new title for Game Boy. It's perfect for those of you who are hard-core puzzle players with the patience and persistence to figure out a sequence of moves that will clear the board and let you finish on the star space in dead center. You begin each puzzle with pieces already arranged on the board, and your goal is to eliminate the pieces with as few moves as possible. There are many ways to solve the puzzles, but each has a "Par," or a standard number of moves to shoot for. Your score is tallied like golf scores are, so you'll finish over, under or even with Par. You can register two names and save your progress, letting you rest your eyes and resume play later. Whether you compete against the game or against another puzzle fiend, Lazlo's Leap is a certified brain-drainer.

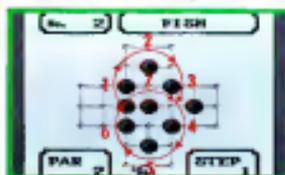

JUST THE BASICS

The first two puzzles introduce some basic moves that will help you solve other, more complex puzzles later in the game. As long as you continue to move the same piece, it counts as only one step, no matter how many times you leap. As soon as you switch to a different piece, it counts as a step. In these first two screens, you learn to leaping around the board.

In this configuration, use the piece in the lower right to leap left and up beside the star in one step.

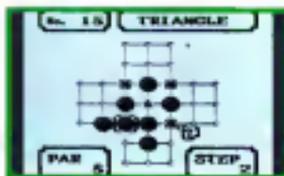

Use the center left piece to circle the board in one step. Land between the right-most piece and center.

To clear the Triangle without going over Par, you'll do a triple jump around a square. First, move the center piece down, then jump left one space with the piece from the far right. With the piece just left of your landing space, go around the board clockwise, ending up beside the piece on the far left. With a single move you'll wipe out four other pieces. Two more moves will bring you in at Par.

Move over one spot and leaping around the central square, eliminating four slots on your way.

Now you're ready to set up the final move. Leap back to the center from the left, using a fourth step.

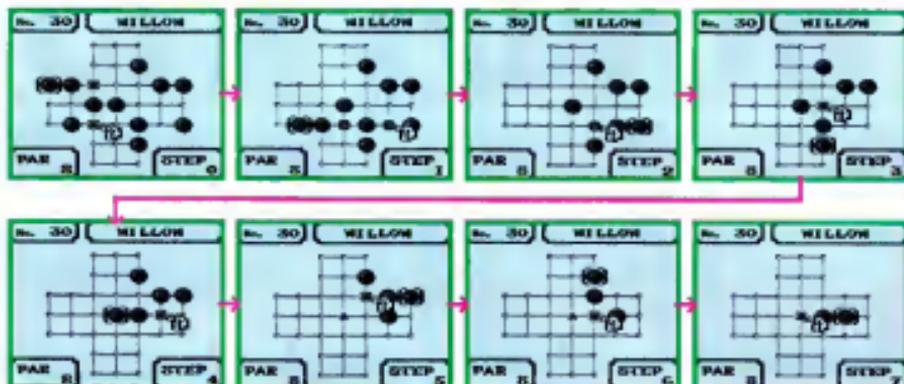

Shoot for the star. From below, leap over the last extra piece and land in the center of the grid.

30

WILLOW

Eleven pieces crowd the grid in the Willow puzzle, which has a Par of eight. If you get a good start, the sequence falls neatly into place. Double up on the first couple of moves, as shown, then make a series of single leaps to eliminate the rest of the pieces. Start at the upper left.

LAZLO'S
LEAP

Hop to it! Leap from the star in the center over to the right, step four.

Look, come on down! For your sixth step, leaping down to the next empty space.

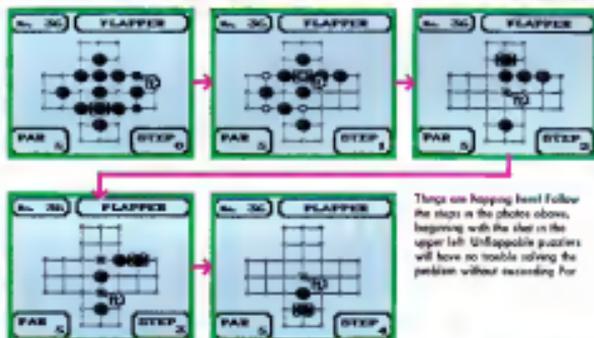

Jump from the right side towards the center to prepare for the final sequence.

Only one piece stands between you and the star space. That's Par for the course.

36

FLAPPER

What's the big flap? Puzzle 36's grid has 11 pieces, and you have only five steps to remove them. Begin in the lower center, as shown. Leap to the right, then up. Next, activate the piece in the center of the upper cross and leap around to form a complete square, eliminating four pieces. Hop from above down to the center, then use the piece in the upper right to move down to just below the center star. Now you can use your last step to leaping from below to dead center.

Things are flapping here! Follow the steps in the photos above, beginning with the star in the upper left. Unflappable puzzles will have no trouble solving the problem without succumbing for

ZERO

Puzzle 90 is packed with pieces—14 to be exact. Make all nine allowed steps count to clear them all. To begin, use the piece in the center of the bottom row to hop up over one row and to the left over another. Next, jump down one and to the right from the center of the top row. Leap down from the upper right and towards the center from the far right. For your fifth step, bound from the lower left up and over to the right. That sets up the final sequence.

WORDTЯIS™

If you like Tetris, get ready for another fast-paced puzzler for Game Boy. In this new game from Spectrum Holobyte you're challenged to form words using the lettered blocks that fall from the top of the screen.

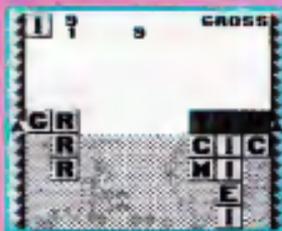

When you form a word, the blocks disappear, but if they reach the top of the screen, you're history. You have to think fast—and spell well. With four levels ranging from Children's to Expert, it's suitable for a variety of players.

SPELL THE KEY WORD

The number of points you can per word depends on its length and point value of the letters used to spell it. You can clear the screen and rack up points by spelling the key word that appears in the upper right corner of the screen. A good strategy is to use one side of the screen to spell the key word while you spell shorter words on the other side.

Spell the key word to clear all letter blocks from the screen. You'll earn points for each.

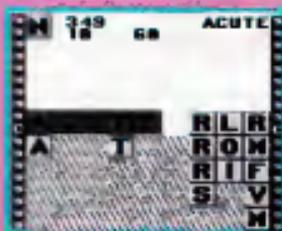

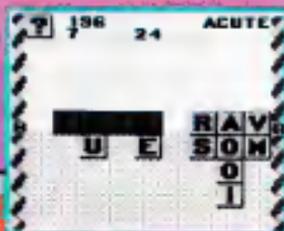

While you work at putting the key word together on the left, spell short words on the right.

COMPLETING WORDS

You have to be careful about the order in which you place letters to form words. The game clears the first word it recognizes, so if you complete smaller words within the one you're trying to build, it will clear those letters and you'll have to start over. To earn more points, save key letters until last and complete longer words.

If you try to build the word 'ACUTE,' you can't place the 'X' first. The computer will recognize the word 'rats' and clear those letters from the screen.

THE MYSTERY BLOCK

When the Mystery Block appears, press the A Button to scroll from A to Z or the B Button to scroll from Z backwards to A. You can run through lots of letters if your stack of letters is low, but when they're high, you won't have much time. As your level increases, blocks start falling faster, which also makes the scrolling more frenzied. The game randomly chooses a letter if you don't.

As the Mystery Block falls, you can run through the alphabet and change it to whatever letter will be most helpful. You have to move quickly, though.

Change the Mystery Block to an "L" to complete the word "TALL." You have to scroll through lots of letters to reach "L," so double-taps are helpful.

AIM FOR HIGH SCORES

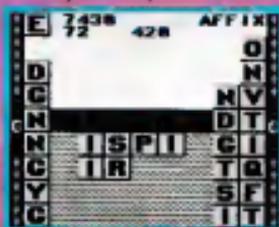

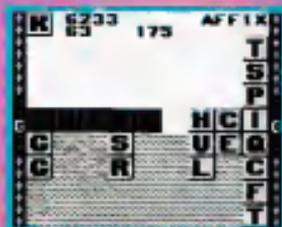

Instead of just creating lots of short words to clear blocks, you can hold out for longer, more complicated words and get higher scores. For big payoffs, try to make unusual words that need seldom used letters.

TEST YOUR VOCABULARY

Words don't necessarily have to be really long to yield lots of points. Unusual letter combinations and offbeat words can cough up big bonuses—but trying to complete them can also push your stacks to the top. Get out your thesaurus!

EXTRA FOR X'S

Those hard-to-use letters, such as X, Q, and Y are worth more than common ones are. Don't be dazed, don't be fazed. Quiz yourself quickly. Test yourself! Exert some extra effort! Earn for more points than you made yesterday.

LOAD ON THE LETTERS!

In early levels, the game tallies words of three or more letters, but don't let that limit your imagination. You can form words of up to nine letters, so make them as long as possible to score big. It's harder, but the payoff is worth the effort.

SUMMER-

The summer CES (Consumer Electronics Show) in Chicago came early this year. It brought with it a flood of new titles for all three Nintendo systems. But that wasn't the only flood. For the first time in CES history consumers were invited to view and play the hot titles of the future. Show-goers got a feast of fun and hands-on experience in the 76,000-square-foot Nintendo booth—the biggest in CES history. Thousands of players flocked to a huge arcade featuring every current Super NES title, while others crowded in to get a look at upcoming titles such as NCAA Basketball, Mario Kart and Mario Paint. There was video and live entertainment, an interactive Mario who joked with the crowd, video Game Counselors and video sketch artists. But fun is serious business and the real purpose of CES is for retailers to decide what products they'll carry over the next six months. The Chicago show is particularly important because it covers the holiday season when so many consumer purchases are made. Read on for a rundown of the latest and greatest from Nintendo and its licensee companies.

Nintendo of America started the show by stunning the electronics industry with the announcement that it would sell the Super NES Control Deck separately with one Controller for the remarkable price of $99.99. That was just the beginning of the big news from the Big N. The highlighted Super NES games were greeted with rave reviews, particularly Mario Kart, Mario Paint, and NCAA Basketball Battle Club for the Super Scope got lots of play time as did Youk for the NES. Super Mario Land 2 was heralded as the biggest game ever for Game Boy.

Over at the Capcom booth and around the entire show everyone was talking about Street Fighter II. The arcade and Super NES smash (and both) hit was displayed on a giant multiscreen display. But Capcom dazzled players with other titles as well. Mystical Quest Starring Mickey Mouse dazzled players with beautiful graphics and whimsical animation. The first look at MVP Foot- ball was limited to a few screens, but the game has real potential. More big news from Capcom was its announcement of Myra Man V for the NES and The Empire Strikes Back for Game Boy.

