

My Experience With @blzymixtrbochrg (Maria / Empress Blazy Mix)

Before I start I just want to say that this document was made just to tell my story. Blazy has been completely off the internet since 2024. On the off chance she is still on the internet somewhere, please don't try finding her and harassing her. All I wish for her now is for her to recover from her trauma and to learn from her mistakes.

Hello! I'm Vincent. You might know me for a couple of things, whether that be from my role as a server admin in Precure Hotel or just from Precure related tweets I have made in the past or probably even some stuff from other fandoms I'm in (ex. Frenrey closet). I have held off on making this doc for quite some time now due to two things.

1. As stated in the first paragraph, Blazy is completely off the internet as far as I know. I thought it would be pointless to make a doc about someone who had already left the internet.
2. I no longer have a lot of receipts nor a lot of memory of what Blazy has done. The beginning of 2024 is very blurry. I can only remember some bits of the Precure RP account I ran. I can't even recognize a lot of the accounts I was friends with. But for some reason, I can remember a lot of stuff about Blazy just fine. I'm assuming that it's because of my dissociative disorder, but I'm unsure. I had also deleted a lot of stuff regarding Blazy due to an episode. I even deleted Twitter DMs from her. I only have a select few screenshots left. I wish I hadn't deleted everything. It's stopped me from coming out with something like this for so long because I thought if I didn't have proof then no one would believe me. A lot of screenshots in this doc will be provided by my two friends who were also victims of her. They have asked to be censored for their own privacy. If they ever decide to come forward with their stories please support them and give them soo soo much love. I would not be making this if it weren't for them.

3. I was scared. When the initial callout was made on Blazy (see Initial Callout), All of the people rushing to defend Blazy (a lot of them being lolishos or proshippers) scared me into silence.

How I met Blazy

On January 21st 2024 a trend had started in "precuretw" known as "precurerptwt". it was mainly a shitpost trend where people would pretend to be characters from Precure. I had partaken in this trend as "Emo Sora". A day later I was added to a group chat with a bunch of people in it known as "Komugi Fanclub" which is where I met Blazy. We became pretty close after that. I had just turned 15 two months prior. Blazy was 17-18.

I unfortunately do not have access to this group chat anymore. But I do have proof Blazy was in this group chat. It will be shown in How It All Started

My precurerptwt account. It has been mostly inactive since 2024. Komugi Fanclub wasn't really a roleplay gc. It was more or so just a hangout one where we would talk about stuff.

How It All Started

February 12th 2024, Blazy had posted a series of vent posts onto her account. The content of the tweets were stuff of her saying “it’s gonna happen again” or “im a good girl”. Blazy has dealt with serious sexual abuse and trauma in her life. I will not be going into details for the sake of her own privacy. As far as I know, I never saw the tweets myself as they were deleted shortly after so I didn't know about it.

On February 13th 2024 a topic we were talking about was “Edgy Magical Girl Animes.” Someone had brought up the anime Magical Girl Site. I had replied “im pretty sure the protagon gets raped”. That had triggered Blazy and she began to get visibly upset.

Blazy began talking about how she was going to kill herself. I felt so guilty and so shitty after it. I felt so awful for making Blazy upset. I wanted to make it up to her.

Statement I sent out to the Komugi Hangout after I was finished talking with Blazy.

After that, Blazy had given me her discord (we never talked on there regardless. A lot of our messages were sent through Twitter DMs) and I told her that she could always come to me if she can always come to me if she needed to talk about stuff.

Self-Incriminating Behavior and Manipulation

Blazy had a habit of going into people's retrosprings as an anon and pretending to be a "hater" so people could say nice things about her. A lot of this was during the Setsulove drama, which was drama she had gotten into on if setsulove was moral to ship or not.

- they aren't related
- Love's family doesn't adopt Setsuna, they take her in because there is literally nowhere else for her to go

As much as I want to give her the benefit of the doubt and say that she wasn't in a good headspace while writing these things. With how frequently she has done it and how much she would send, it was obvious she was doing it to get attention and praise from others. Which ultimately worked. Everyone who had gotten his anons sang praises to Blazy, including me, which was how she was able to manipulate so many people.

While manipulating these people, they became her "therapists" (despite Blazy having a professional therapist). These people (who were mainly underaged) had to comfort blazy when she would have a mental breakdown and threaten suicide.

One of those people was of course me. I did more than sang her praises and comforted her though. I had fallen in love with Blazy. I had never told her this due to the fact that she was a lesbian and that we had an obvious age gap. I don't think she never knew. Or maybe she did. I dunno. I have a savior complex. A really bad one. I dreamed of saving Blazy from her trauma and her family and all of the evil of her situation. I was in love. And that love was the worst thing to happen to me. That love had caused me to get led on into the deep end.

Just like so many others, i had become Blazy's lapdog. I defended her whenever I could. How could i deny her? She was such a good person.

Initial Callout

June 30th 2024. A callout thread about Blazy was released by Zelda (@ddiamonddeez). Blazy was exposed by Zelda for being into things like loli/shotacon and incest. Blazy also had a secret nsfw account where she would follow people who made nsfw of the precure girls (shown below).

