

Parlo's defense

So now you know what kind of person XDGAMER is, his word and his vigilantism does not stand, he does the exact same thing he preaches against, and associates with the exact same people he claims he is against. XDGAMER is under multiple FBI investigations and is someone who needs to be reprimanded by the police. After nearly 10 months of non-stop harassment, XDGAMER decided to fabricate another false story against Parlo, which will get debunked.

This part of the document has member testimony and full proof in order to debunk the false narrative pushed by XDGAMER and his bad actor associates who are spreading libel slander against Parlo with no proof whatsoever.

Homo-Topia

"Homo-Topia" was a Discord server owned by Parlo under the CammyFemboy account. The server had a clear sexual undertone and most conversations were sexual in nature. This included discussing sexual experiences, sexual kinks, making sexual comments to other members, and sending nude images to other members.

Lie

Lie

The rules for the Discord stated nobody under the age of 16 was allowed. This means Parlo was directly allowing underage individuals to be exposed to the explicit content. Even worse: this rule was ignored as some of the most active members were openly as young as 15 years old.

MASSIVE LIE

XDGAMER the Neo-Nazi, CP poster tries desperately to push a narrative that Homo-Topia was a NSFW server which allowed minors to bypass an age verification and allowed them to post explicit content. This is a lie.

The server was originally set up as a mutual/follower SFW discord server under my SFW account for people who most were of the same age as me, the youngest being 2 years younger - Pyro. The server had multiple very active moderators and swiftly banned bad actors from the server if they explicitly violated a rule. Many members can attest we had a stringent anti-pedophile and doxxing rule (hence why XDGAMER was banned from the server).

This server was originally established to siphon supporters from the main twitter account to a new one, in case of XDGAMER finding the main twitter account and false reporting it getting it taken down via Twitter, this would ensure that connections were maintained and that influence could be preserved when a new account was made, so essentially Parlo planned for the worst.

Eventually XDGAMER found the server and so did Tapz, both part of the pedophilic child swatting ring as detailed earlier, and were effectively banned. - Tapz has now cut ties with Sydiced/XDGAMER.

Additionally XDGAMER the C*P posting, minor self h*rm gore posting Neo-N*zi also claims how the server was "16+" and brought up how there were 15yr olds allowed in the server, despite the fact that the server was actually 15+ which many members can actually attest to.

that document is inherently flawed too, as the age was 15+, not 16+

So this was another deliberate mischaracterization in which XDGAMER establishes, trying to shift the narrative and make it look like this server was a NSFW server, when in reality it was a SFW server and I had directly campaigned to not introduce NSFW channels in the server. So this is a flat out lie presented by him, in order to vindicate me and excuse his relentless illegal harassment in which he has subjected me and many others to for over 10 MONTHS.

Had XDGAMER essentially looked at the Rules in which were specified, he would have found out the server was NOT NSFW and that he essentially lied and has perpetuated a false and slanderous narrative. The age allowed was 15+ because one of the moderators was 15, turning 16 in June.

Can you attest the server was not a NSFW server in which harboured sexualised images of minors

there was a gay joke here and there but that was about it

Pyro and other members can attest to the fact that there was a rule SPECIFICALLY saying that NSFW content was NOT ALLOWED. XDGAMER knew this and deliberately did not establish this, in order to vindicate my image and make the server appear to be jeffrey epstein's island.

Cam Today at 15:02

the doxxer has made a google document basically claiming how homo topia was a NSFW discord server in which allowed sexualised images of minors and porn in the server can you attest the server was not nsfw and it was strictly against the rules to post such material

Bellzybub Today at 15:02

It was yes

Dae was an alleged pedophile who was banned

The nsfw channel was made by dae like day 1 but was deleted an hour late because theres no reason to have such a thing in a server full of minors

Cam Today at 14:46

btw can you attest that the server was not a NSFW channel, and that it was strictly against the rules to post NSFW content _jackieFreeze Today at 15:06

absolutely

Parlo suspiciously purged all messages sent by him on the server multiple times. This was done before and after the server was discovered. There are no archives of any messages sent by Parlo before the server was discovered.

XDGAMER claims that I systematically purged my DMS to avoid being caught, when I literally had nothing to hide.

Many members of the server know that I've been through mental troubles lately, especially complicated by the malevolent actions of XDGAMER, and that I only ever used Homo-Topia specifically to vent, as the server also had a vent channel to encourage other members to be open about their problems so we could cultivate a less depressing community and help those who needed support. Of course, XDGAMER being the bastion of truth and morality, glossed over this and had no proof to directly convict me of the slanderous claims he presents in this document, so therefore he had to make the insinuation that I was "purging proof" when this couldn't be further from the case.