All the brochures from Acclaim weighed about a ton, which is fitting for a company that has become a heavyweight in the software ring. As if to prove the truth of this, Acclaim hosted an autograph session with one of the greatest heavyweights of all time, George Foreman, who will appear in video bouts on all three Nintendo systems. Bat's Nightmare, finally nearing completion, looked like the best Simpsons spinoff yet. What could be cooler than a giant Bartzilla stomping on Springfield? How about Bartman battling Radioactive Man on the NES? Or Bart Vs. The Juggernauts for Game Boy? One version of T2, T2: The Arcade Game, may even match the hip-shooting action of the coin-op hit by using the Super Scope. Acclaim is also working on The Amazing Spider-Man and The Uncanny X-Men: Arcade's Revenge in which you can control four of the X-Men and Spider-Man through their own missions. Two versions of The Mario and Youk were on hand to greet game players from around the world.

C.E.S. '92

Show attendees who jumped the video game console's get a prize from Nintendo Power.

The early version of NFL Football for the Super NES sported 360 degree scrolling views and options for everything from weather conditions to stadiums. Cybermat, a side-scrolling, Super NES robotic shooter, had the feel and excitement of Contra III while Prince of Persia for the Super NES featured the exceptional animation of the Game Boy and NES versions, but with an all-new adventure. One of the more innovative programs shown was Tiny Toon Cartoon Workshop. Using nine Tiny Toon characters, you can create animated, five-minute cartoons.

Road Runner's Death Valley Rally from Sunsoft impressed players with big graphics and supersonic game play speeds. Throughout this action-packed side-scroller, Wile E. Coyote tries to nab the Road Runner, with predictably disastrous results. Batman: Revenge of the Incredible Crash Diggers—one for NES and one for Game Boy—are also scheduled to come out by the end of the year. Alen 3 for all three systems will feature movie elements and realistic character animation... and that's just for starters.

Konami always comes through with some of the hottest titles at every CES. Batman Returns, although only a few demo screens were shown, became one of the most talked about future games.

All sorts of video game characters come to life during the show.

Joker will be coming out for both the NES and Super NES while the most famous of all caped crusaders, Superman, should land in a store near you by the end of the year. Blaster Master II is also in the works for the Super NES, but don't expect to see it until next year. Sunsoft plans to produce more Looney Tunes games in the future, including Mixed-up Melodies, a Game Boy action title with seven Looney Tunes characters like Sylvester and Tweety, Porky Pig, Bugs Bunny and Daffy Duck. Tan, starring the Tasmanian Devil, will be the next Super NES Warner Bros. game from Sunsoft.

Interplay has made a name for itself with innovative games like Out of the World, and the tradition continues with Claymates and Vikings, two Super NES offerings expected by the end of the year. Claymates puts you in control of animated clay creatures, each with its own power. There're both fast action and challenging puzzle play in this game. Vikings begins when three unsuspecting Norsemen get kidnapped by aliens. The rest of the game is dedicated to getting the lost but lovable barbarians home again.

Cyberpunks and cavemen were the themes at Data East, where two new versions of Joe & Mac were showing—one for the NES and one for Game Boy. The NES version had amazingly good graphics with multiple scrolling backgrounds. Shalouras is an action adventure for the Super NES based on a Cyberpunk role-playing game. The three quarters, overhead view gives a feeling of depth to the shadowy world of Future Seattle. Ultrabots: Saucisse Earth was also nearing completion and should be released this fall.

At Ocean, a game starring an ant was only part of the big news. Push Over for the Super NES is a puzzle game in which G.I. Ant must position various types of domino blocks so they knock over all the dominoes on a stage. A Game Boy version of Lowings is also in the works. Movie properties have always been popular subjects for video games and Ocean is betting that will be the case for Cool World and Lethal Weapon 3 for the Super NES, not to mention a sequel to their popular Adventures Family game. Prince Valiant for the NES is a medieval action game based on the ageless comic strip.

Acclaim put together one of the most impressive displays at CES

American Sammy surprised most show-goers by demonstrating the first mouse-controllable RPG for the Super

NES. Might & Magic III had only been in development for a few weeks, but you could still point and click through some vivid scenes. Battle Blaze for the Super NES has the feel of a street fighting game with 70 action moves and the setting of a fantasy RPG. Football Fury is a simple football game that emphasizes player control instead of lots of plays. Two Game Boy titles were also shown—Ninja Taro, an adventure game, and Rolan's Curse II.

One of the most prolific licensees over the past year has been Virgin Games, and that doesn't seem to be changing. This time they showed a Super NES hockey game, Super Slap Shot, with international teams and a fighting option. Super Slam Dunk is also on the way along with M.C. Kid and Spot II: Fables & Ferals: The Legend of Kyrandia is an interesting looking fantasy adventure for the Super NES that is said to be the first of a series. Color a Dinosaur for the NES skewers very young while Caesar's Palace for Game Boy will be targeted at older audiences.

T*H*Q is following in Virgin's footsteps by planning the release of a ton of games. In addition to Roady & Bullwinkle, Where's Waldo, Robotaurus, James Bond Jr., Race Driver and Family Dog, T*H*Q showed an early version of Home Alone 2 and announced licensing agreements to make games based on Wayne's World and Ren and Stimpy.

This year may prove to be the year of the dogfight simulator, both in the air and in outer space. Microprose showed an early version of Super Strike Eagle. Four views, including a strategic view from a satellite overhead, give the pilot plenty of feedback. Also look for a more down-to-earth PC conversion, Railroad Tycoon, which lets you build a railroad empire. Continuing on into the reaches of deep space, you'll find Mindscape's Wing Commander, the hit PC simulation that looks as good on the Super NES as it did on the PC. Mindscape is also coming out with Gods, Tennesseers, and Cal Ripken Jr. Baseball. Accolade is pushing into uncharted territory with its new Super NES Wayz Speed, also a first-person-view space simulator. The graphics on the early version look promising. Accolade also has turned the old Turrican II game into Universal Soldier, based on the movie with Jean-Claude Van Damme and Dolph Lundgren.

If action is your bag, Felix the Cat from Hudson Soft is an NES Game Pak in which Felix reaches into his magical bag of tricks to produce a lot of fun. Super Shadows of the Beast from IGS is an adaptation of the popular PC game from Psygnosis. It looks better on the Super NES than on any of its previous formats. Super Conflict from Vic Tokai offers action of another sort—tactical battlefield action. This strategy game is based on the popular NES version of Conflict and puts you in command of an army, navy and air force, but this time you have animated battle scenes. Final Fantasy Mystic Quest from Square mixes adventure and RPG elements with terrific monsters in a Super NES Game Pak that looks like a winner. The news from Tradewest is that Backroads In Butterbuns is undergoing furious development. Pro Quarterback, one of five football games featured at CES, is also in the works. Puzzle games of all sorts were previewed, from Spec- trum Holobyte's Wizards for the Super NES to Heretics from Bullet-proof Software. Spectrum Holobyte also teased show-goers with a few early screens from Star Trek: The Next Generation, but don't expect to see this game until Spring of '93. The success of Lemmings has inspired a number of similar games, the most impressive of which is tentatively titled Hexor from Jaleco. This Super NES title puts you in command of a small army of archers, mages, engineers, wizards and other characters. Jaleco also showed a nearly completed version of Utopia, a space colony simulation that will make use of the new Power Mouse.

In addition to Nintendo's Battle Clash and T2: The Arcade Game from Acclaim, the Super Scope was showcased in Hi-Tech's Host For Red October and Kemco's BioHazard. In BioHazard, crosshairs appear on the screen, allowing you to aim without sighting through the scope. Also making an impact on the Super NES technology front was ASCII's model of their new Super Advantage joystick. Although it was kept under glass, the new controller looks well-laid out.

Sports games ranged from the traditional league-oriented Game Paks such as Tecmo's NBA Basketball for both NES and Super NES, to more unusual sports like the jet ski and motorcycle races of Gametek's Kawasaki Caribbean Challenge. Amazing Tennis from Absolute is finally ready to hit the courts, but Hal America's College Football is at least a year away from seeing any action. Electronic Arts, one of the leaders in sports games, has Balls VI, Blazers basketball and NHL Hockey on the way. California Games from DTMC, offers some wacky sports like hang gliding. American Technos is reintroducing the characters from River City Ransom in a series of NES street sport games, starting with Street Challenge with Crash 'N The Boys. Best of the Best Championship Karate from Electro Brain has some great options for customizing the characters and their fighting abilities.

Finally, JVC and Lucasarts Games have combined with Sculptured Software to produce an impressive Star Wars Pak. This is action on a galactic scale, utilizing the Super NES Mode 7 functions, the stereo capabilities of the sound chip and digital graphics that seem to plunge you into the heart of the classic story. Until you've flown your X-wing down to the surface of the Death Star while dodging laser blasts from TIE Fighters, you haven't lived. So what's the wrap on CES? Simple. The future of video gaming has never looked so bright.

Street Fighter II looked better than ever on the giant multi-screen display.

DRAKKHEN

HOW DO I FIND THE FIRST TEAR?

Robin Krouse

The first lesson in Drakkhen is to be patient. You can't miss an area and expect to move ahead. First off, walk east to Hordtkhen's Castle and enter it. Inside, touch the second symbol from the left, then go looking for Hordtkhen. When you find him, he'll suggest that you talk to his sister, Hordtkha. So off you go to Hordtkha's Castle, which is in the second area from the bottom of the map on the far right. Unfortunately, the place is in ruins. Gather what information you can, then return to see Hordtkhen. He'll power up your party for the difficult road ahead.

Now head toward the swamp area to the north. Go to the northwest to Haagkhen's Castle in the second area from the top on the left side of the map. Use the UNLOCK spell to work the drawbridge and gain entrance. Inside, touch the far right symbol. Search for the Prisoner, who will help you find Hordtkha. Next, visit the northeast Castle, then go to Naakhrkha's Castle (top left) in the icy, northern wastes. Touch the symbol second from the right, then take a winding path to find Hordtkha. After seeing Hordtkha and receiving the Second Tear, return to the swamp and Haagkha's Castle for information on how to beat Hordtkhen. Finally, go back to battle Hordtkhen. If you win, you'll receive the First Tear.

Castles: 1 Hordtkhen 2 Hordtkha 3 Haagkha 4 Naakhrkhen 5 Naakhrkha 6 Haagkha

At Hordtkhen's Castle, break the barrier using the symbol second from the left.

At Hordtkha's ruined castle, get information about her whereabouts.

Use the UNLOCK spell to lower the drawbridge at Haagkha's Castle.

Get the Second Tear, visit Haagkha, then battle Hordtkhen for the First Tear.

DEFENDERS OF DYNATRON CITY

HOW DO I RESCUE A TRAPPED DEFENDER?

