SAMPLING TEXAS

Brag, brag, brag. That's what we Texans are supposed to be good at. But why not? We do have some great things in our little old state. Important things like oil, natural gas, cattle, hunky numbers and other things that are becoming more and more important as the other states find themselves with less and less of these commodities. And if we may toot our own horn, for once, we have This Week in Texas. I bring this up, gang, because as of this issue, we are half a year old. That's right. We've made it through our first half year. That may not mean a whole lot to you, but to us it represents a lot of work on our part, but more importantly, it shows that Texas has the fine gay community necessary to support such an endeavor as this one. When you get right down to it, I suppose we're more proud of you than we are of ourselves. Anyone can put out a publication, the heart warming aspect is when that publication has enough individual support behind it to continue, one issue after another, on time. We owe you a lot of thanks. Thanks for reading our little issues, thanks for supporting those businesses that make us possible and, as Judy Garland used to say, "Thanks for being here." The Texas gay community is you. And that community has now made This Week in Texas number one. Because of your support, This Week in Texas has put out more issues than any other gay publication now in business in Texas. We love you! . . . But we're not one to rest on our laurels. We have to keep zippin' right along with new ideas and new concepts to keep up with your needs. Starting now, This Week in Texas is able to provide you with a service that has been requested since we began — a Weekly Bulletin Board. This will be used for non-sexual want ads, such as things for sale, apartments to share, help wanted, sharing travel expenses, etc. All the things you find in the classified ads of your city's newspaper will be eligible for placement in the Weekly Bulletin Board. Non-profit organizations and gay societies may also use the space to promote their regular business hours and schedules. Your cost for placement in the Weekly Bulletin Board will be only the cost we have to pay for typesetting and printing, about $1.00 for every six words. (Of course, organizations and clubs will still be mentioned free of charge in this column for their special events. The Weekly Bulletin Board is for the placement of standard meeting hours and events, apart from those "specials" listed in this column.) So get 'em now for early placement. Okay? And as if I'm not making all this clear enough (heaven forbid!) see the sample elsewhere in this issue . . . In case you missed it, a beautiful thing happened in Houston last Sunday. The Gay Political Caucus held a voter registration drive in the park. The major Houston bars provided free beer, as about 300 or so gays turned out for a fantastic day in the sun. Folk singers, political candidates, brotherhood, lots of laughs and a concerted and successful effort to sign up voters were the theme and goal in the park that day. Representative Ron Waters and Gary Van Ooteghem, the far-out young man who was fired from The City of Houston following a gay rights stance, were the featured speakers. It was a swell day, as they say. We've never seen so many good looking people in one place. Maybe it was just the beauty of being out of the closet and into the sun. A real wow! . . . And speaking of wows, this is apparently the big give-away month in the state. In Houston, the new bar, the Depository will hold the drawing for that trip to Florida on Sunday at midnight. While on October 5th, poolside at the Farmhouse, Single Services will give away a $50.00 food gift certificate and a dinner for two at Steak and Ale. And in Dallas, the Old Plantation is giving away new cars. That's right—NEW CARS! Just like on "The Price is Right." The drawing tickets are handed out every Tuesday and Thursday, with a new car given away every four weeks. Well, c'mon down!! . . . A personal note, now. The one and only Tiffany Jones will be visiting in Houston on September 29th, after a long absence. Go by and pat her on the back. And pat Maurice Pfeider on the back, too. As manager of Mary's, he's going to be honored as the Hi-Kamp's V.I.P. on Tuesday, the 30th . . . Houston's Ursula's is having a spaghetti dinner at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday the 28th. That bar is now open at noon for those of you who want to get an early start. Ursula's is also having a pool tournament, on Tuesday night the 30th. The tourney will be held for 5 consecutive Tuesdays, with the weekly winner getting $10.00 and a chance to play in the "finals" on November 11th, for a great week, kids!

$50.00 cash award . . . On the movie front, the Bayou Landing in Houston features Mel Brooks' The 12 Chairs on September 29th at 8:30 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. While over at the Locker, Three in the Attic will be shown at 9:30 p.m. on Tuesday, the 30th. Who could ever forget the performance of Chris Jones in that bigie! . . . Nightowls please take note. Houston's Lamp Post is now open after hours on Friday and Saturday nights. The after hours action begins at 2:00 a.m. and continues until everyone gets pooped and goes home. Stock up on vitamins, gang . . . Over in Dallas, you can soon expect an all-new Chuck's and don't forget their popular wooden nickle promotions. At Club Dallas, two get in for the price of one on Tuesday nights, as that popular spot begins its new "Buddy Night" idea . . . And speaking of baths, get this. The Kon-Tiki in Galveston now has "Girls' Night." And I'm talking about real girls, physically, not you dudes who run home and take off the dress when the beard stubble begins to push through the pancake and rouge. Every Sunday night, beginning at 6:00 p.m., until 8:00 a.m. Monday morn, the Kon-Tiki is for females only. Allows the gals to get a taste of the bath scene. I wonder if the girls get two towels? . . . And in San Antonio, the Habitat now has specials on Monday thru Thursdays. Each night has a different "special," with a specific type of drink going for just 50 cents. Check it out to see if your favorite week-night bar night has discount vodka, scotch, bourbon, etc. It's a real bargain, from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. . . . And finally, as we come to the end of the month, we remind you that in Fort Worth, it's time for the monthly Bailey Street Wharehouse "Beefcake and Muscle" contest. The event falls on Sunday the 28th this month. Go look 'em over and dream. Dream. Dream. Dream. Until we meet again, have a

By Robert Fenn

Well, they've done it again! After capturing the public with "Lady Marmalade" and "What Can I Do for You" off their hit LP "Nightbird," LaBelle has kept true to form with their latest hit, "Messin' with My Mind" off their new LP, "Phoenix." This album shows that LaBelle intends to stay with us for a long, long time.

Gloria Gaynor is back, but this time with an original, "(If You Want It) Do It Yourself." Maybe this will be the start of her career as a captivating singer not producing rehashes of other old time popular hits. Ms. Gaynor, keep those originals coming.

Joe Simon, who made us stand up and take notice with "Get Down, Get Down (Get on the Floor)" wants us all to sit down with his latest "Music in My Bones," which to this critic sounds very similar to his previous releases.

For all of you who remember the movie Summer of '42, you're sure to like Biddu Orchestra's disco version of the theme song from the movie.

Tina Charles, one of the many new recording artists, has her first disco hit with "You Set My Heart on Fire." The flip side is the instrumental version of the song "Fire." This hot new song has made a big jump up the charts.

Personal Note: Hit records are made in the disco scene, not by how much the D.J. likes it, but rather by how good it is to dance to, and how much the disco public like them. I have noticed that some songs have made it big in some area discos while some have not been played due to the D.J.'s personal tastes. I think that this is a disservice to a bar and its patrons. It is a D.J.'s job to play as wide a range of music as possible to satisfy his clientele.
