SAMPLING TEXAS

Next week, we will present a variety of interesting events for the Fourth of July. Want to warn all businesses to get prepared for the onslaught of fun seeking vacationers. . . The Bailey Street Wherehouse in Fort Worth has been packed to the tit-rings since its recent opening. It will be your pleasure to squeeze into this Super-Duper bar. . . Don, with Primus Studios, is back doing a magnificent job of taking pictures. He's in Houston for only five more weeks, so catch-him-while-you-can! Call Contact Publications and ask for Bob or Don. . . Houston area entertainers displayed their splendid talents to a satisfied audience last week. Carmelita, from the Farmhouse captured the Entertainer of the Year Award; Ernestine-Farmhouse, Best Comedy; and Donna Day-Bayou Landing Best Serious. . . The new scheduled date for The Locker's famous salve action is July 11. We're sure the wait will be worth it. . . Dirty Jose's is not an ordinary bar (see ad on page 10) and neither are their Saturday buffets. Tony informs us that their buffets include International Specialties. In Houston, The Bayou Landing is showing another classic movie, Madame X, this Monday 8:30 and 11:00. . . Good to see Gil Callas, owner of San Antonio's El Jardin, back from the Hospital. Everyone has missed you. . . If you haven't made plans to attend the Texas Gay Conference II in San Antonio, "Shame, Shame, Shame on You". You still have time to contribute the needed "money, money, money". . . Noticed the various places advertising Adult Movies. Understand the flicks aren't exactly designed to win Academy Awards, but no one seems to be complaining. . . Richard Adams won