Paul Rush

If one of your heroes has been trapped, you'll find him or her in the sewers. In some of the sewers you will find barred gratings along the walls. That's where you'll find your friends. First, destroy all the enemies that appear in the sewers. Only after cleaning up the bad guys can you save a good guy. Press Up against the gratings using the same method that you use when entering a Store. If the trapped hero is inside, he will now be freed. If it is the wrong trap, you'll receive a message. Keep searching until all the Defenders are free.

If a hero runs out of power, he or she will be trapped in the sewers.

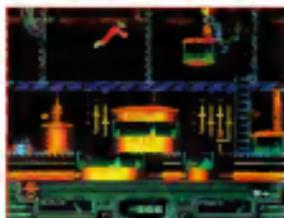

Push up on the gratings in the sewers to find and release trapped heroes.

HOW DO I GET INTO THE PROTO-COLA FACTORY?

Once you've cleaned up the sewers, you'll get a message that says "Mutant monster making machine sighted on 2nd Street." When you reach 2nd Street, walk all the way to the right. There you'll find a mechanical skull, which you can defeat by hitting the Super Charger in its eye ten times. Avoid the gears and pick up the Super Charger when it falls out of the skull's eye. By picking up the Super Charger, you'll be transported to the first level of the Proto-Cola factory.

At the end of 2nd Street you must attack the mechanical skull in the eye.

Blot the eye ten times to get the Super Charger, then go into the factory.

WHICH HEROES WORK BEST AGAINST WHICH FOES?

Each of the Defenders has certain strengths that can help you against particular enemies. Use them strategically to clean up the city. Toolbox's hard-hitting power and strong jump attack works best against flying and hopping robots, not so mention Mall Robosaurs and Atom Ed. Jet and Radium can destroy any of the robots as long as they have plenty of cars. Megawatt is also a good choice when faced with Mall Robosaurs and Gnomorphs, because she is so fast that she can avoid the slower moving foes.

The Monkey Kid's banana bombs are well-suited for attacking flying robots and Lounge Hawks, while Buzzsaw Girl's backflip works wonders against Mall Robosaurs and Atom Ed — that is as long as she has enough energy to keep moving.

The Mall Robosaur gets hammered by the pounding attack of Toolbox.

Megawatt is a good choice for zapping robots, because she can dodge their shots.

Buzzsaw Girl's backflip is a powerful attack against most enemies.

WIZARDS & WARRIORS III

HOW DO I GET PAST THE BEEHIVE?

James Mayo

The Beehive at the top of the town will stop all but a Level One Wizard. After you find the Bronze Wizards Statue, take it to the Level One Wizards Guild. There you'll get the Fireball Attack, which can be used against the Beehive. To shoot the Fireball, hold the B Button Down and tap the Directional Control Up and Left at an angle. After destroying the Beehive, you can jump up to the platform.

Only the Level One Wizard can attack the Beehive. The Knight is helpless.

Use the Fireball attack to destroy the Beehive at the top of the town.

WHERE IS THIEVES GUILD 2?

To find the Thieves Guild 2, you'll first need the Silver Thieves Statue. To reach the Guild, take the upper left door from inside the Palace, which takes you outside. Move up and to the right and then jump off at the far right edge to reach the blue door. Inside, drop to the bottom, then go back outside. Walk to the right and drop down and right to the next green building, which is the Thieves Guild 2.

Exit the Palace through the top left door. You'll be on a red ledge.

Go as far to the right as you can. At the edge of the roof, jump off!

Continue jumping down and to the right until you reach the blue door.

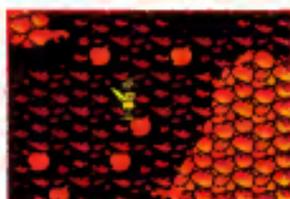

Go inside the blue door, jump to the bottom and exit. Go to the green house.

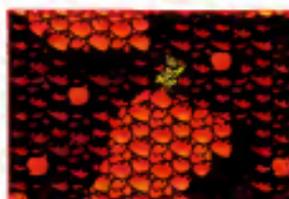

Open the door with a Key. Inside is the Thieves Guild 2.

HOW DO I GET OUT OF THE UNDERGROUND?

When you are ready to get out of the underground area, you'll come to a jump that seems, at first, to be impossible. The heavy knight can't jump far enough to go on. Higher level thieves make the jump easier than anyone else. To make the jump, stand on the second ledge down. From the left edge, begin your run and jump to the right. You should land just over the top of the hump.

The high-jumping thief should start his jump from the left edge of the platform.

Run and jump to the right, to the top of the hump. Now you can move on.

BOXXLE

HOW DO I SOLVE ROOM 3-2?

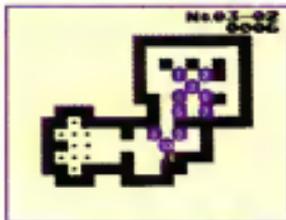

Lynda Harvey

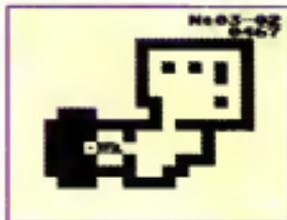

Room 3-2 looks like one of the tougher rooms, and it is, so here's what you do. Push Box #10 all the way up and Box #1 one space up. Now push Box #3 two spaces right then Box #2 one space up. Next, Box #10 goes two spaces right while Box #9 goes one space to the left and all the way up. Now push Box #5 once left, three spaces down, seven spaces to the left and two spaces up. Box #4 goes one space left, four spaces down, seven left and two more spaces down. Now you can push Box #1 four spaces down, one left, three down, seven spaces to the left, one up and one more space to the left. Next push Box #9 one space right, three down, one left, three down, seven left, one up and one left. Push Box #7 three spaces left, three spaces down, seven spaces left and one space up. Now move Box #6 one space down, three left, three down, five left, one down and two left. Box #2 now goes four down, three left, three down, six left and one up while Box #3 gets pushed four spaces to the left, five down, five left, one down and one left. Push Box #10 one space left, three down, one left, three down and seven left. Finally, push Box #8 five spaces to the right, three up, four down and six spaces to the left. That's all there is to it.

Keeping track of the ten boxes will be difficult unless you make a diagram.

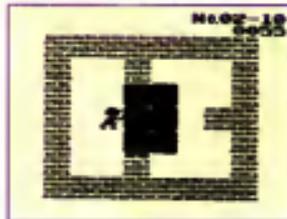

You'll have to push all the boxes into the small area to the lower left.

HOW DO I SOLVE ROOM 2-10?

Room 2-10 is more complex than it looks. Follow these steps to solve the puzzle. First, push Boxes #1 and #5 one space to the right each. Now push #3 one space up. Box #4 moves one space right while #5 goes one to the left. Push Box #6 two spaces to the left and #2 one space left. Next push Box #4 one space down then one left. Finally, push Boxes #3 and #5 into the remaining spaces to finish the room.

Follow the directions by keeping track of the different boxes on paper.

The secret to Room 2-10 is allowing yourself access to both sides.

TURTLES IV

TURTLES IN TIME

A TIME TRAVELING ADVENTURE

Dudes! The Turtles are back and they're rockin' harder than ever in their very first Super NES adventure. Turtles In Time marks the sixth Nintendo outing for the four sewer surfers from NYC. Using the advanced capabilities of the Super NES, the programmers at Konami have radically improved the graphics and sounds which you may be familiar with from previous Turtle games. It's shell-shocking! As soon as you turn the game on, you'll notice the difference! A really cool thing about this game is that it uses digitally sampled voices to introduce each of the ten stages. Scrolling and other Mode 7 graphic tricks are employed in the action and cinema scenes, but overall, the game set up isn't a radical departure from the side-scrolling action of the NES Turtle games.

THE CRIME . . .

Splinter and the Turtles, while taking a training break to watch April on the Evening News, are witness to the theft of the Statue of Liberty by a giant Krang Robot. They know that Shredder is behind this pointless theft of a national treasure. It's only been a short while since the Turtles battled Shredder in Manhattan. Frankly, they're a bit surprised he resurfaced so quickly. The Foot Clan appears to be fully rejuvenated and all of Shredder's main henchmen are back for the attack. Make sure your shells are screwed on tight, grab your Super NES controller and scream "Cowabunga" as loud as possible because it's time to kick some major shell!

KNOW THY MODES

Turtles In Time features four game modes. Obviously, the 1-Player Mode is best for Clan-thrashers who like to go at it alone, but for simultaneous action, the 2-Player Mode is great.

In the Time Trial Mode, you can select one of several levels to compete on. Each level has timed sections or "laps." The goal is to trash the Clanmen as fast as possible.

1 PLAYER-2 PLAYER

Select Don, Raph, Leo or Mike and head out to the streets! Grab a friend and select two Turtles for 2-Player simultaneous action. Each player must select a different Turtle. Try to become familiar with the strengths of each.

TIME TRIAL

This is a one-player exercise only. Choose to compete on one of three levels. Only one Turtle life is given for the whole Time Trial. If shell-shock bests your Turtle before the round is cleared, you'll have to start over.

VERSUS

The Turtles take to their hallowed training grounds, the sewers, for the Versus Mode. Splinter plays referee in this two-player shindig which closely resembles a Street Fighter II matchup. The remaining Turtles look on as two half-shell heroes battle each other. There is a time limit of 60 seconds for each battle. If time runs out, the player with the most life remaining wins the round. This mode provides a great setting to learn all the cool moves.

OPTIONS

The Option screen allows a player to dabble in the settings on their upcoming adventure. Choose from Easy, Normal and Hard Levels, Easy allows three Continues, Normal has four and Hard has five. There are 12 different settings you can choose from to control your Jumps, Attacks and Special Attacks. Another nice feature the Game Option screen gives you is the number of Turtles you can have in reserve. Choose three, five or seven backup lives.

SUPER NES

A SHELOGRAPHY

LEONARDO

A born leader, Leo is the battle commander for the Turtles. His use of the Katana Blades is unrivaled. Some may criticize his attacks as being too predictable, but his precision more than makes up for any other shortcomings.

COMBINATION

Leo will first swing a blade in an overhead fashion and then he will follow up with a sweeping or horizontal swing. He may finish up with a double handed over the head chop.

SPECIAL ATTACK

A dual bladed, spinning, roundhouse slice is Leonardo's specialty. It's very powerful, but it will take a notch off of his life meter if he makes contact with an enemy.

MICHAELANGELO

The self-proclaimed "Wild and Crazy" Turtle, Michelangelo deftly uses the Nunchaku as his weapon. He lives for two things: 1) pizza, and 2) anything that will take Shredder down. Mikey has use of some fairly flashy attacks.

COMBINATION

Mikey whips his Nunchaku from side to side, then spread down when attacking on enemy. He usually tries to finish them off by spinning the weapon out in front of his body.

