/q/ was a board on 4chan for discussion of 4chan itself, and suggestions. Launched in August of 2012^[1], up until its' closure in September of 2013 it served as a central hub for meta-4chan discussion, shitposting outside of /b/, and bickering about why mods banned you.

Unlike most boards, /q/ had an extremely large amount of complaining faggots and autists. Enough to rival the likes of /mlp/. Every thread consisted of one of the following:

- GET RID OF /jp/
- GET RID OF /v/

- STOP ENJOYING THINGS
- I'd like to make a suggestion (Note: these threads tended to be ignored, even if was a good suggestion)

Anything else would teleport back to page 10 quicker than your last contact with the outside world.

Moot

Moot occasionally liked to enrage people by denying them of their new board or the request to delete a board for the 3,000th time. This usually resulted in people throwing a massive fit and shitting their pants so hard that they became goatse, reincarnated.

Posting actual content

Posting an actual question, solution, or otherwise anything which might possibly improve 4chan in any conceivable way would result in the post being completely ignored, gradually sliding into oblivion as newfags asked for an LGBT board (which they got), for everyone they dislike to be banned, for all bronies to be banned, for all liberals to be banned, for all conservatives to be banned, and for all Doctor Who posts to be deleted from /v/.

QAnon

IF YOU BELIEVE THIS SHIT YOU ARE FUCKING DUMB!

QAnon, also known as Queer Anon, or Q, is a tripfag e-celebrity who submits vague, low-effort dyslexic shitposts to the faggotry-infested /pol/ boards of 4chan and 8chan. Gullible retards like your drunk, lazy crackpot dad will eat up all the shit QAnon pumps out of his prolapsed, unkempt American asshole; believing him to be an insider within the United States government who holds Q-level clearance and has been allowed to continue making posts despite very publicly confirming the existence of the very secret U.S. Deep State™.

Sometime in mid-2018, the host (the man) they call Ghost, the raging alcoholic in charge of running the lulzy True Capitalist Radio broadcast via BlogTalkRadio, claimed that his Capitalist Army - believing the QAnon personality to be part of an elaborate trolling plan by the liberal media to discredit the right-wing - had secured the docs of QAnon, publishing his name and online history in a tell-all hit piece for their vanity WordPress blog. According to the aforementioned article, the man behind the QAnon posts is a wealthy North Carolina-based investor named Dustin Craig Krieger, who has a criminal history showing that he has previously been charged with possession of heroin in the vicinity of a child care center, presumably while trying to make a quick buck peddling opium-flavored candies to 6 year-olds. A further investigation revealed that one of Krieger's investing accounts was registered under the username Xanatos, a revelation that enabled Ghost's team of CSIII-trained cyberjournalism specialists to expertly link Krieger to a  FurAffinity account, as the account was also named Xanatos. Despite the exceptional work conducted by the E-detectors over at the capitalist /i/nsurgency, the dox they dropped on QAnon appears to be completely unsubstantiated, and can only be regarded as complete bullshit, which doesn't come as a surprise considering that three of the four profiles listed are totally unrelated to each other except in name, with the YTMND account belonging to the half-life machinima guy also known as Xanatos. About 6,700 results on Google

~~8chan becomes mainstream due to Qanon's followers.~~ (Update: It seems that most normalfags can't tell the difference between 4chan and 8chan because to them 4chan is the only chan on the internet. So normalfaggots raided 4chan claiming that they are 8chan because they are mentally retarded.)

Are they really a fringe group guyz?

("xanatos" inurl:profile, and "xanatos" inurl:user) also show that, much to everyone's total shock and surprise, more than one person may call themselves the same name online and not be the same user as someone else.

Creating A Monster

As the flames began to die down of 4Chan's lesser-known trolling attempt Pizzagate, the troglodytes at 4Chan began to conspire to make something far greater than the prototype that had failed QA testing. They went from alpha testing to beta and rolled out Pizzagate 2.0, aka "The Storm". They pushed this glorious turd through the anus that is /pol/ and plopped it on the face of America under the guise of 4chan user "Q". And no, that's not a Star Trek reference, nerd.

Starting on On October 28, 2017, 4chan began allowing users into open beta-testing for Pizzagate 2.0 by posting a series of Scooby Doo mystery clues in a /pol/ thread made by user "Q" titled "Calm Before the Storm" (assumedly in reference to that lulzy Trump quote from early October). Q pretended to be a "high-level government insider with Q clearance" (hence the stupid name) tasked with posting intel drops — which they retardedly called "crumbs" — straight to 4chan in order to "covertly inform the public" about Trump's "master plan to stage a counter coup against members of the deep state." It was, in short, absolutely hilarious, mainly because of the idea that a serious government whistle-blower would use 4chan as their outlet is fucking hysterical. Beta testers on 4chan quickly caught on and began adding lulz to the trollout.

Part two of the open beta test (Pizzagate 2.0's first major patch, resulting in Pizzagate 2.1) came in the form of fabricating several "coincidences" in an effort to make Q look more real. Examples included Q pretending to guess that Trump would tweet the word "small" on Small Business Saturday, pretending to be on Air Force One by posting a blurry picture of some islands while Trump was on his trip to Asia, and accurately guessing the size of Trump's 1.2-inch long penis. This caused retards on 4chan that were not hip to the actual trolling that was clearly happening to believe (or at least pretend to believe) that Q was actually real.

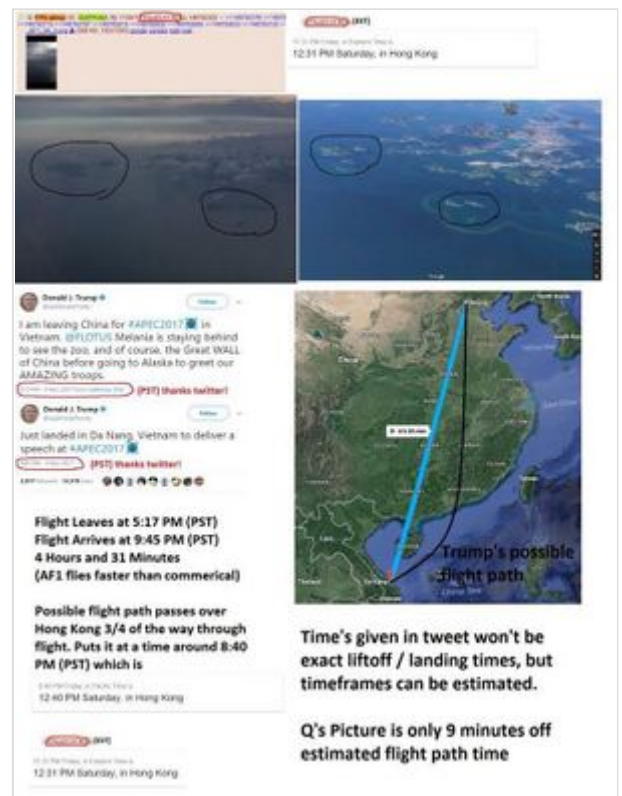

The 4chan troll elites that had birthed the project jizzed in their collective pants with excitement as they realized that the conspiracy was actually starting to take hold. They decided to stop beta testing and launch the full release of their product, dropping the name Pizzagate 2.1 as well as "the Storm" and settling with "QAnon" which is what everyone was calling it by then. QAnon hit the market last Thursday and became the latest bukkake to fall upon the face of the internet. It, unlike Pizzagate, was wildly successful.

Regardless of whatever or not you believe in Q, he has bought tons of salt to those who hate him often causing the MSM to write hit pieces that are written in a similar matter to the Legacy Media's first report talking about 4chan. These hit pieces formed as a result of leftist tears who are furious at the existence of QAnon who brought low IQ normalfags to come post at 8chan.

A Contemporary Nostradamus For Neckbeards

Like some shitty Turner Diaries fanfiction, Q's posts tend to talk constantly about some supposed insider war between Donald Trump and the members of a "Deep State" of mostly democrats that collude in the shadows to steal money, rape children, and keep you a jobless virgin. Like the 70-year-old Gypsy with a magic ball you can always find at any cheap amusement park, QAnon's predictions rely on vagueness and are about as open to interpretation as an European art film. Much like astrology, this means that any retarded minuscule event can be attributed to Q's posts if you try hard enough. He wasn't always like this, mind you. Until drop 60 or so, he made much more precise predictions about a supposed purge in DNC, mass arrests of "deep state politicians" and some kind of martial law being enforced, all with dates ranging from "soon" to "this week" to "this year". When his shitwit predictions failed to materialize, he saw that he needed to go full horoscope and make the "leaks" as muddy and open ended as humanly possible.

FBI OPEN UP!

4Chan pretending to be some faggot named Q while they trolled the world.

The FBI, much to the delight of the trolls who created the conspiracy, determined QAnon to be a "potential source of domestic terrorism", the first time the agency had rated a fringe conspiracy theory in such a manner. Normally conspiracy theorists remained indoors, jerking off to scat porn videos, and trolling on various online platforms used by simpletons. They rarely went outside of the house or accomplished anything. QAnon changed all of that by amassing an army of rascal riding dipshits that were willing to attend public gatherings on their way to McDonald's. This concerned people because normally these asshats were unable to squeeze through their front doors or weren't socially competent enough to gather in groups. Somehow they had overcome these obstacles and were now only a car ride away from the gun section at Walmart. It seemed like only a matter of time before they would go for the high score if pushed over the crazy side of the fence they were teetering on.

Blind loyalty to a government conspiracy fueled by trolls + mental and social retardation + willingness to go outside + guns = you're gonna have a BAD time.

The conspiracy was tied to several cases of asspie on asspie crime:

- a man accused of murdering his brother with a sword.
- a man accused of murdering an alleged crime boss.
- a man who reportedly threatened to kill YouTube employees.
- an armed man who blocked the Hoover Dam with an armored vehicle.
- a libtard who threatened to assassinate Trump.
- threats against a charter school that forced it to cancel an annual fundraiser.
- QAnon supporters planning a kidnapping "raid."

The conspiracy theory has also become increasingly popular among border militias and anti-government groups, as if those lunatics needed more crazy shit to believe in. Whether these pussies will actually leave their bunkers and begin their reenactment of Farcry 5 has yet to be seen.

Leaving the Matrix

The trolls that created QAnon had long since had to do anything by this point, (besides continuing to post as Q), as the project had pretty much become self-sufficient. People who actually believe in the conspiracy do most, if not all, of the work now. They have divulged into what we shall henceforth refer to as "The QAnon Cult", not to be confused with the trolls spurring them on.

The lulz would continue to ensue as the 4Chan conspiracy spread from the internet into the real world. QAnon cult followers began appearing at Trump reelection campaign rallies in August 2018.

How they didn't burst into flames after leaving their mom's basement for the first time in their lives is still a mystery to this day. Some more popular retards came out of the alt-right woodwork and began to make appearances that added more lulz to the QAnon scene. Some of these cum guzzlers include:

An Autism Appreciation Day Celebration.

- Michael "Lionel" Lebron: A TV and radio personality. He was a staunch promoter of the "theory" that was granted a photo opportunity with Trump in the Oval Office in August.
- Bill Mitchell A Broadcaster who promotes QAnon. He attended a White House "social media summit" in July 2019. At an August 2019 rally, he warmed up the crowd before Trump spoke used the QAnon motto "where we go one, we go all", later denying that it was a QAnon reference like the pussy that he is.

==#TakeTheOath==

In June 2020, Q whipped his dick out and told members of The QAnon Cult to line up and take a "digital soldiers oath", which was sort of like carving a Q into your forehead while also having it branded on your ass with a hot iron at the same time. Cultists were quick to line up in saying yes using the Twitter hashtag #TakeTheOath and offering free blowjobs to Q, and anyone willing to join the movement. Twitter and Facebook tried to combat the STD that was spreading through their user base like diaper rash on Onideus' ass, but it was too late. Those they did manage to get rid of simply spread to dedicated message boards such as EndChan and 8kun, where they "organized to wage information warfare to influence the 2020 elections". At this point, it was becoming very hard to tell troll from cultist, not that it really mattered anymore.

Identity of Q

Most people are too stupid to realize that Q isn't a single person; "he" is just a bunch of trolls on 4chan fucking with them. Thousands of jackasses love to try and figure out who "he" is, as if "he", like Bigfoot, is fucking real. The smart money is on him being just a simple asspie who was banned from his KKK rally for being a gay nigger and needed to vent. Others believe that he's a Russian Intelligence Agent trying to determine how retarded the American voter base really is before hacking the next election. Either way, Q wants YOU for the QAnon Cult. Those who resist are just fake news snowflakes who don't know jack shit about the real world, or are people who have jobs, sex lives, and families that love them.

One thing is for sure; if Q is real, he is a HUGE fucking pussy who's way too chicken shit to share his real identity because they think the liberal boogie man is going to Candyman their ass.

After Q "left 4chan" because he felt that it had become "infiltrated" (totally not trolling more idiots into buying the whole secret agent bullshit) he went over to 8chan and started using a tripcode to prove how "real" he totally was. When 8chan got pwnd and was taken down following the 2019 El Paso shooting because they posted the shooter's manifesto, Q went silent. This, combined with statements by 8chan's founder Fredrick Brennan, the use of a "Q" collar pin by 8chan owner Jim Watkins, and Watkins' financial interest in a QAnon super PAC that advertises on 8chan, have led to widespread speculation that either Watkins or his son, 8chan's administrator Ron Watkins are the trolls behind Q. They denied this while snickering and high fiving each other at 4chan's LAN party last Thursday where everyone wore Q t-shirts and played My Ex-Boyfriend the Space Tyrant.

Supporters

Q's supporters are often the same individuals that believe in the flat earth and the Mandela effect. These people are the kind of people that believe in anything regardless of whether or not it is true; but with the media relentlessly pushing degeneracy at such a massive scale, you cannot blame them for not questioning who Q is.

The Summoning of QAnon Karen

In an effort to bolster their ranks, the QAnon Cult higher-ups performed a dark ritual; sacrificing a dozen libtard babies while listening to Kid Rock and watching Tucker Carlson on a loop. This resulted in the summoning of a demon known as QAnon Karen; a batshit crazy cunt who's bitch level is higher than that of Kellyanne Conway on all of her periods. Her first act of wrath upon the earth was to fuck up her local Target, chimping out on a mask display in protest of the Coronavirus while telling police that she was a "spokesperson" for QAnon. She is expected to join Trump's White House staff after his re-election.

Trump Pours Grain Alcohol On The Bonfire

Trump has repeatedly praised QAnon supporters after realizing they were basically offering him free rimjobs and reach-a-rounds (usually at the same time, if not in pairs). He has been quoted saying that he "appreciate[s]" that "they like me very much," adding that "these are people that love our country", (and by "country", he means his penis). When a reporter then noted that the conspiracy theory's premise is that Trump is "secretly saving the world from this satanic cult of pedophiles and cannibals," Trump trolled the libtard media by saying, "But is that supposed to be a bad thing or good thing? If I can help save the world from problems, I'm willing to do it. I'm willing to put myself out there." It was at that moment that Trump became the biggest troll in the QAnon movement, outranking even its creators, and in fact, it put him up on the leaderboard as one of the most powerful trolls of all time, right behind Hitler's trolling of the Jews, the Jews' trolling of Jesus, Europe's trolling of natives across the globe, and President Truman's trolling of Japan.

The official spokesperson of QAnon in all her glory.

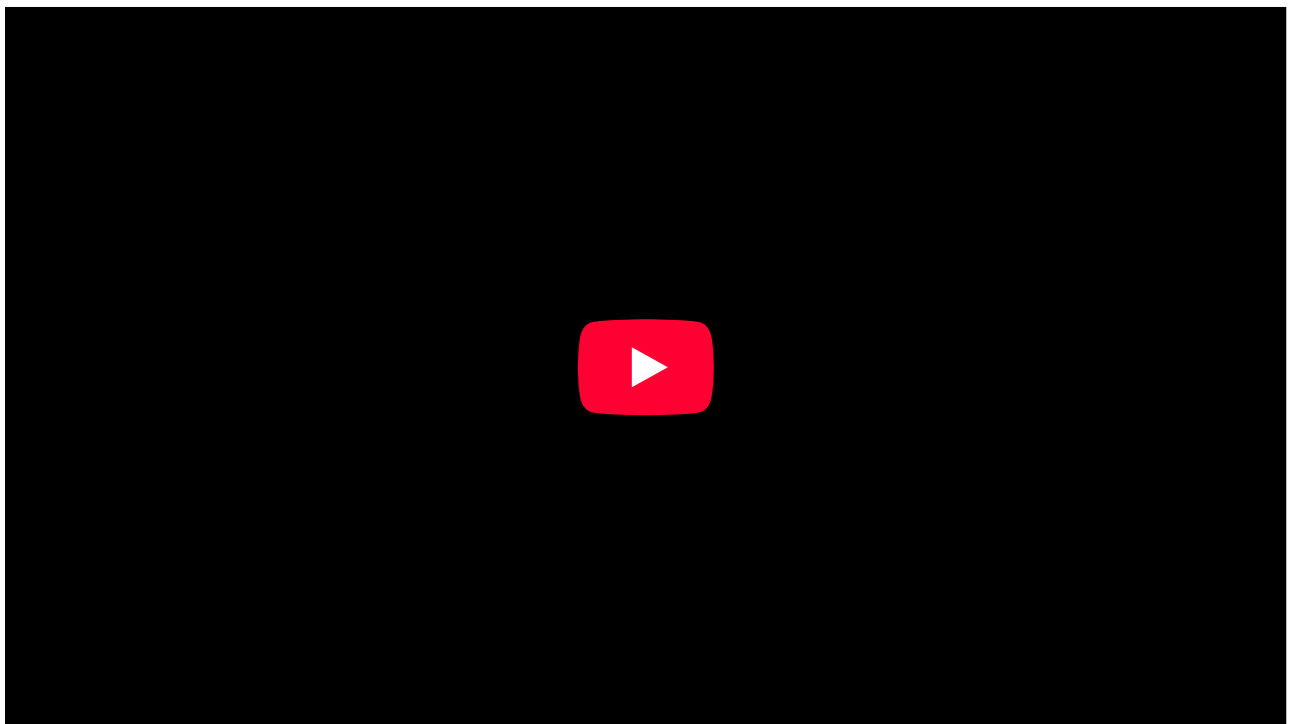

Trump responding to QAnon.

Like a crackwhore feeding her baby paint chips, Trump fed his QAnon supporters; amplifying QAnon messaging over 9000 times by retweeting or mentioning at least 129 QAnon-affiliated Twitter accounts, sometimes multiple times a day. Additionally, members of Trump's family, his personal attorney, current and former campaign staffers, and even some current and former Trump administration officials had also repeatedly amplified QAnon supporters and their content. This has led to a collective, uncircumcised, unwashed internet boner on 4chan and other similar sites that puts even Ron Jeremy to shame.

As of August 2020, The Donald continues to stand firm, with his cock fully erect and unzipped, in support of The QAnon Cult. It has nothing to do with the fact that these sycophants will make up a huge chunk of his voters, attend his rallies en masse, spread his disinformation and propaganda online, or the fact that they will continue to blow him for free while he's on the toilet shitting out Burger King and Tweets.

How to Piss Off Dustin Craig Krieger

- Tell people that he is Qanon which has been debunked since there are multiple people being Qanon.
- Tell him that he is a criminal.
- Bring up his criminal record on the internet.
- Bring up his Powerword.

- Link him to this ED page.

QAnon Today

Despite libtards doing everything they could to fight back against the Godzilla that is QAnon, it's still pissing in their cornflakes to this day. This is mostly due to Trump Trolls doing their damndest to get The Donald reelected so that they can continue to cyberbully America for another four years. This means that any conspiracies that make him look good, especially QAnon, are simply not allowed to die. Many lulz has ensued in the process.

Many supporters of the QAnon conspiracy have pulled a 180 on the subject after realizing that what they gain from pretending to support it isn't worth getting skull fucked to death by liberals and intellectuals with their "facts" and "evidence" against the conspiracy. Even as Trump continues to give a thumbs up to QAnon while feigning ignorance, others who support the issue (but aren't rich millionaires) begin to turn tail and run like the cowards they are.

Meanwhile, the online fight against QAnon also continues, with websites and social media platforms doing everything they can to combat the AIDs epidemic that is Q and their followers. Sadly this hasn't done much to stop the asspies from gathering, fucking, and conspiring against their many foes. A QAnon incel networking app is currently in the works, as well as a board game called "What NOT To Do With Your Life" where QAnon is one of the many playable characters.

Enlist Today!

The "Facts"

4chan continued its Q escapades by making up one hilarious "fact" after another in an effort to pour gas into the engine they had created that was now revving at over 9000 RPMs per second. These "facts" included, but were not limited to, the following list:

- Trump was never really involved with Russia and isn't actually under investigation by Mueller & Co. On the contrary, Q insists that it's actually Clinton and Obama who were corrupted by Putin (and are now actually under investigation by Mueller) because they're obviously just evil, money-hungry globalists who'll do anything for the highest bidder.
- Trump feigned collusion with Russians to enlist Robert Mueller to join him in exposing the ring and preventing a coup d'état by Barack Obama, Hillary Clinton, and George Soros.
- HillBama (and other libtards) is into raping and killing children, though the crowd is split over whether this is because they're Satanists or just part of some weird blackmail scheme involving the CIA.

- Trump, the genius that he is, figured all of this out way back when he was just a measly presidential candidate and has been pretending to suck Putin's cock and/or be involved with Russia ever since as a way to force a third party to investigate these horrors — without drawing the attention of those evil Dems-who-must-not-be-named, of course — because he's just that selfless of a leader.
- Clinton, Obama, Podesta, Abedin, and even ~~McG~~ain (he's dead, Jim), are all either arrested and wearing secret police-issued ankle monitors or just about to be indicted.
- The Steele dossier is a total fabrication personally paid for by ClinBama.
- The Las Vegas massacre was most definitely an inside job connected to the Saudi-Clinton cabal.
- In addition to molesting children, members of this cabal also kill and eat their victims in order to ingest a life-extending chemical in human blood.
- In order to stop this elite ring of pedophilic cannibals, top military generals convinced Trump to run for president in 2016.

Most importantly of all for these Q-tards is that Trump is now secretly working behind the scenes to bring those involved to justice, leading to a "day of reckoning" involving the mass arrest of journalists and politicians the likes of which this planet has never seen before: It'll make Watergate look like a limp-dicked cuck watching his wife get plowed by a BBC.

Most of this "reckoning" was supposed to happen in November 2017, but, of course, none of it did. One would have expected this to derail the conspiracy, but thanks to so many autistic faggots online, the beast's claws had taken a stronghold across the internet and refused to die. It spread from the depths of 4chan (and 8chan if you're gay) to Reddit, YouTube, and Twitter, where it found hundreds of thousands of devout coprophiliac followers who were starving for some new shit to snack on. Around that golden age of QAnon's empire expansion, some of the most popular "explainer" videos boasted nearly 200,000 views, and the QAnon hashtag had gotten so popular that it was difficult to track.

Some brain-damaged jew troll (probably one of its 4chan originators from Pizzagate 2.0) even took the time to write a 117-page book charting Q's rise to power (now buried among the dozens of others that have been puked out onto the internet) so that they could capitalize on the conspiracy's popularity and rake in the shekels. In fact, hundreds of troll investors bought into the QAnon stock and suckered millions of pennies out of dipshits across the globe.

How to Piss Off Qanon Supporters

- Offer them a palm reading.
- Ask them if they ever joined a doomsday cult.
- Ask them why they are in a doomsday cult.
 - if they say they're not, point out similarities between what they believe, and the beliefs of doomsday cults.
- Tell them that Q is short for JQ.
- Tell them that by believing that Trump is some kind of uncorruptable insider against the deep state and not just another Neocon boomer that surrounds himself with Jews and Wall Street goons, they're just as fucktarded and deluded as Hillary Clinton supporters.
- Show them pictures of Trump with people they think are pedophiles.
- Ask them why their main base of operation is 8chan if they hate pedos so much.

- Tell them that if they really wanted to, the "deep state" would have had Trump and Qanon commit suicide by running into a bullet the moment they opened their mouths.

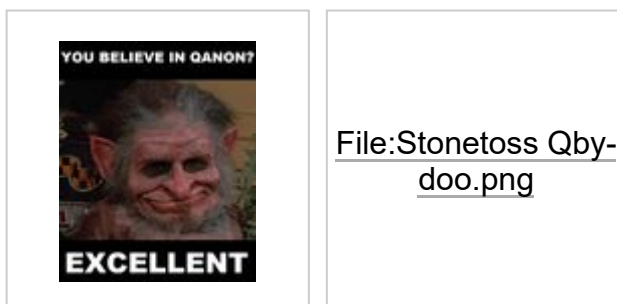

Other Republican Candidates

It became apparent to every conservative hick running for office that if they wanted to get votes they were going to have to pretend to be mentally challenged and jump onto the QAnon bandwagon. So they drank a few glasses of cheap whiskey, shot up a heavy dose of fentanyl, and hit themselves over the head with a two-by-four in order to better understand the people they were trying to attract. Next thing you know they were supporting QAnons like real American Heroes while posting it online just like President Trump had before them. Some examples of these faggots include:

- Matthew Lusk: A Republican Florida congressional candidate.
- Danielle Stella: A Republican Minnesota congressional candidate.
- Jo Rae Perkins: A Republican Senate candidate in Oregon.
- Marjorie Taylor Greene: A Republican candidate for the 14th Congressional District in Georgia.
- Lauren Boebert: A Republican candidate for Colorado's 3rd congressional District.
- Mike Cargile: A Republican candidate for California's 35th Congressional District.
- Theresa Raborn: A Republican GOP House candidate in Illinois.
- Erin Cruz: A Republican running for a House seat in California.
- Angela Stanton-King: A Republican candidate for Georgia's 5th congressional district.
- Alison Hayden: A Republican candidate for California, 15th congressional district.
- Johnny Teague: A Republican candidate for Texas's 9th congressional district.
- Rob Weber: A Republican candidate for Ohio's 9th congressional district.
- Philanise White: A Republican candidate for Illinois' 1st congressional district.
- Billy Prempeh: A Republican U.S. Senate nominee from Oregon.
- Buzz Patterson: A Republican candidate for California's 7th congressional district.

A number of independent or write-in candidates who have supported the conspiracy theory will also appear on ballots in November like the true fags that they are. Since their parents clearly didn't love them, maybe the QAnon voters will.

QBASIC

QBASIC is a programming language invented by Bill Gates and Hitler designed to make a program that would launch missiles from outer space in hopes of destroying the cancer that is killing /b/. Unfortunately, since the earliest versions of QBASIC could only display text, they had to settle for a word processing program that could WRITE SHIT ON YOUR SCREEN instead. The language itself is now only used by old people and faggots who want to feel like hackerz on $t3roid$.

QBASIC is intended to design programs for Microsoft ~~D~~ise Dick Operating System, or MS-DOS.

History

Here is a brief history of QBASIC

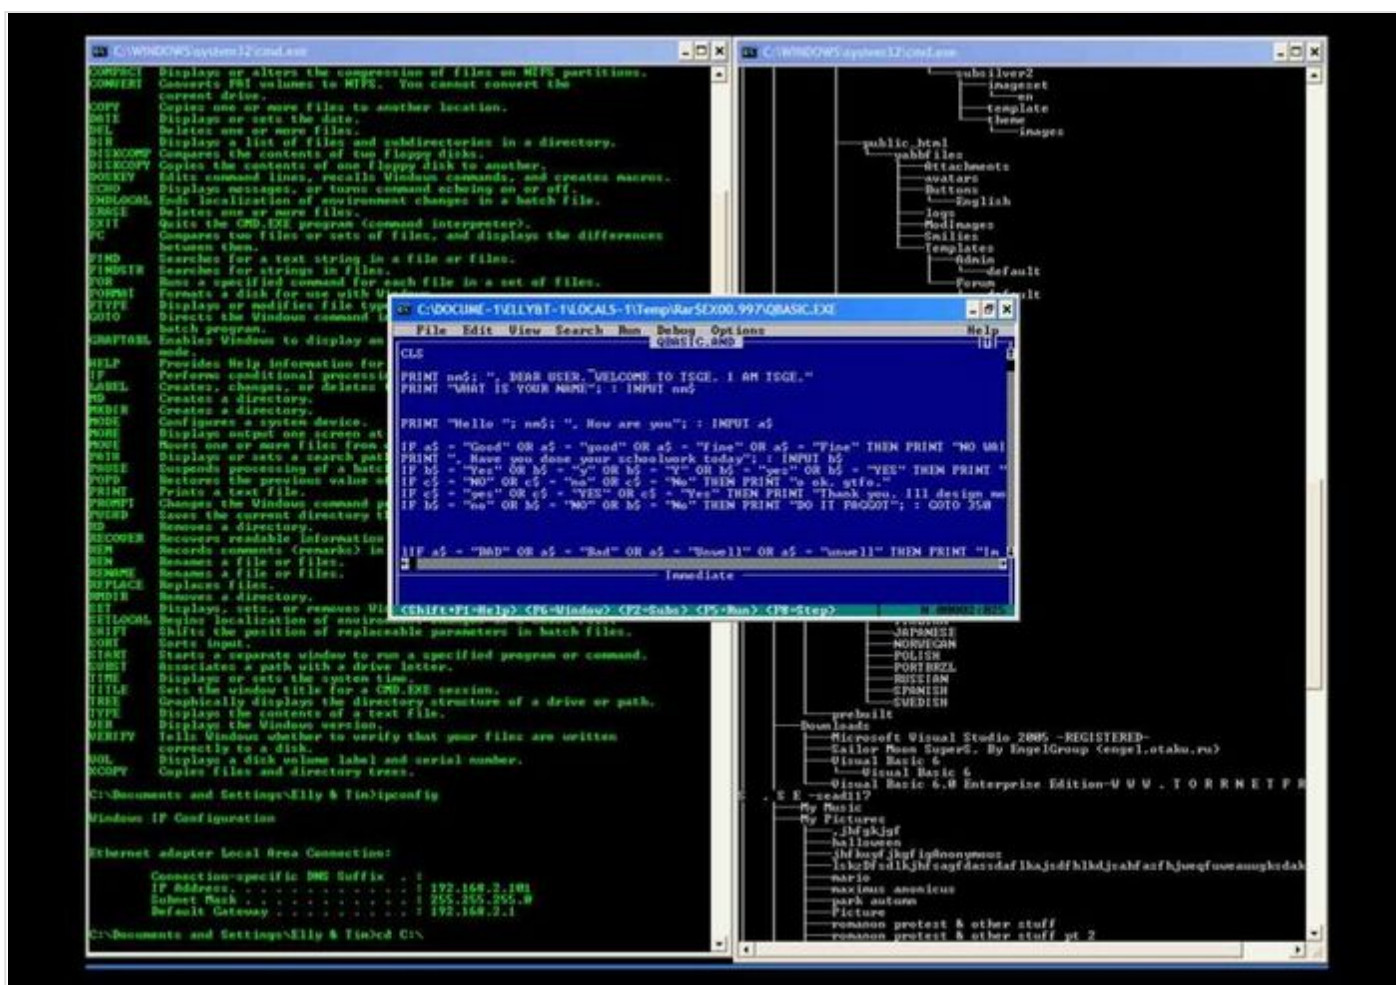

Early History

Many new programs were being developed back in the late sixties and early seventies. Mostly, they were for early calculators, word processors, and other such electronic devices. One major language was BASIC.

Late History

Most major computer systems and home video game consoles ran on their own modified version of BASIC. Microsoft was founded when Bill Gates and several of his colleagues at Harvard developed a version of BASIC that could run on the Altair 8800, called Altair BASIC. As Microsoft expanded they began releasing their own operating systems, which required their own version of BASIC. The BASIC that was developed was referred to as quick BASIC, or QBASIC. To enhance sales, it came free with any copy of MS-DOS.

"QBASIC" and MS-DOS, two dead allies resurrected for an ultimate showdown of geekdom.

Tutorial

In this tutorial, I will teach you the more simple commands and show you how to make a number game using them.

Commands

REM:

REM stands for "remark." The computer ignores the REM command. Like a string tied to your finger, it is there to remind you what your program is or what it is supposed to do. For example, programmers frequently use the REM command at the beginning of a program to give the program a name, and tell instructions for the program.

Notice on the last line of the program, that there is a '. The apostrophe stands for the REM command, but looks better, and is more common on QBASIC programs. Most programs will be documented with apostrophes rather than REM commands.

Remember: Anything following REM, or ' the computer will ignore. It stops reading the line at that command.

Note- You can also use a double colon- :: instead of REM statements. This is not only cleaner, it saves your program valuable microseconds. About three.

CLS:

CLS is a command used to clear the screen. It makes the screen completely black. (Notice how the first letters of "clear" and "screen" are in the command.) This command is not required for text, because text will just put text on the top of the screen off and put the new text on the bottom. However, when you run your program without clearing the screen before it starts, it shows the remains of the program run previously. If you clear the screen at the beginning of the program, (and in longer programs, during it) the program looks much neater.

Variables:

Notice the INPUT nm$ line directly following the PRINT "What is your name" statement on the third line of the program? Before I explain what print does (which is pretty self explanatory), I have to tell you what INPUT nm$ means. Before I tell you that, you'll have to understand what variables are. Here you go:

Computers have thousands of little cubby holes in which you can store commands and information. Before you can store commands in a cubbyhole, however, you need to give the cubbyhole a name. Variables are these cubbyholes. In math class, you learned that variables are unknowns. You can't do anything else with them. For example, in math class, $x * x = x$ squared, and $x + x = 2x$. You don't know what they are.

Computer variables always have a definite value. If you don't have anything in a cubbyhole, what's in it? Nothing. Nothing is equal to zero. Therefore, before you tell the computer what the variable equals, it always is equal to zero. After you tell the computer what a variable is equal to, (or before) you can use it in math problems, display it on the screen, and many other things. Variables look like this: a, a$, a%, a! Those are the four types of variables that QBASIC can handle. I'll tell you what each type means later.

I guess I should tell you what the commands mean in order, so keep this thought in your head while you read the next section.

Math Operands:

Math is very important to QBASIC programs. You must be able to use math in programs you write to make any half decent programs. Well... you can make some half decent programs, but not many. So let's get to it!

Add: +

Multiply: *

Subtract: -

Divide: /

Exponents: ^

Square Root: SQR

Make an Integer: INT

Order of Operations: ()

There are more of them, but these are the most important. Use them the same way that you would in math class. There's only one more catch. You have to say that a variable is equal to a math problem, or to PRINT the math problem, or assign it to do something else. You can't just leave a math problem without telling the computer what to do with it.