Hi so like, you can't schedule threads or at least I couldn't figure out how to so I'm making this post using google docs

This is a collective thread of things that I think need to be said about Blazy, for about the past month I have been aware of the knowledge that she is a lolicon, a shotacon and is into incest, she had told me herself after me and her had a couple very specific conversations

Before continuing with this I just want to start by saying, it might come out that I have said a few incriminating things (like at most 3/4ish messages of me saying "yeah I agree" or "that's hot"), I want to clarify that I do NOT agree with what I said, I was scared and got myself into a position where I didn't know what to do, I panicked and to protect my own mind I just agreed, so I'm saying this now in case she tries to retaliate with screenshots of that, please believe me when I say I absolutely am not into lolicon or shotacon, if I was, I wouldn't be making this post in the first place

Now to properly start this off I want to talk about how Blazy has said multiple times in my dms about her attraction to lolicon and shotacon, as well as specifically saying she enjoys lol incest, as seen in the screenshots here

Blazy ID: Blazy (Don't ruin Heartcatch for me)
Yeah I like shotacon... This probably isn't surprising but I like lolicon too

Blazy (Don't ruin Heartcatch for me)
Lolicon incest gets me so turned on

Not only did she say these things but she also has a private account, and on that account she constantly reposts, follows and talks about lolicon and shotacon content, and on multiple times spoke about wanting to have sex with underage boys (I do not have screenshot proof of her making statements about underage boys, however I do have these screenshots)

And a screenshot including her saying that this is in fact her account

Anyway I should probably go eat now but Um yeah here's my account where I'm a bit of freak (I'd prefer if you just followed me on your porn account)

Now this next part is something that you can entirely leave up to your mind or not on whether or not you want to believe me, I had completely forgotten to get a single bit of proof of this I want to talk about Blazy's best friend, or as she hasn't said to the public, her girlfriend, @ThatKomaruStan who is just as bad, being the only other person to have gotten access to Blazy's NSFW priv, she and Blazy, Komaru using her NSFW private (which I unfortunately cannot remember the @ of, however I remember the username was "Cumaru"), would constantly talk about different things related to shotacon, lolicon and incest, the two of them would constantly grt the NSFW Precure Confessions account, and have conversations about how they agreed with the things stated on them, and other things about conversing of how they with they could have sex with little boys and more along those lines

Zelda was the only other person to know about Blazy's secret. I don't remember Zelda's age. I assumed she was 15 at first but a friend told me she was around 22-24.

Seeing this thread left me devastated. I didn't know how to feel. I don't remember much from that night, but I remember crying so much and feeling so physically sick to my stomach that I ended up throwing up. I don't know what happened after that.

July 1st. Blazy made a statement. I do not have a screenshot of the statement but I do have a summary of it that I told my friend (shown below)

Zelda began to get a wave of harassment sent out against her and she eventually deactivated her account. I had unblocked Blazy and sent her an apology. To which she had told me that “I had betrayed her and that she couldn’t trust me again after this.”

Blazy had cut me off and I had believed that I was an awful person because of what I’ve done. I thought that I was disgusting for abandoning Blazy despite knowing her family trauma. But then. I felt jealousy. Blazy had forgiven almost everyone, but me. It wasn’t fair. I felt angry. Especially to this one girl. I hated her. “Why did she get to remain Blazy’s closest friend while I got left behind and cut off?” “Blazy should’ve been mine.” were the things I’ve thought to myself. Before I knew it, I had relapsed. I ended up having a really bad episode. I had deleted a lot of my DMs and screenshots with Blazy, deleting all of the proof I could’ve saved. I had begun to self harm again. I started to have auditory and sometimes visual hallucinations. I’ve always kind of had these, but they got worse after this incident. July was a complete blur after that. I don’t believe I was in the front for the rest of that month. The earliest I can remember after that incident was mid August 2024.

Aftermath

I began to separate myself from Precure and moved onto different interests. I wanted to separate myself from that space. Seeing Blazy’s tweets on precuretw made me think of “what could’ve been”.

That didn’t stop me from thinking about Blazy.

I thought I was no different from Blazy due to my hypersexuality from past trauma. I thought that I had no right to abandon her. I wanted to talk to her again. To be at her side. My thoughts were awful. It has gotten so bad that even looking at stuff that relates to her favorite Cure, Setsuna/Cure Passion was physically triggering for me to the point of tears.

I hadn’t realized I had been groomed by Blazy til around February 2025. The girl I mentioned. The one I “hated”. She was in a group chat with me along with some other friends in precuretw. We talked about Blazy (I will see if I can somehow grab screenshots of this conversation but twitter DMs have been stupid lately especially when it comes to group chats). For the first time, I felt like I had the courage to talk about Blazy. To acknowledge her existence again. I told her about my experience with Blazy, and turns out we shared the same experience! I had come to the realization that Blazy had manipulated and groomed us both and I felt my initial loathing disappear.

That girl is now one of my closest friends. I’m certain you’ll be reading this since I’ll be sending this to you to proofread. I want you to know that I wouldn’t be making this if it weren’t for you.

Thank you for being here for me and if you ever want to come out with your story with Blazy I will support you to the ends of the earth.

Now it's April 2026. I've decided that I had suffered in my silence for long enough and so, this doc was made.

Final Thoughts

Well, for starters. I didn't really make this doc to "expose" Blazy to be honest. This was made for my own mental wellbeing. It's high time I close this chapter of my life. I'm now Blazy's age myself and I'll be 18 in November this year. I don't really know what else I can say except for this so i'll end it here.

I probably won't be active on my main for a few days but if you have any questions you can feel free to DM me. It'll probably take me a while to respond though. I don't check my DM requests often.