SPECIAL ATTACK

Mikey's Special Attack consists of a lunging motion and a two-bladed Nunchaku punch. It's a little difficult to accurately describe, but you'll love it when you see it.

DONATELLO

Donatello is a very smart cookie; in fact, a genius. His weapon, the Bo, is extremely powerful and has a long range. Don is a bit of a recluse and is usually building new TMNT vehicles when he's not fighting or eating pizza.

COMBINATION

Don uses the Bo in much the same way that Mikey uses his Nunchaku. An overhead swing, a roundhouse and then a spin out in front will take out several Foot Clonians.

SPECIAL ATTACK

Donatello executes his Special Attack by firstly planting the Bo and launching himself toward an enemy or a group of enemies. It's a total offense move, dudes.

RAPHAEL

Raph's a cool, calm and collected character—except in battle! He's a wild man (uh... Turtle) when it comes to battling Foot Clan heads. Equipped with the trusty Sai, Raphael likes to use his quickness to throw himself at enemies.

COMBINATION

Like the other Mutant Ninja Turtles, Raphael swings his Sai weapon up and down and then side to side like a fan. He can finish off an enemy with a quick flick of the wrist.

SPECIAL ATTACK

Raphael's Special Attack is a powerful jumping Spin Kick. Powerful legs can deliver powerful kicks and Raphael has definitely got 'em! The spin may be just for show.

PICK A TOPPING

PIZZA

Who knows who left the Pizza out, but the Turtles are glad they did! Here's a hint, boys!

POWER PIZZA

If one of the Turtles grabs the red box, they'll have super Turtle power for about five seconds. Before snagging the box, wait for a gang of enemies to gather around so you can wipe them out in one big group.

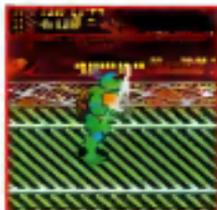

DASH ATTACK

TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA
TURTLES IV
TURTLES IN TIME

The Turtles have perfected a few techniques which they have been working on over the past few years including these running attacks. Splinter has taught them very well.

ROUND OFFS

By Dashing and then pressing the Jump Button, a member of the TMNT can execute gymnast-like round offs. They quickly tuck their weapon away and then start flipping end over end. Use this technique to get through a pack of enemies.

SHOULDER BASH

By Dashing and then pressing the Attack Button, your mean, green fighting machine will hurl himself at an enemy or a group of enemies shoulder first. This technique can deliver a powerful stunning blow.

FLYING KICK

This technique may be a bit difficult to execute, depending on how you have the Special Attack set up on your Super NES Controller. Press the Special Attack Button(s) while Dashing and the Flying Kick will be the result.

SLIDE

To properly execute a slide, press and hold the Jump Button while Dashing and then press the Attack Button. If properly timed, your Turtle will damage an opponent when he slides up and comes in contact with him.

POWER MOVES

The Turtles are famous for being able to quickly thrash their enemies. These two new power moves certainly prove that. Any of the Turtles can consistently execute these moves.

FLING SLAM

Ouch! This one looks like it really hurts. Stand as close as possible to a doubled-over enemy. Press the Attack Button, but don't hold Down on the directional key to execute the Fling Slam. It's a smashing move!

FLING TOSS

This is a rad move! First, double an opponent over with a Punch, Kick or Dash, then move in very close to them. If you press the Attack Button while pressing on the directional key, your Turtle will grab and Fling an enemy toward the screen.

SUPER NES

SCENE 1 BIG APPLE 3 A.M.

Like New York City, need another new building! The Turtles' first battle takes place during the wee hours of the morning in a building that is currently under construction.

WRECKING BALL

The wrecking ball operators must be really tired—they're wrecking the wrong building! Avoid becoming a Turtle pancake when the giant wrecking balls come crashing down by staying out from underneath them. When the wrecking balls are down on the floor, they will not harm you.

GIANT KRANG ROBOT

Halfway through the first stage, a giant Krang Robot will peek in on the action. He'll see the Foot Clan members getting thrashed and decide to help out. You'd be wise to avoid the lasers shooting out from his eyes. Here's a tip: the robot's eyes will flash a bit before the lasers start blazing.

BAXTER

"TERMINATE THE TURTLES"

Baxter Stockman, once a good-natured scientist, was turned into a fly by the evil Shredder. He has two weapons at his disposal: a machine gun and a "hand" gun. Don't attack Baxter until he stops firing and lands. Since there's no time limit, just avoid his shots.

SCENE 2 ALLEYCAT BLUES

The back alleys of New York City are no place for upstanding citizens to stroll around. That's why the Turtles are here. They're on a mission to clean up the place and get rid of the Foot Clan.

WHERE DO THESE STAIRS GO?

Well... they go up, of course! Foot Clan warriors who train Ninja Throwing Stars will use these stairs as their point of entry as an effort to put a stop to the Turtles. The path next to the large dumpster is narrow so watch out for Clan gangs when passing by it. There is a Power Pizza up ahead.

FENCED IN!

The Foot Soldiers will make their entrance via the back side of the chain link fence. You can't get at the Foot Soldiers until they have climbed over the fence. Wait until they start to climb up the back side and then move your Turtle into proper battle position.

METALHEAD

"I'M GONNA MANGLE YOU SLIMEBALLS"

Krang built this mechaturtle to resemble the members of the TMNT crew. It has a few powerful methods of attack: 1) it will kick you, 2) its limbs will quickly extend and pop you a good one right in the kisser, and 3) a laser gun will fire from its chest cavity.

SCENE 3 SEWER SURFIN'

SHOW TIME!

Travel back into the sewers for a bonus round. Pick up as many "?" bones as possible and avoid the mice.

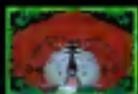

R. KING

"FIRST THE SEWERS ..
.. THEN THE WORLD!"

The Rat King thinks he rules the sewers. Not likely. Everyone knows that the Turtles dominate here, too. Smash Rat King's vehicle while avoiding the missiles he fires and the mines he drops. Jump when he's dropping mines and attack afterward.

RAID ON TECHNODROME

SCENE 4—TECHNODROME LET'S KICK SHELL!

Finally, the Turtles make it to Shredder's hideout, the fabled Technodrome. The Foot Soldiers are much better defenders here. The Shield Foot Soldier is first seen in the Technodrome.

SHATTERING CRITTERS

The mechanical Mousers that break out through the glass and into the main Technodrome hallway were initially created by Baxter to get rid of mice. Baxter hates mice, you know. However, they are such a big nuisance to the Turtles that they are now permanently employed in that menacing position.

LIQUID SOLDIERS

A new "breed" of Foot Soldiers has recently been created by Shredder. Liquid Soldiers can hide themselves by blending into the surface of the floor until they are ready to attack. In an instant, they can return to their normal Foot Soldier shape. Liquid Soldiers usually pop up in groups.

TOKKA & RAHZAR

"MASTER SAY HAVE FUN ..."
"FUN ..."

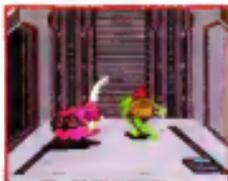

Take on Rahzar first. Stand in the lower right corner and just keep slashing away at him. Rahzar will bite the dust in a relatively short amount of time. Tokka is a bit harder to defeat, but you should be able to defeat him in the same manner.

After defeating Tokka and Rahzar, you will move on to the second section of the Technodrome—the elevator shaft. Shredder awaits you at the top.

ELEVATOR SHAFT

There will be a total of six stops on the way to the top of this elevator shaft. Be prepared for a battle at every stop! Watch out for Roadkill Rodneys, Sai Soldiers, Shield Soldiers, Sickle and Chain Soldiers, Mousers and the dreaded Laquid Soldiers on the way up to Shredder's lair.

SHREDDER IS FOUND!

When you enter Shredder's lair, your Turtle will be between Shredder and the screen. You'll see him lurking inside of his newest fighting machine. It's equipped with radar, laser turrets and retractable punches. If you get caught by one of the punches you'll be in for a huge shock.

SHREDDER

"TONIGHT I DINE ON TURTLE SOUP"

For the Shredder battle, he'll move between the screen and your Turtle. The only way to damage Shredder is to grab and Fling the Foot Soldiers at his machine. It's difficult in the Hard Mode because only Shield Soldiers show up. It's extremely tough to Fling them.

"MY PATIENCE IS WEARING THIN, I'M BANISHING YOU TO A TIME WARP FROM WHICH YOU WILL NEVER RETURN!"

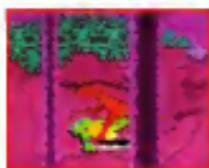

SCENE 5—B.C. 250000000 PREHISTORIC TURTLESAURUS

The Turtles' first stop goes back about a billion years to a time when dinosaurs roamed the planet. The huge footprints give it away. In fact, you'll encounter some of the stampeding beasts.

DINO STAMPEDE

You'll know when a dinosaur is on its way. The ground shakes and you'll hear the rumble of dino feet. They run right to left and won't stop for anything.

WATCH YOUR HEAD

Giant stalactites hang from the top of the cavern. As you approach, they will break off and fall to the ground. Don't be standing underneath them... OK?

SLASH

"YOU'RE HISTORY, SLIMEBALLS"

Slash is also a mutant turtle, but he's not on the same wavelength as the TMNT. He's evil! An attack to Slash's front will do no good. Get him from behind.

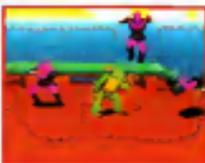

SCENE 6—A.D. 1530 SKULL AND CROSSBONES

TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA
TURTLES IV
TURTLES IN TIME

Your Turtle will find himself warped to the deck of a 16-century pirate ship. The deck is in need of a repair—so don't step on the loose boards or you'll end up getting smacked in the face.

UP FROM BELOW

There will be plenty of Foot Soldiers who will jump up from the side of the ship throughout this stage. Stay on the lower half of the deck if possible.

INCOMING!

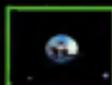

A passing hostile pirate ship may fire off a volley of gigantic cannon balls. The cannon balls will land on the deck of your ship. Watch for them!

ROCK STEADY & BEBOP

"YOU'RE WALKING THE PLANK, SHELL BRAINS!"

Rock Steady and Bebop can be considered one boss. If you defeat one, the other is defeated, too! Stay clear of Rock Steady's posny lance and Bebop's whip.

SCENE 7—A.D. 1885 BURY MY SHELL AT WOUNDED KNEE

The Turtles are getting closer to the present time, but they're still over a hundred years away. The entire battle in this stage takes place on a speeding train in the wild, wild West.

UNDERCOVER CLAN

Don't be fooled by the monotonous mannequins—they're really Foot Soldiers in disguise. They throw off their overcoats and attack when you get close.