I'll tell you how to use the last four math operands mean, because they're not so obvious. The ^ for exponents makes the number(s) directly following the caret the exponents of the number preceding it. You must have a number before and after the exponent sign. The SQR for square root finds the square root for number in parenthesis directly following it. For example, SQR(16) finds the square root of 16, which is 4. Integers are whole numbers. They can be positive or negative. What INT does is make the expression in parenthesis directly following the INT command into an integer. The INT function rounds the number to the nearest whole number. Order of Operations is very easy, but is a tough concept to understand. Say you wanted to multiply X by what the difference of Y and Z. How would you do it? Well, first, you would subtract Z from Y, and then multiply the difference by X. You write this as X(Y-Z), but in QBASIC, you would have to add an asterisk between the X and the first parenthesis. So it would look like this: X*(Y-Z). What the computer does is solve this problem from the inside out. It starts in the middle of the parenthesis, combining Y and negative Z, then multiplying this by X. If you don't understand this, read about it in your math book.

PRINT:

PRINT puts text on the screen. Anything that you want PRINTed you must put in quotes, or be a variable. The Syntax of PRINT is: PRINT [expression list] [{,;}. If you just type in "PRINT", a blank line will be PRINTed. Anything that is PRINTed must be put in quotes (""), or be in variable form. If you wanted to print Ahoy, there! on the screen, the statement would look like this: PRINT "Ahoy, there!". All ASCII characters can be PRINTed on the screen except for quotes ("). The answer to math problems can also be PRINTed by just writing the math problem after a PRINT statement. Also, if you put a variable after a PRINT statement, the variable's contents will be PRINTed on the screen. (Not the Variable's name!)

All this is fine except for the fact that you want to PRINT variables and regular text in one line. You do this by putting semicolons between separate things you want. If you wanted to PRINT "There are [The value of X] people in this class, and if you add ten people to the total number of people, there would be [X+10] people."? The code for it would look like: PRINT "There are";X;"people in this class, and if you add ten people to the total number of people, there would be";X+10;"people." Does that make sense? Just break everything up into separate parts. First, you want to write "There are" on the screen. So put your PRINT statement there, and type in "There are". Put your semicolon there to tell the computer that you are writing the next thing to be PRINTed. Now put X down because you want that to be PRINTed next. Now add another semicolon because you want to write another thing on the screen. Now type in the next set of text and your semicolon. Now you want to write the value of X+10 on the screen, so you write it followed by a semicolon. Now write "people." and you're done with that line of code! (A lot of work, eh? Don't worry, you'll get used to it...)

You could also do this by typing PRINT, and one expression followed by a semi colon, and it would display the same thing on the screen. For example, on one line, you type PRINT Hello, "; and on the next line, you type PRINT abc$. The following will be displayed: Hello, [value of abc$]. This brings us to another thing. Notice how after the Hello in the PRINT "Hello "; line I left a space? When you PRINT variables that keep track of numbers or math problems on the screen, there is a space put on both the left and the right of the character(s). When you PRINT string variables (variables that store text) on the screen, no spaces are put around the contents of the variable. To make it look nicer and easier to understand, you have to PRINT spaces on both sides of the variable. So you put a space after the end of Hello so that you don't have "wall to wall letters". If you want to print two string variables in a row, you must PRINT " " in between them to keep them separated. It would look something like this: "PRINT a$;" ";z$ ".

Recap:

If you type PRINT without any variables or text after it, it will PRINT a blank line. Text that you want PRINTed must be in quotes. (") Variables can be PRINTed by adding the variable's title after the PRINT command. Math problems can also be PRINTed. More than one thing can be PRINTed on a line by adding semicolons between separate things you want PRINTed. You must PRINT spaces between string variables and other things you want PRINTed. If a semicolon follows a PRINT statement, the next thing PRINTed will be on the same line.

NOTE: The PRINT Command can be used to write to sequential files, and "PRINT USING" can be used to PRINT formatted text. These are not important for you to know now.

INPUT:

INPUT is a command that takes information from the user of the program. The person types in information, and it is assigned to a variable. You INPUT like this: INPUT [Variable name]. This PRINTs a question mark (?) and puts a cursor on the screen where you should begin to type. After all desired information is INPUTted, press enter, and it is saved in the array specified by the INPUT command. String and numeric variables can be written with this command, but if you type characters other than numbers for numeric variables, the computer will not accept the information, and will write "Redo from start", and you will be given a second chance to INPUT the information.

Now you're wondering how to get rid of that darn question mark aren't you? Well, if you make your PRINT and INPUT statements one, you don't have to look at that stupid question mark. This is how you do it: Say you wanted to write "Type in your birthday:", and right after the colon, have the user type in their birthday. The code for that would look like this: INPUT "Type in your birthday", bday$.

Recap:

INPUT can write either string or numeric variables. When you type INPUT, a question mark is displayed to tell the user to type in information. If you don't want the question mark shown, make the INPUT statement into an INPUT/PRINT statement like this: INPUT "Write Number Here:", A$ When you write characters other than numbers onto a numeric variable, a "Redo from start" message will appear, and you can retype the variable's data.

LET:

LET actually isn't a QBASIC command. It's a command left over from BASIC that Microsoft decided to get rid of in QBASIC. Why do you tell me about, you ask? Well, because what it does, or used to, is very, very important. LET allows the computer to change variable values without direct input from the user. For example, if you wanted to create a program that counts the number of times you've shot a cannon, you wouldn't want to have to have the player type in how many times they have shot. They might cheat, and it would get EXTREMELY annoying! So, you can have the computer change numeric variables value.

You do this by saying the a variable is equal to something. It would look like this: `ZUM=A+(34*56.8)`. This makes the variable ZUM equal to the value of A plus 34×56.8 . String variables are exactly the same, but what they're equal to must be another variable, or something in quotes. Understand? It's quite easy, and very important!

Recap:

The LET command is not required. Don't use it! It's a waste of time and of three good bytes! With this command, you assign the values of numeric and string variables. String variables can be equal to numeric variables, but numeric variables can't be equal to strings. If you say that a string variable is equal to something, it must be enclosed in quotes. ("")

Line Numbers:

Line numbers are a way to name certain portions of your program. These are essential for the computer to change positions in the program using GOTO or GOSUB statements.

What they are numbers or words that are located at the beginning of a line or section of code. Numeric line numbers are sort of generic. They aren't customizable. Text line labels can be whatever you want, but they must be followed by a colon (:). Line numbers were required in older version of BASIC on each line of code, but now they're optional. Put them in front important sections of code so that you can send the computer to read that part of the program. In a program, they look like this: `126 PRINT "Hello, world!"`. The 126 on that line was the line number. Here's another example. `goldfish: IF g$="gold" AND s$="fish" THEN PRINT "I like fish!"` The goldfish: was the line label.

One more thing about word line labels: the line's name is not the word followed by a colon. It is just the word. This prevents QBASIC from thinking that a line number is actually a CALL statement. You don't need to know about these yet, just remember that the name of a line does not include the colon. It only needs it if it is the actual line number at the actual point in the program that is named by that line number.

Recap:

Line numbers can be words or numbers. Word line numbers require a colon after them. The colon is not part of the name.

GOTO:

GOTO is a command that tells the computer to go to another place in the program, and continue executing the statements. GOTO tells the computer to find a line number or label, and start reading from there. It's pretty simple. All you have to do is type in GOTO and a line number or label, and the computer will resume the program there. It looks like this: GOTO funfunsillywilly . This tells the computer to find the line "funfunsillywilly", and continue reading from there.

Recap:

GOTO tell the computer to find another line in the program, and continue reading from there. The Syntax is: GOTO [line label or number]

IF...THEN

IF...THEN asks computers yes or no questions only. You ask the computer if a variable is equal to what you asked about, it does what is after the THEN command. If the answer to the question is no, the computer ignores anything beyond the THEN command. The syntax for IF...THEN is IF [variable] [=, <, >, <>] [variable or expression] THEN [do whatever is beyond this point]. You can ask if an expression is equal to, less than, greater than, or not equal to.

The first IF...THEN statement in the program was on the 11th line, which is IF g<>n THEN 300. It asks the computer if your guess, g is not equal to the number, n. If your number is not equal to the computer's number, the computer goes down to line 300. If they are equal, the computer continues reading on the next line, ignoring the THEN command.

Pretty easy, right? Well, there are still a couple more things you should know about this command. You can use the AND, OR and the ELSE command. You can probably figure out how to use them - they're not hard. However, I'll show you how just because I'm nice.

AND is a command that you put in the IF part of the command. You put this there to ask two questions, and if both are true (have yes for an answer), the command(s) after the THEN are executed. The commands after the THEN are only executed if both are true. Here's what it would look like: IF x=18 and m$="Hello, Dude!" THEN PRINT "Hello!".

OR works almost the same way as AND. It does what is after the THEN statement if any of the statements are true. It would look like this: IF a$="abcdefg" OR qwert=8 * (88 + 9.2) OR B$="Up, up and away!" THEN PRINT "!Ay Carumba!".

ELSE is a command that follows the THEN command. If the statement is false, the computer skips what is after the THEN command and does what is after the ELSE command. It looks like this: IF hi$="Here comes RICHARD SIMMONS!" THEN 100 ELSE 200.

When you ask questions about string (text) variables, you must write the expression that the variable will equal if the question is true in quotes.

One more thing: after THEN and ELSE commands, if you want to use a GOTO command, just write the line number. The GOTO command is not required, so skip it :)

Recap:

IF...THEN asks only yes or no questions. It's either true or false. If the statement is true, the command(s) after the THEN are executed. If the statement is false, the command(s) after the THEN command are skipped. AND and OR can make IF...THEN commands more powerful by making the command ask more questions. Answers to questions asked about string variables must be in quotes. (") The ELSE command follows the THEN command, and is executed if the IF...THEN question is false.

FOR...NEXT

FOR...NEXT is your first loop. Loops are bits of a program that tell the computer to repeat itself - to do a section of a program over again. Loops were invented because programmers are extremely lazy, and instead of wasting time and space writing `PRINT "hello!"` ten times, they just write `FOR t=1 TO 10 : PRINT "hello!" : NEXT t`. I'll explain what the FOR...NEXT loop means (and does) now.

What FOR does is name a variable and set it equal to the number before the TO, and tell the computer to repeat the part of the program up to the NEXT that many times. Simple, right? Well, there's more. You can also set the STEP for a FOR...NEXT loop. The STEP is the number that the variable adds to itself everytime it goes by the FOR command. The STEP is not required, and is by default set at one. The NEXT command does not have to have a variable following it, but it's nice to have one there so that you know what FOR loop you're returning to. The computer figures that when it hits a NEXT, it should return to the most recent FOR.

Recap:

The FOR...NEXT loop repeats a part of a program a specified number of times. The syntax of this loop is: `FOR [numeric variable (name of a variable)] = [numeric value (the value of the numeric variable)] TO [numeric value (The number that the loop should end on.)] (STEP [number (the number to be added to the variable each time around)])` NEXT can be left without a variable or with one. Anything you want can be put in between FOR...NEXT loops, even other FOR...NEXT loops. STEP is not required, and is automatically set at one if omitted.

END:

The END command tells the computer that the program is over, and it should stop reading lines. It's as simple as that. When the computer reads the end command, it stops reading lines, and PRINTs "Press any Key to Continue." It returns power to the system. The syntax for END is - you guessed it - END.

The END command is not required to end the program unless there is more of the program listed below where you want it to END. If the program runs out of lines to read, it assumes the program is over, and stops it.

Recap:

The END statement tells the computer to stop reading and executing the program. The END command's syntax is: END.

RND:

RND chooses a random number between zero and one. Not very impressive, eh? Well, it isn't, but if you multiply that really small number by a big one, it becomes a big, random number!

Notice the fifth line down in the program? It has the following code: `N=INT(RND*19)+1`. You might understand it, but it might look Greek to you. I'll explain it step by step. First of all, this is a LET command, without the LET. (You know why LET is omitted.) This line makes the variable N a random integer between 1 and 20. Now the hard part - the math problem. Remember how computers solve math problems backwards with order of operations? Well, this problem is no different. The computer starts out with the RND command. The computer sees this and picks a random number between one and zero. Next, it multiplies the random number by 19. Now the parenthesis are gone. Next, the computer adds one to the number, so that the number is between one and twenty. You see, RND can choose a number so small that if you multiply it by twenty, still is less than one. So, to make the number that's less than one equal to it, you add one. However, then, if you multiplied the number by 20, the number would be between 1 and 21. Well, that's not right, so you have to multiply the RND by 19. Finally, the INT command rounds the number to the nearest whole number. It may be a complicated way to get a number, but you'll get used to it.

There's one more problem with QBASIC and RND's, however. IT ALWAYS PICKS THE SAME ONES! They're not random, which is why you use RANDOMIZE TIMER in front of your RND statements if you want them to be truly random. Put a apostrophe in front of the RANDOMIZE TIMER line to REM it out, and then run the program. Play the game until you win once, and then exit.

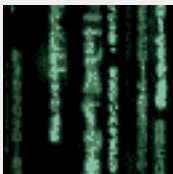

I bet you that the answer was 15. I don't know why RND doesn't work right, but the RANDOMIZE TIMER statement fixes that problem. You don't need to know what it means - just remember to put it in front of your RND statements. When you're more advanced you can learn those commands, but don't worry about it now.

Recap:

The RND command picks a random number between zero and one. Multiply RNDs to get larger random numbers. Always put RANDOMIZE TIMER statements above RND statements.

For example. If someone comes out of the closet and exclaims, "I'm gay! Yesssss!" Then you can QFT that person and you are permitted to use that person's own quotes against them when they attempt to level up to girlfriend.

QWERTY

To many people, the word QWERTY makes a shitty ass, slow, cumbersome keyboard spring to mind. But to the many, many pedo fucks on P2P networks like Ares, eDonkey, WinMX, Bearshare, and Kazaa, it is just yet another search term that turns out multitudes of porn and snuff videos. Whether you are a normal individual sitting at your computer, lonely and looking for fapworthy material, or a sick fuck looking for snuff porn and extreme fetish pictures, QWERTY is the search term for you!

QWERTY on P2P

The screenshot shows the Warez P2P client interface. The title bar reads "Warez - [Search] - <Online 00:01:27>". The menu bar includes "Main", "Themes", and "Help". The toolbar contains icons for "Web", "Search", "Transfer", "Library", "Theater", "Chat", "Playlist", "CD-Ripping", "Free Calls", and "Upgrade to PRO!". Below the toolbar, there are buttons for "New search", "Download", and "Search Field", along with a "QuickFind:" text box. The main window is titled "Search for generic media" and displays a search results table. The search criteria are "Search for files containing text: QWERTY". The table has columns for "Title", "Author", "Type", "Size", "Status", "Sources", and "Filename". The results list various files, including "Face fuck rough deep...", "Asian nice big tits nipp...", "2_Ex-Girlfriend--Very...", "16 yr old daughter w...", "Wife s away 17 yr old...", "PhearOfRayne - Girl f...", "Fm - Blowjob - QWER...", "Blonde secretary topl...", "Wet t-shirt qwerty bi...", "Horny redhead groupi...", "Qwerty my cum on c...", "QWERTY cute little ru...", "Christina ricci sheer b...", "While new wife s aw...", "Priceless 22 revenge ...", and "Qwerty amature pics...". Qatar

This article is a stub. You can help by expanding it.

This country is a WARZONE — There are profound lulz to be had, if anyone survives to report it. Fingers crossed for further drama.

Qatar (pronounced cat-ah) is the backwards, Islamic version of Israel, albeit slightly more likeable. The nation sticks out of the Arabian peninsula like a tiny chode doing its best to fuck the Persian Gulf. It only shares a land border with Saudi Arabia but is spitting distance from United Arab Emirates if you can train the right camel. You could probably launch a terrorist attack on international travel without having to leave your hotel room, using only items available at Walmart. Qatar's only real uses to the world are soccer, rape, and being a scapegoat for cuckservatives so they can prevent the goyim from questioning Israel.

Oman, it seriously looks like a tiny Florida.

The 2022 FIFA World Cup is due to be held in Qatar, though this has caused some international controversy over the fact that they did not have an appropriate stadium so used slaves to build one. Not victims of capitalism, not poorly paid workers, literal slaves in the current year.

This will be the first time the rest of the world has had a reason to actually go to the middle east in large numbers, so may be a cause for social reform to bring sand niggers up to date with the rest of humanity. Qatar tourism marketing have been bragging about this for over a decade. It has been established that messing with football doesn't end well for anyone, so this event should go ahead regardless of external factors.

Airline Travel

Qatar has established itself as a popular rest stop for planes, allowing people to travel the world with a stopover in the middle-east. This is essentially what Dubai is known for though Qatar Airways is slightly cheaper, so a good option for people whose final destination is Israel. Like any middle-eastern country, Qatar is not a safe place for queer people, so you should consider other arrangements. Was previously a popular way to get Australians to Europe before the direct flight from Perth to London allowed people to skip all that bullshit.

WELCOME TO GREAT

CHINESE!!!

Qing Empire

Qing was a nation that consisted of all the Chinese people you can imagine. This page is for CHINA PEEPOL
ONLY WESTENAR FUCK OFF!!!!!!

Chinese as sometimes people call them are a type of Azn that are very diverse. From Kpop to dog eating, this race is one of the weirdest in the world.

Most of them have very small eyes. Some Azns from the gutter are brown and eat curry so not to be confused by the rest of Asia. These folk are the most nationalist and racist people imaginable and we thought white people were bad enough.

Flag of Qing ED

After some knockoff Chinese called Weeaboos attacked our great nation, we immigrated abroad. Most of us going to Malaysia and becoming niggers and some going to Jewmerica to build railroads and become your local takeout that sells nothing but play-dough in sweet and sour sauce.

We are a race that likes eating the fin of the shark and the proceeding to dump the whole carcass like that's not a waste. We are also horny bastards thats why we have over 1.13 billion cunts in our nation.

People

Here are different types of Chinese People:

Tibetans - Not really Chinese but we oppress them and when they want to leave we kill them

Uyghurs - Chinese People brainwashed and mixed with ISIS terrorists and now seek independence from us but like Serbia we remove kebab

Manchu - Gay

Southerners - Perhaps the best of our race for white people to fuck and they also enjoy a diet of dog and chicken feet

Vietnamese - RiceGum

Koreans - The plastic kind of our race where they have lolis singing as entertainment

Taiwanese - FAKKKEE CHINNNA KILLLLLLLL

Qix

This article is boring. You can help by placing relevant pretty pictures and adding more lulz/drama.

THIS PAGE IS BEING WATCHED BY ENEMIES OF THE LULZ.
BEWARE OF BUTTHURT REVISIONISM.

Along with fellow advocates to Lulz that the great internet furry game Failcadia has brought to us, we have to visit yet another snobby bitch with her head in her ass.

She goes by the Furc alias of Qix; one of thousands of unoriginal 'dragon-kin' (supposedly based on some dragon crap from D&D) that stalk around this god-forbidden game. It should also be made mention that this character is male, gay, and, well, aside from not being covered in fur, a furfag.

The Dream

Qix is currently employed (still, for whatever reason) at the dream called Shé Tian Táng, which is owned and run by Shadows Monre, another gay male played by a girl. (THIS IS OUTDATED! Updated info is needed.)

The dream is heavily Chinese influenced, moving from a going-nowhere general slave trade dream to a further-going-nowhere Chinese whore dream, or something. Shad has been reminded again and again that as long as Qix is employed there, the only staff and patrons she's gonna get are other arrogant shitlicks, or idiotic noobs that don't know their TAILFUR from their WHISKERS LOL.

The owner of the dream isn't a bad kid in the least; just under the guide that Qix is the greatest thing since sliced bread and if she loses her, her life will be over. Qix has turned Shadows against quite a few of her ex-staff and good friends with the lies that 'what they said hurt my feelings', and Erik Foreman wouldn't touch that with a ten-foot pole.

Shadows can't have her super star staffer feeling pouty in the least, so she cracks down on whatever and whoever offended Qix and ignores anything the other person says; they hurt Qix's internet feelings so they're wrong and a horrible person, regardless of how cruel, rude, or irrationally stupid Qix was to them.

“ The dream she's in now, she gets away with so much crap. She bosses around the DREAM OWNER -- more like the dream place holder. Qix runs the place out of fear. ”

—Blueberry Shortcake

“ Qix will leave if she's fired. And the friends will stay with her.: ”

—Melisune, 'Matron of the Duns'Ka' and personal Ass-kisser of Qix.

What a dedicated staff member.

The Irlz

“ Her real name is Donna. that means she's a female. She bitches at other people who use the word 'he' ooc, if they are in fact female ooc... yet she also does just that. Also... Donna... lol. ”

— LouisFuzzles

Qix (aka Donna) is a 20-something year old 'bi' woman with an inflated ego and so much arrogance she should be choking on it. When she's not picking internet fights, she indulges her inner(and outer) WoWfag and pays exuberant amounts of money to visit her internet boyfriend(aka William Tavington) who also plays a gay dragon-kin pedofur.

She also enjoys drawing shitty art and posting it all over her devianTART account, pretending to be not only an artist, but a photographer as well.

Donna is really secretive about her real name. So much that anyone she dates that she unceremoniously dumps to the curb she demands they refer to her as Qix or by her far stupider dA name, Froggarian.

“ I think if my name was Donna I'd be a bitch to everyone that couldn't see me, too. ”

—Toddle

Her internet-gone-IRL boyfriend (READ: NOT A WOMAN. PENIS ALERT. Some dyke.) seems to think that they're the greatest things since sliced bread, and that they're the only people to EVER sacrifice something for an internet relationship.

donna noes nagas

“Yeah, i'm back, fuck you all I'm not happy to be here. My stepdad's being a fat cunt, my mom moved everything in my room around and went through all my shit, and most importantly, there's a bajillion miles sepperating me from my Froggyfingers. In the coulmn of good news, my rooms now clean and although I have a ton of laundry, my clothes are going to be clean soon too. I'm starting to make plans for this summer and the coming year, plans which include moving to Michigan. Yeah, that's right you whores, I'm leaving the South just so I can be with Frog. I bet you bastards never had anyone do anything that crazy for you. >_> And by plans, I don't mean 'Omgltodallywannamoveinwitchu!' I mean we're really making plans like 'What apartment has the best rent? Where could I work? Which school am I going to?' kind of plans. Realistic, factual plans. Not "We'll try it an hope for the best" plans. So there.”

— William Tavington's dA journal, him BAWWWing about teenage 'sacrifice'.

Enjoy your TRAILER and BURGER-FLIPPING.

The lulz

Aside the obvious cliché of stalking the internet as a woman guised as a male gay pedophile dragon-kin, she fills the role of 'internet drama queen' quite well. She claims 'being an asshole on the internet is unoriginal', and yet every day she chooses to exercise her bitchy haughtiness over everyone in a dream she is currently head-guard in. While it's common knowledge the dream's owner is only friends with her because she's A. popular and B. brings a lot of other haughty and arrogant staff members to the dream, this dream owner refuses to listen to innumerable complaints from the staff members AND patrons revolving around Qix and her poor people skills. As a result numerous staff members and patrons have left and been fired for being intolerant of Qix and her childish behaviour, including but not limited to harrasing patrons of the dream, staff members, and the co-owner himself.

"She's offended by a lot of things," the Shadows feverishly claims. "If you hurt her feelings of course she's going to get snippy at you."

To which was lulzed at; if Qix cannot handle the heat of being put into her own place, maybe she should stop being an internet drama troll to begin with.

It is also common knowledge that the dream Qix works at is really just he dream owner's hugbox, and the applications for staff are really applications to be the owner's friend.

“ Seriously though, Qix is an asswipe and always will be.
People who are friends with her usually share her views or are pushovers and similarly not worth your time. She has severe complexes with status and authority, hypocrisy and gets her jollies from being the big badass on an internet game, while cracking down on people who do the exact same thing she does. She pretends to be a guy on Furc, or pretended, for some awkward reason. That alone says enough. She's been given chance after chance in many dreams, including TGT, and keeps fucking up. She KNOWS what she's doing wrong, but she keeps doing it and afterwards complains.
That proves she's a troll. If you're not on her side, you're automatically wrong, evil, mean and retarded, if not immature with an authority complex. Which is funny, because she's putting people down for things she does.:

—Furc Anonymous

IT'S CALLED THE BLENDING TOOL. LEARN TO FUCKING USE IT.

Well, to put it short... She's a troll who grasps at every opportunity to start fights, mock people and get banned from places, only to

“ bitch afterwards how intolerant and immature the people she provoked are.

—Furc Anonymous

“ Ok.. Qix is in the dream right now, eating someone else's slave at the bar. ”

— Comment to the forum topic of 'Qix and Vore'. Ew.

Repeated reports of Qix getting banhammered from multiple dreams on account of her picking internet fights have also ran abound, all proven true and all proven lulzworthy.

Other instances of pissy elitism include her bragging about the over 9000 pieces of fanart for her stupid unoriginal character. That means at least 100 people could suppress their gag reflex long enough to actually scratch something worthwhile out for her.

“ ICly, Qix is ALWAYS out for trouble and fights. Qix doesn't RP for a good conversation or to build storyline. Every dream she visits, Qix starts a fight with someone. Takes OOC knowledge IC and with that tries to get the upperhand. If you try to do something about it OOCly you're an elitist, a bad sport etc. for not dealing with IC consequences. ”

—Furc Anon

She commonly uses the alts Qix Plushie and Qix Clone, when her pretentious attitude is required for pale, whiny, nerd internet sexings and she thinks her presence is desired elsewhere.

Qix also has a lot of so-called friends that she uses to make fun of and troll people that aren't up to her standards. They all deny it, and Qix even found it necessary to make a stamp to cover her ass for it.

“ Someone I know used to be a close friend of Qix. She's a great person now, but SHE HAS ADMITTED that Qix used to use her and the rest of his minions to flame people. My friend used to hate two other friends of mine. She has no problem with them now, and admitted to both of them that it was because of Qix she harrassed them. The other Duns'Ka would never admit it. It's not until they get out of her grasp and pry their mouths from her asshole do they realize what and idiot she is. ”

If the shoe fits..

— LouisFuzzles

“ Likes: Being in control/telling people what to do (...) He's had a great deal of experience keeping people in line with minimal involvement as the leader of the Duns'ka ”

The Dating Scandal

Word on the street, and with plenty of proof, has been that Qix was part of an internet to IRL dating scandal. Back in the day, Qix was ooc and IRL dating another Furc player. Qix always claimed to be a dyke (but loves her boyfriend and sex far too much to stick to that claim) since both her and her internet lover were females. Qix also claims to be OH SO FAITHFUL- even going to far as to bash people Out Of Character for their characters and said FICTIONAL actions- if they do not meet her uppity standards of 1337 RP! Well, that all came crashing down when she began hanging out with one particular person more often than her actual girlfriend. Naturally, Qix denied anything and everything- even reassuring her lover that said person was male and that she wasn't doing anything of the sort, because she likes pussy too much. Well, later on, her girlfriend found out that not only was said 'other person' a female, but Qix was fucking the living crap out of them- right under her lover's nose! And that wasn't all. She's cheated many times- with MANY different people who likely feel sorry for her (read: pitysex). Hope that bout doesn't tarnish her Elitest , Puritan reputation!

Most of this information was acquired and dispensed by the dream's owner, Shadows Monre.

The BS, BAWWWing, and butthurt

Anything that involves Qix negatively, indirectly or otherwise, is offensive to her, and therefore she must act like a fuckstick. It's okay though, her boss/bff Shadows will forgive anything she does, even if it's outrightly insulting and rude to potential customers to her swanky Chinese-themed dream.

Also, Qix enjoys getting on people's cases about their characters when they don't live up to her standards. Which you'd think would be pretty low, considering her character is the same gray lump of shit everyone else RPs as. She decidedly bashed on a character for being a slut for the player's simple reasoning of not having the attention span enough to have long-term in character relationship. And hell, who can argue with long, well-thought out cybering?

“ Qix is the kind of person who slyly looks for trouble. She masks it under the cover of 'It's RP, deal with it!', but takes OOC knowledge IC to start fights. ”

—Furc Anon

Qix claims that she doesn't bring In Character shit Out Of Character, and vice-versa. But it has been recorded that before the (now ex) assistant manager of the dream she works in was fired, her bad breath was the final blow to decide the manager's fate.

Here's what went down:

There was an RP session between some patrons and staff members in this hugbox. The assistant manager during the RP was not paying attention to Qix, because it was in the character's character, to be distrusting of people he doesn't know. Qix and the a. manager had NEVER RP'd prior, so there was no way that the two could have gotten to know each other. When Qix couldn't handle that her precious character wasn't being treated like royalty and having his scaly ass kissed, she IM'd the a. manager and bawww'd for an hour about how being an asshole on the internet wasn't original, and how the character was uncreative and unoriginal because of how he acted.

Of course, Shadows told the assistant manager that he had offended Qix in some way by ignoring the character (even though Qix as a character would never have been kind or even given the manager the time of day) and proceeded to also BAWWW at him for another hour and a half, vehemently stating how wrong he was, and how right Qix was, even though Qix was the one harassing and insulting her superior. Way to go, Shadows. Thumbs up for firing the wrong person.

“ I find it (ignoring people) an ineffective way to deal with social issues. ”

—Qix

...so being an ignorant and elitist dickfart is? No wonder you don't work retail.

“ She's a fiendish bitch, and probably a puritan. I spend 50% of my roleplay time cleaning up THEIR roleplay environment, but she and William have this concept that all I roleplay is sex. Ugh. Don't even get me started. She's cliquey, and very argumentative. Rude, and sneaky. I'd like to see the back of her, honestly. ”

— Another anon

“ Qix is never going to change, and she's one of the few people I've met online that I'd punch right in the face if I ever met her. She'll NEVER make a positive contribution, and it's high time she was kicked(out of the dream). ”

— Furc Anon

“ Imagination and logic coexist for proper fantasy. ”

—Qix

...isn't fantasy just that? A fantasy? Not structured, linear, or anything like that?

Qix is incapable of taking one for the team, as anything anyone does against her is an automatic cunt punt. She was decidedly RPin^g in a dream and started shit with the co-owner who happened to have an In Character problem with people in the dream Qix had just been kicked out from. In Character, Qix would have never known about this problem. However, she did somehow, and picked a fight with the co-owner. When the guards of the dream decided it was time to step in and handle this fight, Qix felt butthurt that she couldn't automatically win and left because she 'didn't feel welcome'.

I don't feel welcome anymore.

— Qix, after being unable to godmode in an RP.

There's never a win with her unless Qix is victorious and dominating the RP. If it doesn't go her way it's always someone else's fault even though she picks fights IC and OOCly.

— Anonymous Tipster, regarding Qix and her butthurt.

The 'Dunce' 'Ka

There's a lot of shit on them(the Duns'Ka). What part exactly? The powergaming, the dicksucking? The harrassment and war-mongering? It's almost an entire sect in an of itself. There's Melisune, and she's had Qix's little babies or whatever- so she's his little side-fuck. There's William, who has been known to bash anyone and everyone Qix dislikes...

—LouisFuzzles

The Duns'Ka is a furc mafia that Qix the Dix has created for herself and anyone else that she can brainwash into being an arrogant fucklet like herself. They follow her mindlessly and without question, and have their silly circle-jerk meetings in a sectioned off room in Shadows' dream.

Anyone who has 'Duns'Ka' in their description, you can bet is a mindless drone.

The first rule of the Duns'ka is you don't talk about the Duns'ka. Not really, but their rules are just as stupid. Okay, first off...

- You CANNOT DATE anyone if you are in the Duns'ka.
- You cannot have a life outside the Duns'ka.
- If Qix doesn't like someone, they will be harrassed by the Duns'ka.

I went to Qix willingly. I was, at the time, fascinated by the whole reign of power the group had. I got into the DK with much clawing,

“ but I did eventually. As we all got into RP, it basically went like this. Everyone caters to and worries about Qix. Those who don't are ignored. If you didn't show up to RP when everyone else did, you were looked down upon and eventually kicked out for inactivity. Unless of course you were wooing Qix on the sidelines. It was so ridiculous. You couldn't have a mate unless it was okay'd by Qix, couldn't do anything sexual. And yet, she's had IC babies with how many people now? Two at least. And Qix as a character has a mate.

— Blueberry Shortcake

“ You could think of it like a pack of lions. The 'King' had all the poon and had to tap it all. Yet bashed others for it. ”

— Blueberry Shortcake

NOTE! There are no rules about the Duns'Ka on her character website because even she thinks they're too stupid to glorify them with their own page.

BUT, there is a forum dedicated to their preschool-yard shenanigans. [Duns'Ka Forum]

/qst/

This article is crap. You can help by completely re-writing it.

/qst/ is the newest board on 4chan, created at the end of April 2016 for Drawfags, Writefags, and Roleplayers who have no IRL friends to play tabletop RPGs with to have massive orgies and make "quest" threads, where they can basically have a game of D&D; The board is dedicated to Quests, which became popular mainly because of a draw/writefag from /b/ called Weaver for his 2008-09 project; Ruby Quest hosted on /tg/ which, while not the first quest, was the most iconic of the few at its time, which was only about 2-3 others. For years under moot's harsh if not cucked rule, innocent devou/tg/uardsmen were forced to suffer the deluge of quest threads, robbing thread space badly needed by that 20th 40k troll thread. Unlike what most people would think, this board was NOT a complete failure and has thousands of posts per day due to its inhabitants having a lot of free time.

Here is the sticky on the board made by a mod:

This board is for author-driven collaborative storytelling (i.e., "Quests"). In a quest there is a single author who controls the plot of the story and who drives the creative process. They can choose to take suggestions from other posters, or not, at their sole discretion. Quests can be text-based, image-based, or a combination of the two. Drawfaggotry is strongly encouraged!

To facilitate the author-driven nature of quests, /qst/ differs significantly /b/ from other boards in that the OP of a thread is considered the quest's author, and has some basic text formatting abilities: [b], [i], and color tags [red], [green], and [blue]. Therefore, only those people willing to put in the effort to be a quest author should post threads. If you do not intend to run a collaborative story, do not post a thread here! This includes meta-threads.

Dice rolling follows /tg/'s format (e.g., "dice+2d6" without the quotes in the options field rolls 2d6).

— The Modfag who Created The Board (after getting bored of masturbating to loli).

The notice on /tg/ reads as follows.

Please post all quest threads on /qst/
Quest threads that are posted on /tg/ will be removed.

File:Qstautism.png

An average /qst/ thread.

