

Had to be written eventually, huh?

Theovert, commonly going by DeadDang (DeadDang#5426), is someone who relates to /REG/, a 4chan group. Despite usually being deemed a decent to good person, he has done some very questionable stuff in the last few months. This is mainly to showcase his insanely questionable and honestly disgusting behavior towards others.

Case one : questionable behavior near minors.

Theo has had some questionable behavior near minors, specifically CarrieCarrot and another minor. This includes several... Suggestive lines which can be taken in the form of pedophilia.

Examples of his conversations with Carrie (Granted, she did go with it out of fear Theo would do something. But Theo should've been aware she was a minor):

As seen in these images, he's acting rather sexual to someone 4-5 younger than him. This is (in my opinion) quite disgusting behavior for someone who was 18/19 at the time. Illegal, even. While I'm not gonna say you should call the FBI or whatever way you report pedophilia. You should take these in note.

Case two: cheating on a minor with an adult

Theovert has been found cheating on a minor for Onyx_Online (Or Onyx as she'll be referred to throughout this section). The minor in question, who was 14/15 at the time, was obviously not of age to date someone 4-5 years older than him. Despite this, he still went through with it. This is... Quite obviously illegal. Other than this, he seems to favor sexual lust over actual personality. He also attempted to get said minor to go polyamorous to make sure he gets the minor and the adult. What an adult.

Case three : contradictory statements

While he doesn't do this often. Whenever he realizes he messes up he does write a full apology. A very contradicting one... But one nonetheless. A notable example being the one sent to the minor mentioned previously. First, I'd like to give you the apology in question to give it a thorough read.

This is more of note for a later point :

After reading this, you may have even found some of the contradictory statements yourself. Such as saying avoiding emotions is “retarded” while trying to suppress the emotion of fear. The fact he seems to live a mostly self centered life by own claim yet also claiming he uses “logic and common sense”. These are false for otherwise this document wouldn’t exist! You can even find this statement being contradicted in his own apology if you read correctly. Him saying he “Doesn’t care about what others think of me.” is also false for the fact he’s apologizing to someone because he may think they have a bad opinion on him. Even funnier when you realize he told this same person in question that they don’t trust them 100%!

Case four : the Bunny incident

The Bunny incident. The true incident that is a law breaking disaster. This is the incident where Theovert drugged a minor into having sex with them. This is... this is despicable. Honestly a mess. When caught on it, Theovert quit Twitter. This entire mess is a crime on every single known level. Just read the screenshots when he was called out on it.

Case five : I'm giving up on these titles, you get the idea

Theovert also used another person for sexual reasons. I really can't explain it further than this. The screenshots say it all.

Minor part : the excuses

While these situations tend to get out to the public, it's usually excused by others. The most notable is Theo's own "Living my life however I want." or the "He's living a wild life.". Both of these are just not valid as excuses. You can live wild, but this is too wild. Despite this, it usually gets deemed valid as an excuse. This is rather questioning as saying "MisterObvious was living wild." or "Brickmin was living his life to the fullest." wouldn't be deemed valid excuses at the location. My best guess is that most people who allow it have a special history relating to Theovert. That's just me though. Another excuse he may use for case 3 is "I was nervous and writing on the spot.". You're practically digging your own grave because that'd make the entire apology invalid for not following what you deem yourself.

Another excuse used is "I wanted a cheap thrill.". This excuse is just... wrong. Wrong on a fundamental level. Is it really worth emotionally and sexually using minors for your own thrills? You really expect to get away with every bit of what you did? Just go fall from your horse.

Statements:

I was one of the lucky few who wasn't affected by this, but still, it is absolutely disgusting. I, like many trusted this man, only for it to be proven wrong by his actions, except it took me a little longer than most. But now that i know of what he has done, it leaves me in a state of disbelief, and anger. How could he do this? what went through his mind? why did he treat others like this?

Emotionally and sexually manipulating them. I want nothing more but my friends to be safe, after what that bastard has done. It physically makes me ill, nauseous even. I trusted you, Theo, but now? all I hope is that you stay in jail or get psychiatric help. You're a danger to yourself and everyone -OnyxOnline (one of his many exes.)

For the longest time within many communities on Roblox and Discord alike, Theovert has been there for his cheap thrill, personality he can get off on like a drug, and hurt many, many victims like me in the process were part of my life of what made me a happy child was lost. Many things were false promises as my feelings twisted up into a knot, unable to really let that liquid in the bottle of so many harsh emotions and feelings to pour out properly or was given any sort of guidance, since i was a pretty lost child that unfortunately was in the hands of someone with different intent. I've healed and grown from what i've went through in the right hands this time, and I've long moved on from what happened to me for it to ever ruin my days ahead, but as every other victim, it will remain an emotional wound for those teenagers also hurt yet to heal, or a scar that can sting of pain at any moment, being emotional turmoil inside. I'm rather relieved this will finally be taken care of properly and that many will be warned. This report has been done by many victims and people being genuinely fed up of a situation and powerless, most of us being teenagers are making this callout post, trying our best in an adult situation. Theovert has much better things to do in his life than hook up with teenagers on the internet, take drugs and alcohol to the point of overdose on a guideless and delusional path he's taking, and practically go mentally insane to the point of making statements that should not be messed with (refer to Case Four). Theovert had many chances to love himself, take his friends seriously and quit these unhealthy bad habits that only piled up more and more as time went on, he would barely know the people he said he'd love. He had the chance to know many people better, even me, but never handled it well or seemed at all interested, and by that time most minors were cheated on with god knows how many all at ones, none of it is responsibility, let alone on behalf of the people he's seeked for 'comfort' and 'support'. He is not right in the head, a wake up call for him to understand any of this is far too late now that he's assaulted and hurt a 16 year old boy at the time (refer to Case Four). What's done is already done, and he's got to atone for it, by facing his actions head on for the better of his life and others around him. -The minor, in Case Two & Three