STONE WARRIORS

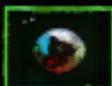

These former Krang rockers are tough! Don't let them gang up on you. Keep them all on one side or the other, if possible. They blow up when defeated.

LEATHERHEAD

"OH GOODIE,
FRESH TURTLES FOR LUNCH!"

This lobster-chucken' one loves boxing. He'll punch you, but his best attack is with his tail. The spikes on his tail are sharp and can do a lot of damage.

SUPER NES

SCENE 8—A.D. 2020 NEON NIGHT-RIDERS

SHOW TIME!

This is the second bonus round. Pick up the "P" orbs, smack the Foot Soldiers and avoid the Mousers.

KRANG ROBOT

"FACE THE WRATH OF SUPER KRANG"

A Krang Robot appears in the distance and then turns to come swooping down for the final battle in this stage. Jump right in and start wailing on the Krang Robot. He will punch you, but keep working on him—he'll go down!

SCENE 9—A.D. 2100—STARBASE WHERE NO TURTLE HAS GONE BEFORE

Krang has constructed a new hideout. This time, it's in outer space. The Turtles have been to just about everywhere, so why not outer space? It makes sense... sort of.

KRANG'S STARBASE

You will face almost every type of enemy in the Starbase. Krang has guarded his new lair extremely well. You'll need to call upon all of your Turtles' ninja fighting techniques to handle the onslaught of enemies.

LASER BARRIERS

The laser barriers in the hallway of the Starbase are reminiscent of the lasers which shot out from Krang's eyes way back in the first stage. Keep in mind that it is possible to jump over them, if necessary.

KRANG

"YOU SHELL HEADS ARE DEAD"

Krang's disappearing ship won't hurt you if you touch it, get in really close and whack away at it like a crazed Turtle. Krang will drop some pesky Robot Walkers, but they can be defeated with one swat. Persistence will pay off.

It is not quiet on the Western Front when you take to the skies in Namco's Wings 2 Aces High. The roar of diving biplanes and the chatter of machine gun fire fill the morning air with dread. Your squadron faces more than twenty missions, including strafing runs, bombing raids and daredevil dog fights. Each of your five pilots may become an ace, or just a memory, and somewhere amidst the clouds waits the Red Baron.

WAR AND HONOR

A NEW BREED

The faded photos of a past era tell of the days when men first took to the skies in machines to fight for their nations. Little more than a decade after the first flight of the Wright brothers, biplanes were called into service over Europe. There, a new breed of soldier performed feats never before imagined. Light-weight, open-cockpit biplanes bombed targets, harassed columns of armor and kept the sky clear of enemy aircraft. The dangers they faced from above and below were daunting, but the pilots kept up their courage and became heroes of a new age.

LIVE TO FLY ANOTHER DAY

In Wings 2 Aces High, you command a squadron of raw recruits. Those pilots gain valuable skills each time they complete a mission successfully, which means destroying enemy targets and staying alive to tell about it. Passwords appear after each mission, allowing you to save your progress through the twenty missions. At the end you'll reach the Red Baron—your ultimate adversary in the sky. Along the way you may lose some pilots while others will be decorated for heroism.

LEGENDS ON THE WING

Marcel LeBlanc

Lieutenant Marcel LeBlanc left his entire Canada to fly with Britain's Royal Air Force (R.A.F.). He had the keen eyes of a marksman, which proved as useful for hunting Fokker biplanes as Canadian geese.

Charlie Dexter

Lieutenant Charlie Dexter crossed the Atlantic before America joined the war. As a natural-born flier, he proved his worth by joining the R.A.F. He could even have taught hawks something about flying.

Sean Maloney

Lieutenant Sean Maloney, an Irishman who shipped over to France as a mechanic in the Royal Flying Corps, later became a pilot in his own right. His skill at fixing and improving machines was legendary.

Lawrence Wolfe

Lieutenant Lawrence Wolfe left the posh life of the West End to become a flier. His talent with the Lewis gun—a machine gun mounted to the nose of the biplane, became well-known on both sides of the Front.

John Hargreaves

Lieutenant John Hargreaves, a factory worker from the industrial heartland of England, joined the R.A.F. at the first opportunity. John's stamina allowed him to survive when others would have given up.

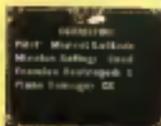

Pilots earn Victory Points (VP) upon returning from a successful mission. These VP increase your Victory Meter in four critical areas, giving pilots new skills and promotions.

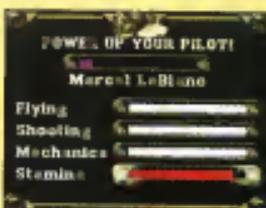

IN THE SKIES

THE TOP SQUADRON

The best squadrons of World War I were known for the skills of their pilots. Your squadron will stand a better chance of challenging the Red Baron's Flying Circus if you strengthen all your pilots, not just one or two. Also, balance the four different skills of the Victory Meter so each pilot becomes strong in all categories. You'll earn the greatest amount of Victory Points by quickly defeating enemies during aerial combat, so don't waste time.

The debriefing message appears after a successful mission. Following that, fill up the Victory Meter by allocating VPs to the four skill categories.

FLYING

This category determines your maneuverability. Add VPs to the meter to increase your turning speed and the tightness of the angle you can turn.

SHOOTING

This category reflects both your aiming skills and the range of the Lewis gun. You'll become more accurate at longer range if you increase this skill.

MECHANICS

A high Mechanics rating will improve the performance of your plane and Lewis gun. You'll be able to fly faster and shoot more rounds of ammunition.

STAMINA

Your Stamina determines how many hits you can take before plunging to the ground. Higher Stamina means you can take more hits. If a plane crashes, the pilot will not survive, so Stamina can save lives.

You'll earn more VPs by hitting more targets, like these tanks that are moving to the front.

MEDALS OF VALOR

Medals are awarded for exceptional acts of skill and bravery. Your pilots can earn medals by quickly dispatching enemy planes during dogfights. This is especially true in later, more difficult missions. You also earn promotions for successfully completing missions.

DOGFIGHTING: THE

SOPWITH CAMEL

Famed for its superior maneuverability, the Sopwith Camel collected more victories than any other plane in WWI. The Red Baron fell victim to a "Camel." The plane's nickname came from the hump between its Lewis guns.

WELCOME TO THE FLYING CIRCUS

The test of a great pilot was not necessarily how many victories he scored while dogfighting over the fields of France, but whether he survived the ordeal. The best pilots had lightning-fast reflexes. Eddie Rickenbacker, a race car driver, became America's top ace by demonstrating quick reflexes. The Red Baron's squadron was called The Flying Circus because the planes soared, turned, and dived like acrobats or trapeze artists. Each of those maneuvers, however, were intended either to escape from a deadly pursuer or to close in on an enemy for a clean shot.

Sudden gusts of wind could be treacherous. During a steep dive, the pilot would try to turn or pull the nose up.

You had to fly close to the enemy to get a good shot during a dogfight, but if you flew too close, you could crash.

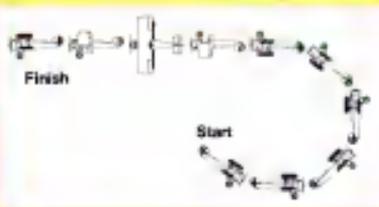

TIGHT TURN

Use your plane's full power, and the sharpest turns are made by flying 90° to the ground while pushing down on the controller. You'll lose altitude rapidly, so begin the turn at a high altitude.

SPLIT S

Use the Split S to reverse direction. Open the throttle, then dive. At full speed, bring the nose up to make an inverted turn, then roll.

TRADITION BEGINS

ATTACK FROM THE BACK

Most pilots thought the best attack position was from above and behind the enemy. Much of the maneuvering that went on during dogfights was to reach the rear position, or to escape from a pursuer closing from behind. Once a pilot gained the rear advantage, he had to match the enemy's turns, dives and rolls. At the same time, he had to watch for other enemies closing on his tail.

Back clouds of smoke indicate a damaged enemy plane. You'll hear a long 'A' you get hit!

■ EVASIVE MANEUVERS

On the later missions, enemy pilots are more skilled at evading you. Top Flying and Mechanics ratings will help you keep up with their unpredictable maneuvers.

HEAD-ON DANGER

When flying head-on towards an enemy plane, be aware of the fact that it won't swerve to miss you. If you attack from the front, always be ready to dive or roll out of the way of oncoming planes at the last moment. You can't afford to lose your pilot.

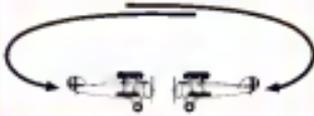

A RUMOR OF RADAR

Radar wasn't invented by WWI, but you have the option to use a heads-up radar display in Wings 2. At the title screen, push the Left and Right buttons and Up on the Controller Pad. During dogfights, a transparent radar display appears in the lower left part of the screen showing the position of enemy planes.

Gain the altitude advantage and shoot downward at the enemy during head-on confrontations.

FOLKER D.VII

The finest German aircraft of the war was the Folker D.VII. This biplane could climb faster and higher than any of the allied planes, but it was heavier and could not stay in the air as long.

THE MANY FACES

BOMBING MISSIONS: BEHIND ENEMY LINES

Bombing missions were particularly difficult in World War I. The pilot was also the bombardier, but he had no special sites or targeting devices. It was very much a hit or miss proposition, and more often a miss than a hit. The basic strategy was to stay high to avoid anti-aircraft fire during the approach, then to dive on the target, release the bombs, then climb back to safety.

Identify the target on the photo, then dive low to bomb it during the mission.

■ THE BOMBING RUN

It won't always be easy find up the target. If you veer too far to the side, you'll miss it. Follow the roads and maintain your altitude. You can see more of the land below when flying at higher elevations.

STRAFFING MISSIONS: HIT AND RUN

It takes nerves of steel to fly the gauntlet run of a strafing mission. You'll have to fly low to hit the targets, and that means your plane will be an easy target for guns on the ground. Memorize the positions of targets during your first run, then fly a straight line from one to the next during the second run. Like slalom skiing, you can't afford to make wide turns. Hold a tight line.

■ THE STRAFFING STRATEGY

When a target comes in sight, go into a shallow dive so the nose of the plane points toward the ground. Between targets, give some altitude, then repeat for some attack.

OF BATTLE

WINGS 2
Aces High

THE RED BARON FLIES AGAIN

If you survive through 20 missions in Wings 2, you'll meet the Red Baron in a final series of six aerial skirmishes. Only one pilot will be available for the entire stage, so use your top flier and avoid taking hits. Along the way, you'll face a secret bombing run and multiple dogfights against the finest enemy pilots in the game—sometimes with odds as bad as three to one. The Baron in his red Fokker appears only briefly in the first skirmishes, but he'll be gunning for you at the end.