This differs from the original implementation of /qst/, in which quests were suggested to be placed in /qst/ rather than /tg/, at the "Quest Master's" discretion.

So far, nothing of interest has happened on /qst/, and business is going as per usual. Over the course of the boards existence, several of its "stories" have had dozens of installments a piece, several of which have dedicated social media presences outside of 4chan, including "official" Twitter accounts run by the "questmaster" (QM) anons.

Quaaludes

Quaaludes are the best drug, this shit was popular back in the '70s and every disco fanboy munched these pills down like they were candy. Nowadays you have to get them from some pajeet through the deep web. They are popular in South Africa and was Jordan Belfort's favorite drug (which he washed down with champagne). Notoriously famous for making anal sex even easier for rapists of all demographics, Quaaludes eventually went extinct sometime last Thursday.

In 1965, the Frenchies released a brand name of methaqualone called Quaalude it took until 1972 for disco to get popular amongst Americunts, the fun lasted until 1985 when the partyvan banned the shit completely. Now you can only get it from Mexico in the form of sopors or sopor powder, or on the deepweb from dothead pill peddlers.

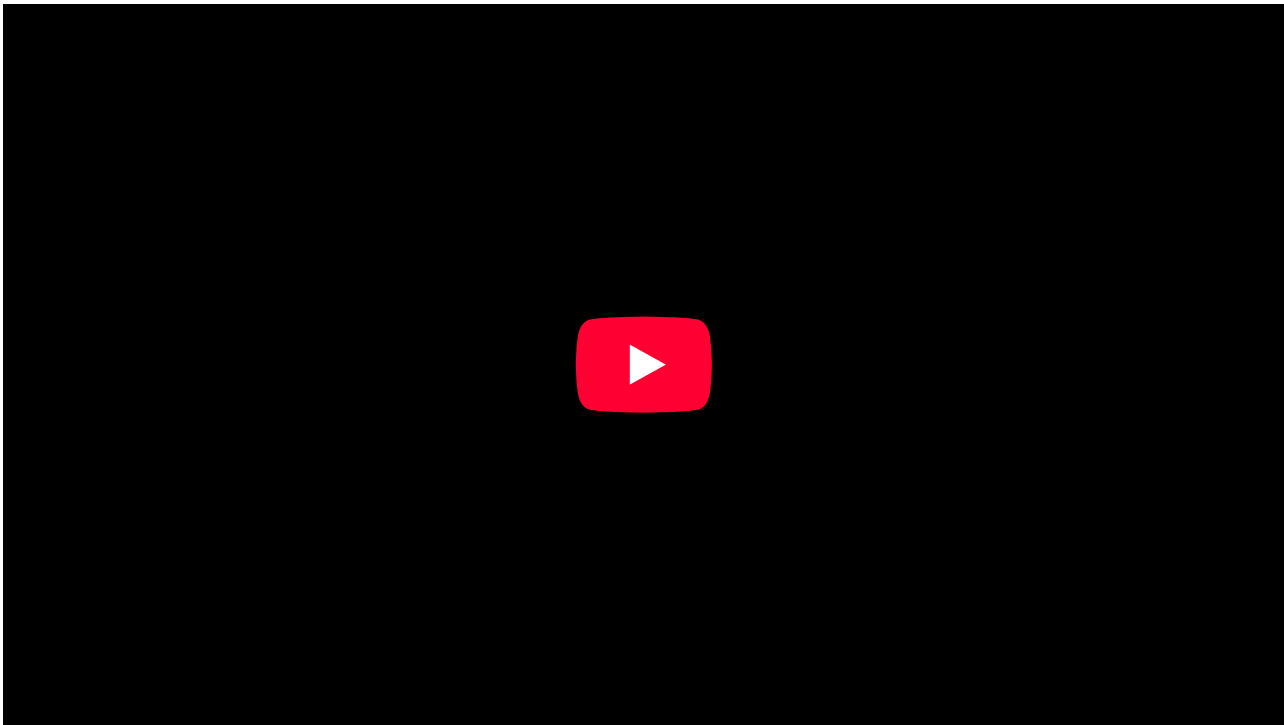

The Experience

Pop one of these bad boys into your mouth and you'll develop a calm, relaxed feeling like any benzo or barbiturate. The difference is that sex on quaaludes is fucking awesome, it was the love drug before ecstasy was popular.

Quake

Back in the day, Quake was the first 3-dimensional first person shooter game that everyone played. Created by the gods of ID Software (see: Doom), it spawned a generation of sequels. Players walk through mundane castle and dungeon areas, encountering zombie fish, zombie dogs, zombie soldiers, and zombie zombies, all hellbent on tearing your flesh to pieces. The game helped to spark a gaming revolution, which in turn created jobs for the basement-dwelling losers which natural selection would normally pwn and recycle.

Not a Doom ripoff!

Quake

The story is original and totally not the same as Doom. You receive a call early in the morning by your commander to come down to the base for a top secret meeting. He tells you shit just got real as some anonymous pussy named Quake is gonna fuck this world up and spread his AIDS through use of teleporters. So you step out for what ever reason and then you hear gunshots and screams and shit, so you rush in and see that the other people have been pwned and turned into zombies with guns. You make it personal and shoot these fags up and step in to a teleporter to a different world that's filled with ugly monsters who want to stick their penis in your intestines while eating out your ass. You have to make your way through the demension, collect erotic artifacts and at the end fight a giant vagina with tentacles. But you have to kill that pussy by waiting for a spiked ball to slide in to the vagina and then teleport inside it and find the clitoris, this is really not bullshit, your guns don't work. You have to do this.

BUT WAIT! THERE'S MORE!...

Mission Pack 1: Scourge of Armagon

In this new exciting adventure, having had terrifying vaginal sex with Sally Struthers cooch, you come back and expect to see all the shit ok. That doesn't happen because the military has pussied out and abandon the place, they left it to the fucking bitch monsters. You see through the camera that they are coming over to beat the shit out of you. You decide if you should be an hero or grow some balls. Guess whats next? The head bitch in charge? A tall cyborg faggot with dildos named Armagon.

So edgy

Mission Pack 2: Disolusions or Eternity of something...

It doesn't end here, you come back and these motherfuckers are still at it. So you go back to the dimension for the fucking third time and fight your way through a shit hole of monsters. Head mother cock lover, a fucking Dragon how original. Kill the dragon and leave, you should have stop fucking with this game in the beginning.

A typical Quake player. Notice the unkempt, dirty clothes and the atrophied eyes brought on by a lack of natural light.

Compared to the sequels

The multiplayer of remaining games in the series is pretty much the same shit and has boring singleplayer campaigns that's not worthwhile describing:

- Quake 2
- Quake 2 Netpack: Extremities
- Quake 2: The Reckoning
- Quake 2: Ground Zero
- Zaero: Mission Pack for Quake 2
- Quake 3 Arena
- Quake 3 Team Arena

Quake today

The last bastion of Quake 1 is <http://quakeone.com>, a place where only the most hardcore players lurk. These sorry folk may seem polite on the surface, but they're really a bunch of snobbish elitists who are still living in 1996. They can usually be found spending their time:

- Bitching about today's modern games being "only about graphics",
- complementing their own cool screencaps / wallpapers,
- constantly upgrading the 1996 game with modern-day graphics before Nightdive and Bethesda remasters it 25 years later,
- hating some asshole called kimp, to the point of obsession,
- automatically branding any game without blood and gibs as bad
- branding any game except Quake as bad,
- and worshipping Baker and Trent Reznor.

As of late more and more aspies have joined the site making it ripe for trolling. On a side note, every single member of <http://quakeone.com> is a virgin or married 40-year old basement-dweller.

Quake 2

99% Hua, 1% Frags

Multiplayer

Simple weekend 2-player mode has been completely done away with, as Quake's then-advanced server/client system of multiplayer revolutionized the art of sitting on one's ass, while organizations such as the Cyberathlete Professional League have taken the meaning of "pathetic" to levels known previously only in myth and legend. It all started with Quake 1 multiplayer and has mutated. The most popular Quake 2 mod is Action Quake 2, which Counter-Strike ripped of. Recently, ID software has released a free to use Java based censored version of quake 3 called quake live. Unlike all other quake games, it contains no blood or gibbs. Quake 3 fanboys constantly bitch and whine about this in their forums. Furthermore, the brilliant minds behind Quake Live thought it would be a good idea to charge monthly for players to be able to fully utilize Quake Live i.e. be able to create your own private server where you and your friends can play alone. But Quake 1 and 2 multiplayer hasn't been totally forgotten. The Quake one community is vast yet small these days at least 100 strong. Common communities such as quakeone.com and tastyspleen.net host matches on their servers, only like 7 people are on.. always. The rest are late 20 to mid 30 year olds whom are die hard fans and will not accept that better games have come out in the last decade and five years.

Other

Quakes are also natural disasters, ironically caused by gamers who get up from their steel-reinforced chairs in order to purchase the latest ergonomic snacktrays for their 'rig.' Despite causing hundreds of thousands of deaths and billions of dollars in damage, these disasters are not nearly as important as the game, as made clear by Google Images.

Quake 2 today

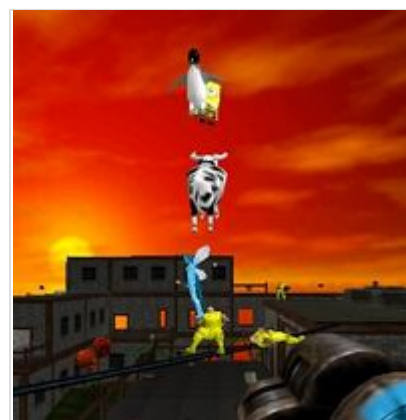

The last bastion of Quake 2 is <http://www.tastyspleen.com>, a place where only the most hardcore players lurk; and has some help from <http://q2scene.net/scene/index.php> . These sorry folk may seem polite on the surface, but they're really a bunch of snobbish elitists who are still living in 1997. They can usually be found spending their time:

- bitching about today's modern games being "only about graphics",

- arguing that he is the best at the game, because they think that being good at this game makes their e-penises longer,
- accusing each other of cheating,
- arguing over whether Quake 2's anticheat works,
- arguing over which mod is the best, even though its still the same fucking game,
- complementing their own cool screenshots / videos,
- constantly upgrading the 1997 game with modern day graphics before Nvidia remasters it 22 years later,
- hating some emo called Razor (Real name: Kimpis Nyman), to the point of obsession,
- examining demos (recordings) of game matches,
- automatically branding any game without blood and gibs as bad,
- branding any game except Quake as bad,
- and worshiping Quadz and R1CH.

(notice the weird similarity to Quake 1)

There's a good amount of modfaggotry here. Also, a player can use any model as his avatar on the game servers. This has caused quakefags to create all sorts of absurd models. Models that players typically use are weirdly colored animas and naked men. If you go on their servers and misbehave you're unlikely to get banned easily because they are desperate for more players on their servers which has a shrinking userbase, even though they'd never admit it. So why not go troll them right away with the free client from the tastyspleen site and using this server list. As of late more and more faggots have joined the site making it ripe for trolling. On a side note, every single member of tastyspleen is a virgin or married 40-year old basement-dweller.

If your Quake 2 server looks like this you're doing it right

A quick run down on some regular members of the site

- Quadz, a legalfag and owner of the site.
- Focalor, satanist internet tough guy who acts badass and has, like, 9 million posts.
- Dervish, basement-dweller who tells carefully thought out stories of his "life".
- FaderJok, a whiny spamboy.
- haunted, this guy is actually kinda cool.
- Reflex, who philosophizes about the game to an absurd degree.
- peewee rota, fatass who fails at life.
- Vaevictus, a narcissist egomaniac.
- Golgo13, an obsessive basement-dwelling anime-fapping wapanese who constantly makes the most absurd cheating accusations.
- Alpha, whiny aussie geek who tries really hard to be respectable by other Tastyspleen members, but only succeeds in making himself their laughing stock and therefore became an hero.
- yahoo, an azn who swear to God he's a cow. No, really.

How to troll a QUALITY thread

Most of the posters on /a/ are strict when it comes to QUALITY images. They claim action shots, or screencaps taken when Naruto is getting assraped by Sasuke is not QUALITY. Because of this fact, be sure to post as much as possible. Shooped screencaps of anime characters looking kind of cool are also not tolerated. Posting these as well is important, as it causes much anger among the weeaboos.

Quanell X

Quanell X looks like it was written by pseudo-intellectual 13-year-old boys.

Look out for unfunny Uncyclopedia bullshit, boring in-jokes, and angsty teen-ery.

You could also add in actual humor.

Quanell X (/ˈɛks/; born Quanell Ralph Evans; December 7, 1970) is a fat retarded race-baiting islamic nigger who thinks he can swindle his own people and no one will notice. Contrary to his IRL Wikipedia article, he is not actually the leader of the new black panther nation. He is rather a cocky cheap sack of shit who was lucky enough to land a cushy gig on a local cable news show that no one even knows exists anymore (Fox Faceoff). In his spare time, Quanell ambulance chases freshly killed jungle bunnies who have been shot by the honorable police and promises their families to get justice or some shit. In exchange Quanell would amount enough money to buy property in Conroe, TX far away from all the murder monkey's he claims to care about.

"I look so bad, I had to use a filter to make myself look reasonable"

Early life

Quanell Ralph Evans was born in Los Angeles, Commifornia. Both his mother and father we're cocaine-crazed negros who stumbled into the Nation of Islam. A crazy organization of nazi niggers who hate whites, Jews, gays, and even other porch monkeys. After some years his parent's got an inevitable divorce. Because we all know shit-skin fathers don't stick around their tar babies for too long. Evans, his little brother, and his cocaine-addicted negra mother moved to Houston, TX. They lived in a one-bedroom apartment in the Fifth Ward an area in Houston, TX known to inhabit thousands of dangerous ghetto smelly cotton pickers. They lived with their blind senile old bitch of a grandmother's house, where he attended Worthing High School.

Interview with Quanell X

Previous Video | Next Video

Per Quanell's account, he was a very bad kid in school, however, we think this is bullshit as he has never been recorded not wearing his monkey suit. He claims he would "compete with his friends to see who would get the worst grade." When in reality he was stalking white women to rape. From an early age, Quanell would see promising upity niggers like Malcom X and Louis Farrakhan on television. Quanell knew that the only way to get to be a rich nigger, is to be a criminal.

In 1989 Quanell got busted for selling crack, The very drug that makes negros even more violent. Court records show Quanell plead with the Judge to not be sent to prison fearing rape or worst of all, spread time with his fellow niggers. The judge sentenced him to 10 years of probation.

Entry and ejection from the Nation of Islam

Weeks after his first visit to Jasper, Muslim leader Quanell X tries to get past a Jasper police officer as members of the Ku Klux Klan end their own rally. The KKK said they came to Jasper to denounce the dragging death of James Byrd. Later, Michael Lowe, their best recruiter, said the rally was one of their best

Hey!

This article isn't lulz just yet, but its coverage can spark a lollercoaster.

ATTENTION!

The subject of this article is a lolcow, and is currently ripe for milking.

You can help by trolling the shit out of them whenever you see them, then laughing at their lulz-inducing theatrics.

Quantum TV is a proud follower of Jesus Christ himself and believes to the god of us all. Quantum believes to be morally superior to everyone on this planet earth. Because of this, he takes his duty trying to stop anything he believes to be satanic such trannies and fags.

Quantum, in reality, is a crybully niggerflaggot from Florida who thinks the world revolves around him when it despises his existence. He doesn't understand that he is a pathetic basement-dweller and instead tries to troll things that make him butthurt. Quantum harasses other people that go against his views to he can't handle via flagging their videos. If he were a god he wouldn't be pussing out over some dumbasses pointing out how much of a sadcuck he is.

He will wreck your shit

Keep in mind that Quantum's sperg outs started all over Elden Ring. Srsly.

Quantum TV is known for their eccentric behavior revolving veganism

Elden Ring take

Elden Ring is hyped by gamers to be "the greatest vidya gaem evar". With all the praise the game has been getting, Quantum was seething over degenerates wasting time by grinding to beat a boss. Quantum TV doesn't know how to play Elden Ring, since he has noob DNA baked into him when he plays gaems. Since nobody watches his dogshit videos, he uploaded a review of Elden Ring for the sole purpose of attention whoring. The review is dogshit, in-fact it's so dogs hit that he delete the video after the amount of backlash it got. Ironically, Quantum lost his shit over people not worshipping his review as it was the second coming of god.

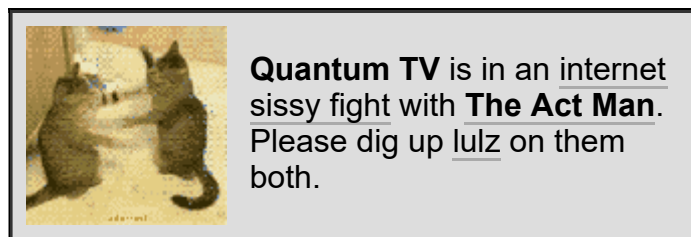

Edited, so Quantum's butthurt won't strike it down.

After the original video was obviously panned by everyone for having no real points, and only proved how much of sad cuck he was. He made a response video, with he basically resorted to crying about how much everybody knew how much of loser he is and throwing petty insults to pretend he is any bit more worthwhile than any of the of commenters. He deleted this video after all the backlash it got too. Quantum is 100% percent the god of us all.

Again edited, Quantum is proving himself to be as pathetic as everyone thought.

YOUTUBE HATES FAGS

During Quantum's daily routine of telling people to get everything bad about them off the internet, an unfunny gaming YouTuber known as  The Act Man decided to make a  video shitting on Quantum's retarded Elden Ring take. Quantum later chimped out and got the video baleeted from YouTube for a short while. In response, The Act Man created a 30+ minute video about his wrongdoings from his past. In it, he paints himself as an amateur lawyer, although he was too lazy to actually do anything helpful.

Since nobody cared about that video, Act Man made  another long-as-shit video on him, and got people to finally give a shit about the video. Jannitors at YouTube, however, took the video down due to sexual depictions of Quantum sucking a cucumber off. After all the spergery Quantum had to go through, he tried to bounce back in the most autistic way possible: by calling Act Man's mom. With all the shit being flung to him by Quantum, The Act Man decided to create the  #YouTubeIsCorrupt and  #JusticeForActMan hashtags as a way to feed his USI. This also made Act Man say retarded shit like "YOUTUBE IS HOMOPHOBIC!!!11", as well as labeling people that disagreed with how he's handling his own hashtags as "QUANTUM TV FANS OLOLOLO".

Professional victim of copyright abuse

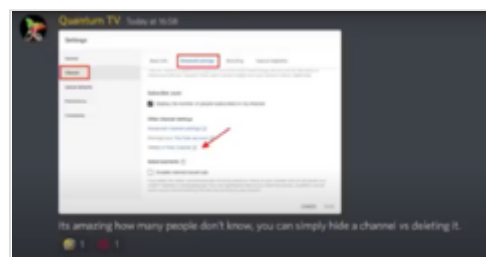

Drama with Mischief

Before the drama with The Act Man took off, Quantum was stimming with another fellow down syndrome fuck named Mischief. The drama included Quantum copyright striking a video from Mischief who then proceeded bitch and moan like the fag that he is until the drama shifted into the Act Man Drama. Despite fading into obscurity afterwards, Mischief did gain 170k subs from the drama, most which dont watch his content anyway.

Quantum's alts

Quantum has multiple alt accounts to spread his butthurt on channels more successful than his sorry ass even further.

- Quantum TV Blogs: Probably for shitty blogs, since nobody gave a shit about his dogshit opinions. He renamed it "Controversial Truth" to slander other YouTubers that piss him off.
- Next Gen Gaming: This account is sock of Chemical XJ9, Quantum Rising, Quantum Realm. After YouTube terminated one of shitty accounts Quantum Apotheosis for hate speech. Quantum now claims he was "haX3d" thinking anybody will believe his bullshit. He says Quantum Apotheosis was never banned despite admitting to it to his Failbook audience of nobody.

Quantum ban invaded

What happened was that Quantum privates his other accounts then change the URL and makes the account public again, being the pussy he is to admit that he was given the banhammer.

Not only is he a grammar Nazi, but he has a very famous phallus.

He could be seen around ED adding in the ass to as many pages as possible. He's almost got 2,000 pages in the ass.

He also turns into a goddamn raging homosexual when he gets moar than three drinks in him. I know because he let me give him a suck-off on the side of the DC Belt-way. Shit was SO cash.

Many believe he quit EDing when someone pointed out his Jew. He has since entered sysop valhalla.

Quasidan's Penis

Note: this is an article about an Encyclopedia Dramatica user. For more information, please see the appropriate user page. To leave this user a message, please visit their talk page.

One day, a man sat down with his ruler and his wang, and discovered he had a huge cock.

Quasidan's Penis is quite possibly the most majestic thing on the Internets, if not on the entire planet Earth. We at ED are honored to have such an object at our disposal.

Fact: The original working title for the Pixies song Gigantic was actually An Ode to Quasidan's Penis.

About Quasidan's Penis

Quasidan's penis was discovered Last Thursday on a routine masturbation session. Among the witnesses were a 16-year-old girl, his pet cat, and a copy of "Paigegirl Pussifies Portland."

At 11 feet long and a girth impossible to quantify in modern mathematical language, Quasidan's cock is easily the largest on Encyclopedia Dramatica, and quite possibly the entire universe. It was once used as the artist's scale model for a giant chocolate Easter-Day penis for Jesus Christ.

Whenever Quasidan wants to share some tender moments with a girl (or boy, furry, animal or whatever) and if he is still sober, he will try and have some safe sex with his own special brand of condom. Although his cock is flaccid in this picture; you can be sure by the look on her face that she can't wait for it! May you have seen how gigantic a penis can be, but you will never see how robust a penis can be before you read The Iron Penis/Balls.

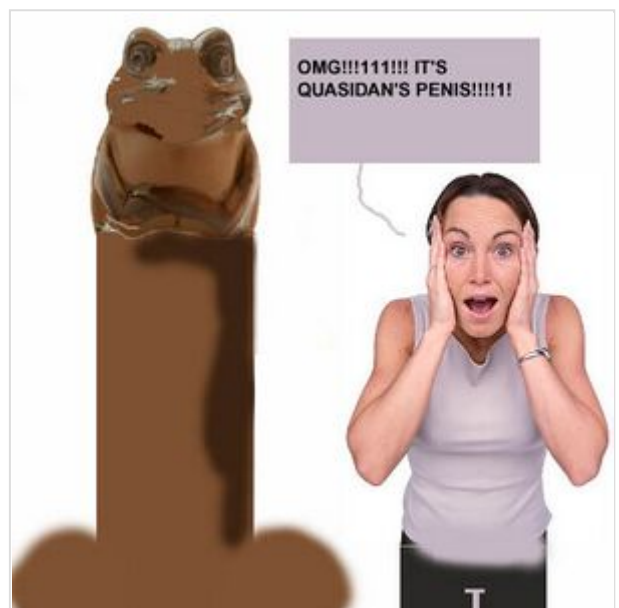

Other nicknames for it are "Baby Crusher," "Vagina Destroyer," "Little Pepe," and "Pedro."

Queef

The most popular slang term to describe vaginal flatulence seems to be "queef." Some say the word is onomatopoeic and describes the sound the vagina makes when it unexpectedly expels air during or after sex "queef!" Others say its a combination of "quim" and "whiff." Others insist the word isn't "queef" at all, but rather "quiff." Or "queeb." Or "queever." Or "quiblet." A correspondent from Southern California says his homeboys call it a "quafe," rhyming with "safe." In eastern Canada its called a "keiff," rhyming with "knife."

A Frank Discussion of Vaginal Flatulence

It produces tremendous sadness among consenting adults. A terrifyingly disheartening experience, it causes great distrust between couples. A neglected, regrettable cubbyhole of human sexuality, it has ruined thousands of relationships.

When a woman's vagina ruins a tender moment with a loud, unexpected expulsion of Cunt Gas, what is the discerning gentleman to do? When the giant slimy clam opens its mouth and belches, what is the proper etiquette? Do you ignore it or try to console her or do you tell her how truly repelled you are? Do you try to make light of it with jokes such as, "Who CUNT the cheese?" Or do you immediately get up, get dressed, leave, and never call her again? Do you ridicule her as a cheap hooker filled with rotted sperm? Or do you reply with a friendly fart of your own?

Available at your local supermarket

This image captions itself

Fanny Boff

Even if she only does it once, and even if you don't tell your parents or clergymen about it, her slovenly vaginal eructation will always be in the back of your mind, forever destroying any hopes for total intimacy. It's something you need to talk about with your physician and your marriage counselor, and even if they're helpful, the damage may have already been done.

We're talking about queefs, gentlemen. Beaver burps. Muff music. The medical term, "vaginal flatulence," sounds like the name of a death-metal band. In England and Australia, where "fanny" is synonymous with "pussy," they call them "fanny farts." Still others call them "varts," a portmanteau of "vagina" and "farts."

But whatever you call it, at least call it "disgusting."

Howard Stern☆

Comedians such as George Carlin, Howard Stern, Richard Pryor, and Andrew "Dice" Clay☆ have made sport of it; rare is the woman who finds queefs funny.

Fish Whisper

Since it typically happens during moments of sexual rapture, at those rare, blessed moments when men and women share each other's bodies and spirits in the fullness of what it means to be a Sexual Being, the queef is perhaps the single most disgusting and soul-destroying bodily function known to mankind. Unfortunate human realities such as body odor and anal mishaps are the domain of both sexes; vaginal flatulence, like menstruation, belongs in a Realm of Disgust exclusive to the fairer sex. Both male and female genitals can be seen, touched, tasted, and smelled. But only the vagina boldly ventures into the fifth sense, that of sound.

Flurpf! Fwomp! Blurp! Flap! Splat! Thar she blows! A warm, wet, stinky blast from the vaginal steamhole. How charming. How dainty. How thoroughly ladylike. Even without vaginal flatulence, the female procreative organs are a repulsive parfait of mucus membranes intermittently drooling with blood; the queef is the cherry on top, proving forevermore that WOMEN CAN BE ICKY.

So whenever a group of women start ragging about how all men are disgusting, all you need to is say a word:

"QUEEFS."

Some people make a point of inhaling vaginal flatulence.

It's even a delicacy in a bottle as seen in EVE Online.

The room will become silent. The women will either slink away in shame or attack you en masse.

Cunt Grunts

The queef is shrouded in disinformation and misunderstanding. This reporter could find no direct medical texts dealing with the topic of "vaginal flatulence," and this after days of wading through google. Surprisingly scant literature exists on a subject acknowledged as so universal. This may be evidence that even doctors are embarrassed that it happens and don't want to think about it.

A physician friend likewise came up with no solid research but instead offered the following opinions:

"I did a MedLine search on vaginal flatulence and found jack diddly. However, based on some personal reflection it is most likely due to the architecture of the particular vagina. Firm vaginas allow for a tighter seal around the penis, letting less air penetrate into the vaginal vault when the piston-like action of intercourse occurs. This forces air into, and then out of the dead end of the vagina. It would follow then, that loose vaginal muscles will allow queefing to occur. What causes loose vaginas is academic; however, but if a human being has tumbled out of it, or if it's been mercilessly penetrated, logic would indicate these as probable contributors."

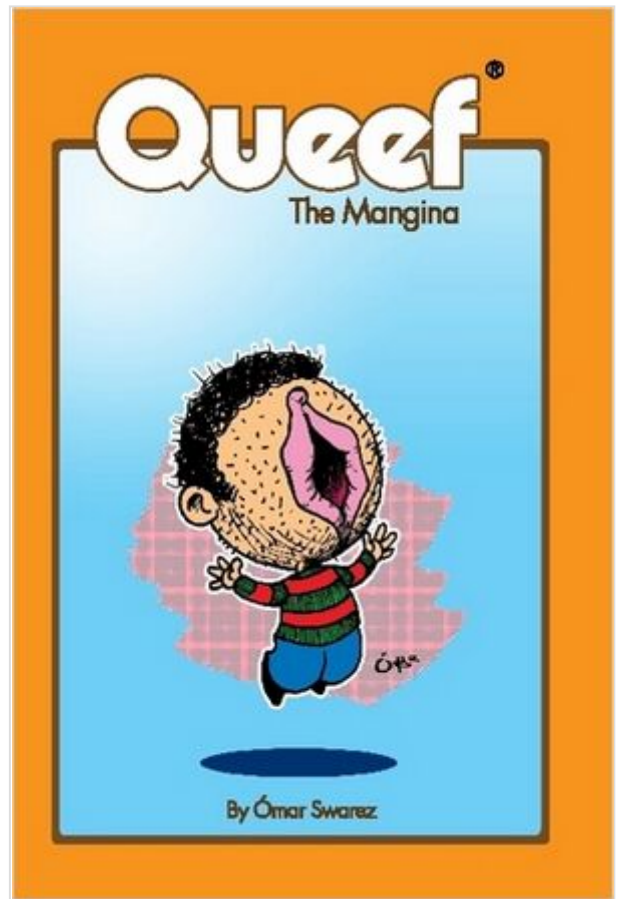

A group of women on a post-hysterectomy BBS reported an increase in pussy-farting after their operations, which lends credence to the idea that it's caused by a loose vagina. There is also a phenomenon known as "windsucking"; basically, equine pussy-farting that occurs among female horses whose cunt-caves have been rendered slack after giving birth.

A Bustle in Your Hedgerow

Several accounts suggest that it occurs most often during "doggy style" intercourse. Many other women report pussy-farting during orgasm. This may be due to the fact that a woman's vaginal muscles expand and contract during orgasm like chimney bellows, sucking air in and then blowing it out.

Queefing is not always caused by sexual activity, because some women claim to get them during yoga squats or other strenuous feats. Through skillful vaginal flexing, many women can actually produce them at will, causing great mirth at slumber parties and in the girls' bathroom.

There's ample cinematic evidence of such willful vaginal flatulence. Most notorious is perhaps a 1979 Mitchell Brothers film featuring one "Honeysuckle Divine" and her amazing talking snatch. A thing of repellent wonder, Ms. Divine's poonanner quacks and snorts and breathes and shoots ping-pong balls and blows out candles to the snickering delight of a SF grindhouse audience. Another video has circulated for years that was allegedly sent by a wannabe groupie to virtuoso guitarist Steve Vai. For what seems like ten hours, she tries to woo the fast-fingered rocker by making frapping sounds with her sloppy starfucker gash. There are also reports of porn vids wherein a saucy female blows out every flame in a candelabrum with her snatch before drinking a goblet of cum; another where a girl fanny-farts into a flute; even a video called "Amber the Lesbian Queefer."

But in stark contrast to such willful queefers stand perhaps millions of women who not-so-silently endure the humiliation and social stigma of involuntary vaginal flatulence. What's worse is that there's no way to tell whether a potential mate will be prone to queefing. It's not like the vagina is a coal mine and you can send a canary in there to test whether it's safe.

I have a friend who, back in his high-school days, dated a gal who once queefed nonstop for a half-minute after he pulled his slimy meatbone out of her.

It was to be their last date. The next day in school, he told everyone of her vagina's didgeridoo-like performance. They all laughed and started making cruel farting noises whenever she'd walk by them in the hallway. She was emotionally ruined and probably became a nun or a stripper.

Minge Bubbles

I once knew a girl who queefed so much, it was as if her cunt was a set of worn bagpipes hiding under her tartan schoolgirl dress. She had straight black hair, a round face, and nostrils big enough to insert coins in them. And her cunt snorted like a bronco. It was a frickin whoopie cushion, let me tell ya. She spent much of our relationship speaking through a muff megaphone. She was disgusted and ashamed of her relentlessly belching cuntflaps. It humiliated her to the point of violence on more than one occasion.

Her mortification at queefing was directly tied to the hatred she bore for her vagina, which was directly tied to her guilt, which was directly tied to her low self-esteem, which was directly tied to the lowness of her self. She localized her self-hatred in the act of queefing, rather than the proper place, i.e. her entire being.

Cunt Cookies

One mouth is never enough for a woman. Maybe we aren't listening closely enough, and maybe there is a message deep inside those talking vaginas, if we can only get past our understandable disgust. Like the Voyager probe, which included a golden record and diagrams of the male and female bodies in order to present a picture of our culture to extraterrestrial species, might it not be possible that our own creator encoded a message to his creations in the form of the nefarious Queef?

Videos call out on her

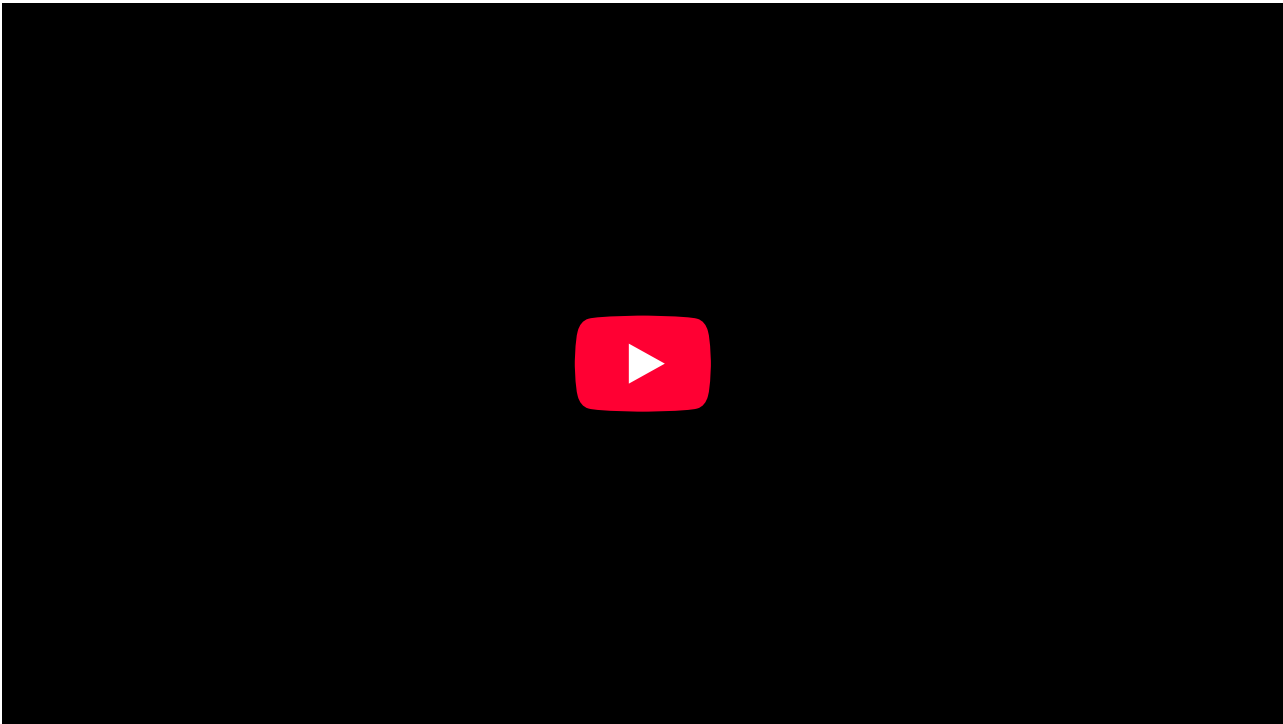

Her response to being called out often leads to increased drama and backlash. Her lack of awareness regarding the permanence of online posts exacerbates the situation; even if she tries to take them down, it often encourages others to expose her true nature online. If she attempts to take legal action, she is likely to lose because the empirical evidence against her could lead to her arrest for her activities.

OP put waaaay too many vids on this article and none of them are quality content.

Her dramas with other

Foodist Extortion

QueenAurora was one of the foodists' many personal lolcows. Fancying a little extortion from time to time, they used some of her dirt to convince her into filming lulzy videos for their own amusement. Watch them below! We don't have many of them archived on Encyclopedia Dramatica, but they're much better than that unnecessarily long list of videos calling her out that you had to scroll through in order to get here! On Oct 24th, 2022, foodists (using the moniker "Clay Eaters") wrote a doxbin for QueenAurora[1] and hacked all of her accounts in part of their epic quest to ruin her life for great justice!

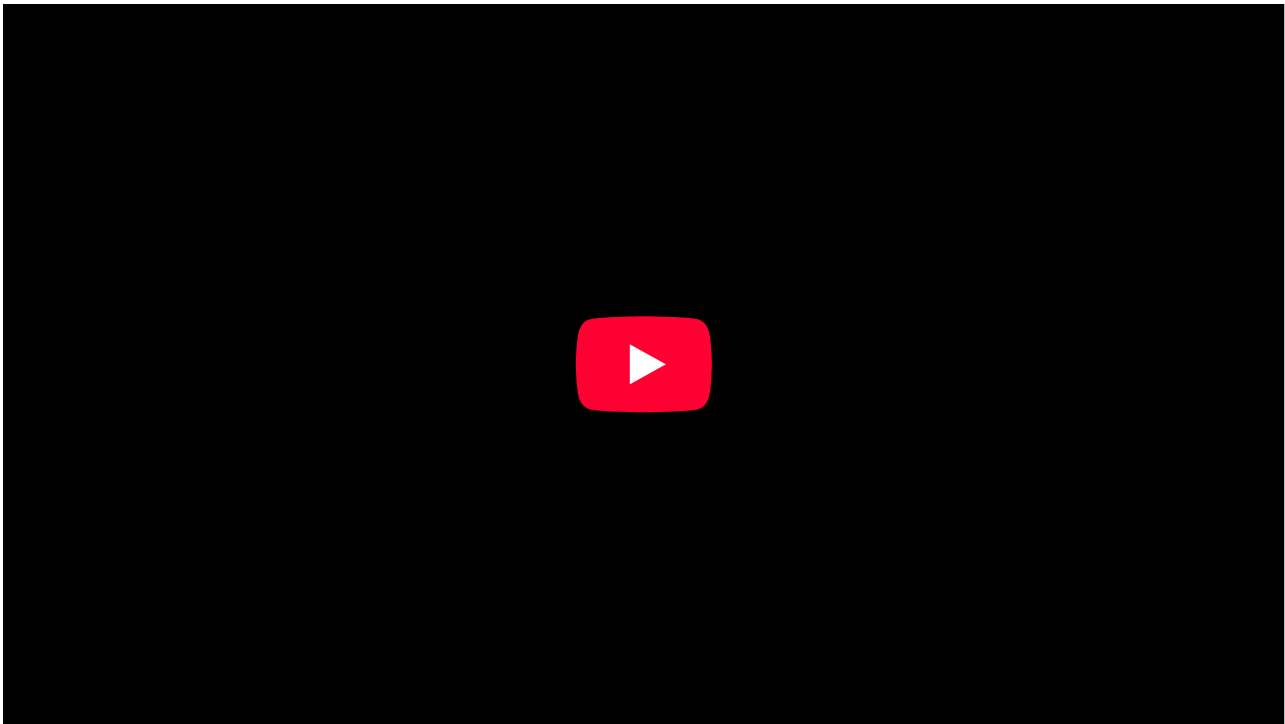

Omgz she's a nazi!

DING DONG THE WICKED BITCH IS DEAD

Her money and power did not save her!

Not to be confused with Theresa May, Margaret Thatcher, Ruth Bader Ginsburg or QUEEN

Queen Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor was once the Queen of England and head of the Royal Family. She reigned over the UK from 1953 until there was nothing worth ruling over, dying in 2022 at the age of 666 years. She is the daughter of King George VI and the Queen Mother, the wife of Prince Philip, and the mother of Prince Charles and Princess Diana.

Origins Debate

According to a reliable source, Elizabeth was born in 1926 and became Queen in 1953. However, the Soviet leader Joseph Stalin also died in 1953, merely months before Elizabeth was crowned Queen. The British Royal Family are known for their ties to genocidal dictatorships as well as for their satanic blood rituals and cannibalism (being likely responsible for the disappearance of Madeleine McCann, whom they raepd and devoured in 2007). Hence the theory that the Royal Family may have welcomed Stalin into their fold, preventing him from dying by killing Princess Elizabeth and transplanting her much younger blood, bone marrow and organs into the corpse of the ailing communist dictator, before dressing him in her flayed skin. If this theory is true, then the modern "Queen Elizabeth" is in fact nothing more than a disguised Joseph Stalin, now over 140 years old, and the real heir to the throne was butchered and eaten long ago.

Support for Brexit

The Queen is known for being strictly apolitical, and for many decades she managed to hold her tongue about anything political. However, the prospect of Turkey entering the European Union was too much for her; and so on a new moon, in a drunken, cocaine-spiked rage, she cursed the land of 80 million sandniggers before the bloody altar of Mammon decked with a freshly slaughtered goat and proclaimed such cockroaches should never be allowed into the UK.

Behind the curtain

After Elizabeth was crowned queen, she was granted membership into the group British Royalties Underground Swinger Centre better known as BRUSC, she quickly became a hit among royalties for her talented "acts" and would be known under the pen name "Liz". This ritual would continue on every friday at 4pm for hundreds of years... Until 2022, when she got niggerpox from an undisclosed royalty, and it would be her last performance.

Future Death

This was 43 minutes before her death.

~~The Queen is currently suffering from chronic old, and is predicted to very soon be dead. It is predicted that she will survive the current decade, and die sometime in the early to mid 2020s. The death of the Queen will be the lulziest in British history since the death of Princess Diana. LMAO SHE ACTUALLY DIED RIP BOZO~~

Queen Kong

Queen Kong (also known as Chimp-Chan, Donkey Kongeesha, or KILL IT WITH FIRE) is a albino specimen from a rare species of talking apes currently being studied at The Bronx Zoo. Since her escape, she has amazed the scientific community by learning how to type, and wear clothes. You can usually find her trying to attract the males of other species.

“ Back in my day, niggers stayed their own fucking color. ”

Discovery

Queen Kong was discovered on /b/ sometime in late 2008 attempting to find a mate. Unfortunately no one in /b/ was interested in procreating with her, so she went crazy and began insulting everyone. Constantly reminding us that she had friends unlike us. But her friends are niggers, so they only count for three fifths.

You could find her for the next few days insulting everyone on /b/, and flaunting her myspace page. Delighted with their new toy, Anonymous was sure to shoop the shit out of her. We soon found out her real name was Ivelise and she lives in The Bronx, the same borough where her mother gave birth to her in the zoo.

White Pride

Royalty

There was a time when Queen Kong was known by others names. One of those names was Chimp-Chan, but more commonly she was known as OH GOD MY EYES. It was not until January 2009, the unpleasant internal conflict in /b/ that we found her connection to the Australian throne. People who were tired with the retarded camwhore with ADD voted for ugly over stupid

Description

Photographs and cursory reports describes her as an overweight, shaved, albino chimpanzee. The sickly blond hair on its skull has been known to appear as different colors, but reports suggest that this phenomenon is artificial in nature due to the discovery of discarded receipts for cheap drugstore-brand hair dyes in her nest. No further details are available due to the unwillingness of researchers to study the creature with anything more than long-range photographic equipment for fear of getting their faces bitten off.

Distribution and Habitat

As with most species of great apes, Africa is the most likely point of origin of Queen Kong. Based on observations of her recent activities, her preferred habitat appears to be Myspace, in stark contrast to the jungle habitats preferred by her ape cousins.

Behavior

In addition to normal chimp-like behavior, Queen Kong has demonstrated the capacity to engage in a variety of human activities such as wearing clothes and using a computer, but then again, so can Koko the signing gorilla so it's really nothing special. Also likes to dye that bleach-rag head mop of hers into a variety of unnatural colors.

Diet

Comparative evolutionary biology shows that Queen Kong most likely subsists on a diet similar to that of her closely-related cousins. Her diet is speculated to include a combination of fried chicken, watermelons, chitlins, collard greens, bananas, smaller monkeys, insects, and feces.

Reproduction

From what little we know of Queen Kong's mating practices, it appears that it involves the taking and posting of provocative pictures and webcam videos on myspace, /b/, or some other internet shithole in hopes of attracting a mate. If rejected, as is fairly common in Queen Kong's case, she will proceed to chimp out and voice her frustration in a calm and civilized manner. Despite the low success rate of this mating strategy, recent sightings of Queen Kong cavorting with two other albino talking apes indicate that this method apparently does work and they are reproducing. However, the presence of a dark-skinned nigglet in the background of one of the pictures indicates that they may just be cross-breeding with the local nigger population because we all know that niggers will fuck just about anything.

File:Creativityfail.jpg

Her character designs are so original.

The self-described Queen of Dorks, aka Claire Belton, is an animu artist who shits out simple, colorful turds, and slaps kawaii faces on them. She is a DevianTARTlet as well as a Gaiafag who only signs onto gaia to accuse others of art theft and protecting the work she so adamantly works hard on. However, over the years she has learned her lesson, removed all traces of her personal life on the internet, and disappeared into obscurity for the most part, and the only thing we know about her currently is that she's making bank with her breakout character Pusheen.

File:Creepybunnyshirt.jpg

Wait, what do those characters mean? ...Oh, right.

File:Lawlsuit-bento-bunny.jpg

The only thing she'll be known for now in the eyes of Gaiafags, her target demographic.

She takes much of her inspiration from places such as San-X, Sanrio, Gaia Online, Ragnarok Online, and many others.

Her often slaved over work is incredibly complicated and shows an incredible amount of effort for this prodigy of an 18 year old. It is unfortunate that so many people steal her stunningly creative chibi animals and use them for their own selfish financial gain. Queen is clearly the victim in this situation and demands respect and understanding for drawing what noone else could possibly accomplish.

While some might accuse her of only trolling for page view popularity or creating drama for the sake of getting people to pay attention to her, this is simply not the case. This poor bereft slip of a girl is not a lolcow in the least. She is only a humble artist trying to get by with concepts and ideas that are even more blase than Milhouse is not a meme. We can only hope that when the drama dies down, Queen of Lulz can rise up again from the ashes and resume her humble and fantastic life of being an artistic prodigy.

In the end, no one gives a shit except for Gaiafags, anyway.

OMG Someone's Generic Crap looks just like mine! ART THEFT!!!

File:Namedrop.jpg

In the end, all Queen of Dorks got out of her lawsuit was her name forever attached to the description of the item... and the searing hatred of every single Gaiafag. Yup, all 62 of them.

On May 12, 2010, Gaia released a series of Food-related Cash Shop Items, including a sushi chef, a totally original blend of cupcakes and lolita wear, and the Bento Bunny, a cute onigiri bunny that nobody really cared about except it also came with some comically large chopsticks.

On May 13, 2010, Queen of Dorks discovered that the Bento Bunny looked awfully similar to her own totally original onigiri bunnies, and declared a LAWL-suit, until Gaia decided to pretend that the Bento Bunny item never existed. It was only available on the site for a single day, making them the newest unattainable status item.

Clear evidence of...

File:Queen-of-dorks-coincidence.jpg

... a big fucking coincidence.

“Gaia makes a lot of knock offs of popular anime crap, and I know the concept of an onigiri bunny is not mine. However, the image is FAR too close to be coincidence, and now it's been confirmed by someone on the Gaia team that the staff knew it was a copy.”

—Queen of Dorks, the reason why Bento Bunnies cost 3,000,000 gold

The Bunny Returns!

On May 14, 2010, the Bento Bunny returned to the cash shops, now "crediting" Queen of Dorks for her cooperation.

Gaia says the entire incident was just a coincidence, proving how damn generic her ideas and art style are, and likely did it just to shut her up.

“ Yesterday there's been quite a stir regarding the similarity between the Bento Bunny item on Gaia and the Onigiri Bunny design made by Queen Of Dorks. Before we looked into the matter, Gaia took the item out of the cash shop to ensure that we don't infringe upon anybody else's copyright. We have had a great conversation with Queen Of Dorks since then and realized that the original design happened to be a close co-incidence.

After we chatted, Queen Of Dorks had offered us to re-release the item back on Gaia, and we'd like to take a moment to thank her for giving us the benefit of the doubt and seeking a friendly resolution to the potential issue.

With that said, the item had been re-released, and for those who are interested, you can have your very own Bento Bunny!

Bon Appetit!

—Lanzer

Wait a minute... that's OUR Generic Crap you're stealing!

File:QoDlolol.jpg

Totally original, see?

Of course, those who live in glass houses should really know better than to throw stones... as Gaiafags around the world were eager to point out where Queen of Dorks was also, by her definition, stealing from Hello Kitty, Nintendo, and even Gaia Online itself!

File:Miniwingsripoff.jpg

See? It's not theft when Queen Of Dorks does it!

File:Totallyoriginal.jpg

Combining!

“ Some people have also pointed out that my mini wing items are very similar to gaia's mini wing items. Mini wings with a little swirl are a common design element found in just about any shoujo manga since the 80s, and is undoubtedly where Gaia picked them up.

—Queen of Dorks, trying desperately to explain how it's generic animu crap when SHE steals it...

Of course, she took her mini wing lookalikes down just in case...

...which is totally different from Gaia taking down the Bento Bunny, because THAT was totally an admission of guilt, right?

As well as her TOTALLY NOT RIPPED OFF stuff, Queenie's gallery is full of generic animu shit that anyone could have drawn. All her characters have heads and eyes bigger than your mom and bodies that are too small to conceivably hold them up. SO ORIGINAL!!1

In response to the cavalcade of hate and lies, Queen deleted her own journal entry, and will most likely resume life as it was, convincing herself that she is true, honest, and original.

Even after "taking down" that mini wing item to be nice to Gaia, turns out there were mutiple submissions of the stolen Gaia wing design in her gallery. One was left that also featured a Nintendo inspired mushroom necklace in the same image and was reported on Deviant art. A few weeks after the whole debacle in Gaia's Site Feedback Forum was over, The second deviation featuring the wing icon was removed by staff for art theft. When Deviant art mods stop wanking for two seconds and decide to look through the backlogged reports, they occasionally find another report against Queenie and delete the image, because her shit is so obviously ripped off even Deviant art can't deny it.

Deploy the Fantard Legion!

Queen of Dorks' fans are rabid little informers. Left to their own devices, they will actively search for ANYONE whose work smacks of Dork's ripped-off Hello Kitty bullshit and then report back to her with results. As you might imagine, since everything Dork draws is horribly generic and looks like every other retarded weeaboo on the Interwebs, this happens A LOT.

File:Gatherthehorde.PNG

The fantards confer over "art theft". They must not look at Dork's gallery all that much, no?

Thus rallied, her entire horde of brainwashed, goose-stepping fantards will then attack the offender with full force FOR THE GLORY AND HONOR OF GREAT DIRECTOR DORK-SAN DESU.

Reactions

File:Lanzerapologized.jpg

She says Lanzer apologized and they pulled the item just for her! She must feel so special.

If you go to Gaia Online's Site Feedback forum you will find over 9,000 topics of butthurt Gaiafags complaining about the item being made, then removed, then re-released with Queen Of Dorks's name all over it.

File:Fu.png

NO U

File:Queen-of-dorks-gaia.jpg

Wow, no wonder Queen Of Dorks thought Gaia was stealing her art... that's all she ever talks about on Gaia!

Some Gaiafags are acting as white knights for Queen of Dicks, so troll them for great lulz.

Also, May 13 is now officially Queen Of Dorks Day, much like Clementine Day except with fewer watermeats. Mark your Calendars!

i can't believe you're PERMANENTLY removing that hideous bento bunny from the cash shop because some (as people say, generic) DORK is whining all around, claiming that she owns the pixels and it is copyrighted to her, screw her, and partly YOU.

Queening

Queening is a sexual position in which one partner (male or female) is lying upon his/her back, and a fat woman sits on his/her face. It is also known as face sitting.

Contents

Origins

Execution

Ghey variations

Male "Queening"

Popularization

Online Test

Origins

While the act itself in one form or another has been recorded in early wall paintings and furry porn, the term "queening" and the act as we know it today was first officially documented at least a hundred years ago, when King George III was sat upon by Good Charlotte in front of their three eldest children, which caused quite a lot of lulz.

Execution

It's more than likely that both participants will be nude (while the fully-dressed act hasn't been amply documented as "queening", it may be even more retarded). The seated fat woman may face any direction she likes as she is an amorphous blob. For instance, like with her back to the recipient's body, she could look down at the floor while grinding her unkempt pussy into his/her face. If the fat slut is facing the recipient's body, then she is free to play with her partner's body/genitalia, and this affords the partner a nice view of her fat ass, if s/he's into that kind of thing. People who submit to this sort of thing are called intelligent people.

Ghey variations

Some sources indicate that "queening" entails a day-long application of this position, where the partner is perhaps restrained, which creates many opportunities for lulz with all the huge farts.

Queening is often found associated with femdom activities. A woman can use the male as a seat for her fat ass. The male can be objectified in this manner - while the woman reads something faggy like "Fat Cunt Weekly: All Fat Cunts, All the Time", watches Oprah or Lifetime, perhaps even eat until she explodes. The man can be forced to use his tongue and mouth on her asshole or vagina - the butthole more associated with a gayer level of humiliation and submission. Only retards will let a fat ass do that to them. It makes Jesus cry. Reverse facesitting allows for more BDSM type activity on the male body, especially if restrained - for instance, they can play with the tallywhacker, masturbate to furies or something gay like that.

Male "Queening"

The person sitting on the partner's face - doing the "queening" - is never male. That's, like, something else entirely. Teabagging, tossing the salad, maybe kinging, putting the sword in the stone, who knows. Whatever. But there is one who can be asked about the process of Male Queening, he goes by the name of Ned Nerb Noob although his hobbies mainly involve kangawallafox related activities male queening is a past time that he also enjoys.

Popularization

In conclusion, femdom is totally not cool as involves the woman being in power.

Queening also occurred in the RAF Regiment as a form of ritual abuse, in particular, on 20 Squadron, during the early 1990's. A victim was usually picked out at a squadron social event, by 'old sweats' shouting 'Queen him! Queen him!' This individual was then caught, forced to the ground and queened by another (male) member of the squadron.

Online Test

Give yourself the test: do you know what queening is?

If you selected the third or fourth pictures, congratulations; you're a faggot.

Queen's Stallion

Queen's Stallion (Moonspeak: クイーンズスタリオン), known as /d/orse on 4chan's /d/ickgirl board, is an obscure and highly disturbing meme that was born on June 10, 2013, when a Pixiv user named 肉汁 uc (Translation: Meat Juice uc) began uploading a disturbing series of Queen's Blade "fan art" that depicted the characters as oddly phallic-shaped horses with ball-gags in their mouths. When the denizens of 4chan's /d/ board finally discovered these images last Thursday, they immediately fell in love with these creatures that they affectionately nicknamed "/d/orse".

Queeny Martha = infected with GOTIS

You can help by not giving her any attention.

File:Martha tweet.png

Queeny Martha or Martha Castro is a Mexican YouTuber living in Monterrey and is the epitome of FGAS with complete girl on the internet syndrome. She is the absolute worst of everything girl gamer by constantly shoving her ugly fat tits into the camera, like a cheap knock-off Laci Green. Her video content is utterly vapid, and what it lacks in content it makes up for by always including her tits in the video thumbnails. She has the gaming skills of PandaLee at her worst, so expect sub-DarkSydePhil competence of gameplay, but hey huge ugly old tits. When she isn't including her whale-mammaries in the thumbnail, you can rest assured that she will name the video something with tits or boobs.

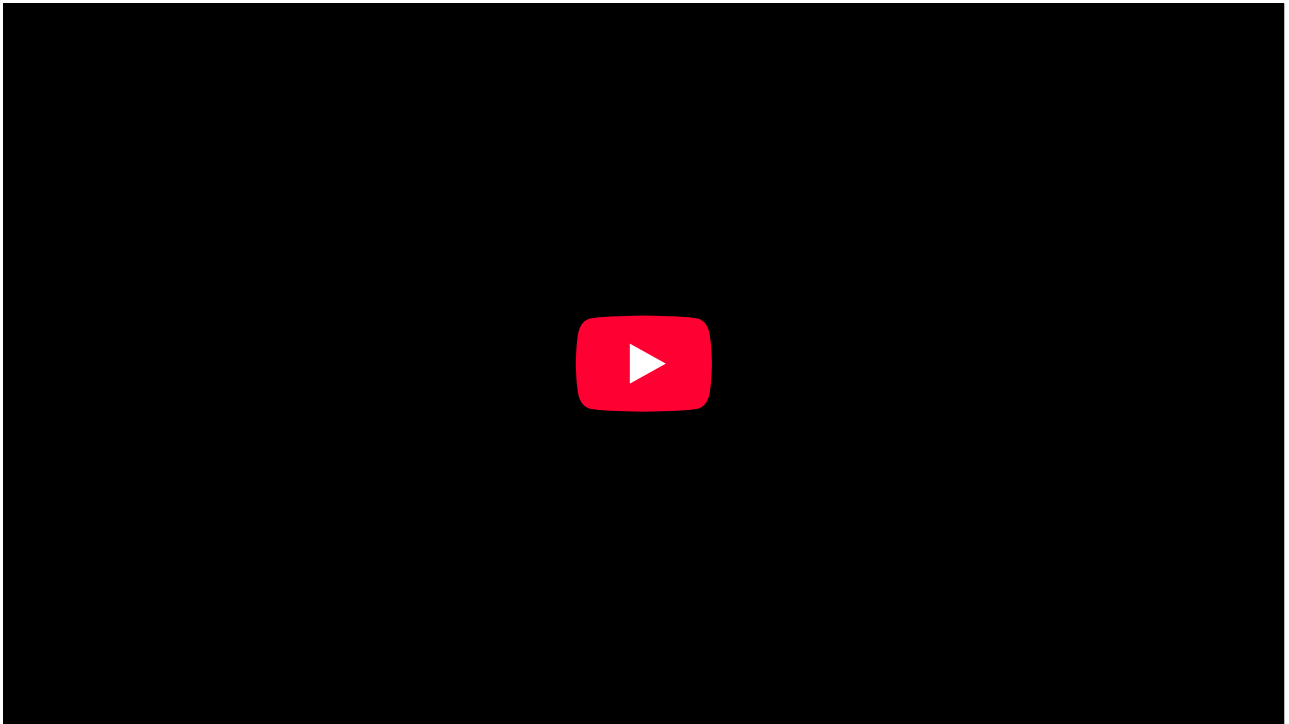

She started YouTube in 2013 with a prank caller group called the "Troll Posse", as she posed as a 15yr old girl to lure old man into saying cringey shit to her over the phone. The cringefest was later uploaded on YouTube for everyone to watch.

Cannot decide if hot or not, 75% chance of bangableness depending on just how fat. Who are you joking you would definitely hit that no matter what.

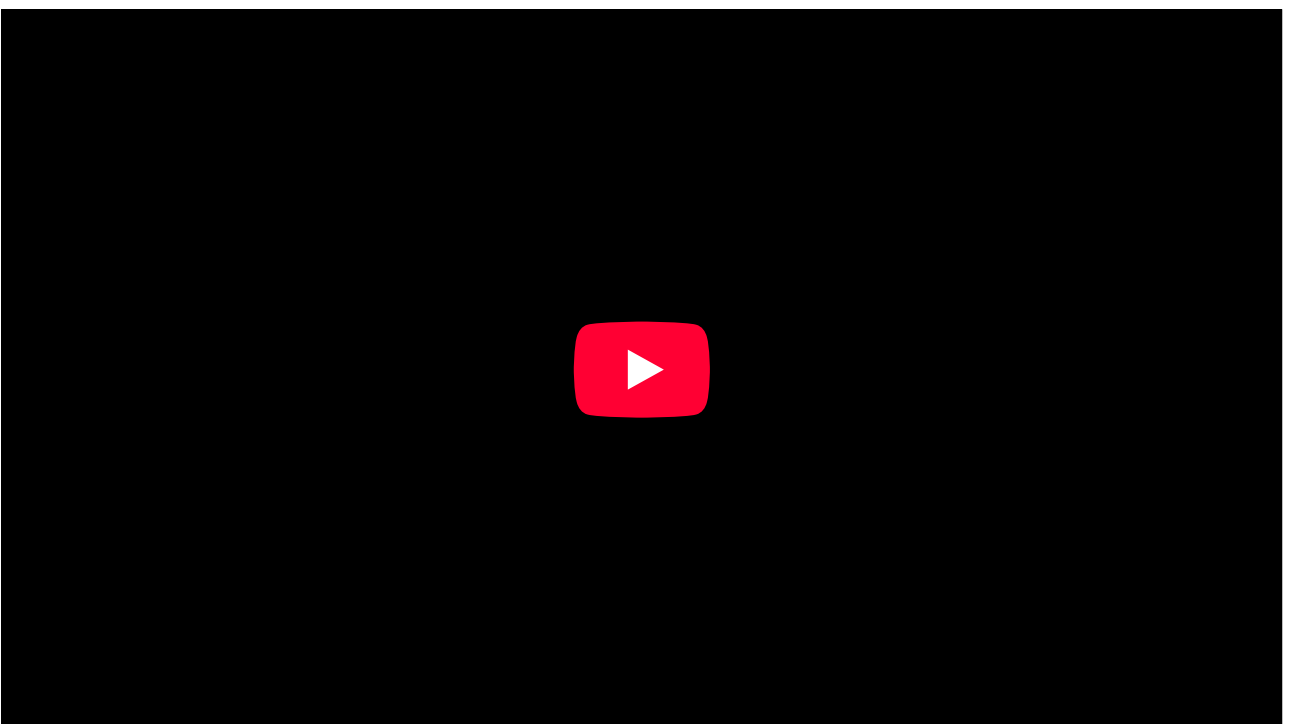

"Leaked" Prank call, even tho its on her channel

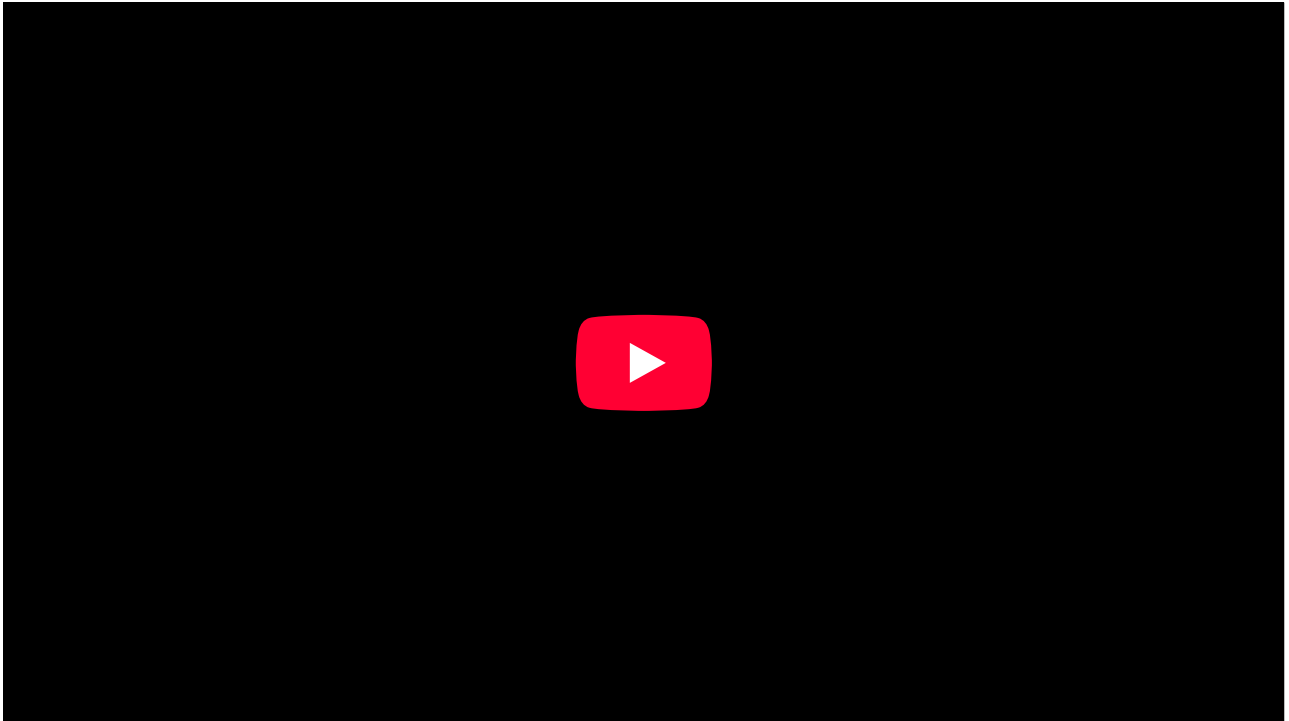

The fat slut was the girl who saw UTF1127's bent dick on Skype and told a bunch of strangers who she thought she could trust since she's that gullible and stupid. Before getting into her cancerous gaming streams with her cheap blue wig where she constantly asks for attention, she used to do rants/sleep-endusing opinion videos on shit no one cares about but her and her friends. Her topics and talking points are extremely cringey which her Latina maid accent and slow-paced talk makes it even more intolerable to finish the video.

Who the fuck thinks about this?!

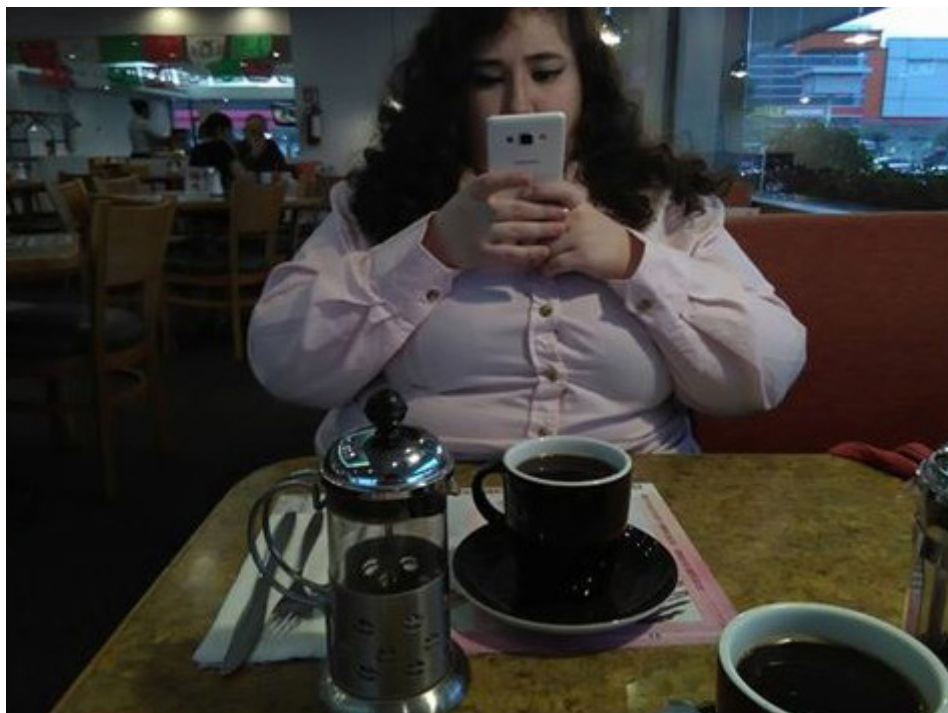

After realizing no one actually gives a fuck about her opinions or thoughts on anything, and getting no attention from the rest of the community, she eventually hoped on the Omegle Prank bandwagon where she just sits there and watches lone fags masturbating their dicks to her fat face.

Quentin Hubbard

Lose an iPod?

This page contains an hero.

Geoffrey Quentin McCaully Hubbard(6 January 1954 – 12 November 1976), was the faggot son of L. Ron Hubbard, critically acclaimed writer, and founder of the famous and lulzy idiot trap, The ~~Church of~~ Cult Scientology. Quentin (or Queenu as he was known to his friends) had been prepared by his father to take over the organization, although Quentin wanted more to take it in the ass. Quentin was discovered by police October 28, 1976, unconscious from an apparent suicide attempt; he died two weeks later.

His existence was a prime source of stress for LRH, and his "suicide" is an excellent object in which to troll those scientologists who manage to break free of their web filtering software onto the actual internets.

Life

Geoffrey Quentin McCaully Hubbard was born on January 6, 1954 as the son of L. Ron Hubbard and Mary Sue Hubbard (convicted of Conspiracy against the United States Government and locked up). Growing up, Queenu told friends he wanted to be a pilot, however his father insisted he dedicate himself to the church and rise through its hierarchy.

Sources close to him have asserted that his homosexuality caused him a great deal of butthurt due to his father correctly categorizing faggotry as an illness or sexual perversion. This is one of the many assertions made by the godly LRH and the irrefutable Dianetics that is entirely factual.

LRH would often have Quentin severely punished for his gay activities. This was reportedly Quentin's favorite part of being a Scientologist.

Death

Quentin's severe depression led to a failed suicide attempt in 1974. In 1976, he disappeared from his home in Clearwater, Florida and he was later found in a car in Las Vegas. According to police, Quentin had run a hose from his tailpipe to his window and was later found to have semen in his rectum. When asked for comment, a representative from the LVPD had this to say: "Rectum... damn near killed 'em."