In the strafing portion of the first stage, you'd better watch the ground fire. You can't afford to take damage before meeting the Baron.

Fly as low as possible when you search the zone. Unlike precision bombing runs, you won't have a photograph to help you identify the target.

Master the mechanics of pursuit and escape, and always be prepared to react instantly.

BARON VON RICHTHOFEN

Manfred Von Richthofen, a.k.a. The Red Baron, was the most celebrated ace of the Great War. Between May of 1915 and April of 1918, the notorious Baron downed 80 enemy planes—more than any other ace. When the Baron was finally shot down behind British lines, the R.A.F. accorded him a burial with full military honours.

The black Fokker is slower than other planes, but it can still maneuver with the best.

When you're following these planes and they split, chase after the group of two and attack them.

SUPER NES

MARIO PAINT™

Just Picture This

And now for something completely different. Mario Paint, Nintendo's newest Super NES release, is a departure from the action, adventure and sports games you might expect. It's an innovative graphics program that lets you design scenes, compose music, create animation, and even combine all three. It's as simple or complex as you want to make it, so it's tons of fun for all ages and skill levels.

EEEEK! A Mouse!

MARIO
PAINT

The Mario Paint package includes everything you need to create your own masterpiece, including the Game Pak, a Super NES-compatible Power Mouse and a Mouse Pad. It's completely Mouse-driven, so put your controllers away and plug the Mouse into Port One of your Super NES. Now you're ready to start exploring the options. The Power Mouse makes it easy! You just "click" on the various icons to access different areas and new menus. And this isn't the only game you'll be able to use the Mouse with—more are being planned for future release.

With the Power Mouse, you can move quickly and draw like you would with a pen.

Slide the Mouse on its pad to move the cursor on the screen. Press to click.

Feast On The Main Menu

The icons that run across the bottom of the screen when you start the game represent the game's different modes and options. To check them out, move your cursor onto each and click once. You'll open areas that let you design Stamps, make music, animate frames, create illustrations, put the color into previously sketched scenes and even take a break to sweat some flies. Click back and forth to try them all.

Learn how to stay within the lines and how to use your drawing tools by using the coloring tool.

March to your own drummer! Compose tunes using Mario Paint's selection of serious and funny sounds.

With the Stamp option, you can create and save your own customized Stamps and use them in your drawings.

The screens are your scenes, the color icons are your palette, and the tool icons are your brushes.

Use the Mouse to get even with meach! Take a coffee break and move yourself with a flycatcher.

Make clouds sweep through the sky or fumes dance in the wind using up to nine frames of animation.

SUPER NES

PAINT BOX

Mario's paint box holds all the tools you'll need to create a masterpiece. There are drawing tips in three widths and an extra wide paint brush for big jobs. Standard geometric shapes and Stamps of several familiar faces and features are ready to use. You can also create your own custom Stamps to use in your designs.

Reverse Arrow

Using the Arrow icon, you can select an object from the menu of Stamps and print it in reverse, upside down, or upside down and backwards. Click to the small box to print the Stamp exactly as it appears in the menu.

Helping Hand

The Hand tool lets you copy an area of the screen and print it somewhere else. Click at the upper left corner of the area and drag the Mouse to outline what you want to copy. Next, release the button, move the box to its new space and click again.

Brush Tips

Choose one of the three Brush Tips to draw freestroke lines. The Thinner Mouse gives you the freedom of drawing in all directions, just as you would with pencil and paper.

Stamp It!

Select the Mario icon to Stamp images from the menu or squares of color from the palette. You can even put some stamps, such as Mario's upper body and either a walking or standing lower body, together to make one image.

Air Brush

Paint a broad, speckled-looking line in whichever color or pattern you choose from the palette.

Set The Shape

Click on the Circle icon to bring up a menu of shapes and lines, then use the down cursor to define the area you want them to cover.

The Paint Brush

Use the Paint Brush to fill in an outlined area. Choose a color or pattern, put the white tip of the brush in the area, then click.

Erase It

To change your design, select the Erase icon. Use the small square cursor to erase small areas, but if you want to start over, choose one of the options from the Erase Menu and wipe the slate clean.

OOPS!

When you make a mistake, don't panic. Click on the Dog icon in the lower right corner to take back your last move.

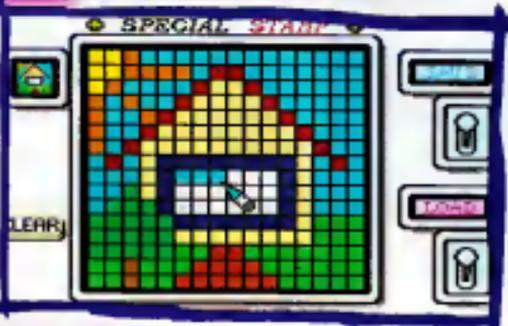

OPTIONS

PAINT

Creativity knows no limits with Mario Paint. Put down your paintbrush and try your hand at music. Customize your creation with special stamps. Become a mouse master while taking a Coffee Break. Then, save it all for a repeat performance!

Collect Stamps

Count the rows on the grid to find dead center, then start coloring.

After you fill in all of the squares, be sure to save your work.

You can then retrieve your new Stamp and use it in other projects.

Save It

When you've created a scene that you want to keep, click on the Robot icon and go to the Save option. To retrieve it later, go back to the Robot and Load.

Tunes

If you like the monkey's tune, select it for your background music.

Coffee Break

Don't let flies bug you—use your mouse to swat them.

From A To Z

Click on the A icon and find letters you can use to congratulate George.

Speed Set

If the tempo is too slow and the cheer is too fast, select the level's pace to make your music move at medium speed.

Animation

Select this icon to really get things moving.

Make Music

Select the Keyboard icon to compose music.

SUPER NES

DIRECT THE ACTION

Lights... Camera... Action! When you add animation to your artwork, it comes alive on the screen. After you create a background in the Drawing mode, enter Animation Land and design some action to put onto your scene. You can use four, six or nine frames to create an action sequence, then you, the director, decide what path it will follow. The first step is putting it together with a background and music so you can experience the full effect.

1. First Frame

In the first frame of animation, the orange hand appears and beams energy above Link.

2. Second Frame

With a flick, the animation sequence continues, and some strange magic flows from the hand.

A. Fill The Frames

Select the number of frames you want to use, then sketch in what you want to happen in each.

B. Flip The Switch

When you're finished, turn the animation on to see how the sequence looks in your scene.

3. Third Frame

The solid burst of light disappears, leaving a small cloud that will gradually dissolve.

4. Fourth Frame

The cloud becomes smaller, squier or flatter, depending on the speed you set for the sequence.

5. Fifth Frame

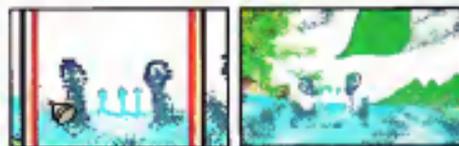

As the sequence reaches, try the different speed settings. Quickly or slowly, the cloud fades.

6. Poof!

Combine Eff

Now add music to your animated scene to get the full effect. Draw and save the background, add animation, compose music or sound effects, then turn on the sound while the animation runs.

If you want your motion to move across the screen, go to the Path option in Animation mode and set a course for the action to follow.

MAKE YOUR OWN MUSIC!

MARIO PAINT

Mario Paint is great for budding artists, animators and musicians in the making. Whether you have dogs and pigs play "Old MacDonald" or Heart strings pluck out a love ballad, it's fun to fool around with the music mode.

Perfect your tune. Click on Play and review it several times, reworking if you like.

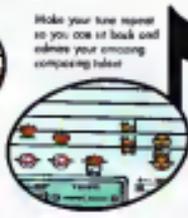

Listen to the sounds, then plot out a melody by placing icons on the staff screen.

Now the beat goes on. After you fine tune the melody, add some percussion sounds.

Now have some fun. Add a few of the stronger sounds, like horns, dials and meows.

Make your tune repeat so you can sit back and admire your amazing composing talent.

Strike A Chord

For a fuller and richer sound, create major chords with combinations of the various sounds. Play around! See what happens when you pair different icons. Familiar instruments you'll hear are the piano, organ, violin, trumpet and drum.

Several of the icons represent sounds from instruments that you'd actually find in an orchestra.

That distinctive Game Boy "ping" isn't standard fare, but it can add interest to your composition.

With an "oink, oink" here and an "oink, oink" there... You can even use a cat's meow and Yoshi's "zip" in your tune.

Zip!

Percussion and rhythm sounds are essential to your composition. Try them all out to find one that creates just the effect you're looking for.

Effects For A Complete Experience

Try out your untrained falling water drop complete with your newly composed background music.

Return to the Rollout and Save your masterpiece so you can Load and play it again whenever you'd like.

Load it up and flip the switch in Animation Land. You'll see your water drop splashes into the lake.

SUPER NES

Discover The Many Uses

The more you use Mario Paint, the more you'll discover and the better you'll become at composing and sketching. If you haven't used a Mouse very much, the drawing might feel a little bit awkward in the beginning, but you'll be amazed at the intricate drawings you can create when you become more adept at using the Power Mouse. Playing the Coffee Break flyswatter game is a great way to learn to use the Mouse quickly and accurately.

A Game Within A Game

Pick up your flyswatter and start swinging. Mario Paint's Coffee Break game pits you against the pests.

Level 1 lets you practice patience. When the pests buzz into the scene, don't chase them down. Watch their movement patterns and wait for them to stop.

Level 2 is more challenging. Watch for bugs that stop and begin flashing. That's your signal to swat before they hatch deadly swarms or explode.

The flaring bug at the end of the stage is big and loud, but it follows a pattern. Swat when it stops.

The bugs are back with a vengeance in Level 3. Only the subtlers of swat will survive the mad Mouse movement!

A can of insecticide would handle the swarms, but you're environmentally correct and contend with only a flyswatter. Pause to relax when things get heated.

The Life Of The Party

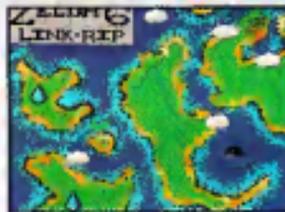

Mario Paint has a multitude of uses. Be creative! Make your own video creatures. Design your own planet for them to live on. Map the world and name your discoveries. When you have friends over, make Mario Paint the life of the party!

It's your world. Who says just you can't be great?

Create your own characters or draw familiar faces.

Map your own neighborhood or a far-off fantasy land.

Share The Fun With Family And Friends

You can save only one scene at a time, but that doesn't mean you can't share your artwork and animation with family and friends. Mario Paint comes with complete instructions for video taping the display. Think about the possibilities!

Send a special, taped birthday greeting to a friend.

Use letters from one of the alphabets to write a message over one of your scenic backgrounds.