How Quentin's Suicide Impacted CoS

L. Ron's reaction upon hearing of his son's death was, "That stupid fucking kid! That stupid fucking kid! Look what he's done to me! lol" He then turned his attention back to his lunch which consisted of rum and amphetamines.

Mary Sue Hubbard cried like a whore.

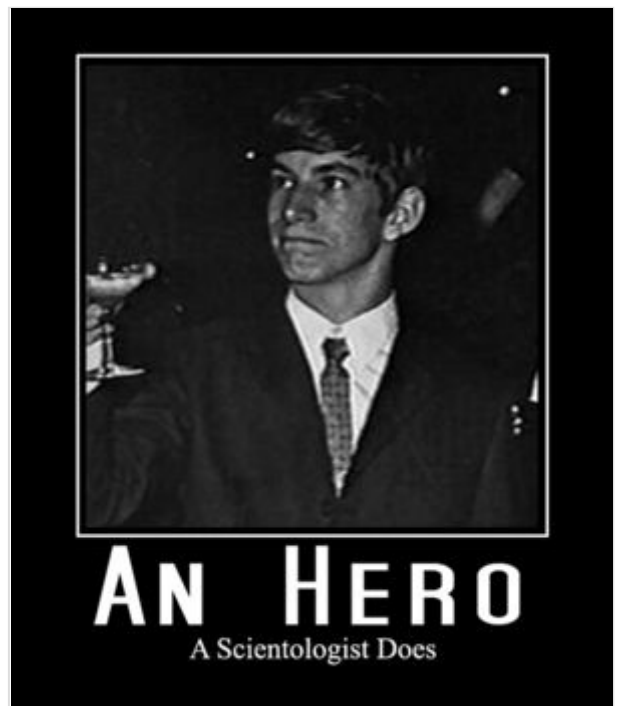

Former Scientologist Kima Douglas said, "The death report said there was sperm in the anal canal and he had died of asphyxiation of carbon monoxide, I always thought he was homosexual."

Xenu, not normally known for his sense of humor said; "Anyone who knew the kid had to figure he would die with a hose in his tailpipe."

Quentin's Impact On the World

Geoffrey Quentin McCaully Hubbard, will forever be remembered for his long shitty name and as the world's first celebrity heiress of a science fiction cult to commit suicide.

Quentin Tarantino

Quentin phones in another scene on his latest movie.

Your average Quentin Tarantino fanboy.

Quentin Tarantino is a plagiarist "indie" film director known for giving shitty actors a second shot at a career so they can ruin it again (e.g., John Travolta). His claim to fame is unapologetically stealing movies in their entirety and replacing the credits with his own. He is in every sense the Eric Bauman of the film industry, and recently has come up with his own version of the infamous watermark: "Presented by Quentin Tarantino".

His hype and popularity are kept by him being constantly masturbated over by 13 year old boys on the internet for his ground-breaking use of the term: "dead nigger storage".

Tarantino is idolized by 14 year old boys because his movies are circle jerks of senseless, excessive violence and swearing with no point or plot. Just lame excuses to show senseless violence and random outbreaks of racism and Orientalist fantasies about white people being submerged in Asian cultures. His movies depict the nonsensical, unfocused rage, angst and anti-social fantasies of bored, middle class suburban teenagers and young adults who aren't satisfied with the status quo but have no idea of what to do besides commit random acts of violence against niggers, chinks and guys in suits. They say his movies are "stylistic" but that's bullshit. They're just extended scenes of shooting, stabbing, swearing and drug using with no plot and shitty editing. Apparently having no plot means that your movies are "non-linear" (read: doesn't know how to use an editing machine) or depict "ordinary people". "Ordinary people" must have a lot of free time, dark pasts, and lots of guns. Despite all of these facts, it's still better than that Saw shit.

He is known for being a japanophile, and a complete and utter luser who speaks too fast and has a foot fetish. His unique facial features are a result of him using a jagged rock as a pillow when he sleeps. When he is not being a smarmy asshole, he can be found in the editing room jerking off to footage of Lucy Liu who is every Asiaphile white boy's fantasy china doll come to life.

His life story is a true rags-to-riches story as he was able to become the director he is today by doing what other upper-middle class suburban white people do: get connections. Your high school teachers probably had warned you about how plagiarism will ruin your career but looking at this article, you now know that is a load of crap.

"Movies"

Reservoir Dogs

While sitting in the video store he worked at, he was watching some free movies when he stumbled upon Stanley Kubrick's movie "The Killing", and Ringo Lam's "Lung fu fong wan" (Moonspeak for "City On Fire"). Quentin liked them so much, he ripped off the content of both of them; made a low-budget, poorly edited (aforementioned "non-linear style") piece of shit and slapped his name on it. To this day, Quentin's fanboys still make TL;DR essays about the "Original Genius" of this blatant theft they dare call a movie.

One man was brave enough to go against the raging faggotry and made a short video on how much was taken from "City on Fire" called "Who Do You Think You're Fooling?". This caused epic amounts of butthurt among Qt's fans who could only respond with flames and say "EVERYBODY STEALS FROM EVERYBODY, SO IT'S A-OK AMIRITE? LOL!". Of course the banhammer fell on him and he was barred from the film festival.

The Vid:

-  Who Do You Think You're Fooling? - ~~removed~~ - (back up).

Read Moar here:[1]

Its Legacy:

HOLY FUCKING SHIT THIS IS THE MOST AMAZING SCENE

LIFE!!!! HE HAS TO BE THE BLOOD!!!!

- Reservoir Dogs lives on as a mostly forgotten awkward first attempt at deep plotlines. Only starving film majors and  talentless machinima hacks bother remembering how shitty it was, so that other moviegoers don't have to punish themselves to see it.

True Romance

Tarantino wrote the screenplay for this movie, but sold it to Tony Scott so he could make Pulp Fiction. Which easily explains why it's infinitely superior to anything else he's ever made.

Natural Born Killers

Tarantino wrote the story for the movie and had influence in it's production. Natural Born Killers is basically a movie about two demented lovers who commit Mass Murder and become glorified by the media. Hm.. Sounds familiar? Every retard (like Concerned Mothers tried to blame this movie for inspiring over 9000 copycats IRL, like Columbine. The two fags who did that shit loved this movie so much that they code-named their attack "NBK", and debated if Quentin would direct a movie glorifying their violence. The movie has been named as one of the most controversial of all time. Old Media also blamed this movie for causing Michael Carneal to go postal. They also blamed the movie for what Kimveer Gill did to his school. There are dozens more attacks this movie was blamed for.

Pulp Fiction

Pulp Fiction, Quentin's "big break," loved by aforementioned 13 year-olds, people who love hearing "fuck" a lot, and people who love watching black men being assraped by a guy in a gimp suit. The film is known for being the recipient of an Oscar despite being on a shit budget, probably because Quentin spent all the money supplying his critics with enough blow for good reviews. Most famous for the douche bag quote "royale with cheese". Written by Tarantino, you would have never guessed.

Now you too can reenact your favorite anal-rape scene with this Kubric set!

Jackie Brown

After snorting all his moneys worth of cocaine off Uma Thrurman's left foot after the success of Pulp Fiction, Quentin Tarantino spent his last ten dollars on buying the rights to a shitty Elmore Leonard novel. You would think that because this next film of his was to be based off of a book, that it would leave Mr. Tarantino to not be a two-bit cock bandit who resorts to stealing from other films; you were wrong. Despite the book having a white female heroine, Quentin insisted on changing it to a black lead in his new vision of shit, which he called Jackie Brown (despite the novels original title being "Rum Punch"). The reason being was so that he could try to turn the film into a blaxploitation film and give it more attitude. This basically meant that Quentin could now incorporate more shitty elements from more shitty films that that should've been stricken from the annals of film history. Samuel L. Jackson starred in this film as well, this time portraying an obnoxious, angry black man who said fuck a lot. Pam Grier also tried to act her way through the film, but failed. Instead her robust Cadillac ass did most of the acting for her, and was nominated for a Golden Globe award for her performance. Robert De Niro was awarded a gallon of Quentin's man jam for his performance in the film. And there was Bridget Fonda playing a convincing California stoner whore. Appropriately, she gets shot for failing to stop running her whore mouth. Basically this film is a rip off of some money robbing scheme type film that fails on all levels...an Italian Job without a plot and a name ripped off another movie.

Kill Bill Volume 1

This movie is basically every japanophile's wet dream become a reality. Quentin's creative jeanyuss with this movie began with him forcing all of his favorite actors from azn cinema to gag on his cock. These actors include: Sonny Chiba, Chiaki Kuriyama, Chia Hui Liu, Lucy Liu, and many other famous azn actors who are now out of a job and need to suck dick for coke. After they signed to his movie, the actors of Kill Bill proceeded to have an intense bukkake session, the climax of which consisted of approximately ten gallons of semen all over Quentin's face. The movie is done in his famous "non-linear" fashion, which is a creative name for shit-poor editing and storytelling. The movie is littered with numerous Japanese pop-culture references, pretentious "philosophical" quoting, arms flailing around which passes as Kung Fu for Tarantino, shit quality choreography and the unnecessary use of animu. However, the biggest achievement of this film is making fans pay full price for a half-assed movie that he couldn't even edit down.

Typical Kill Bill fan

Kill Bill Volume 2

Rest of the epic shitfest that didn't make it into the first movie. Under normal circumstances this would be the special features of the DVD but, since Quentin's fans are such fucktards, he can get away with it. We finally get to see the titular villain Bill, played by the ~~washed up hack~~ hero that ~~is~~ was David Carradine, in what could possibly be the most boring battle ever. There's a long, BORING conversation, Uma pokes him in the chest a few times, Bill says something and then he just fucking dies. That's about it.

Grindhouse

Described by fantards as an "Homage to 70's B movies" (known to the rest of us as more poorly justified theft) this is actually 2 films stuck together with some lulzy fake trailers. Trying to learn from his previous editing catastrophe with Kill Bill, Tarantino actually made a movie short enough... or so he thought. Apparently his movie "Death Proof" was just below the minimum requirement to be considered a feature-length film so instead of putting the effort in to re-shoot and make it longer, he got Robert Rodriguez to slap together a filler movie about Rodriguez's amputation fetish called "Planet Terror" which people liked better than the garbage that Tarantino shat out.

Ultimately, however, nobody wants to see a four hour movie so nobody did. When it tanked, (just like a '70s B movie), Tarantino threw a media tantrum and blamed the studio for failing him. Meanwhile, before its release, when the studio suggested that it might be prudent to drop the movie as two separate films in order to make it easier on the public, Tarantino threw a hissy-fit and accused the studio of not understanding his vision. QT fanboys were reported to be venting their angst all over the blogosphere.

Hero

Actually, he didn't make this one. But people assumed he did because, as the gullible sheep they are, he has his name on it, so he must have some involvement amirite?

OMG OMG GUN LEG!! oohhhh... *fap*fap*fap*

From Dusk till Dawn

A "half-decent" movie that involves vampires, but is still shit. The movie is well known for being including George Clooney, Mexicans, boobs, a loli and some christfag. Tarantino manages to make it through half of the movie before getting pwn.

Inglourious Basterds

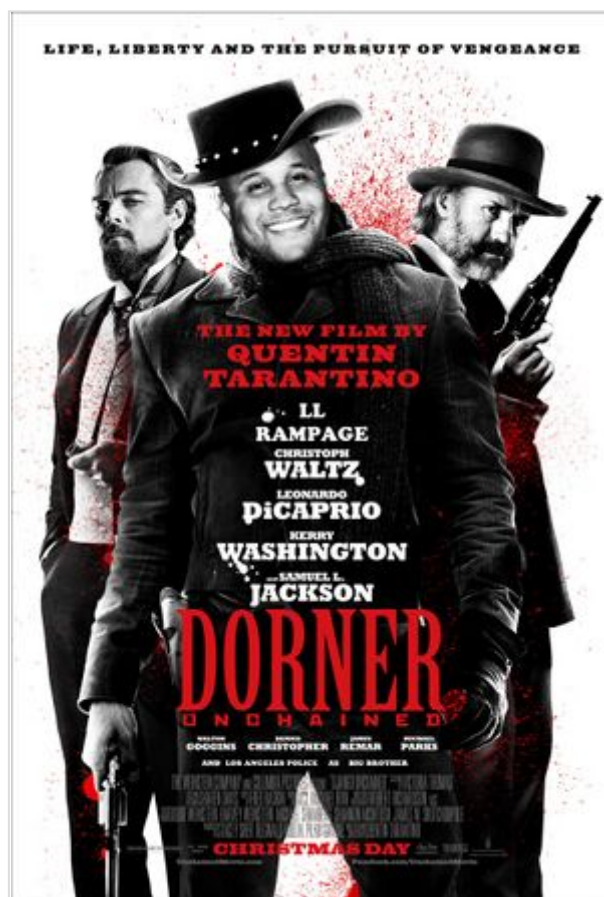

Horrible Jew propaganda that rewrites history to make jews look like something more than cowardly money lenders and future lamp shades. Probably the most overrated piece of shit ever made. Brad Pitt and a bunch of jew niggers team up kill Nazis and shout "Bear Jew" every 4 seconds. Tarantino apparently still hasn't learned that violence and random talk about bullshit does not make for a good movie. Basically, Nazis kill a Jewish girl's family (highlight of the film) and then over 9000 years later Brad Pitt and Eli Roth play cards in a basement for like 5 hours. Then a cinema burns down and a nigger flees the scene of the crime. To top off a great movie, Brad Pitt shits on a man's Chest. The End. Congratulations, you've squandered 2 and a half hours of your already miserable life on this shit.

Django Unchained

It's set in the South during slavery days and beginning in texas a bunch of uppity Niggaz are chained together with two rednecks guarding them on each side. Suddenly a fat German rides up on a horse with a buggy and speaks to one of the niggers, named Django about the whereabouts of his plantation or something (and the nigga speaks perfect English which is, in fact, not accurate since niggers during dat erruh was neva eddicated). The man on the horse goes Columbine and kills the slave owners, setting the niggas free, the German tells the niggers to head north to attain freedom when it's faster to just go to Mexico where slavery was also abolished, he takes Jamie Foxx along with him on a journey along the American South while teaching him how to pwn white folks for the lulz. Possibly the least insipid of QTs turds. Opened up December 25th, 2012.

Upcoming projects

Tarantino revealed at the British Academy of Film and Television Arts that he will be making a third and final "Rewriting history" themed movie. After that he will go back to 🇸🇪 sucking on toes while jacking off.

Truly a $5000 nigger.

Personal Life

His personal mission is to dupe the gullible masses by superficially pretending to challenge the status quo of current Hollywood studios (not "for serious" independent filmmaking, since it lacks balls and creative integrity), by working within it and being just as racist, unoriginal, misogynistic, base minded, and shamelessly cash greedy, but adding trendy and pretentiously obscure references and eye patches (stolen from Swedish film, 'Thriller: A Cruel Picture'). To anybody with a mental age above 13 who actually knows film (decidedly this is not the Tarantino audience), these references fail to be obscure, and reasonably come off as simply uncreative and hackneyed.

Quest 64

oh..

Quest 64 is a bit short on content, and may leave you wanting moar.

You can help by adding relevant content, pictures, links, drama and lulz. Be sure to improve the article, not mess it up. For tips, read The Manual.

This article has been tagged since May 23

Quest 64 is one of the two RPGs released for the Nintendo 64, and it was complete and utter dog shit. It was released for the sole purpose of tricking 13 year old boys into thinking that the Nintendo SIX-T-FOUR games would be in more than two genres. They should have known better because "Quest 64" is the apex of generic video game titles.

This game is possibly a sequel to the NES game, "Mystery Quest," also the worst game ever.

Gameplay

The prime objective of this game is to find your father and go to various areas in Celtland where you will use your magic stick to open chests which may or may not contain the key to the boss room. Eventually you come face to face with your arch-nemesis named Mammon, who looks like a mutated moth with an extra chromosome.

One prime feature of this game is to shove the controller pack three inches into your urethra so your game gets sixteen extra textures for your hero's costume. He can look like a plantation slave, a giant pair of microfiber tweed assless chaps, or a map of Gooch Plunder, Utah.

When attempting to interact with a door, NPC, or other element of game play, the player is only given one option on the action menu: "copulate."

After defeating the boss, the game freezes at the end title screen. This triggers the game cartridge's self-destruct mechanism and pages a nearby vagrant to collect the remains.

Many gamers have critiqued several elements of gameplay:

- The player has virtually no opportunities to become an hero.

The hero of Quest 64

- You had to shell out an extra $30 for a controller pack if you actually wanted to save your game.
- Every five minutes a sexy woman reminds you, in 64 bit detail, that you'll die a virgin.
- The system of experience and levelling through the required "pybism" mini-game.
- ????
- PROFIT!

Questionable Content

The first thing you notice is the shit quality of the drawing in the very first strip.

Questionable Content

is a webcomic for indie music whores who read Pitchfork and cum-guzzling hipster sheep who infest the college atmosphere of the United States and the rest of the developed world, trying to act as experts on music despite the fact that outside what Pitchfork tells them, they actually know little about music. And just like the name says, its content is indeed questionable. Drawn by Jeph Jacques, this comic has been around since like 2004 or something, but now it has a load of guest strips because he's too lazy to draw new comics every day, despite the fact that he makes his career out of this webcomic. Jacques is also notable enough for his own article on Wikipedia separate from his webcomic, strangely enough.

Wikipedia describes Questionable Content as a "slice-of-life webcomic", and true to this description, it often features love stories and intimate sexual situations where these androgynous hipster fags, like the main character Marten and his girlfriend (is it Dora? Is it someone else? It changes so much that it's hard to remember) talk bullshit about music any try to outsmart each other in terms of their musical knowledge, which is retarded as surely anyone with half a brain would just want to have sex rather than embarrass themselves by attempting to outsmart Mark Prindle whilst approaching orgasm. Note that the males in this comic are pretty much indistinguishable from the females due to their long hair and feminine features. It's also racist as it only features white people completely accurate, as niggers cannot read, and thus cannot enter college and azns would be killed by their parents if they chose to study something that isn't STEM.

After failing to appeal to hipsters, the comic switched over to trying to whore itself out to SJWs that are constantly unhappy that there are too many white characters in the comic so they repeatedly try to get its depressed, alcoholic creator to kill himself (he had several nervous breakdown thanks to his "fans"). Finally,

"King Crimson if the girl's freaky." (Emerson, Lake and Palmer if she's beyond just a bit freaky).

Wat

Jeph gave up and recently had his author surrogate character get fucked in the ass by a pre-op tranny, creating a new meme and giving new meaning to the term "self insert".

Questionable Content - The Webcomic

Questionable Content actually started in like 2003, around the same time as 4chan started, which makes it very, very old, so it's been going for around five years now as of the time of writing. Although it's difficult to recall, the first strip with its crappy drawing features a ronery Marten coming home to his pet robot computer, Pintsize, who downloads porn for him. Soon afterwards, however, he is joined by some girl called Faye who comes to live with him because she is homeless. Other characters are introduced and removed (early character Sara was eaten alive by a dinosaur according to the comic's author as he wanted to kill her off as she was boring). The comic features more women than it does men, to cater for the fapping needs of the stupid hipster cunts who read it and think that Mogwai and Mercury Rev are the pinnacles of music without realizing that outside of their little circle of young people, nobody cares about these bands. The characters are drawn extremely realistically these days for this reason, and are read to suppress the sexual and romantic fantasies of fat college kids of both genders who can't get laid (except with other fatties) but would like to think about doing so. It is notable for being a popular webcomic by an "artist" with absolutely no knowledge of or facility with pacing, acting, framing, dialogue, or any of the rudiments necessary to make a comic readable.

To fit with the themes of the young, intellectual, cool successful irreverent apathetic detached people who are known to everyone else as hipsters (although of course they themselves are in denial that they are hipsters, obviously) there's constant namedropping of shit bands, movies, writers, poets, philosophers, etcetera. This is because trying to look cool is the only way for them to get around the fact that none of them have a real job and are part of the privileged few who are not taking for granted that they were not born the child in Africa.

It's possible that Jacques is a closet /b/tard, as many of his comics make references to numerous memes (including over 9000 and mudkips) and he actually mentions 4chan in one episode. He has also recently created a character who is an obvious /b/tard — she talks about raids, is obsessed with manga, and has poor personal hygiene habits, all of which fit the stereotype of someone who spends their time on /b/, except her gender, which negates every other piece of evidence. Also, some argue that this is merely a result of the trickle down structure of memes, worming their way into any forms of media by people that have used the internet, even sparingly, because the aforementioned old memes such as over 9000 and mudkips can easily find their way into retarded webcomics, not necessarily through direct contact with /b/, but the unfortunate nature of cancerous newfags breaking rules 1 & 2 so incessantly that everyone on teh internets are aware of said memes.

Were someone who was not gay or a hipster to attempt reading this truly inspiring example of character development coupled with an excellent story, they would likely shit bricks at the realization that all of the characters are the exact same person. This is unfortunately not common knowledge, as the Jews have been covering this up while also pretending the holocaust actually took place.

Current Status

His entire audience as been replaced with SJWs that he hates but who's money he needs.

Over the last few years Jeph has been removing "problematic" content from past strips and flooding his comic with niggers, faggots, trannies, dykes and everything in between. Still, his fans are never satisfied and he constantly needs to up the ante whenever they find a new demographic they feel is underrepresented, to the point that, in the most recent strips, the main character starts dating a pre-op tranny and fucks it despite there never being any indication that he is gay.

Indie Tits

To further his ends, Jeph Jacques also maintains another webcomic, called Indie Tits. Basically, it features two birds talking to each other about moar hipster bullshit. It's rather unfunny, and it is thought that Jeph Jacques only draws it because he can't think of enough storyline for the steamy, sweaty drama that permeates Questionable Content.

And then this happened

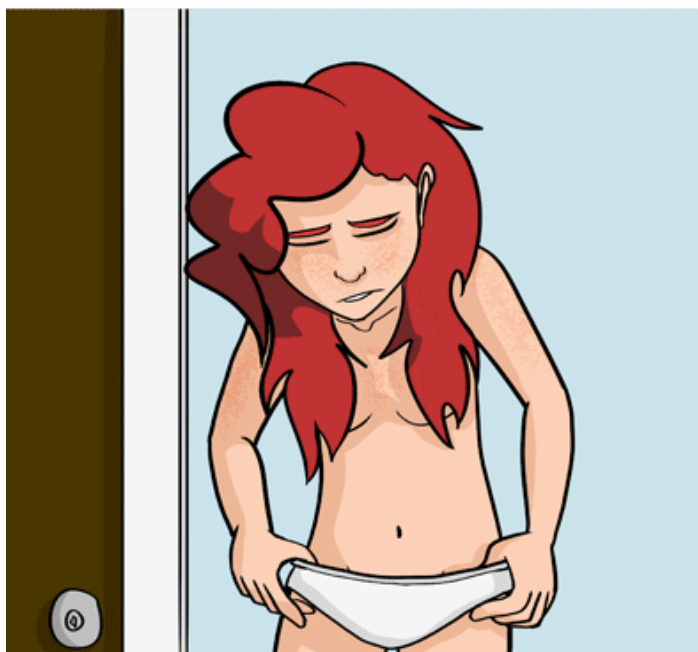

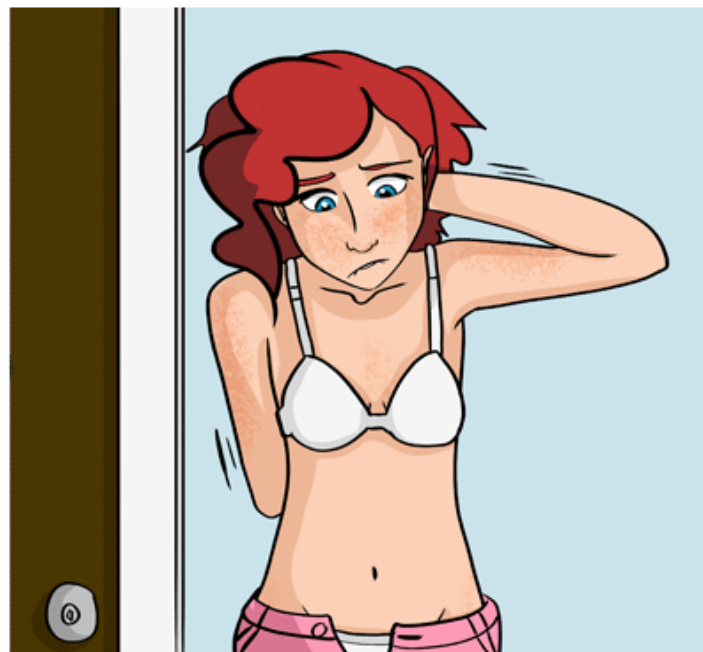

Towards the end of 2012, Jacques apparently had some kind of breakdown, drank an entire bottle of whiskey and stabbed himself in the hand. Why? because he drew one of his disgusting, fat characters in a bikini and his forum, that has been overrun with SJWs, deemed her to be too sexy. They felt he needed to show off the beauty of hambeasts by making her more gross.

Then, despite knowing he's a suicidal alcoholic, they started to harass him until he tried to kill himself.

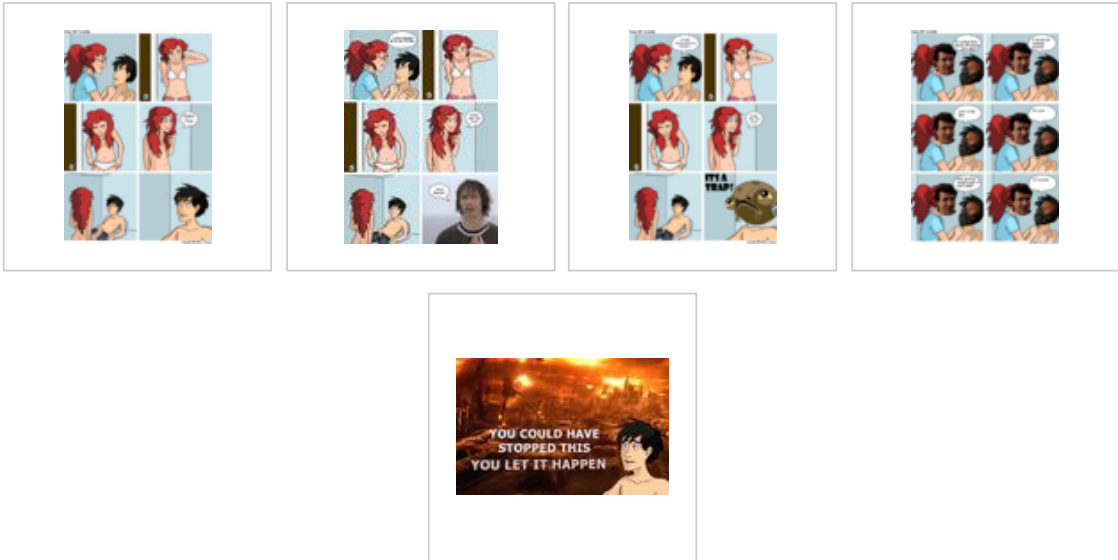

"You and Me"

In recent pages the main character started dating a tranny. When the comic got to the sex scene it produced a new loss.jpg

This is made all the more comical by Jeph's poor drawing skills resulting in "Marten" having what appears to be a look of barely masked disgust on his face at the sight of a disgusting tranny that he must now power through fucking (perhaps this wasn't an accident). It didn't take long from everyone on 4chan and 8chan to create about a million edits of it and make a new meme out of this shit.

Questionable logic

This article needs moar examples of questionable logic.
You can help by adding moar examples of questionable logic.

Ever find yourself in an argument with a fellow decent god-fearing citizen of the Internets on IRC, TOW, or a news site comment page? If you have, you definitely have been subject to a phenomenon known as Questionable Logic.

Practitioners of this fast growing alternative to critical thought can be identified by their supercilious, bureaucratic tone, their ever-present air of smugness, and the verbose, long-winded manner with which they carry on "conversations." Armed with a spell checker, a thesaurus, and a year and a half of community college, these warriors of the web are fully equipped to fill their run-on sentences with words like dynamic, zeitgeist, and portmanteau, to attempt to sound smarter than you.

At best these half-assed attempts at logic are misguided. At worst, they are so far from the mark that a retard would blink a few times then call bullshit. You know it's sad when aspies and retards are better at logic than a "normal" person is.

On the first day, God sprinkled moon dust in outer-space and KABOOM! the Earth.

A few purveyors of Questionable Logic

In the pursuit of creative interpretations of logic, there are a few groups that always stand out from the crowd. Their especially sharp rhetoric, very verbose vocabulary, and lack of common sense that makes retards look damn intelligent mark them as the some of the best of the worst when it comes to questionable logic.

This is not an exhaustive list. There are always more where these came from.

Furries

No other group but the furries can boast the claims that fapping to animals is not bestiality, pictures of children having sex is not pedophilia, and that a fetish is actually a lifestyle. When not cranking out shitty MS Paint porn, furries spend their time drooling over their thesauruses in order to try to convince each other they are smart or getting into full-blown wank-fests over their favorite artists. Many of them are living on Welfare yet still have "artists" on retainer. Then they complain about not having money for food and clothes even though they spent it all on poorly drawn dog cocks.

Totally Normal?

Abridged Examples of failed logic

- Cub art is freedom of speech
- Fursecution violates Godwin's Law
- It's not bestiality!

DevianTartlets

The fine fags of deviantArt spend all their time tracing eachother's shitty artwork, playing with lense flare, and claiming they are "real artists". Point out their poor anatomy, obvious tracing, or even just that they may be wrong and watch the fun begin!

When they aren't busy attempting to fake their way into being an artist these people like doing "drawing exercises" that take the form of crude memes. These are spread not to help others improve, but in the hopes that others will pick up the memes and link back to them in order to bring them popularity. Most Tartlets don't really care about improvement so much as being praised, which doesn't bode well for any "art site".

This will make me popular!

Abridged Examples of failed logic

- I'm a good artist because I have fans
- It's not a trace if you flip, recolor, and add cat ears!
- You aren't me so you have no idea how hard my life is! Thus I'm right because I deserve to be and you're not.
- It's not tracing if I used a grid to capture every detail, it's just really, really accurate!

Christians

According to Christians an invisible being created the world in six days from nothing, his former best bud is now the root of all evil, and a Jewish zombie that was his own father will save us all. Because of this, if you don't belive in this kind and loving faith from a kind and loving god you are going to suffer for eternity after death. Makes perfect sense!

He's back from the dead and wants your SOUL!

Abridged Examples of failed logic

- Condoms are evil because they prevent STDs and pregnancy
- One being can hear all the world whispering to him all at once
- You will totally come back from the dead someday and live in paradise.

Atheists

Atheists may be saner than the religious nutjobs, but they are not immune to questionable logic. The main problem is that they will attempt to do half-crooked research, leaning on a few hours on wikipedia to attempt to topple ideas from people who have spent a lifetime studying the same things, sometimes going as far as disqualifying valid information because the source holds "irrational beliefs". They also usually carry a thesaurus around for looking up smart sounding synonyms for words like "the" to appear smarter then they really are.

Abridged Examples of failed logic

- The universe was created when nothing exploded into everything
- I'm right because I went to college and believe everything Carl Sagan and Richard Dawkins throws at me
- You believe in invisible men, you can't have any idea how to think logically

Feminists and Social Justice Warriors

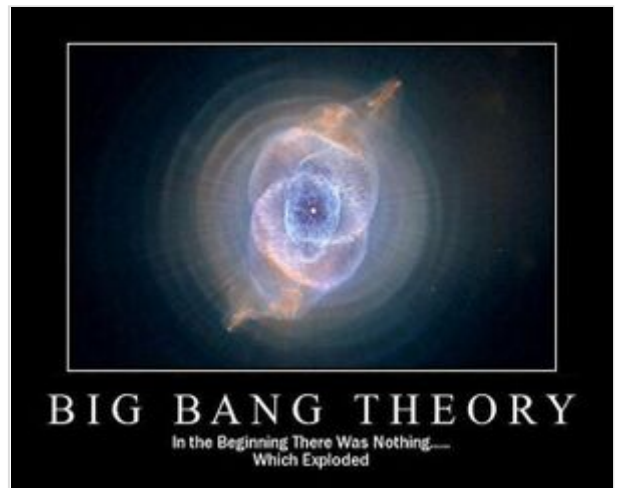

Feminists and their Social Justice Warrior followers claim they want equality... but in the end they only really want equality for all non cisgendered, homosexual females. Anyone else can go to hell. The vast majority of these creatures act out of a wounded sense of pride and self-worth which seems to inspire them to "overthrow" those who are keeping them "down". This means that any male happy with being a straight guy and any female who isn't an angry lesbian even if they have never heard of these people before is the enemy and making their life hell by simply existing. This is done in the name of equality, tolerance and improve the self worth of "everyone".

If any research has been done to back up their views it was half-hearted at best and mostly secondhand and thirdhand knowledge off wikipedia and various review sites. This is skirted over by fact that pretty much every last one of them went to college so they seem to think that they don't need to do any in-depth firsthand research. Many of them will cite themselves in their own sources list in an attempt to look like they did actual research.

If called on their faulty logic they hide behind their gender and/or sexual preference and play wounded to try to make you feel sorry for them or they will turn their army of Social Justice Warriors on you while crying about how you "Triggered them".

Abridged Examples of failed logic

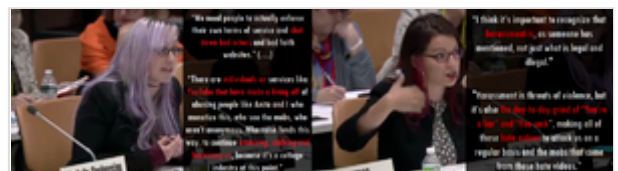

- Men didn't work to get where they are in life so it's perfectly OK if I sleep my way to the top.
- All sex involving men is Rape. ALL OF IT.
- Ad hominem is the best retort, especially if you can have an army to do it for you.
- Anything that doesn't agree with you is wrong and automatically hate speech from cis scum.
- Anything can be a Trigger and saying it's a trigger means they have to stop what they're doing and obey you.

Disprove me.

Damsels.

Saying something "sucks" is "hate speech".

- Rape is defined as "unwanted sexual stuff" so if I don't want them to think about me and they think about me, I was totally raped!
- Real women choosing to dress and act slutty is a mark of strength. Not real women choosing to dress and act slutty is sexism at work. Time to lament the lack of "strong women" in the media!
- Drunk women aren't responsible enough to make consent for sextime, unless a man agrees that they aren't.

Weeaboos

Weeaboos are people born anywhere but Japan who very much wish they were living in Japan. They base all of their knowledge and desire to live in Japan on various anime, hentai, comics and video games from the country and know almost nothing about the actual country outside of what it's exported media says. Due to spending most of their time wrapped up in Japanese media many of them are very poorly socialized, picked-on by others and have a marked detachment from the rest of the world rivalled only by otherkin and furies. This seeps over into their logic as well. Furthermore, be warned moar; there comes two flavors of weeaboo: Typical weeaboos who are in their teenager phase addled with hormones and the shit that quality state funded education loves to brainwash children with, and those who claim they are smarter, but lack what people call "insight" and "wisdom" or anything that all of ED lacks and magically attracts dramatastic lolcows like them straight on here.

How Japan views Weeaboos: startlingly accurate.

Abridged Examples of failed logic

- Anything from Japan is cool and unique and nowhere else has anything that can rival it.
- I am Japanese because I have watched/read/listened to tons of Japanese media.
- The Japanese are just like in their popular media- no further research required.
- The atrocities of the Imperial Japanese Army and Unit 731 never happened because Japanese people are the greatest in the world and are never wrong.
- Japanese things are interesting and if I'm into something interesting I am now interesting too!
- Going to Japan will fix all of my problems! I will be accepted by them, will get a Japanese girlfriend and will finally be someone.
- Nobody will care that I'm not Japanese as Japan isn't racist at all!

Fanboys in Denial

Any of the above groups will have some members in denial. They have all of the marks of a regular member of their group, however, they will shout from the rooftops how they totally aren't part of the group for some reason or other. They are ashamed of being what they are, yet seem to think that changing nothing and simply denying their fascinations will make them special and exempt them because "Not all of them are like that". This covers everything from Closet Furies to Republicans.

Abridged Examples of failed logic

- I'm better than those losers, because I "know" what makes my fandom special from doing research on it.
- My collection and tastes me better than "them" and that gives me every right to act like an ass to others in my fandom.
- What's this? Something cool that my local culture would like? I'll praise it to all of my being.
- What's this? Something weird that my local culture doesn't like? How dare they be such stupid freaks!
- When I get to live where/how I want to everyone will have to respect me and will never laugh at me again.
- When others mistreat me it's because they know I'm part of the fandom and not because they happen to be a jackass.
- I am a member of at least one community and regularly engage in activities that my fandom enjoys, but I'm totally not one of them!
- I will be judged for the stuff I did in some obscure community nobody has ever heard of so I have to say I don't have anything to do with the fandom.

Sure you're not...

Protecting Yourself

The only 100% effective way to make sure you are not swayed by these harpies' smooth sounding rhetoric on such important topics as The 2008 United States Presidential Election, Global Warming, and Internet Law is to abstain from communication completely. Alternately, you can try not being an impressionable fucktard (Warning, PRO-level only). However, there are a few telltale signs you might be speaking to someone who has invented their own system of logic and has neglected to mention their use of it in place of yours. A look at the lineup in their arsenal of bullshit:

Key words/phrases

- Furthermore
- Let's be objective
- No, your logic is flawed
- You don't know what you're talking about
- Rationally speaking
- Thus
- Wrong
- Prove it
- Anything displaying a condescending dismissive attitude as if to communicate they are not impressed

Quicksand Fetish

Tina and Haggar are going on a walk in the jungle. Tina, being a stupid cunt like all women, carelessly steps into some soft, watery mud along a riverbank. Haggar starts to sweat as Tina sinks to her hips into the muck. "Don't just stand there, help me get out of this mud!" The cries of Tina start to give Haggar an erection. He reaches down for a lump in his trousers, and starts to rub it gently. Tina works her way out of the mess, since it's actually impossible to drown in quicksand, and slaps Haggar in his panting face. Tina wonders why Haggar would rather rub his jollies than rescue a woman and get real pussy, but then she remembers that Haggar has a quicksand fetish.

A Quicksand Fetish is the bizarre arousal of sinking, or watching someone sink in a sticky, gooeey, or dirty pit of quicksand from an old jungle movie, or other stuff. The 'fetish' is generally associated with people living in the Southern United States, Indians, Indonesians, the British, furries, a lot of "girls" on Deviantart, and most infamously, Ukrops. Their fetish is all over Deviantart, furfag communities, and they even have dozens of porn sites dedicated to sinking.

Notable Quicksand TARTlets

History

A long time ago, back before Deviantart, a woman was walking with her boyfriend along the coast. Caught, she was, sinking with the tide rising. The local news covered this story, with stories of the tragedy of the woman who lost her life due to being caught, and drowned, in quicksand. Such inspired leagues of fat, middle-aged men to look at their TVs and think "yes, I can masturbate to this tragedy." Like all fetishists with horrible, sick mutations, they ran immediately to upload crayon drawings of their childhood idols sinking to their doom to the one place that would pander to such obvious mental growth malfunctions, the internet.

One of the earliest quicksand fetish sites began in the mid-90s with a site dedicated to some German's quicksand fanfictions and some furfag's artwork. After that one of the earliest porn sites arrived made by future Deviantart user  Kaolumbia. Fast forward a decade later when DevianTART arrived, the fetish heavily expanded to deviantart users, furfags, and several porn sites and forums dedicated to this.

But they don't have to just be fapping to badly made drawings either. They also take their hobby IRL in real quicksand/mud pits!

Types of pits

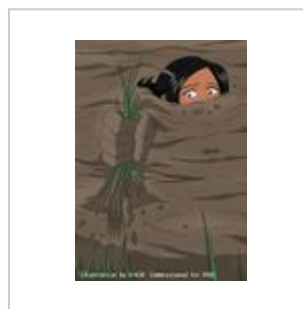

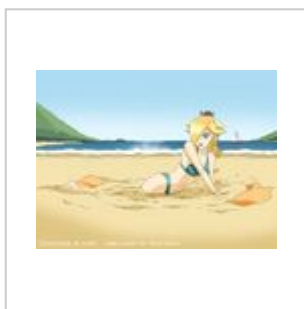

It's not just quicksand that gets them off. They'll sink in almost anything be it mud/slime/chocolate/jizz and they'll cum faster then a furry in a PetSmart. Hell, it doesn't even have to be women sinking, per-say, it can be furies, bad photoshops of porn stars, Second Life zombie-esque posing (yes, these are people that fap to Second Life. Let that sink in), and et cetera. Below are a list of some of the other ways they take their fetish.

Quicksand

The most basic of their hard-ons. Jungles? Swamps? Deserts? It's an all you can fap sex shop!

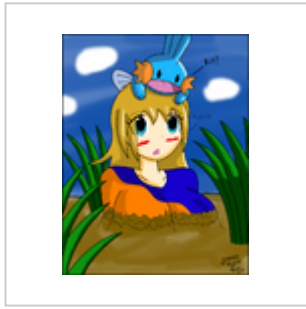

Here's my answer.

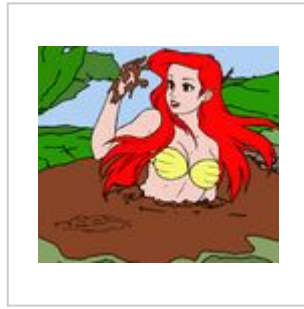

Someone somewhere just came to this.

Mud

Less then sexy. Only softcore sinkers do mud. They hardly even sink, they just roll around in it like the pigs they are.

The only one I liek.

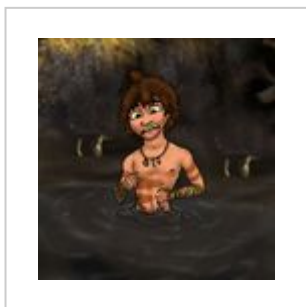

Obviously not traced.

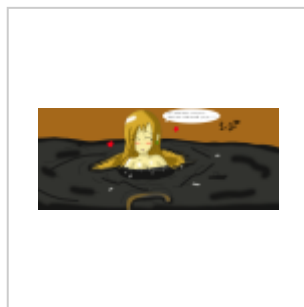

An example of one such softcore sinker proving me right.

Tar Pits

Fact: 100% of quicksand fetishists have been banned from the La Brea Tar Pits.

The first quicksand fetishist.

Don't interrupt a pretty lady when she's ~~becoming~~ Here enjoying herself.

Color Pencils? Fuck yeah!

Dumbasses in Distress

Since most sinking fetishists will most likely not be able to find their one true jungle girl to sink with, they just resort to the next best thing: Damsels in distress! Whether it be your big boobed jungle explorer, your big assed supergirl, or your next door neighbor, trick them into sinking to their doom and rescue them in an off chance that they'll go out with you! If they say no, just throw them back in and whack one off while you watch them drown. This will be a fun story for the cops!

At the end of the day this proves that Feminist Frequency has a point about media tropes. There, I fucking said it, you sick fucks. You ruined it for everybody.

How to troll a Quicksand Fetishist

- Remind them that you can't drown in real quicksand and will only die of exposure.
- Remind them that the last big quicksand scene was from Indiana Jones: Kingdom of the Crystal Skull.
- Remind them that if they jack off to women dying they literally want to die alone and virgins.
- Insult their quicksand porn actresses who they worship as goddesses.
- Raid the public forums. (They're paranoid as hell.)
- Call them weird.

A quicksand 'story'

So lately i have been trying to stay in shape, mostly by being outside and running and biking a around our local trails. The closest one near my house was once an old defunct rail line that was turned into a bike trail. So me being curious i rode (10 mlies) to an end where, i saw on google maps, was near a main line. I got there, and my gut instinct told me to go left. Im glad i did.

I came to what used to be a switch point, but was now an over grown sidding that went into the woods now cut off by the main line. Then i saw it. Just inbetween the two sets of tracks, was a patch of mud. I didnt think much of it. Hell i tested psrt of it out and it was really slippery. After almost falling on my face i went more in and discovered the mud was deeper. I couldnt help myself and took ALL MY CLOTHES OFF and jumped in. I sank up to my upper calves, and immedeatly remembered was going to need someplace to wash off. So i decacatly pulled

The 'Documentary'

In early 2015, it was announced on VICE that they were going to make a documentary on their freak fetish. Upon hearing the news, the little piglets all collectively creamed into their quicksand pits at once and stopped having jacking themselves off enough to jack off to a documentary on their freak selves. Below is the documentary itself.

Watch at your own risk.

Sinking to Rock Bottom

After years boiling in their giant muddy orgy, one literal nobody named 🦋 JangoFlay was enjoying a nice slow sink to death when suddenly he realized something was wrong. He looked around and saw all the pandering to the producers and decided that this must be stopped. But he was a literal nobody so he needed to take drastic measures. In order to warn of the Jewish menace, he went to their biggest congregation, 🦋 Quicksand-Group.

However, sinkers were too deep in their masturbation pits to listen, and b&d his ass. However, like cancer he came back with vengeance under a new account pretending to be Hackers on Steroids.

Journals/Personal

To all QS lovers,

Recently, a discussion began where people voiced their opinion that Mud P Visuals videos have seriously declined in quality and yet they continue to go up in price. They charge extra for high def, which is horribly outmoded and unfair.

An attempt was made to bring this to Mud P Visuals attention. Not only was it ignored, but Mud P Visuals started to spread out right lies to discredit anyone speaking against them. That is fowl. Extremely fowl.

If it wasn't a place where you spend your hard earned money, I'd shrug it off. But producers make the most money out of all producers. Your money. For them to treat customers like this is unforgivable. It's a direct smack in the face.

Therefore I call for an immediate boycott of all things Mud P Visuals, including any producer who is under their umbrella. Cancel your club membership and don't buy their product on other sites either.

It's the only way to bring about change. Ignore this and they grow stronger. Prices go up, and the abuse continues. The fact that they have to lie and sow seeds of discord should say it all.

You don't have to do this, but how else is it going to end? How else will there be change? It doesn't require you to speak up, to make yourself known, just refrain from buying their product. When income drops, I promise you they'll change their tune or face going out of business. You have the power.

We must try. We must attempt to take this community back.

We are The Collective, find us, join us.
Resistance is futile.

Viva La Quicksand!

The reactions were as followed.

After banned again, he began to cry muddy tears and created another account posting his tl;dr manifesto on the group.

You all know who this is. I make no pretense that I'm someone else. I was forced to create another account because I was banned and when I attempted to speak to people via PM, I was accused of "Controlling" things. So here I am.

I'm going hard in this letter. You want truth, then truth you shall get. I've been around this community a long long time. Back when people like Donna, Kaol, Walter Muddy, Der Mud Gecko, Ol'boggy, Messy Chris, Wayne Coulter, and others were sharing their love all things QS. Many of you are of a different generation; you didn't know the community then. All you have of back then is a shell of it on the internet archive. As a result of this, you don't know any better, you don't know what you're missing. You belong to the era of the Pducers.

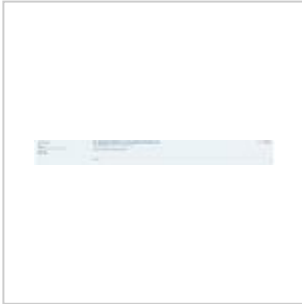

You want me to list the problems, tell you why I'm upset? Well hold on, cause you're getting it

Quicktime

QuickTime is a popular Virus often found on Mac OS X, but is commonly mistaken as a media player brought to you by the lovely people from Apple. Like plenty of other Apple software, it is offered to you free of charge, but will consistently harass you to upgrade to a paid version.

The QuickTime media player is perfect for infecting your browsers to prevent you from downloading any audio files. Any attempt to do so will instead open a QuickTime window and freeze all of your apps until it manages to buffer a 16kb midi file. This is part of Apple's philosophy to make your audio enjoying experience as grueling and frustrating as possible.

Features

No media player would be complete without features. QuickTime has features such as:

- Opening a new window
- Saving a movie you already have open
- Fullscreen viewing
- Viewing movie properties
- Providing you with ample time to go and get some snacks/cook dinner/die of old age before your movie begins

These features, however, are only available if you spend $30 to buy the pro version, and are definitely not available on any other media player.

Fucking useful, Apple, fucking useful

Though all the basic features are only available in the Pro version, you can get helpful features such as playback speed and audio balance in the free version. This just further proves Apple is full of Jew and cannot write good software worth a damn for any operating system. It should also be noted that QuickTime cannot play DVDs or Blu-ray discs. If you want to view these formats, you must download another player or delete System32.

Alternatives

QuickTime for PC is in essence, a way for Apple to justify their own claims that PC's are inferior by hijacking your format settings and running useless crap in the background. Its footprint is so large that even fast PC's are permanently bogged down. Even if you uninstall it, the damage has already been done. The solution is to install QuickTime Alternative instead of Apple's useless piece of shit for software.

Why the Need For Another Player

Some argue that QuickTime runs better than any other player. This is bullshit, and these people are trolling you, or just accept anything Steve Jobs summons upon them. Even POS Windows Media Player runs better than QuickTime.

Quinton Reviews☆ aka Quintex96☆, QuintexTheAntiRacist☆, QuintexUTTP☆, or Quinton the Soyboy☆ (Powerword: Quinton Kyle Hoover) is a 28-year-old disgusting, fat, retarded YouTuber from Iowa. His content consists of him reviewing shit nobody cares about to pander to the braindead 6 year olds who watch his boring videos. While he isn't wasting his time on his content, he is seen on Twitter going on about various things like how much he loves Spongebob, Ben Shapiro being a transphobic nazi or some random unfunny crap that had crept out of the abyss of the endlessly retarded brain of his. Quinton grew in subs by attacking GradeAUnderA, reviewing cartoons, or through his Fallen Titans series, then due to being an unfunny Redditfag, he felt obligated to force unfunny leftist politics into his videos which would give his videos a slimy Jimmy Kimmel feel to them. He supports demonetization along with being one of the many wastes of life that support Viacom and gets a boner whenever Viacom comes in to save the day by flagging someone's videos for copyright infringement, then cries like a bitch whenever people call him out for being a corporate lapdog. He has no original thoughts or opinions besides those that the worst of MSM and the normiesphere download into him. Quinton has even gone as far as cutting ties with his own friends just to gain some ad revenue since he is that much of a soulless person.

Generic Goony Bearded Faggot #4527: Quinton

Quinton Reviews is basically the Benedict Arnold of YouTube - a yes man who supports every fucktarded decision that YouTube makes because he's a shill for mega leftist media corporations that are loosely backed by the Communist Chinese. His dicksucking for the corrupt female executive of YouTube can even go as far as wanting sex with her. Quinton is a creepy stalker that loves to worship Susan Wojcicki for simply being female, hailing her as a champion among female heroes. Quinton has also given money to Susan Wojcicki for being a brave women who strongly opposed Trump along with donating money to the ADL using money from the various people that support Quinton through Patreon or ad revenue.

Things That Quinton Reviews Support

- The Areminan Genocide
- Killing ideological opponents
- Arresting Count Dankula
- Article 13
- SOPA/PIPA since he hates those pesky pirates that run the good work that (((corporations))) strive to make, he also cites Al Franken as the man who influenced his stance on the bill.
- Flagging videos criticizing him.
- FOSTA/SESTA aka banning lewds.
- Defending High Guardian Spice from evil Nazis
- Doctor Who after it jumped the shark by becoming Nurse Who. He thinks that those that do not like the new Doctor Who should drink bleach.
- According to him The Last Jedi is one of the greatest films of all time and anyone who hates it isn't a real Star Wars fan. The Last Jedi according to him is on par with the likes of Citizen Kane
- He unironically enjoys Foodfight! by calling it the best film since Citizen Kane.
- Project Dragonfly (Google's cancelled project to transform the web into China. Luckily it was cancelled due to Google's own leftist employees being against it.)
- Cashing on people's death like he did with Hillenburg
- Getting JonTron blacklisted from voice acting within A Hat in Time and Yooka Laylee
- Wishing death on JonTron
- Harassing Mr. Enter accusing him of being a Comicsgate moron while at the same claiming that he bullied him.
- Wishing death on those evil racist gamers
- Praising Gamergate back when he was "redpilled"
- Praising everything Lindsay Ellis, Bob Chipman, Nash, AniMat, JelloApocalypse, Spoony, Crash Thompson, Jim Sterling, or any NPC Wojak reviewer on both YouTube and Twitter
- Defending Mundane Matt along with his decision to randomly false flag channels.
- Celebrating the attempted murder of Rand Paul
- Banning edgy humor
- Being a lazy fuck
- Ruining Ron Paul's life. According to him Ron Paul is Lord Voldemort. At least until Drumpf took that title.

Go Woke Go Broke

Quinton's UTTP persona back when he was a 13-year-old boy

- Communism (It wasn't true communism this time around)
- Stephen Colbert, ironically he used to hate him when he was actually funny during the Bush era.
- YouTube Rewind 2018
- Faggotry. No, I am not just talking about gay rights, I am talking about FUCKING FAGGOTRY!!!
- ADL, SPLC, and the YouTube Troll Police
- ~~Mr. Enter (only after getting called out for blatant A-Logging)~~ Nope, he thinks Mr. Enter harassed him on twitter.

Quinton In the YouTube Troll Police

Under his old channel, QuintexUTTP, he strongly opposed trolling on YouTube. Unlike most of the UTTP, Quintex actually believed that the goals of the UTTP were legit and not the results of a troll campaign, but he later left the UTTP and renamed his channel QuintexTheAntiRacist during the 2012 election in order to prevent Americans from electing presidential candidate Ron Paul. Quintex wanted to use the UTTP in order to transform the website into his own safe space but he left the UTTP after figuring out that the UTTP is a troll group that didn't really care about stopping trolls. Quinton made many hit videos such as WHY THE MOVIE 300 PROMOTES RACISM, U CAN'T BREAK THESE CUFFS BUT YOU ALSO CAN'T BREAK THE FACT THAT THIS MEME PROMOTES WHITE SUPREMACY, RON PAUL IS VOLDEMORT, and THE UTTP MUST GET SOPA PASSED!!! A CALL TO ARMS!!! The cringe from his older channels were purged by him due to backlash. Very soon after Gamergate began to take off, Quintex began to seize an opportunity. He was going to take the "redpill" in order to leech off of skeptic YouTubers. At one point his older content was archived but these archives are nowhere to be found on the web. The archive and all back up archives were deleted right after EmpLemon asked him for an interview. Quinton hoped that no one would know about his older obscure channels which were full of way more cringe than his current one. After deleting his old accounts relating to the UTTP, Quinton began to take his channel to a new direction.

Quinton's Life At Home

Quinton the narcissist, giving this article free exposure as he goes off on his usual butthurt whining on Twitter whenever anyone criticizes him.

Quinton is revealed to have terrible audio while playing with legos

Quinton is known for being like Christian Weston Chandler living a life of nothing. He spends his time playing with legos like a savage. The legos he uses are pre-made sets or random meshes of colors. His lego creations are his version of Sonichu. Quinton is not really that creative. His creations with legos are pleb tier and scream Sonichu. Quinton eats chips like a slob masturbating to his favorite waifu, Susan Wojcicki.

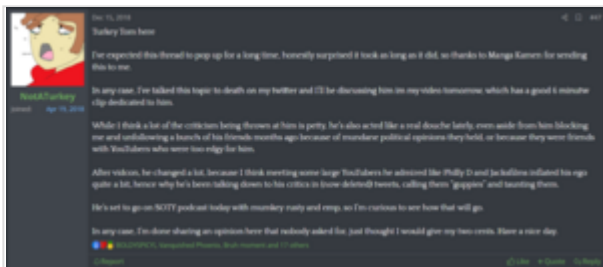

Quinton's Time Being "Redpilled"

Quinton claims to have been redpilled at one point which is complete bullshit. Quinton was never redpilled since his so called redpilling was only agreeing with a few skeptic YouTubers that aren't even right wing in any way due to Gamergate opening up the "redpill" to him. During his time as a "redpilled" YouTuber, he ripped off various big Gamergate YouTubers like MundaneMatt who were big on the platform at the time. Quinton has constantly made jabs on his older Gamergate self constantly attacking the redpill on twitter. He made videos criticizing the Women's March along with other centerist view points in hope to gain a bigger audience. Once his channel grew large enough, Quinton realized that he did not need these "toxic fans" anymore so he decided to make his channel look like what it was always supposed to have looked like from the beginning without the huge presence of Gamergate, a soulless NPC channel that shoves NPC talking points down the viewer's throat with zero subtlety just so Quinton can get some ad revenue with the NPC left.

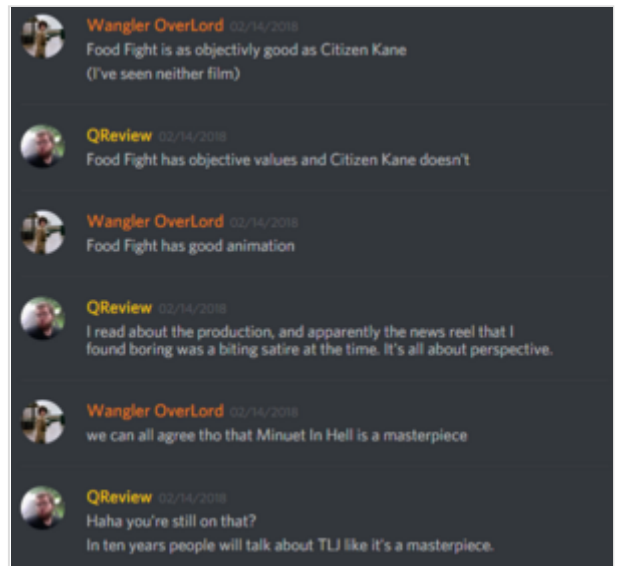

Quinton claims that being redpilled will make you a hambone.

How Quinton Got Away With Blatant Faggotry For Such a Long Time

Quinton believes that TLJ and Foodfight! are cinematic masterpieces.

Quinton's current incarnation started out by reviewing mundane shit that nobody cares about like sequels to those stop-motion Rankin/Bass Christmas movies, and chasing trends like Don't Hug Me I'm Scared theories, hoping to make it big while he stole content style after content style, until he got big ripping into GradeAUnderA because it was popular at the time. Following the next year or so, none of Quinton's other videos amassed over 100,000 views each other than his reviews, since nobody cares about Quinton's opinions, and he was just riding off of I Hate Everything's bandwagon of reviewing knockoffs. His trend chasing became so shallow and pathetic that whenever YourMovieSucks released his Childhood Trauma series and contacted other Youtubers, Quinton complained about how "some horsefucker" forced him to make a review of some baby shit that scared him, despite YMS not even acknowledging Quinton's existence. Quinton took it in stride, having been rejected from the cool kids' lunch table all throughout high school, then telling everyone how he was so much better than them, and nobody believed him.

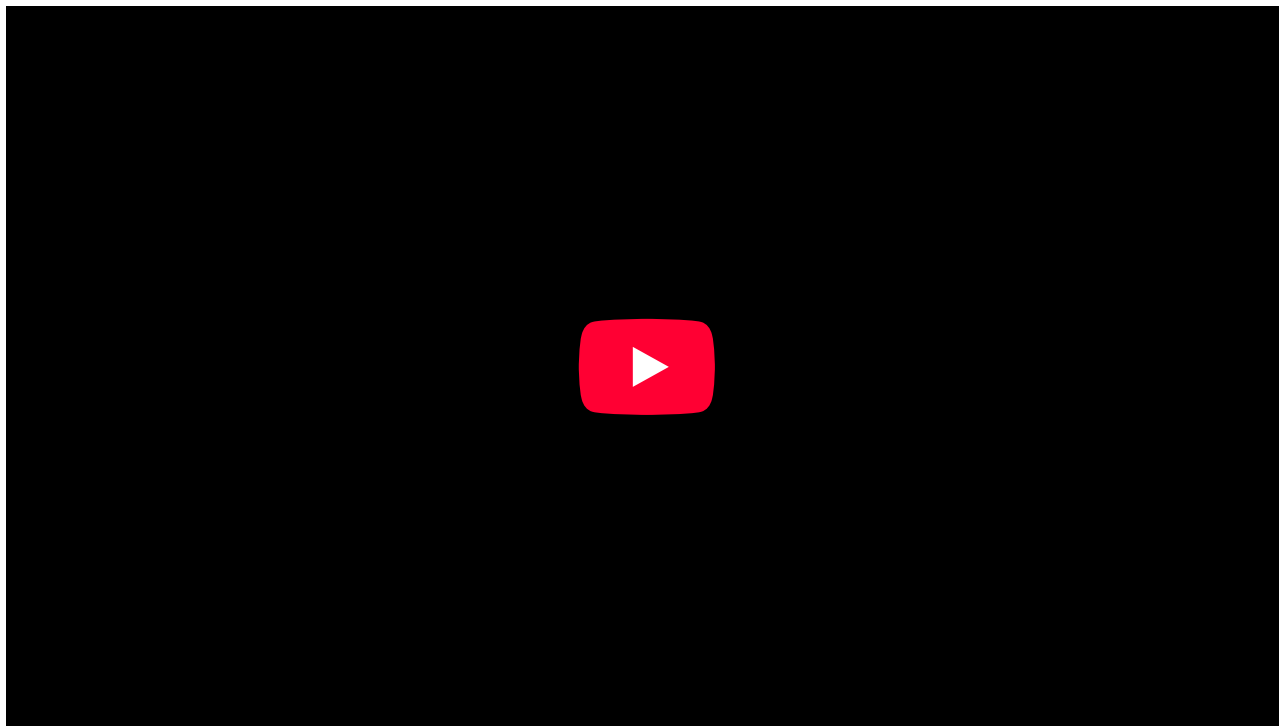

Almost immediately afterwards, Quinton started advocating openly for making clickbait his videos, and started attacking Game Theory, GamerFromMars, and a shitload of other channels he's jealous he'll never be as original as. If you go to his most recent uploads, you'll find a sea of content that's either stolen ideas from better Youtubers, shitty attack videos, and clickbait shit riding whatever trend is in at the moment. In one year since, he grew to over 300k subs, and decided that he could finally dictate to world the grand discovery that clickbait and chasing trends would grow your channel, and started inserting his NPC politics more obnoxiously. Meanwhile, his videos are so vapid and low-effort that he can pump them out alone (he sperged out and fired his editor for not drinking soylent) on a weekly basis, but fails to get above 100k views for anything that isn't a trending topic despite his 323k subs.

Quinton's channel would die naturally in a few years, if not for one caveat: he rarely gets a third of his subscribers to watch his crap anyway. Quinton's channel can't die if he's already dead.

Slapfights with Better Youtubers

It's easy being a shill on YouTube these days. Real channels on modern YouTube usually do not break over 100,000 views unless ((they)) decide that the videos can be subversive. The best way to avoid being called a degenerate is to find low hanging fruit and make fun of them in order to make the commentator seem like a smart person. The difference between someone like Mumkey Jones and someone like Quinton is that one is making fun of someone for comedy while a soyboy like Quinton is attacking someone just for social justice brownie points. Mumkey doesn't need to take the moral high ground since he and his viewers are aware that he is a human, meanwhile Quinton takes the moral high ground to try to mask how much of an insecure and unfunny virgin he is. Quinton can't seem to separate the content from the person giving the content when viewing any channel. The moment any person has a thought that goes against Quinton's accepted beliefs, Quinton will attack that person calling him a bigot. Over time Quinton would create many enemies for himself due to being a completely brain-dead sperg. If you like this cocksucking faggot, unsubscribe. Please unsubscribe, this man is a disgrace to humanity and should hang himself for his cancer content.

Quinton brings up am unnecessary and pointless ORANGE MAN BAD rant on his video about Logan Paul.

Clinton.. er, I mean.. Quinton has predictably made fun of Trump simply to get some social justice brownie points in his efforts to appear smart. His Trump rants are so generic and predictable that they are not even worth anyone's time. His rants are the same as the Tumblr people that believe that Harry Potter is a true work of art instead of being some overrated pile of crap that gets way more credit than it deserves. Quinton loves to especially bring up Trump on videos where Trump is not even related to the topic he talking about, exemplifying why leftists today are unfunny - for the same reasons Bush Republicans were unfunny back in the day - they're a bunch of crybaby faggots that act as a moral authority on what is right or wrong.

Things He Ripped Off From Better Youtubers

- Angry Video Game Nerd - Pretty much his entire style of sitting in front of a collection of plastic crap and getting overly-angry at some mundane cash-grab is derivative of more better "reviewers." AVGN is just one of the more famous early examples.
- EmpLemon - After Lemon released his video on why Spongebob is so great, basing his video on how Squidward was essentially a vessel for the manchildren who watched the show. Two months later, Quinton released the modestly titled "Spongebob was the Best Show Ever," plagiarizing a lot of EmpLemon's points at the beginning of it. Since Quinton didn't bother to do any research or original ideas, he spent the half of the video's runtime with some bullshit story of how he used to also watch mainstream cartoons and flips through a coloring book.
- YourMovieSucks - Go back and read the beginning to this section you illiterate dumbass.
- IHateEverything - Quinton started reviewing more knockoff movies after IHE released his "Search for the Worst: Not Disney" video, but doesn't actually review anything outside of what other Youtubers already covered and memeshit, because that would involve work.
- RalphTheMovieMaker - Shamelessly stole Ralph's Ghost Shows Suck with a skit fuckfest Every Ghost Show. To be fair on Quinton's part, this is probably his funniest video since his friends actually have personality, and there's people besides Quinton talking.
- RebelTaxi, The Roundtable, PhantomStrider, Valiksibum, AniMat, TheMysteriousMrEnter - The Emoji Movie, Rapsittie Street Kids, Fairly Odd Movie, SpongeBob, and The Simpsons (Editor's note: Yes, this isn't a joke; if Phantom, Valiks, AniMat, and MrEnter are better Youtubers; that's when you fucked up. That's how pathetic Quinton is.)
- Turkey Tom, LSMark, Pyrocinical, Leafy, JonTron - Shtick stolen from either these commentary channels; despite that he "hates commentary channels" and that he "doesn't want any association with the commentary community."
- Fredrik Knudsen, The Right Opinion, Larry Bundy Jr., Internet Historian, BehindTheMeme - The "Fallen Titans" series is pretty much a low-effort version of any of the video essays these channels produce. Quinton of course picks basic shit that everyone already knows about, because doing anything else would require work.

Adventures in Being a Hateable Cuckold

Aside from being an obnoxious faggot who's eyes are way to far apart, Quinton is a manchild who tries to bully people like Mr. Enter, MauLer, JonTron, Turkey Tom, and Mumkey Jones just for some negative attention, just so he can get a couple dollars from ad revenue from 13 year old boys watching him make a complete sperg of himself on a weekly basis. Due to this, he's had quite a few pissing matches against better ~~Youtubers~~ people than he can hope to be.

Quinton Gets Caught Using Sock Accounts to Attack Mr. Enter

One of Quinton's first direct slapfights was against Mr. Enter a man that Quinton accused of being a far-right Nazi over one review. Quinton could not get the message that Mr. Enter was trying to convey with that fat skull of his. The truth is that Mr. Enter was only trying to provoke common sense by giving an honest negative review on the High Guardian Spice trailer for being a pile of garbage that panders to the mentally insane Tumblr audience. His rivalry with John Enter can be compared to the Irate Gamer's anger towards the Angry Video Game Nerd. Like the Irate Gamer, Quinton is a jealous knockoff of many of the YouTubers he rips off.

Quinton when he is attacking Mr. Enter using his socks, Quintex96, or when he is going on a tangent against his political opponents on his main accounts he usually likes to scream like any good old fashioned NPC would do, screech like an autist. Quinton loves to A-Log Enter simply because Enter is more famous than him. Quinton Reviews like many other cartoon reviewers believe that they can mock Enter just to have the moral high ground even when their content is just as terrible if not worse. Enter at least is not a SJW who only gets views by following trends despite whatever flaws he has as a person or a reviewer. The only thing that separates Quinton from John Enter is how much far bigger of a cuckold he is when being compared to Enter. Quinton would later apologize to him in order to gather sympathy from the Enterbots only to backtrack his bogus apology a few days later by claiming that he is a target of bullying from Mr. Enter and his fans.

Quinton's Slap fight with MauLer, Rags, and Star Wars Fans

Quinton Reviews shows up on MauLer's podcast acting like a faggot

Previous Video | Next Video

Quinton had many requests from various people to review this film. People from his discord group already knew that Quinton had already given praise towards the Last Jedi but what was missing from his reviews is his thoughts on why the Last Jedi is not a bad film. Unfortunately, Quinton couldn't list anything good about the objectively shit film and just dismisses critics of the film as racist bigots, as if anyone except stupid manchildren like the new Star Wars movies. Instead of doing the impossible and defending this piece of shit film, Quinton threw his hands up in the air and said that bad things don't make a bad movie bad, and anyone who didn't like The Last Jedi were all just altrighters who listen to Alex Jones, never once considering that some people are sick of uninspired remakes and sequels that can never hope to be better or close to being as good as their original counterparts.