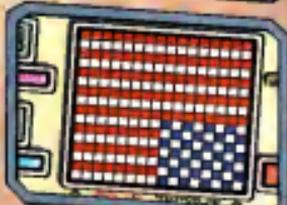

Hook your video tape recorder up to the Super NES to record artwork, messages or animated sequences. You are the artist, the director, even the cameraman for your own video production.

PLAYING

"ROB" - ANGELO

TWO GUYS' OPINIONS ON THE LATEST RELEASES

You'll find a lot of great games for all three systems in this month's list of new releases. Each game description is followed by comments from our resident critics.

CASINO KID 2

Visit ten international locations and try to break the bank in tournaments against the World's best gamblers. Black Jack, Roulette and Poker are the games. If you master them, you'll have a chance to compete against the mysterious leader.

GEORGE

It doesn't have an incredibly deep story line, but this game does do well in presenting solid versions of Black Jack, Roulette and Poker.

ROB

I think the characters are a lot of fun and the games are too! The key to victory is to win big in Roulette so that you have a large enough bankroll to win in the other games.

Casino Kid 2 pits you against the World's greatest gamblers.

CONTRA FORCE

Burns, Smith, Beats and Iron make up the Contra Force team. Join up with a friend and take these combat experts out into the field two at a time, or enlist help from a computer-controlled fighter. If one of your commandos is getting low on energy, you can send him back to the base and bring in a new fighter. You'll need the whole team in order to complete the five stages of this challenging mission.

GEORGE

This game is quite a bit different from all of the other Contra titles. Not only are the graphics in a completely different style, but the fact that you can switch characters is also new. It's a nice change of pace for the Contra series.

ROB

After playing the Contra III blast-test for the Super NES, I'd say that Contra Force is indeed a change of pace. While this game is still non-stop combat, it's also probably more strategy-oriented than the other games.

Take the Contra Force team through five exciting stages.

GARGOYLE'S QUEST II

Capcom's popular Game Boy adventure, Gargoyle's Quest, gets sequel treatment and a system change in Gargoyle's Quest II, a ghoulish game that combines the best elements of role playing and adventure games. The feisty, flame-spitting Firebrand sets off to unravel a mystery that has left his land without a king.

GEORGE

The first Gargoyle's Quest was one of the most original and challenging games I've ever seen for Game Boy and that same originality holds true for this NES version.

ROB

It may be a little too challenging for some players, but this is still an awesome game.

Firebrand is back and ready to blast through another adventure in Gargoyle's Quest II.

ULTIMATE JOURNEY

A young warrior takes on the wilderness of the west in this five stage side-scroller. By opening chests that have been hidden throughout the land, he can collect items which will aid him in his mission to defeat the evil Wrathkon.

GEORGE This running and jumping game is pretty challenging, but it offers absolutely nothing new to the huge number of similar games that have been already released for the NES.

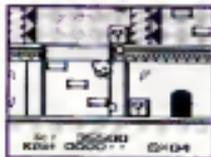

ROB Actually, if you told me that this game was made three years ago, I'd believe you. While it's a decent game, it's not new or different.

KIRBY'S DREAM LAND

Kirby is a cartoonish character who can fly, breathe in enemies and spit them out in a powerful gust. This five stage adventure follows Kirby as he floats through the forests, mazes and castles of Dream Land in an attempt to keep the badies from taking over.

GEORGE Kirby has a very unique way of attacking his enemies. He consumes them and spits them back out at the other enemies. That, and the excellent play control, make Kirby's Dream Land a really fun game.

ROB Kirby is kind of marshmallowish, which could lead you to think that the game is geared toward only very young players. But it does offer plenty of challenges for more experienced players as well. I'd like to see an NES or Super NES version. Maybe Kirby could take on the Stay-Puff Marshmallow Man or the Pillsbury Dough Boy.

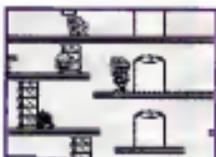

An unusual hero floats and puffs through Kirby's Dream Land.

MINER 2049ER

A spunky spelunker tries to walk over the complete area of an enemy-filled mine while seeking out precious treasures. Gems and keys in the mine make enemies easy to beat for a short time.

GEORGE This is a frustrating game. Whenever you jump just a little too far and go over the edge or make one false move, the miner is eliminated and you've got to start from the beginning of the cave.

ROB It's not a bad idea, but I found the game to be poorly executed in the areas of play control, graphics and sound.

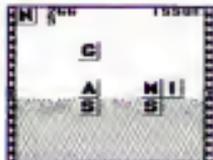

A mine searches for hidden treasure and avoids creepy enemies in Miner 2049er.

WORDTRIS

The influential puzzler Tetris has inspired yet another creative game. This time, the falling blocks are decorated with letters. The object is to line up the letters, horizontally or vertically, so that they spell words.

GEORGE This game is fun, but I think the novelty may wear out quickly unless someone really buys into the concept.

ROB I like the idea a lot! And it's well done. If you're not already tired of Tetris-like games, you should give this one a try.

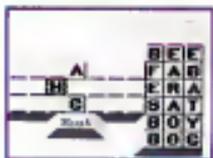

Wordtris is made for people who can think, and spell, on the run.

WORDZAP

Scrabble and Boggle fans should like this fast paced spelling game with several variations. The goal is to spell words from a collection of lettered tiles. You can Game Link with a friend or take on a computer controlled opponent.

GEORGE This is a great puzzler for one or two players; very exciting and fast paced.

ROB Wordzap adds a new twist on Scrabble like games by making it a one-on-one, real-time competition. That's fun. I also like the large number of variations in the game.

Wordzap offers a variety of challenging spelling games.

CLUE

The detailed graphics made possible by the Super NES help bring the classic board game, Clue, to life. As many as six players can participate in this popular whodunit. Animated scenes of possible solutions to the crime add a fun and amusing flair to the game.

GEORGE While the video game version of Clue isn't a lot different from the board game, I do like the animated scenes and the fact that you can play without rounding up other players.

ROB I don't quite understand why this game was produced for the Super NES, since enhanced graphics don't seem completely necessary for a game like Clue. But it's flawless for what it is.

Cue comes to the Super NES with detailed graphics and ornate scenes.

KABLOOY

Bombs and breakaway eels populate a collection of 130 islands in this tough puzzler. It's your job to set off all of the bombs without ending up in the drink. It's not as easy as it looks.

GEORGE Graphics are the strongest feature of this game. I found the character to be frustratingly to control and many of the puzzles to be way too difficult.

ROB I like the name of the game and I think that more game names should be sound effects. There's not much else that I could say in it's favor.

Bombs can set to destroy a collection of islands in Kablooley.

MARIO PAINT

Amateur artists and professional painters will both get a kick out of this versatile drawing, animating and music composing program. Included in the package is the new Super NES Mouse which allows for free flowing motion.

GEORGE While Mario Paint might seem like a real special interest program, it's so well made that I think that anyone who has even a remote interest in creating drawings, animation or music will really like it.

ROB I think that this program is really cool and will be a blast for people of any age.

Test your artistic skills or meet famous faces using the Mouse in Mario Paint.

SUPER BOWLING

Up to four players can roll the ball down the lanes in the first bowling game for the Super NES. Success requires both skill and luck, just like the real game.

GEORGE Like the bowling games that have been produced for the NES and Game Boy, I think that this game has more to do with stopping a little meter at a specific time than the actual game of Bowling.

ROB

The cool graphics and fantastic sound of this Bowling game make it a notch better than any other game of its type that I've seen.

Fun graphics and realistic sound are the highlights of Super Bowling.

T.M.N.T. IV: TURTLES IN TIME

The Turtles are rocking through their latest arcade smash on the Super NES. This two-player adventure features ten stages of Foot Clan fighting action in a variety of historical settings. It's up to you to guide this furious foursome to victory over their enemies.

GEORGE I gave the last TMNT. game low marks because of its sameness to other Turtle games in the area of plot. This fourth installment goes beyond the standard Turtle formula with the time travel idea, so I'd have to say that it's pretty cool.

ROB I like the graphics and the story, but the play control is a little difficult, especially when you've got to throw Foot Clan fighters toward the screen in order to take out enemies in the foreground.

Raph, Don, Mike and Leo travel through time and toss nifty bricks in their latest adventure.

WHEEL OF FORTUNE

A digitized Vanna White presides over the Super NES version of this long standing game show and NES favorite. It follows the show to a T, right down to the bonus round for big video prizes at the end. Up to three players can participate.

GEORGE This is the next best thing to being an actual contestant on the show.

ROB I was expecting better graphics. You've got this great picture of Vanna at the very beginning of the game. Then, when the letter-turning action starts, she's like a knock-kneed woman in platform shoes looking no more like Vanna than my high school principal.

The Wheel of Fortune spins on the Super NES.

WINGS 2: ACES HIGH

Guide a group of six flying aces through various solo missions in this World War I flight simulator. Dogfights, strafing runs and bombing raids are all part of the program.

GEORGE

This game is great, but I'd like it more if you could turn around on strafing and bombing runs.

ROB

I like the fact that this is a World War I game. The graphics are cool and the dogfighting missions are really exciting, though it would be nice to have a rear view in order to see pursuing airplanes.

World War I flying aces make dogging maneuvers in Wings 2: Aces High.

CHART KEY

You can get the most out of our game chart by understanding the categories. Title, Company and Game Type are self explanatory. Use this Key to understand Play Info and the valuable Power Meter ratings.

PLAY INFO

Games are made to be played with as many as four players. Some also employ a battery or password to save game play data.

1P = ONE PLAYER
2P-S = TWO PLAYERS SIMULTANEOUS
2P-A = TWO PLAYERS ALTERNATING
BATT = BATTERY
PASS = PASSWORD

POWER METER

The Pros at Nintendo HQ rate each new game. Ratings are from 1 (poor) to 5 (excellent) in four different categories.

DJ Jazzy Jeff and The Fresh Prince

Rappers DJ Jazzy Jeff and The Fresh Prince (Will Smith) have their roots in Philadelphia, but they've become a bona fide hip-hop icon, this year taking home both Grammy and American Music awards. And—as if that's not enough—they also have a hit TV sitcom in The Fresh Prince of Bel Air. How do they manage both? According to Jeff, "My main focus is music, and Will's main focus is television. When it's time for me to do the show, Will pulls me into the TV mode. When it's time to do music, I kind of pull him into music mode." When we booked up with them recently, we pulled them into the sides game mode.

NP: How did you like the new games we sent you?

Will: I liked them all, but I definitely liked The Legend of Zelda — A Link to the Past best.

Jeff: My favorite was NCAA Basketball. It's the best basketball game I've ever played in my life—it's even better than actually playing myself.

NP: That game uses a special technique, called Mode 7, that creates a rotation effect.