Since he couldn't give any reasons on why this film isn't shit without the Star Wars brand, this pissed off a lot of Star Wars fanboys to attack Quinton and call him for the hack that he is. Quinton would later tard rage on Twitter by calling his former fans of his content bigots for trashing his terrible skill piece. One of the first big people that Quinton would anger is a YouTuber who goes by the name of MauLer. This slap fight started when someone on Quinton's discord disagreed with how Quinton was handling his review on The Last Jedi, and Quinton himself decided to paraphrase and misrepresent viewpoints from MauLer and his buttbutty Rags, two people so thorough that it takes them LITERALLY FIVE FUCKING HOURS to review a twelve-minute soytuber video, specifically attacking them for their views on subjectivity verses objectivity - without actually proving they ever said anything and coming off as if he's talking out of his ass, per usual. Quinton and MauLer were originally going to not talk with each other in hopes to not stir up further drama and just cut ties in a more silent matter but due to Quinton being a slimey cunt, but then Quinton decided to attack him with a garbage parody video anyway showcasing Quinton's butt hurt towards his critics. MauLer responded by making Quinton the running joke which he is on his Podcast, even letting flamboyant furfag the Dishonored Wolf take a few whacks at making mocking the cheese golem.

To try to pass off as anything except assblasted, Quinton started making making pins in his videos and hearts towards much better Youtubers telling him to fuck off, then responding with dismissive crap like "lol haha" or "I don't care" to show that he really for realzies doesn't care at all about what people think, going for that punk counterculture image while praising multi-billion dollar Hollywood productions.

Quinton Loves Violence

Quinton unfairly compares every racist gamer to JonTron

One day a random person dressed in black decided to kill He-Who-Must-Not-Be-Named aka ~~Donald Trump~~ Rand Paul as an act of bravery. A hero appeared, it was a dream come true, finally justice was going to come to America. The MSM also praised this decision to kill an "evil Nazi" by hailing the man who would rip Rand Paul's rib cage as a hero even though he did nothing to save America. What did exactly did Rand Paul do to deserve this? Call out the banks for their crimes? Talk about auditing the Fed? Well I don't know. Quinton of course shares the same opinion as the MSM. The MSM inspired him to say the brave nu-male thing on twitter. He began to call for the death of JonTron wishing him death by constantly making posts about how he wants JonTron's rib cage ripped off so that he can send JonTron to the hospital along with any gamer who likes his content.

Quinton Reviews has admitted on twitter that Susan Wojcicki arouses him. Quinton wants to stick his 3 inch dick into Susan Wojcicki. He has made attempts to call his lover using his phone. Susan of course ignores him referring to him as a creep. But the stalking does not end with Susan. He has also stalked random black women on Facebook. Quinton is mainly into fat black women. He wants some of that chocolate to come to his mouth. Quinton hopes to one see that he has a black wife instead of a white wife unless of course the white wife is part Jewish or is Susan.

Quinton Backstabs His Best Friend

Quinton accuses his best friend of being a Nazi

Quinton used to be a huge fan of Turkey Tom until Mr. Enter pointed out that Turkey Tom was being an asshole by calling Enter a pedophile without evidence. If Enter had never talked about his "mean trolls" Quinton probably would have never realized how much of a faggot Turkey Tom is & watched Turkey Tom's video that he criticized for being too harsh or have even cared about it due to the fact that Quinton had spammed Enter's channel using 5 different sock accounts (according to what Enter said in his video about his trolls) thinking that Mr. Enter was a Comicsgate moron. Quinton only cared about Enter only after finding out he was part of an autistic YouTube hate bandwagon which made him feel Troll's Remorse. Turkey Tom has since apologized for his mean video to multiple people on the web who have kept bugging him even after he gave an apology and took down his own video proving that even after giving an apology, SJWs are never satisfied. Quinton is one of many people who are still angry at him which made Turkey Tom angry since Quinton was one of the first major people in the YouTube community to support Turkey Tom's channel. Quinton argues that Turkey Tom has changed the style of his content to that of a more harsh Nazi oriented type of channel despite Turkey Tom actually being less edgy over time as a result of having to take down his video on Mr. Enter for drawing the line between edgy humor and slander. Turkey Tom tried to talk things out with Quinton, but Quinton realized that he can just block his former best friend on Discord and social media hoping to never associate himself with a Nazi again. SJWs like Quinton are never satisfied until a "Nazi" finally dies.

Quinton Vs. PewDiePie

Quinton hates PewDiePie and can't stand the sight of his channel and by definition supporting T-Gay in his hatred, but unlike in the past where people hated him for being cancer Quinton like many MSM hacks believe that PewDiePie is part of some Neo-Nazi group and even if PewDiePie was actually a Nazi it doesn't change the fact that PewDiePie still has a bigger heart than someone like Quinton or Joe Bernstein. Quinton being the soulless man that he is, hates PewDiePie simply because he represents the old way of YouTube before the media conglomerates transformed it into TV lite aka a place where anyone can be a star without the influence of big corporations aka True ~~Communism~~ Capitalism. Quinton being a center left mouth piece of CNN and Colbert did not like that. He hated the idea of True ~~Communism~~ Capitalism. He would prefer something better, bootleg Chinese style communism where only those who are part of the safety bubble known as the safe space are allowed to think. Quinton believes that calling PewDiePie a Nazi will generate ad revenue for his channel. Quinton has since kept his viewers hostage by using his money to shove his fat face with soy in his mouth. Quinton made his video defending T-Series from PewDiePie only for his audience to completely dislike his video. A few minutes later Quinton deleted his video and tried to delete any re-uploads of his garbage video. Despite going through the efforts of deleting his own content, Quinton was more angry at the fact that PewDiePie brought someone on his show during one pointless video who was slightly conservative than the fact that PewDiePie was FUCKING NAZI SCUM!! Quinton purchased a Ben Sharpio body pillow in his anger so that he can beat him up under his sick twisted fantasies.

EmpLemon talk about Quinton's channel

EmpLemon has pointed out that Quinton is the Benedict Arnold of YouTube, a traitor to the YouTube community after viewing Quinton's twitter which reveled that Quinton is a top tier cuck that is intolerant to those who hate him. On his twitter Quinton praised YouTube for deleting Mumkey Jones's channel over an obvious satire video. The video Mumkey Jones uploaded give him the Alex Jones treatment from the Silicon Valley oligarchs. He also praised Joe Bernstein for calling PewDiePie a Nazi. EmpLemon later hoped to get him to show up to his podcast only for Quinton to screw his audio on purpose so that the video would be hard to edit causing the interview to be uploaded at a later date.

EmpLemon goes easy on Quinton.

Quinton delivers a rebuttal towards EmpLemon

A few days later, Quinton decided to show up to the podcast again in order to talk to EmpLemon. Quinton does not want to do podcasts anymore since EmpLemon has roasted him badly causing Mumkey Jones to not show up for the sole purpose of making the SOTY Aspie friendly. Within the podcast, Quinton revealed that the tweet that angered the community only lasted for a few minutes. He should have realized that the moment something is up on the internet, it is there forever. But since he's a massive newfag, he is forever to be mocked by the internet at the dispense for lulz.

Quinton so far seems to have backtracked on every statement that he made in order to save his face from those "mean trolls" because he was just trying to be a brave guardian protecting kids from the evils of conservatism, same-sex marriage, and stable family structure. Back in reality, the conservative guest that PewDiePie brought in for a one time minor video is a fucking meme who somehow triggers soyboys like Quinton. PewDiePie could have brought in an actual neo-nazi who actually advocates for a white ethnostate instead of some center right Jewish man that screams at Trump all day. The truth is that Ben Shapiro is a safe conservative whose only real difference from your standard NPC center-right Fox News host is that he is slightly better at speaking to his audience and understands the youth better than a Bill O' Riley (who is pretty much irreverent to everyone except that one crazy uncle that screams about Obama at the dinner table). This didn't stop Quinton from guzzling ten liters of Muslim semen and spouting off all of the generic insults that leftists always use, nor answer for why Quinton is okay with the left shoving politics FUCKING EVERYWHERE. EmpLemon gave Quinton the best chance to speak his mind which fully revealed just how much of a deranged psychopath Quinton is.

Quinton Spergs Out at a Mumkey Jones Fan

Eventually, Quinton chose to shut up and stay down due to his inability to handle banter or confrontation, and with that the drama gradually died down, things were starting to look up for him and soon he would have been able to continue his life reviewing children's entertainment in peace. Unfortunately for him, Quinton still hadn't gotten over the fact that Mumkey Jones made fun of him, and he wanted to have the last word in this shitshow, being too stupid to understand that participating in a dying drama only reignites it, so he decided to throw more shade at his bullies, who he had already blocked, before giving "Mumkey" a piece of his mind. Because of his exceptional nature however, Quinton ended up ranting at a fan-made parody account, where in he called himself a rapist faggot multiple times and screeched about internet death threats, undoubtedly mentally scarring the innocent child operating the account, who just wanted to have fun on the internet, for life.

Quiptxt Day

Quip Text was a $0.99 iPhone application used by Applefags for cheaply sending pics, mainly of their small and poorly circumcised penises and sloppy meat-curtain vaginas to friends and family. The EPICNESS that is Quiptext Day is the result of Palpacino and, several months later, Anonymous realizing that the protocol for sending these pics was secured by only a five digit alphanumeric code; randomize this code using some simple PHP programing, and the millions of pics that these massive retards had sent came spilling out, swamping /b/ with the biggest tsunami of chemo-OC ever. Within hours, the Quip Text website was shutdown and taken offline, but not before the supposedly private photos of millions of iPhone users were shared with the world. Thus, massive fail became epic win. In addition to the standard pictures of cocks and tits and vaginas, there are pictures of CP, what looks to be possibly photos taken by a serial killer of dead chicks with plastic bags over their heads on hotel room floors, gore, self-penetration with massive objects, and every other random awesomeness that perfectly normal everyday people do when they think no one will find out.

Originally when this was discovered the URLs on the quiptext site contained names, as well as original messages sent. It was later changed to just photos. This is how most Facebook accounts were linked to the photos.

As one Anon put it:

- Saturday: No one knows about your company.
- Sunday: Anon finds your company and everyone knows about your company.
- Monday: You have no company.

Original comment from Ish

Hello, this is Ish, the founder of Addy Mobile, makers of the Quip app.

“ As soon as this post came to our attention, we immediately shut down our servers. We have also now disabled all S3 access and have started to systematically secure all files in the system. We will not bring the system back up until we have adequate security around all files shared over Quip. I apologize to our users for this security breach and promise we will do everything in our power to make sure none of their information is exposed once we bring the service back up. The vision for Quip has always been to provide users a quick, simple, and affordable way for iPhone users to send picture messages without paying exorbitant carrier fees. We are a small company (3 people) but we will work as quickly as possible to bring back the service up in a safe and secure manner. -Ish ”

What Ish Really Meant

Hello, this is Ish, the founder of Addy Mobile, makers of the Quip app.

“ So we made this dumb shit so you cheap bastards could send pictures and shit, but all we really wanted was teh monies, so instead of funding security we shifted the budget to she-male prostitutes, inter-species erotica, and blow. Shit was so ca$h. We're sorry ladies, but your vaginas are now all over the interwebs. Oh, and guys, your cawks aren't safe either. These pictures of your indecent and morally bankrupt behavior probably won't come back to harm you. The worst that is likely to happen is some creepy perv is jerkin it to your underage photos and decides to stalk you. Here's hoping your genitals don't get turned into a wind chime or a lampshade.

So, well, shit. Fuck me.

Some replies to said comment

“A breach in security? A breach would imply that there was some flaw in your security. What you had was a complete lack of security. Putting the photos on a hosted server? I refuse to believe anyone is that incompetent. You were just lazy with people's private data, and got called out on it.”

To the surprise of no-one the stunning greed and programming incompetence of Quiptxt were the result of a Jew and a Chutney Fucker. Should have let an American do it, lol. BEWARE OF BUTTHURT REVISIONISM.

On the surface, Quirkyloverosee/rubysunshine91, powerword Rosie Skaggs, is just another confident fat activist from Rednecksville, Georgia - however, to nobody's surprise, it turns out that she's actually a walking, talking ball of delusion who insists that she's "healthy", and who will block anyone who tries advise her on how to extend her lifespan by another couple of hours. She has a massive following on Instagram, made up of retards who consider her an "inspiration" for having the bravery to post on Instagram while being fat and ugly. This is of course just to reduce their own feelings of inadequacy and make them look good by comparison, as anyone who looks at her can tell that death is right around the corner. When one of her dad's friends died of complications due to being obese, she comforted her distraught father by buying him shitloads of sweets and snacks while bawwing about her own mortality and how that could be her. Quirky claims to have "binge eating disorder", which rids her of all responsibility over what she puts into her body. After blocking your for daring to suggest legitimate coping methods, Quirky will screenshot and upload your comments so that her white knights can go angrily jiggle their collective folds at teh cyber-stalker bullies.

MUH FEMINISM!!11!!

What better way to confess to being a home wrecker then through an unfunny meme?

Any sexual relationship with this beast can indeed be described as "udder hell".

Like a pig feeding at a troff. Notice how she can't eat without getting food all over herself.

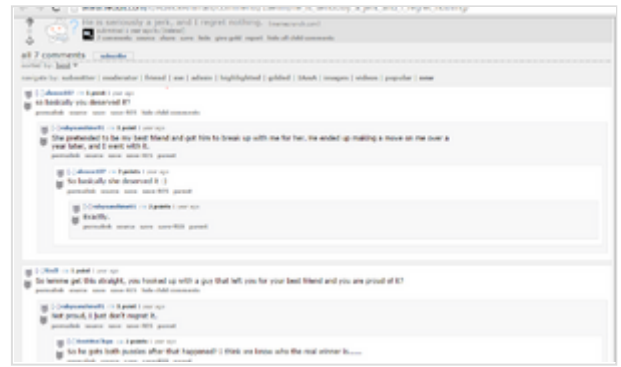

If you couldn't already guess, Quirky is one of those fat bitches in the Third Wave of Feminism Movement who tries to act like every single thing that she does is for the good of other women. She has a monumental martyr complex, resulting in an endless stream of butthurt about how she's oh so persecuted. What Quirky neglects to tell her followers is that, once upon a time on Reddit, she was prone to bragging about giving head, bashing on people who were single and referring to them as failures in life, and boasting about how she fucked her cheating ex after he had already left her for another girl. Quirky also neglects to mention how she was a homewrecker. Yes, Rose had such shit self worth that she knew that the only way she could be with a man again was by presenting herself as a side piece and forcing herself somewhere she didn't belong. Kind of ironic for someone who got cheated on and went full emo about it, huh? Did we mention that this guy has a young daughter? How "feminist" of you, Quirky!

Quirky also stays true to the textbook SJW Tumblrtard behaviour by diagnosing herself with every single disorder under the sun. She claims that when she was eighteen years old, her "unmedicated bi-polar virgin" personality is what drove her to have sex with some random guy she had met online. Quirky claims to have used a condom, and yet she began to display symptoms of herpes a few months after the incident. Instead of seeing a doctor or ballsing up and admitting to her parents that she was a fuck-up, Quirky decided to baww to the internet as usual about her problems and seek out coddling support rather than an actual solution. No doubt she probably still is infected to this day, which is probably a lovely complement to the urine burns she has around her pussy and ass regions. The zits and cellulite also give it a nice touch.

Eating Habits

Despite claiming to be "healthy", Quirky is constantly posting massive portions of disgustingly unhealthy foods and bragging about how she's eating it all. She frequently rants about how she eats oh so healthily and how nobody "knows her life", yet every other day she's posting pictures of cupcakes, alcohol, Wendy's, pizza, and other forms of cow feed filled with preservatives and high fructose corn syrup. When she does this, her dumbfuck followers praise her for NOT GIVING A FUCK and going against societal standards of beauty. When Quirky is in need of extra ass pats, she will post pictures of healthy snack boxes from Graze and ask for praise of her healthy eating. Curiously, all these snack boxes have failed to cancel out her constant, enormous caloric intake and she has grown much larger than she was years ago.

That ought to show 'em!

An artists rendering of Quirky.

Delusions of Grandeur

Quirky also claims that by loving herself, she has single-handedly changed society's view on beauty. What Quirky doesn't understand is that not only does she not make any sense most of the time, but that she is also a massive hypocrite who acts in absolutes. She shuns the rest of the world for being myopic and cruel, yet does the exact same thing on a daily basis whenever someone doesn't agree with her. She is completely unable to accept the fact that some people just don't want to be fat anymore and, unlike her, got off of their scooters to actually do shit about it. She claims to hate bullies, but anyone who disagrees with or questions her (even civilly) is immediately blocked and has her personal army sent down upon them. Rose boasts about just oozing compassion for the human race from every enlarged pore on her body, but doesn't stop to think that she could use some of her food money to buy soup for the homeless instead of blowing it all on nutritionally bankrupt fast food.

Quirky also doesn't go to school. In fact, she failed her freshman year of high school and never went back. Why did she fail? She admits in a Youtube video of hers that she flunked out because she spent all of her time eating and watching television. Instead of trying to go to college and make an actual career for herself or hell, even taking up a retail job where she could waddle off a few fucking pounds, she works for Apple on a customer hotline from home. This still isn't good enough for her, as she is often prone to bitching about how difficult her job is, how unfair it is to be working on Christmas Eve, or how her bank account is at -$7 and she's STARVING. Starving, yes, on the very same day as she bragged about dropping $30 on a cheap plastic gaming headset. That money totally couldn't have been used for food or anything. So, what happens next? Well, anytime Quirky whines her followers will go and send her pizza. Yes, these moralist morons just don't see how they could possibly be doing any harm to her.

It should be noted that even former fat asses have approached her, bringing words of what they thought were wisdom. Instead of seeing this as a gesture of kindness and help, especially from people who were in her shoes, she promptly blocked them and had her army of hamplanets lay into them about how telling any fat person to lose weight is fat shaming!11!!!11!!1 Asking their weight? Fat shaming!11!!!11!!1

Rose also does not bathe on a regular basis. She'll spend many a night taking naked selfies for her Instagram followers about how she "just got out of the shower", yet her hair is a greasy, frizzy mess and she has stains on her skin. Anons have identified these discolorations on her face, neck, and tits as Tinea Versicolor, or in short, fungal infection as a result of not fucking bathing. This is probably because she can't even fit in her shower, resulting in her just dumping baby powder over her head and calling it hygiene.

People have had sex with this thing, and thirsty niggers still try to get at it.

Denial

But you just said that you don't associate with the word "curvy".

This hamplanet will react violently to being asked for nudes, camming, sexual roleplay, or anything remotely sexual in nature despite the fact that she's whored herself out in the past. She's prone to childlike tantrums where she bitches and moans about being fetishized, despite her past habit of dropping her disgusting nudes on Reddit's fat fetish board and on her Chaturbate account. Older social media photos show her proudly touting her lard self around, almost as if she actually embraced being fetishized. At some point, probably after someone telling her how utterly fucking disgusting she is, Quirky then decided to claim that she hates being fetishized for her weight. She also says that she was approached twice to be a model! In spite of fetish hatred, she will still drop pictures of herself on her Instagram account with captions stating that she feels like she needs to "come clean" and be "open about her body". Obviously, she's full of shit and it's just a plot for attention and an excuse to take pictures of herself half naked or completely naked as if there's anything to prove.

Like many fat Negresses and fat white girls like Meghan Trainor, Quirky fancies herself as a "sassy woman with #sassyrealness". In reality, all that happened is that she became even more arrogant and obnoxious and hid it under the guise of being "confident" with herself. Quirky, along with all fat women who take on this persona, fail to realize that they're just thoughtless pieces of shit and nobody finds their Queen Latifah wannabe antics to be inspiring or hilarious. In fact, it makes them appear even more pathetic and desperate for some form of validation.

Speaking of validation? That's another thing that Quirly wants yet acts like she doesn't. Her social media accounts and videos are filled to the butter stained brim with her cunting on and on about how she doesn't need anybody's approval, yet her entire crusade against the rest of the normal world is set on her achieving validation from everyone else for how she looks and her lifestyle. Oh, yes.. Her oh so noble lifestyle of being a lazy, delusional, sedentary piece of shit.

A Vimeo video made three years ago (see links) showcased Quirky auditioning for 'The Biggest Loser'. The video shows how she's too fat to fit into her own car properly (ALL WHILE SHE'S HOLDING A SODA), cannot sit in restaurant booths, claims to have been a gifted and intelligent child, and blames her weight on everyone else except for herself. She even goes as far as to blame the 20 something restaurants in her area for making her fat, even though she could simply learn some fucking self control and buy fruits and vegetables at the grocery store instead. The video closes not only with her demanding help in her usual, entitled manner, but with her actually stating that YouTube has a "culture" and is "so raw and real". She says that her dream is to be a part of YouTube and make videos.

Most people dream of legitimate shit, such as getting a stable career, having a family, or fucking living to see 40. Oh, no! See, this just isn't the case with her! Quirky is such unintelligent white trash that her ~dream~ is to sit on her ass and make internet videos all day. But, god forbid you explain to her or her sheep why this isn't only unrealistic, but completely fucking lazy and retarded.

Needless to say, she wasn't chosen for the show and it was probably because they saw that she didn't want to change. She just wanted to demand things of others, as she's always done, and blame everyone else in the world for things that are her own fault.

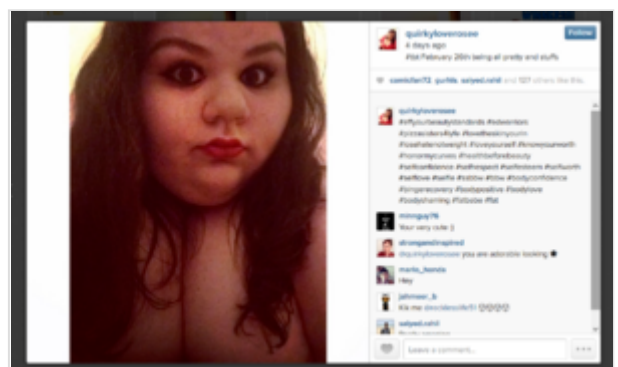

Watch the dumbass try to do her makeup and fail.

Her Fans and Family

Chubby Chasers and White Knights

They only rush to call her beautiful because their first thought is that she's hideous.

How Quirky tags every single one of her pictures

Quirky's followers and fans are a mix of fat fetishists, other hideous fat girls, and a small minority of doormat yet average looking girls who keep her around for the lulz. Comments have likened her body to that befitting a celestial goddess, sexy, and the ever so popular "curvy"-- even though it looks like a Christmas tree made of melting Crisco and there's not a single concave curve to be found. Not only do these people come whenever their beloved, fat queen calls upon them, but they are known to stalk the comments of her Instagram photos and materialize the moment a comment looks the slightest bit contrary. It really isn't any surprise how hard these people project themselves on those rightfully calling Rose out on her shit. After all, they're the ones with all of the time in the world to refresh Instagram all day and get off to their own sense of altruism after being such good people for "helping" a poor, dumpy fat girl feel as if she's important.

Unfortunately, her fans are so autistic that they've failed to understand that they not only further complicate her health, but their constant coddling and lying prohibits her from ever seeing the reality of her situation. All they've done is inflate her ego to proportions probably the size of her own lard ass, leading her to become a hateful, manipulative, and sneaky bitch with complexes which will only continue to cripple her.

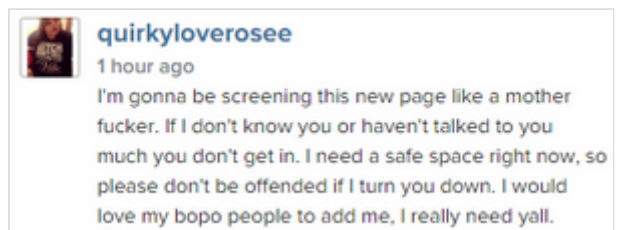

Family

Quirky's father ran off to Norway in recent times, as it was the only place he could escape her orbit. Her mother apparently lives in Florida, and with Quirky firmly parked in Canton, GA, trolls have wondered where her Autistic brother is most of the time. What could have happened is that their parents got sick of her shit and divorced. She argues with her mother enough and bawws about it while using her retarded brother as her shield during trolling conflicts. During the period in which her brother was unemployed, he frequently concocted Quirky these horrendous, sugar-grease-fat laden meals that she certainly didn't need. She saw no problem with this because it meant that her lazy ass didn't need to lose her breath lifting her arm to work a spatula. When people questioned why someone with a morbidly obese sister would feed them such things, she pitched a tantrum and accused everyone of calling her brother her feeder.

Trolling Quirky, or "Taking Candy From a Lardass Baby"

This porker claims to be a ~warrior~ who doesn't care what people say about her, but every little negative remark is quickly screenshot with the hopes of being told that she's forever right and that the world is just a big, dumb meanie. What pisses Quirky off?

- Tell her that she's ugly.
- Tell her that you jerk off to her picture every single night.
- Ask her about her diabetes tests
- Ask her what her weight is.
- Tell her how bad her makeup is.
- Ask her about the g-string on her Amazon wishlist.
- Ask her why she doesn't have a real job.
- Talk to her about fat wraps or exercise.
- Ask if she has a feeder.
- Deny fatphobia exists.
- Ask about her herpes.
- Ask about her urine burns and ass pimples.

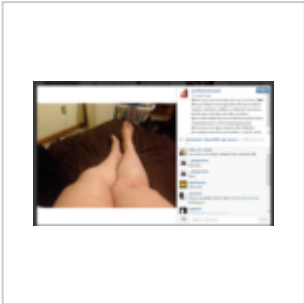

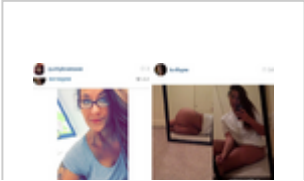

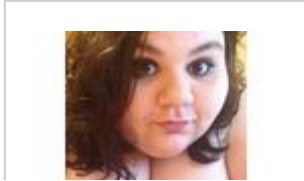

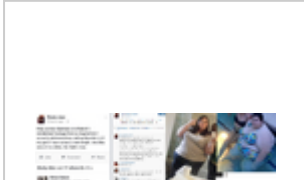

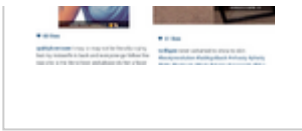

Quirky is paranoid as fuck over trolls being on her page.

- Tell her that you could probably put your arm up to your elbow in her vag00.
- Ask about her fupa.
- Leak her photos and posts from social media, even if she posted them publicly in the first place.

Russelnash quits IRC forever. Again.

Similar to deleting your LiveJournal, quitting IRC forever is generally an attention-getting ploy. People who regularly use IRC are more likely to gouge out their own eyeballs with a rusty spoon than to quit IRC for more than a week. The real world equivalent is quitting IRL forever

Netadmins literally "take their ball and go home," as they shut down their IRC servers when they quit "IRC FOREVER". cj used this tactic for idlenet when sisko called him a "douche".

Actually quitting IRC forever

Some irc'ers decide to quietly slink from the IRC spotlight after mass ruinage or making a complete fgt of themselves. One example of this is CadnoCat, who quit IRC after threatening to sue, kill and imprison Hoveround over accused "identity theft", then had his ass handed to him on channel by Zionistacat and Chimi. Recently, ajt has quit

IRC forever due to Sherrod hating on him for banning everyone and making lulz.

Quiverfull

"Quiverfull" refers to a movement of Fundamentalist Christian fucktards who are trying to take over the world by having families of at least 100 children the old-fashioned way. The ultimate breeder ideology. (Compare Childfree.)

The Duggars: A typical Quiverfull family.

History

In the glory days that were 1980's America, Fundamentalist Christians who had gathered together for their convention noticed that only like five people had shown up, presumably because everyone else had stayed home playing Atari because, well, it was the 1980's, and that's what people did back then, fgt. Realizing that it was necessary to repopulate their depleted numbers (and because they were trying to raise enough money for hookers and blow), the group began to consider possibilities. Proposals included:

1. Preaching their message to other, like-minded denominations.
2. Preaching to local minority communities. (Since Fundamentalists are obligate members of the Ku Klux Klan, this proposal was immediately dismissed.)
3. Preaching to the poor, the homeless, the destitute. (See reason for dismissal of proposal #2)
4. Preaching to Arabs.
5. Going home and sticking their cocks into their wives' cunts and filling them with their white, creamy man goo until they had entire armies of super inbred Aryan robot zombie children with names like "Hester," "Oral," and "Calvin." And (here's the shocker) getting their wives to believe they want to be walking brat factories.

Theology

Quiverfull theology is based on verses from Psalm 127:3-5 (in the Bible duh):

Lo, chidrens are an heritage of the LORD:

and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man;

so are chidrens of the youth.

Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them:

they shall not be ashamed,

but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

Note from a Jew: This Psalm was just King David dreaming about buttsecks with little boys. Christians do it wrong.

Translation: these are a relic of tribal wars. Arrows, remember, get shot and discarded. They are made to be thrown away. A man has one important child: his eldest son. All of the rest of them are just there to fight (and die fighting) the assholes who live on the other side of the river and his tribe.

On the Internets

Since male adherents of Quiverfull ideology are mostly illiterate, knuckle-dragging, homeschooled shitwits, most Quiverfull blogs on teh Internets are written by women who spend most of their time bragging about:

1. How many children they have (fewer than 15 is considered shameful),
2. How pretty the cover of their home organization binders are,
3. Thanking Jesus for giving them husbands who treat them like slaves
4. Mocking "those poor women who don't know Jesus" (i.e., feminists and wives who haven't submitted to their husbands' repeated requests for anal).
5. ????????
6. PROPHET!11!

(This shit isn't that hard you faggots.)

Rankings

Quiverfull mothers rank themselves according to the number of children they have:

- 1-15: "im just a n00b LOL"
- 16-over 9000: "1337"

Quizilla

Quizilla.com ~~is~~ was one of a growing number of Internets sites to be populated exclusively by teenage girls. Its main appeal was that it allows users to design their own epic, 36-part quizzes about whether or not vampires would fall in love with you. Quizzes are mainly for useless fucks who can't even keep up with emo whining about homework, chafed penile skin, or the latest musings over Veronica Mars. Quizilla finally shut down in October 2014, causing 12-year-olds to flock to Quotev.

You are colonic hydrotherapy. You are an adventurous and fun-loving girl who is not afraid to get her hands dirty every once in a while. You are a very kind and selfless person who will travel to the darkest depths to help her friends out. A vampire would probably fall in love with you.

Quizilla quizzes

The online quizzes form the core content of the site, allowing their creators a vast number of questions (sometimes as many as five) to ascertain the character of the person taking their quiz and generate one of three results to accurately sum up that person. The questions and answers are both left completely open-ended, which enables quiz-makers to devise truly unique quizzes, comprised of anything from the trivial "What's your favorite color?" to the philosophical "What kind of clothes do you like to wear?"

Additionally, you can create quizzes like "Which airborne pathogen are you?" or "What odor is your creamy vaginal discharge?"

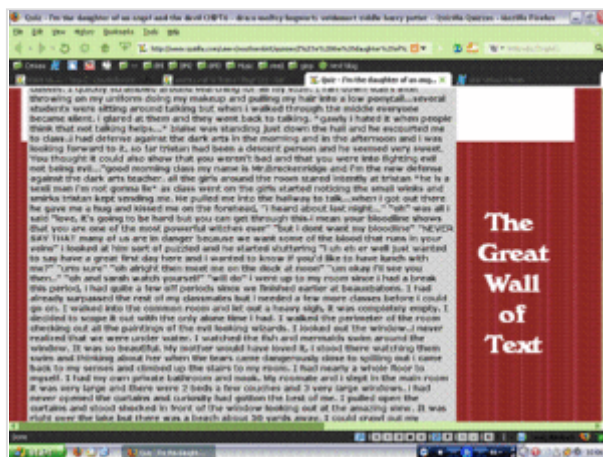

The colors and backgrounds of quizzes are also fully customizable and, as such, it is a common practice for site members to compete with each other and see whose flashing, animated background can cause the other to go into convulsions the quickest.

A picture from "What droid would you most like to fuck?"

At the time of this writing, the most popular and highly-rated quizzes of the day included:

- Who is ur Naruto BF!?!?11 (GURLS ONLY PLZ) (with pics)
- Why would a Vampier care about me (girls only) part 3
- How Well Do You Know Uzumaki Naruto? (HARD)
- Who would fall in LOVE with you? A vampire, demon, or an angel? PART 6 [Answer truthfully! Cause there is different endings in the results!]
- Would an angel, demon, vampire, or Werewolf fall for you (part 001)
- Would a werewolf, vampire, demon, or angle fall for you? Part 9 Sickness
- What is Your Phrase? [for black person people]
- ...:Which one of my guy friends would date you? (Girls only):...
- What Angel are you? hot picks and girlz only!!!
- What Element Are You(anime pics-girls only)

The famous "wall of text".

Of course, appending "girls only" to the end of any Quizilla quiz is strictly a formality, as the site's Terms Of Service very clearly state:

"~~~omg lol~~~!!!! aZ a QulziLLa uSer u aGreE daT u R a GiRl, dat bOiZ suCk and R grOsS (exCePt 4 VaMpiReS n daT lol deR tEH sExX lmao) aNd daT u Wil nEvA mAk a Kwiz 4 a boi, oKiEs??/?/ (lmao uNleS dEr a HoTt bOi!1)"

Quizilla stories

For reasons unknown, or perhaps just general retardation, the site is also inhabited by preteens who generally end up using the god damn website as a place to write fan fiction about how their otherkin or furry life is and how they would like to take it in the ass from the tiny dick of their favorite band's lead singer, usually, some faggot emo band. How the fuck quiz forms can be used to tell stories boggles the mind of even the finest researchers of Harvard and Oxford.

- STORY TIME!

Quizilla Users

Surprisingly, on this shit of a site we can find many kinds of users, however they all are horny teen wapanese girls.

Writers

These girls are known for writing the most shitty pieces of literature ever seen. These can range from Naruto to Vampires, and 102% of the time have mary sues for main characters.

Example: You think you can get out of that, ai-nii-chan? i heard kakashi's voice i would do a shrugh if i could of moved i was tied down really you could'nt see anything except the top of my head! This time ,i'm not quite sure I can't move any part of my body and my eyes are covered.But i'll find a way , i always do. i said then the door opened Kakashi-sensie?? hmm ok that sakura, i smell a naruto and a ...sai? Hello. Umm who's that? asked naruto sakura i heard smacked her forehead That's ,Ai. she said i felt all of their stares I don't like being the center of attion so can you please stop staring at me. i groned a bit How can you see your eyes are covered!!! yelled naruto I use my ears when my eyes are covered so I guess i'm right so I warn you stop staring at me. i said boredly kakashi laughed a bit they started to talk You could even surpass me. kakashi said i perked to that he has my full attion now Surpass you? naruto said shocked i can already tell kakashi noded a bit Yes I'll show you one of my greatst techniques not even ai knows. WHAT WHAT TECHNIQUE DON'T I KNOW?!?! i shouted he chuckeld I'm not telling because you always have ways to figure it out or you already have it. i growled with a grone So you'll train me?! I CAN BE BETTER THAN AI!!! sakura covered her mouth looking another way kakashi had a sweat drop going down the back of his head

Holly shit, these fucking Narutards needs to learn some grammar, damn it.

The horny ones

These disappeared as soon as Quizilla started deleting the anime porn, but used to be the most abundant of all. They had 10000 "storys" that were something around the lines of: "OMGZ im hornye wannna cyber?" "OMGZ sex storye!!" They also often said they were "Sexy girl, thin with big boobs, 5'4', long black hair and bright green eyes", however they probably were just basement dwellers.

The haters

They are the vanguard of our vast and wonderful internets. Soon the fanbitch collective of Quizilla will be overthrown and replaced with a representative democracy with elections held every five years. The national anthem will be "Heliotropic" by mid-nineties grunge band Failure, because oh my god that song kicks so much ass.

The Few Sane Ones

Surprisingly, there are a few sane writers on there that do have potential. They tend to stick to themselves though and it is a surprise that they are unaffected by Quizilla's main population of Horny Weeaboos.

Quora

Quora (AKA Troll Haven) is a shittier version of Yahoo Answers and Reddit except with pictures for people with ADHD and mental retardation (usual demographics of people who browse and writes on the site). There is a shitload of Indian people there because they probably think they can study English there or where they get laid (they sent any women with a real life profile pic a proposal for marriage, I am not fucking with you, make a profile with a porn star as a profile pic, see what happens), hilariously enough, there isn't an Indian version of the website when there are French and Italian. Credentials can be claimed by anyone, you can say you are an Astrophysicist from Harvard University and the only evidence you need is to have a keyboard to type those letters with. It is filled to the brim with conjectures, anecdotes and inane recounts usually painting the writer as the victim, hero, or the good person than actual useful information so it's a fucking mystery that anyone would use this over literally any other sites. There are little to few actual substantial contents on this site but it's rarer to find than a needle made of diamond in a haystack drifting nowhere in the middle of the expanding universe, not to mention they usually have zero upvotes and zero views because again, retards with ADHD. They wouldn't read anything without a picture in them, some bullshit anecdote or is short enough to entertain them (knowledge ftw).

File:Quora.png

Wikipedia's retarded cousin, it's also made by the employees of Facebook so the data, like the real name you stupidly enough gave, is safe as houses.

It is even more useless than Wikipedia in terms of providing knowledge because of the stated reasons, but for some inconceivable reason they call it "A place to share knowledge and better understand the world", even though it's a place for bullshit artists, fun fact of the day idiots, and rejected novelists (itching to tell their mundane first world anecdotes exaggerated by a shitty writing style, illustrated by the excessive use of italics and bolds, with the perfect reenactment of conversations that literally never happened) to fuck around in. There are no compulsory requirements for them to even put references below or voting for the best answer so you can respectively, be sure that it's definitely fact and that in the million answers to that one question, you could maybe find a quarter of one answer which is maybe useful (also good fucking luck finding it).

TL;DR, Quora is a DREADFUL website full of pseudo-intellectual faggotry. As bad as it is, it pales in comparison to the newest foul creature of the hipster internet, Kialo.

How to get upvotes?

Contents

Quora's different sections are almost universally populated by dumb fucks with no credentials but their policy requires you to write your real name because they think having a real name that no one can verify somehow makes your answer more valid. Knowledge and common sense don't seem to jar very well together with the dumb fucks at Quora it seems. The only knowledge you are getting is insights into the suspension of disbelief, how fucking stupid people can get, irrelevant pictures that is just there for no fucking reason other than hook people with ADHD, and ideas for your next novel.

Nothing up there is verifiable, and everyone who claims to have a credential worth a fuck is lying to you and if you are retarded enough to believe it, maybe that explains why you are even there to begin with. They have contents ranging from bullshit to bullshit, good trolls usually dwell there with literally retarded question to bait the idiots like "Is it wrong for me to kill my child if he dyes his hair?" or "Can I summarily execute my daughter if she goes to a boy's house without my permission?" or "I have an IQ of a million, how do I get out of this place filled with people of negative IQ" or "I want to know how to kill myself, is a plastic bag okay? Also, please don't stop me from killing myself". Just dumb stupid troll questions but people answer it anyway because they are sanctimonious retards that ironically think people are actually retarded enough to ask these questions on the Internet.

Also, any retards that are looking for actual answers to their problems are fucked, they think the idiots on the other side of the screen can somehow detect the context of the predicament they are in, whatever conjectured solution offered up would be definite to fuck the person in question over. It's also a pity party where people send their condolences to the best bullshit artist that managed to trick the retards with some made-up and fabricated shit that never happened to earn upvotes. This is pointless and mean nothing because those mindless sheeple will literally upvote any pity story with an antagonist.

People

Expect your usual assortments of fuckwits and Atheists who don't know what they are talking about claiming that they do, an argument ensuing in the comments then deleted because of abuse. People who think that they are the main character in their story, liars with shitty anecdotes, dumb teenagers with shitty anecdotes, dumb adults with shitty anecdotes, dumb old people with shitty anecdotes. Did I mention the shitty anecdotes in place where people get "knowledge"? Did the dictionary definition of "knowledge" changed to nonsensical anecdote? If you are dumb enough to believe that their life encounters or fiction can be applied to your life regardless of circumstances and personality differences, you very rightfully belong to the Quora Retard brigade.

TL;DR Bullshit Artist Wall of Text Warning. Ready your asshole.

I wish I had never seen my Father's lifeless body, my Mother hanging from the ceiling, and the look in my rapist's eyes.(Well, that escalated quickly.) "Daddy, wake up! It's christmas!" It was a cold December 25th, blankets of white snowflakes falling on the roof of the home that belonged to my picture-perfect family. I sat there, straddling his waist (in a non-sexual way)<---(THIS WAS ACTUALLY PART OF THE TEXT) with a frown on my face, crossing my arms over my tiny little chest, wondering why my father wasn't waking up. This time, I moved closer towards his ear, and shouted, knowing it would annoy him. "Papa!! Wake up, I wanna go open my presents!" Spoiled little child I was, I scrunched up my face in anger and hopped off his bed. I waddled over to the bathroom my parents shared and tugged on my mothers dress. "Momma, daddy's not getting up and I wanna open my gifts now! Can you please wake him up?" She finished brushing her teeth and headed over to my fathers (lifeless) body. "Harold, wake up, darling. It's christmas," (Look at that, remembered it as if it was yesterday or as you wrote it.) She nudged him on the shoulder, but he didn't move. I stood a good 5ft away (Five exact feet away?), and watched as her face slowly became pale and worryful. I observed her cautiously move her hands over to the left side of chest, wait a couple of seconds, then went to check his pulse. A glass tear (glass tear? We are in the hands of a poet here) slid down her cheek, before more started to flow out of her eyes. "Ava, baby, hand Mommy her phone," "Why?" (Body doesn't look cold to me.) "Just hand it to me, Ava! Now!" (Bullshit Intermission) My mother and I were not allowed to ride in the paramedics, so we had to take the car. "What's wrong with Daddy?" (He got taken in by an ambulance and you wondered what the fuck is wrong with him. You are not six, you are one. Or sixty-one.) She didn't reply. Just kept her eyes focused on the almost deserted roads, since it was Christmas morning. We arrived at the hospital and had to sit on the uncomfy chairs. After an hour had passed, and kind lady came up to us and asked us to follow her. I trailed behind her, with my Mother by my side, in my reindeer onesie. "I am so sorry to inform you, but Harold has passed. We tried to resuscitate him, but it was too late. He had an u-" "What's going on?" I questioned, impatiently. I was beyond furious at this point, seeing that my Christmas morning was now ruined. I hated this smelly hospital and just wanted to go home and open my gifts. "Ava! Not now. Hush," my Mother warned me with a tear-stained face. I stomped my foot and wailed my hands in the air.(Your mother is crying, your father is in a hospital, carried away by an ambulance and you don't know what the fuck is going on. Okay.) "Where is my father? I want to see my father! Take me to my father now, lady" I screamed, pointing my finger at the innocent doctor. "Ava!! If-" "It's fine, really. May I speak to you, without the child?" My mother sighed, giving up. She followed the doctor, leaving me alone in the hallways of the ghostly hospital. I slid down the wall, landing on my bum. Tears were evident now and I was on the verge of throwing a tantrum. "What's wrong, sweetheart?" I looked up with my big brown eyes (big brown eyes? How about you fucking kill yourself?) to see a man with a scruff beard and long hair, wearing dark clothing. He was crouched down in front of me, and his breath smelt like alcohol mixed with coffee. (So, how do you know what alcohol smells like?) I squeezed my face up in disgust and turned my head to the side. "Momma told me not to talk to strangers," I was a smart child. Or so I thought. "I'm not a stranger. I'm here to be your friend. You can trust me," I peeked over back at him and decided to tell him what was wrong. After my whining and complaining, he gave me a look of pity. "I am so sorry to hear that, sweetie. How about I take you for some ice cream to cheer you up?" I quickly shook my head. I knew it was bad enough that I was talking a stranger, and knew how much worse it would be to be leaving with a stranger. He gave me a look that made me uneasy, so I kept my mouth shut after that. "Aw, come on. I will buy you any flavor you want, just follow me. We're friends, remember? We'll be back before your mother even notices your gone," I contemplated going with this guy. (Yep, we are going there, bullshit land. Not that we aren't already there but we are now in deep. There is apparently no hospital staff in a hospital looking at some dirty homeless man leading some child to the back, yep.) Ice cream did sound really good, since it would be my only treat I would've received that fateful morning. I grabbed ahold of his stretched forward hand, and he led me to the back of the hospital. "This is not ice cream," (OH REALLY?) I was starting to get suspicious and wanted to make a run for it. But he had a firm grip on my hand that let me know that he wasn't planning on letting me go any time soon. "Don't worry, we'll be there soon. We just got to make a quick stop first, Next thing I know I being shoved into the handicap washroom, and he is unbuckling his pants. I screamed but he placed a hand around my neck and told me to shut up or else he would hurt me. I'm guessing you know what happened next. I was raped. But I didn't know the term for it then. (Another bullshit intermission) 3 months had passed. 3 months after I had found out about my father's death. He had an undetected heart problem and he died in his sleep. I was 6. 3 months after I was raped by a man who promised me ice cream. When the despicable low-life was done with me that day, he left and I was left alone to go find my mother again. She hugged me cause she

There are two kinds of people on this planet. There are those that are free and those that are slaves. Those that are free are the free thinkers and the wonderers. The scientists and the philosophers.

As far as the rest, the slaves, they are the theists. They are all slaves to a god that does not even exist. They are slaves to what they feel is real and whose hands are bound and mouths sealed by the church that they attend. They are taught to hate those that are not like them. They are taught to be violent and take action on anyone opposing the church and they are taught to kill those that are trying to explain that fables do not exist.

A new day is here. We are no longer going to stand by and allow the church and this magical fairy to rule our lives. The time has come for all to stand up as one against those greedy people that want to take our money and then lie and say it is for a god that does not even exist. We need to unite as a people not divided by race and form the one race that matters, the human race.

The next few years and decades will determine exactly how long we as a species will survive. United we stand or divided we will fall. We will fall, we will all die due to our incompetence. Rise up! Rise now and voice your feelings. Let everyone know that we either live as one or we will all suffer. Humanity is the single greatest thing that has ever existed, are we just going to allow ourselves to be outwitted by those that are driven by greed? Are we going to allow the church to destroy what it took millions of years to develop?

(НАНАННААНАННАННАНАННАНАННАНАННАНАННАНАННАНАННА, everyone that isn't your parents to fuck off but you're somehow afraid of a backlash, so why the fuck did you post this?) Trust me, I know how it feels. I found my mothers, and that image is etched into your brain forever. No matter how much you try to erase that sight, it won't ever leave and will most likely haunt you for eternity.(What will haunt me is the comments of the retards that believed this dogshit.) But I'm asking, it won't hurt anybody, right? I've read and watched plenty of things that tell me how committing does not end the pain, but only transfers it onto to your loved ones, but what if you don't have any loved ones? (This is animu sasuke level bullshit) You know what, nevermind. Forget it.(What? Forget what?) Have a goodnight.(Was just having a great one until I had to riff through this garbage)

Smell that? That's top of the line bullshit right there.

But lo and behold, the idiocy of Quora prevailed and they ACTUALLY BELIEVE this garbage happened lol, if it's not only to prove that Quora's users are retarded, but their employees equally as retarded as they commented, requesting this amateur bullshit artist in question to not kill themselves. Your father died and you got raped on Christmas Day. Saw mother being terrified, see father get carried away on a stretcher, BUT HAVE NO IDEA WHAT IT MEANS. There are no six years old that fucking dumb. Oh, and not crying, in excruciating pain or bleeding after being raped when you are six. WOW. BELIEVABLE. And this was filled with brim with italics and bolds, purple prosers, yeah, we got to fucking appreciate your writing talent while you confess suicide, cool fucking story, bro, I believe you and your ice cream. Needless to say this is an encouragement for people to go on there and write bullshit stories that never happen to see the limits of human stupidity and the sanctimonious self back patting for what a good fucking person they are.

How to get upvotes?

- Share an irrelevant fun fact of the day, write in sentences instead of paragraphs because you are dealing with ADHD retards here.
- Make up a bullshit story in your mind, this is just like creepypasta except with zero efforts and none of the fun.
- Say you are PhD in Everything. People with credentials gets more upvotes, no literally, they say this fact like they are proud of that.
- ADHD retards, always remind yourself, ALWAYS POSTS PICTURE EVEN IF IT'S IRRELEVANT AND UNNECESSARY TO WHATEVER THAT IS ASKED
- Be painfully unfunny to questions.
- Shit on religion or anyone who believes in God.

QuoteBucket.org

QuoteBucket is apparently yet another fucking quote site which is great for the massive number of people who are blocked from QDB and Bash at work, are interested in hilarious IRC racism and Linux jokes, and don't know how to use proxies. Additionally it focuses on being yet another bullshit web2.0 failure but with an AMAZING DIFFERENCE - they only reject spam! That probably doesn't impact quote quality, right guys?

This massive fucking failstorm contains nothing of value, which is probably why the queers responsible plug their shit on ED without even pretending to write from a neutral point of view. This is at once incredibly unlulzy, and still less awful than anything that's on the actual site.

Between sucking each other off, approving unfunny quotes and seeing how many iPod Nanos they can fit into each other's assholes, QB admins can be found listening to Rush, INVENTING MEMES and talking enthusiastically about how much weed they've smoked.

Introduction

“QuoteBucket, --Also known as "Goatse"-- is an online user-driven database which contains extracts of logs from IRC channels and other forms of online messaging (including AIM, Windows Live Messenger, ICQ, MySpaceIM and Yahoo! Messenger) so they can be viewed, searched and rated by the public. It is similar to the famous Bash.org, except that absolutely no one gives two shits.

Quotes that are often submitted are kept in a "queue" where they can be reviewed by moderators/or administrators where they will be "accepted" or denied within 24 hours.

Québec

Québec, also known as French Canædia, is a land of fucked-up lazy alcoholics who speak French so badly that no true Frenchman could ever hope to understand them. It is the most socialist and thus the poorest of all provinces in Canædia and, in all circumstances, it is ALWAYS butthurt because no one is giving it the special attention it deserves. It is the glory hole of Canada.

Typical Quebecois

Quebecois bitch about pancakes, they bitch about Cuntmerica, they bitch about the giant stinky vags of their mothers and girlfriends, they bitch about not getting enuf disgusting moose porn. And the Actual French absolutely hate Quebequeers, because they are all fat and lazy and right-wing.

French military strategy in New France

New France was founded by a pack of mentally deranged Frenchmen who hunted Furries and sold their skins back to libertines in Metropolitan France. In the early years of the French colony, the colonists complained to the King of France that since they had no women, they were forced to rape disgustingly clean native females or have awkward homosexual intercourse with each other in the bushes in order to satisfy their sexual urges (Being good catholics, the priests and bishops were always very eager to satisfy the young boys' urges). To remedy this situation, one of the King's ministers (The King himself being too busy with his orgies at Versailles) had a few thousand French whores forcibly shipped to the colony. This explains why women in Quebec are so eager to suck cock on first dates.

Following the traditional French strategy of procrastinating, eating snails boiled in cognac past midnight and subsequently having the troops disperse to brothels, French military forces were unable to successfully defend New France against Limey aggressions. After the usual catastrophic French military defeat and surrender, New France was ceded to the Crown of England. The Britfags were happy to let these

North American Frenchfags be run by the Catholic Church, which kept the population illiterate, thriving and full of papal-prescribed faggotry.

However, these North American Frenchmen have been quite a burden on the English since then. Constantly demanding "special rights" and/or complaining about descrimination, they have failed to evolve into a productive, modern society. They are effectively the white niggers of America. The best solution up to now has been to grant them a province (Quebec), but for the federal government to declare martial law every 30 or so years to prevent them from establishing a fascist dictatorship on themselves.

During World War II

Skipping forward 100 years, although Canædia joined World War II on the Allied side, the Quebecois, admirers of Hitler's mustache and policies, dodged the draft and joined to the popular Blueshirt movement - a attempt to mimic the Brownshirts, or SA. After the War, The Quebecois hypocritically gloated that they had been the bleeding edge avant-garde of the anti-nazi crusade, which is uncannily similar to what the French did as a National Smokescreen campaign and overcompensation mechanism in reaction to their blatant and willing cooperation with the Third Reich. The entire Blueshirt episode has been carefully scrubbed out of Quebec's History. Be sure to mention it for extra confusion and lulz.

The Quiet Revolution

In the 1950's, a visionary in Quebec started the "blow up a civilian plane for the lulz" fad. In the 1960's, the Quebecois started smoking massive amounts of weed and suddenly realized going to church and listening to pedophiles lecture them on morality just wasn't that interesting anymore. Because of this and because they speak a bastardized form of French, they think highly of themselves and consider their "society" to be unique and special.

Albert Guay and his lovely wife

Le référendum de 1995

Not surprisingly, les Quebecois look down on the non-Quebecois. Quebec has tried to amputate itself from Canædia several times. The latest was in 1995 when they held a referendum to secede and become the utopian République Populaire de Poutine. Naturally, people went fucking nuts. The voter turnout was 93 percent, because the other 7 percent had been beaten to death by hockey sticks during referendum debates. In the end the anglo-Canadians ultimately pwned the Quebecois. Out of almost 5 million votes, the Quebecois (Nationalistfags) lost by a hilariously small margin of victory: just 54,000 votes, a mere 0.58%. To piss off the Quebecois even more, it was discovered that 86,000 ballots were rejected because they were unattractive. The Quebecois went even more fucking nuts and sued everyone, demanding access to personally inspect all 5 million ballots. This went on for five fucking years until they lost their final lawsuit, but they will not stop their plans to secede from Canædia, North America, and then the planet.

Quebec will finally secede in 2043 under Lieutenant-Général Ghyslaine Raza, the most athletic Quebecois.

Government & Politics

The horrible truth, bravely reported by the only newspaper worthy of that name in Quebec: The Gazette ethnique").

Quebecois politics are characterized by a constant stream of 1st world post-industrialized psycho-drama. Half of Quebecois (federalistfags) admire the USA and secretly wish they weren't despicable Quebecois. The other half, the Nationalistfags, forever wish to secede from Canædia to establish a fascist French-only Republic. The Nationalistfags will likely fail in their endeavor. Their former chief, in a moment of drunken candor, put it bluntly after losing his referendum to secede, when he told a crowd of more than 200,000 disappointed nationalistfags that they had been cheated of their victory because of Jew gold and the nigger vote (in French: "l'argent et le vote

Denis Lortie was the last hope for Quebec

Richard Henry Bain tried to save Canada after reading the Montreal Gazette

Numerous scientific studies (Ernest editorials in the Montreal Gazette) have demonstrated that an independent Quebec would immediately become a failed state which would proceed to Goatse itself into a vortex of fail, hurt, AIDS, brutal ethnic cleansing and zombie apocalypses. The vast majority of Quebecois are unaware of these studies, because they are too drunk and too French to read the Montreal Gazette. Thus, only Quebec's anglophone population is keenly aware of the severe dangers of an independent Quebec. From time to time, a responsible reader of the Montreal Gazette, such as Richard Henry Bain, will try to save Canada.

There was a brief period of hope when acting-General Denis Lortie, a brilliant and charismatic man, staged a military coup in the Quebecois parliament. A brave man, Lortie field-promoted himself general (from corporal) before storming the parliament building with his one man army and a surprisingly inaccurate SMG. The government quickly capitulated as Lortie was the only man in the building with a gun. As supreme despot, he promised to clean up Quebec politics, show some freakin' respect for the Queen, outlaw nationalistfag political parties and... some other stuff a REAL leader would do. Unfortunately, he was unable to finish his inauguration speech as his dentures fell out (for realz!) mid-sentence. This blow the image of the new regime forced Lortie to stand down and restored the dysfunctional democracy Quebec still has today. As everywhere in the developed world, Jews are the puppet masters and exploit the faggotry of the Quebecois democracy to amass fabulous amounts of Jew Gold. In Quebec, this is done in the huge abandoned Montreal Olympic Stadium. Despite being repeatedly warned by friendly Shish-Taouk street vendors, the Quebecois still think of the Jews as greedy bakers of delicious bagels. As of now, the Quebecois are only moderately anti-Semitic, but as more and more new ideas flow into the province, it is quite possible that they become batshit insane anti-Semitic and learn the truth!

The two main political parties that scam the Quebecois into voting for them every election season have rather simple political programs that are summed up here:

Political program:	Political program:
1. Read The Economist	1. Ethnic Cleansing
2. ??????????????	2. ??????????????
3. PROFIT !	3. PROFIT !

Economy

A lazy drunk Quebecois insults an Anglo-Canadian on his way to work. A typical scene in Quebec.

The economy of Quebec is based on three pillars, the most important of which consist of huge Federal transfers to the Province. Essentially, the Quebecois, too lazy too work, innovate, vote, shower or even sober up, rely on a system euphemistically called "Equalization payments", but which are in reality the product of hard working English Canadians transformed into perpetual welfare checks for the sleazy Quebecois. In other words: Alberta works so that Quebec doesn't have to.

The second pillar of the Quebecois economy is centered on a Jew con man who goes by the obviously made-up name of "Pierre-Karl Péladeau". He runs a media empire that controls 95% of every television station, book, magazine, newspaper and website in Quebec. His avowed philosophy is that "Converging different media is a easy as pumping sewer or shit. You just have to get the pump working." Imagine listening to the same Céline Dion song over and over, 24 hours a day, for a whole week and you get a good idea of the cultural scene in Péladeau's Quebec. The Quebecois, already culturally impoverished, have not fared well under bossman Péladeau's rule. In fact, there have been reports of some Quebecois giving up on civilization altogether and attempting to climb back up the trees.

Update: Péladeau is running for the office of Prime Minister of Quebec. He wants it ALL, Berlusconi style.

The third pillar of the Quebecois economy consist of the foreigners that have settled in Montreal. Most Quebecois are closet racist and will rant on and on in private about how the "Môdi araubes" are polluting their Great Distinct Society.

However, the little brown bastards are actually LESS lazy than the Quebecois and, with the Italian mafia, they are one of the main job creators in Quebec.

Dirty sandniggers are almost the only people to do any work in Quebec. It's not that they want to: it's just that they haven't figured out how to leech on hard-working Anglo-Canadians yet.

Culture

The movie Tusk sums up everything one needs to know about Quebecois culture.

And don't forget the maple syrup thefts. The rest of the world steals valuable minerals and objects but the Quebecueers steal fucking pancake syrup. The bastards even have a "Maple Syrup Reserve" so they can run a cartel and control prices. Be glad you don't live in a province that worships tree sap.

In Quebec, tourists are often abducted, surgically altered and sold as pets. Don't worry: they are well fed.

Education

Quebec has recently (Spring of 2012) caught the attention of the world media because of massive street protests staged by college and university students across the province. Of course, here, at ED, you will understand exactly what is a stake because of all of our anon asspies diligently working to gather information on the subject. Apparently, the core of the matter lies in the very different nature of the two types of college/university students in Quebec, which are briefly described here:

YOLO! My Moneyz!

The "YOLO! I want moneyz and screw the rest!" type student.

- a. These students are not politically active (they don't give a shit).
- b. They will likely have a job when they graduate.
- c. They are illiterate douches who would die of a seizure if forced to read a book.
- d. They are unable to understand the complex narratives of Archie Comics (but they try real hard).
- e. They know nothing outside of their micro-domain of expertise.
- f. They would idolize Donald Trump if they knew who he was.
- g. They all believe owning an iPhone is an inalienable human right.
- h. It is estimated that they will all be replaced by Mexicans equipped with the Google Graduate© brain implant by 2023.

YOLO! Street orgy!

The "YOLO! College must be 100% free and full of parties!" type student

- a. These students are politically active (they are tools of the unions and leftist parties)
- b. They study in jobless domains such as literature, history, sociology, anthropology, etc.
- c. They want to bankrupt the state so that they can stay in college indefinitely for free.
- d. They read Gilles Déleuze, Michel Foucault and Jacques Lacan.
- e. They pretend to understand these bullshit authors (OMGZ! Déleuze is soooo right: psychosis is a protest against capitalism!)
- f. They all believe owning an iPhone is an inalienable human right.
- g. Their ideal life is that of Foucault: to write texts that are meant to look "deep" but that are void of meaning, to support every regime that opposes the US, to be gay in the US and finally, to die of AIDS.
- h. They get naked in the streets of Montreal (Note to non-Quebecois: protests often degenerate into street orgies due to the slutty nature of Quebecois females. This means YOU might get laid if you come study in Quebec for a semester. Then again, it is YOU... so maybe not.)
- i. They refuse to let students who don't give a shit study and trow smoke bombs in the Metros because people don't have their own shit to care about.

People

There are a great variety of people in Quebec:

- Frenchfags (most of them are moralfags or closet nazis)
- Canadians
- Christfags
- Jews
- Muslims
- Hipsters
- Star Wars Kid
- Captain James T. Kirk

How to Troll a Quebecois

- Show your admiration for Stephen Harper
- Say you don't quite understand their French
- Openly support Israel
- Tell them their lack of animal protection laws breeds psychopaths
- Call them "nègres blancs" (white niggers)
- Remind them they would be poor without the rest of Canædia
- Point out that they are still a part of the British Empire
- Tell them they stood idly by in 1776
- Ask them to remind you exactly how much they lost by in the 1995 referendum
- Remind them that their ancestors were a bunch of faggots and prostitutes
- Tell them Quebec looks a lot like any typical US state
- Call them Kuh-Beckers
- Tell them Quebec is a britfag-owned land (works wonders)
- Mention that Britney Spear's Vegas show is way better than Céline Dion's
- Tell them to "Speak White!" (for extra lulz!)
- Remind them they're Canadian
- Wear a Boston Bruins shirt in public during hockey seasons (bonus points if the Montreal Canadiens lost again)

Qweerdo

 qweerdo is a member of brutal_honesty and a noted fag. However, unlike your average cute and loveable fag, Qweerdo has HIV IRL. No, srsly. And the best part? He fucked guys constantly after finding out he was HIV+, and he didn't tell them, which makes him essentially a serial killer.

Meth... it's not just for breakfast.

"I did meth for 20 years. The meth made me hyper-sexual. About 10-15 years ago I tested positive for HIV. (It's not that I don't know almost exactly when I got it. I just can't remember how long it's been.) After finding out about the HIV, I continued having anonymous sex without telling people. I was safer, sometimes. I'd love to be able to blame it all on the drugs but that's just not possible. I knew what I was doing. Now, nobody "gave" me HIV. I went out and got it. I knew what I was doing then, as well. I wasn't trying to get it but I knew it was a very real possibility with what I was doing.

I don't know what else to say. I'm sorry I did it but there is absolutely nothing I can do about that now."

Qweerdo was also a meth addict for at least 100 years. Since he quit doing meth, and therefore hanging around with people who do meth, he has not gotten laid once. Considering these pictures, that's not surprising. He does, however, attempt to proposition every male in brutal_honesty. Everyone secretly hopes that  korean_guy_01 will someday come out of the closet and agree, because every member of brutal_honesty wants Korean Guy to die of AIDS.

Qwyrxian, powerword Aaron Hahn, is a TOW admin residing in Japan (despite being American born and raised) who leads the secret homophobia cabal, aiming to remove Wikipedia of all things he feels too fruity for his encyclopedia. Ironically, he is scared shitless of the GNAA, which resulted in him surrendering to their forces and ultimately going into e-exile.

His admin status was most likely gained after his persistent edit warring and claims of ownership of pages whose content he knows nothing about. One such page being that of ED's very own deity Lil B, where he actively discriminates against BASEDGOD (likely due to his "I'm Gay" album) by denying the existence of Based music, despite several sources describing the genre, and confirming its existence.

“ Any dictionary, our WP article genre, etc. A genre, by definition, is something done by a group of people. Not by one person. And some random other non-notable person don't count...and you still haven't produced a single source that even implies that "based" is a genre. This discussion is, in all honesty, a waste of time. After months of careful plotting as to how he would rid himself of his biggest threat, openly gay editor badmachine, a new revision of badmachine's userpage gave him what he felt was grounds for blocking. That being the story of how badmachine was molested and filmed in the act at a young age. Despite Alison's confirmation that everything badmachine had said was fact, Qwyrxian insisted that even userpages had to be “sourced” and thus indefinitely blocked badmachine from editing.

At this point Aaron began deploying his special unit of homophobic editors, working round the clock to assure no homos corrupted their pages, the first being “Boing! said Zebedee” who stated:

“*The issue isn't whether you can prove it - it is that you did not prove it, and we absolutely cannot host any criminal accusations against others on any Wikipedia pages. That is just Wikipedia policy, and it can not be evaded. Here's a suggestion - why not write a shortened bio outlining the key events of your life, but without naming names? After all, a Wikipedia user page is really supposed to be for hosting information that helps towards your Wikipedia contributions - it's not a free webhosting service - and a lengthy and detailed bio might still be seen by some as being inappropriate. There are many other routes to getting your full and detailed autobiography out there. Anyway, that's just a thought, which would hopefully lead to an uncontroversial unblock. (And yes, that's a nice picture!) -- Boing! said Zebedee (talk) 09:59, 22 May 2012 (UTC)*

Countless other meatpuppets soon joined in, one more prominent one being “GiantSnowman” (Nigel Philip Copley) who made sure to serve no other purpose than stroke Qwyrxian's cock and reassure that “this queer doesn't deserve to edit Wikipedia”.

After being brutally exposed for the faggot he was, Qwyrxian's real life, or lack thereof, finally caught up with his e-activities, and he was rightfully molished by GNAAs agents, with no goal in mind but to avenge badmachine at all costs in the name of gayniggers everywhere. The heat of having his name and little boy face known to the internet drove Qwyrxian to actually unblock the account, and subsequently leave a tl;dr “apology” behind in hopes that the troll ZOG machine would forget his atrocities.

Apparently, this is a blockable offense.

you had only good intentions in your most recent user page, but I can also see a larger pattern of questionable behavior. But you know what? This morning, I got a “warning shot” off-wiki from people who are clearly GNAA members or sympathizers. And I don’t need that kind of hassle in my life. I’m not saying that you, or Alison, or anyone else intentionally mobilized this group; some of them, though, have clearly attempted to come to your aid in their own way. I am asking, kindly, if either of you do have any sort of clout with them, to please ask them to call off any sort of more aggressive campaign. I’m removing your user page from my watchlist, and will only interact with you as needed on articles should you happen to edit in places where I already do (i.e., I’ll not be looking through your contributions and trying to follow you around WP). I would like to leave one final request/pleading, though...please, some of us actually do care about Wikipedia, and take it seriously. Yes, I do Wikipedia because I enjoy it, but I also do it because I think it really matters—what Wikipedia says, the very fact that it exists, makes a positive difference in the world. There are a million places on the internet where you can just “have fun”. If you want to improve the ‘pedia, please, do so. Please don’t use this as just one more place for trolling (which you admit you believe is an important activity). You may, as others have mentioned, benefit from mentorship. Please, this is not just me covering my tracks, I sincerely intended to unblock, and sincerely hope that you will do what you can to ensure that the implied threats do not morph into something worse. Qwyrxian (talk) 02:30, 24 May 2012 (UTC)

Based off appearances, it's likely GiantSnowman is a closeted homosexual himself.

GiantSnowman also got his fair share of rape.

Comment - I've just been sent death threats via Twitter (no idea how they got my Twitter a/c details but whatever), the message read "Unblock User:Badmachine or I and @Gary_Niger will have to take our own measures. By that I mean killing your family." Badmachine, can you explain this please? GiantSnowman 18:21, 23 May 2012 (UTC)

Aaron Hahn of Fukuoka, Japan can only be described as an over-all failure at life. Forced to find work over seas after evading his child pornography charges within the US, he turned to the small economically-challenged island nation of Japan. He chose to take up work as an under-qualified teacher of the English language at Fukuoka High School, so that he could absorb himself around small children during his work hours. To better sooth his crippling addiction to child pornography, he chose to purchase a mail-order bride from the even lesser Asian country of South Korea.

I am a huge faggot please rape my face.

In late 2013, Hahn decided to open a Twitter account, and tweeted a bunch of racist, furry, and other undesirable shit. So bad was the blowback that he placed the following disclaimer on his userpage:

Please note: I do not operate a Twitter account under the same name as my Wikipedia account. While I do not know who those pictures are, I am fairly certain that the person operating the account is an ex-Wikipedian whom I dealt with administratively who is apparently still harboring a grudge.

—Qwyrxian, lying

The account continues to tweet terrible, troll-like things, all of them the products of Hahn's diseased mind, and all denied by Hahn on his userpage. Hahn, as racists tend to do, blamed the "fake" account on gay niggers, but nobody believes him.