Jeff: Yeah, it was great. You get the view from like a camera, so it's like watching a game that's really on T.V. And I really liked its authentic sound. When the ball hits the rim, it sounds like they actually sampled it right from a basketball game. The slam dunk sound is real, too—when you get slammed on, you feel so embarrassed.

NP: Did you play NCAA Basketball, Will?

Will: I tried it for a little bit, but as soon as I put the Link game in...

Jeff: Yeah, you couldn't take it out. It's like me with the basketball game.

NP: How far did you get, Will?

Will: I've found the two Pendants. I need to find one more before I can get the Master Sword.

Jeff: He needs help—I called him and he didn't hear a word I said on the phone. I could hear him in the background collecting coins or something.

NP: When you travel and have to leave those games behind, do you take Game Boy with you?

Jeff: Always. Plans, tour bus...

Will: Game Boy is definitely the tour bus partner.

Jeff: We also have an NES hooked up, but when we go to bed and get in our bunks, everybody has a Game Boy—all you hear is di-ang.

NP: Are you familiar with the Miracle Piano Teaching System, with the keyboard?

Jeff: I have one. I haven't played it a lot,

Celebrity Player Profile

but when I tried it I was about ten seconds from being addicted. I had to put it on hold until I have some free time. I saw a brochure about it last year, and I'm thinking, "This keyboard is going to teach you to play the piano!" And I was like, "No, get outta here." But when I saw a commercial on T.V. about a kid who played a recital after one month, that was it. I had to get one.

NP: If you could design your own game, what would it be like?

Jeff: I like games that show complete start at the end. That's one of the reasons I like NCAA Basketball. It shows how many points your player scored. You can set personal goals for yourself and try to beat them.

NP: How about you, Will?

Will: It would probably be along the lines of a Zelda game, the kind of game that you can go back and play again and again—it's not just one time and the game is over. I like the ones that make you figure out what to do next.

NP: In The Fresh Prince of Bel Air show and in your music, the two of you have great chemistry. How long have you known each other?

Jeff: About ten years.

NP: And how did you meet?

Will: Well...

Jeff: Shut up, Will! See, Will always tells people that when he met me, I was a Go-Go dancer. He says he saved me from my former profession. When people ask, he jumps in really quick with, "When I met Jeff, he was Go-Go dancing." That's not true. I just wanted to state that for the record. Really, we met at a party. I was deejaying and Will got on the mike and started rapping. That was it. I took him home and said, "Mom, here's my brother. And he won't mess on the floor."

NP: Will, we saw that you appeared as part of the Stay in School program at last year's NBA All-Star weekend. Is education a priority of yours?

Will: It's something I've had a revelation about. Since graduation I can see how friends who were lucky enough to have the opportunity to go to college have developed differently than I have. Education is something that has always been important to me.

NP: What do you think our readers can learn from playing video games?

Will: It's important for them to notice the amount of time they put in playing Nintendo games. When they see how quickly they get better at the game they're playing, they should realize that it's that way with anything else they try. If they put in just as much time on algebra, they'd be just as good at it.

Judging from their careers, Will and Jeff must be putting plenty of time in on their two careers as they somehow manage to find time to fit fun in, too. Look for a special Player's Poll Contest featuring DJ Jazzy Jeff and the Fresh Prince next month!

A LOOK INTO THE GAMES OF
THE FUTURE

AK WATCH

THE T.H.Q. FAMILY

Pak Watch has been following the progress of T.H.Q.'s Family Dog for the Super NES over the past several months. What started out as a cute idea has been turning into an ever-more impressive interactive cartoon with every new version. The animation in this game really stands out. The dog wags, barks, jumps, runs, slides, points and expresses itself like a real Rover whenever something happens... and, of course, you get to play the part of the dog. James Bond Jr. for the Super NES is based on the cartoon, and it's also looking better and better. James' missions include both running stages and vehicle stages. His jet shoes are totally cool, plus he gets to use other weapons, if he can find them. Rocky & Bullwinkle for the Super NES, still in early development, includes the entire Bullwinkle cast.

ROCKY & BULLWINKLE

ROCKY & BULLWINKLE

MONOPOLY

PARKER BROS.

The world famous board game of real estate wheeling and dealing by Parker Bros. is coming to the Super NES this Fall. The game plays just like the board game with dice rolls and collecting $200 for passing GO, etc. . . The animation of Uncle Pennybags and the tokens in this new version add fun while the computer handles all the bookkeeping and auctioning, giving you more time to plot hostile takeovers against real or computer generated opponents.

AXELAY

KONAMI

Konami's latest sci-fi shooter appeared on the Pak Watch desk with little fanfare, but soon earned its share of attention. The action here takes place in both vertical and horizontal scrolling scenes. Your weapons systems can be changed rapidly, and that's critical, because the enemy forces are attacking from every angle. The action is quick and the graphics are good. Space jockeys and fans of Gradius-type games should find Axelay a solid challenge.

After months of relentless enemy attack only one ship has survived: Axelay.

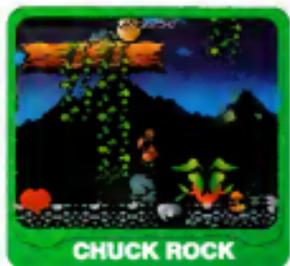

SONY ROCKS

Sony Imagesoft is the latest company to promote the current craze in action games with its Chuck Rock for the Super NES. The action character, Chuck Rock, uses his belly to bounce buddies—probably the most unusual battle strategy since Kabuki Quantum Fighter's ponytail whip. The game was obviously designed for craziness and fun, though, and the early version reviewed seemed big on both. Sony also sent a developmental copy of Equinox, the Super NES sequel to Solstice. Each room in this puzzle adventure holds traps. The graphics look good too. With eight dungeons, multiple rooms in each, and an overworld map that rotates using mode 7, Equinox looks big. Finally, the soundtrack is one of the best this reviewer has heard. Play this one in stereo.

CHUCK ROCK

EQUINOX

ADVENTURE ISLAND III

SOFT

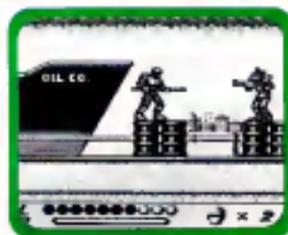

Master Higgins is back for a wild time in paradise. Your Pak Watch reporter wasn't surprised to find this Hudson character back on the reviewer's block considering past successes. Fans of the earlier Adventure Island games will feel right at home. Higgins still grabs items and uses fun tools like skateboards, surfboards and boomerangs. He can also ride monsters and find bonus areas. The overworld map leads to more adventure stages than ever.

ZEN: INTERGALACTIC NINJA

KONAMI

Zen: Intergalactic Ninja from Konami has an environmental theme like Toxic Crusaders, a skilled ninja hero like Ninja Garden, dastardly villains like the TMNT games, and a stage select like Batman: Return of the Joker. In short, this Game Boy action adventure with cinema scenes has covered all the bases. Excellent control, ninja magic and cool moves make it even more impressive. Zen should appear early next year.

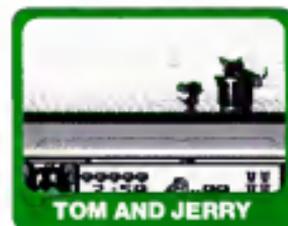

THE HI-TECH EXPRESS

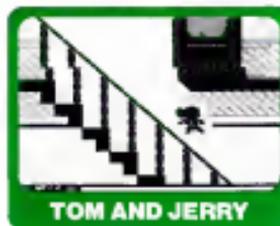

The programmers at Hi-Tech recently sent Pak Watch a couple of very promising Game Boy games in development. Tom & Jerry features the cartoon cat and mouse in a race against time. Jerry has to make it past domestic obstacles like stairs, stoves and, of course, Tom. The graphics look super and the control is excellent. Although the crucial skill is your jumping and dodging ability, the stages are also set like mazes with lots of dead ends and traps. Barbie also looks and plays like a winner, although our early version was a bit slow. The popular doll comes to video life and evades mall monsters and collects Power-ups. Along the way, she might win new clothes and a new handbag. On the Mermaid stage, Barbie has her first flub with a shark, and you'd better watch out for killer straws in the Soda Fountain stage. There are also matching bonus games between stages. All in all, Barbie combines solid action with lots of variety.

TOM AND JERRY

TOM AND JERRY

BARBIE

JAPAN WATCH

Because of the anticipated release of Dragon Warrior V, many Japanese companies have been holding back their new games. Here are a few games that will soon be released. Rock Man V, known as Mega Man here in the U.S., will soon be released for the Family Computer, or Famicom, and this time the boss characters were designed by players. The players sent in their favorite boss ideas to Capcom, which then selected the best and programmed them into the game. All the winners get their names included in the credits of the game. On the Super Famicom, Japanese players are looking forward to Parodius, a quirky sequel to Gradius with an emphasis on funny enemies and weapons. Even the name, Parodius is taken from the word "parody," which means to poke light-hearted fun at something.

PARODIUS

GOSSIP GALORE

The Super NES has been capturing a lot of headlines recently with the success of great games like Zelda—A Link To The Past and Street Fighter II, but the NES and Game Boy continue to attract top titles. Acclaim continues to produce quality games for all three systems almost as fast as we can write down their names. The new version of Spider-Man 2 is shown below along with the NES version of Krusty's Fun House. Roger Clemens MVP Baseball and George Foreman's KO Boxing for Game Boy also look hot. Also in the news for the NES is Tower of Babel, Tecmo's first RPG, unless you count Tecmo Cup—the world's first and only RPG soccer game. The first NES game to jump onto the Rollerblade bandwagon is under development at Hi-Tech Expressions.

While we're on the subject of cool sports, IGS is coming out with World Ice Hockey for Game Boy, Capcom ventures into new territory with its Super NES license for NFL Football and Namco will soon release Super Batter Up. EA is still planning to release Bulls vs Blazers for the Super NES, so keep your eyes peeled for this long-awaited title. Tecmo is also entering the basketball arena with a Super NES hoop game. Although your Pak Watcher saw an early version of this game last winter, Tecmo's NBA Basketball is almost ready for action. On the adventure front, Square Soft showed the Pak Watcher an early version of Mystical Quest. The Super NES game emphasizes Zelda-type searching and puzzles with RPG battles and features a wonderful cast of imaginative monsters. One game completely lacking in monsters is Hatris, from Bulletproof Software, which should be out any time. The creators of Tetris have made a wonderfully whimsical puzzle in which you stack combinations of filling hats on caricatures of themselves. Be sure to check out the CES review in this issue for even more news on future games.

*People interested in helping us out, in whatever way possible.
Either by donating classic magazines, scanning, editing or distributing them, visit us at <http://www.retromags.com>*

We are only interested in preserving classic magazines that are at least 5 years out of print.

*We have no desire or intention to profit from these in any way.
So please, if you come across people trying to sell these releases, don't support them!*

Thank You and ENJOY!