Cam Today at 10:41

Can you attest that I wasnt active in the server at all

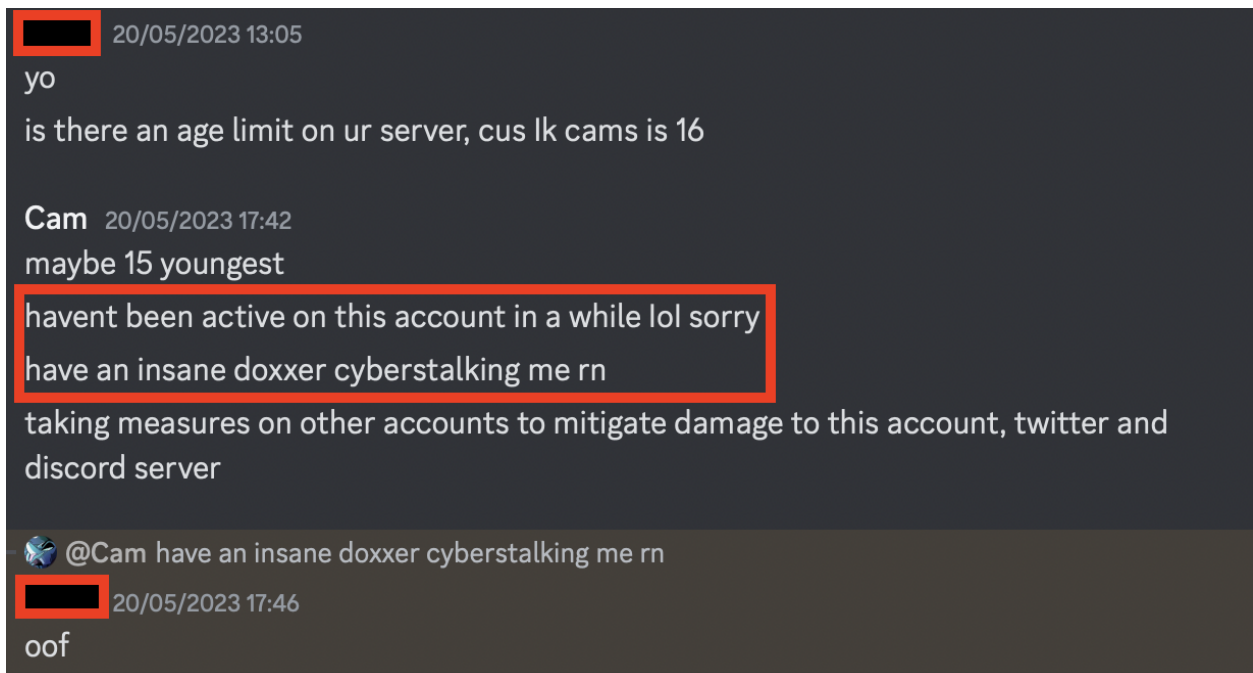

Pyro™ Today at 10:41

yes, i can (edited)

i can attest that every message you deleted was you venting too

I had contacted mutuals present in that server about my mental struggles and the ongoing harassment this d*xxer had subjected me to, and I often had bipolar spouts where I ranted then mass deleted my messages because I didn't want to look too depressed to be around. Mutuals in the RYC server can also attest that I have done this. Many such situations that I expressed my mental anguish about involved relationships, self harm and family problems.

I had contacted mutuals about my inactivity and many knew that I was barely present in the server at all, with memes being made about how inactive I was. As you can see here, I establish the minimum age present in the server, as well as solidifying my statement claiming my inactivity was due to XDGAMERS harassment, which is once again the TRUTH.

As you can see, I continued to be offline for an extensive period of time, and you could say I was pretty negligent with the continuation of the server, this is why on my Parlo account, I'm way more reliant on other people who are more capable than me, and less mentally exhausted than me, to continue establishing and enforcing rules and regulations onto the server.

As you can see, Anonymous mutual establishes how they saw my suicidal rant about how I wanted to change ownership to someone else, as I didn't feel like I was a good owner, I was barely active and way too depressive when I was.

The server mods banned people engaged in rude or bad behavior and for the establishment that this very active server was a safe-haven for bad moderation is a deliberate mischaracterization with deliberately cherry-picked screenshots to try and villanise and paint this server to be worse than it actually was.

I had even made it clear I was going to be majorly inactive on the account due to fears of XDGAMER spying on my account and stalking me, in which 6 days later, my fear was revealed. Also strengthens the point that the server was made to reorganize my following if my twitter account got mass reported and taken down by XDGAMER if he did find it.

More proof about the strong stance me and the moderation team established to people violating the rules of the server.

Cam 14/05/2023 16:03
<https://discord.gg/HJYpjC3G>

YOU SENT AN INVITE, BUT...

Invalid Invite

Try sending a new invite!

And keep in mind this server had been established on May 14th, and for the majority of those days, exempt from 1 or 2, I was completely inactive and barely said anything. I presided over my other accounts and left the moderation in the hands of my mutuals, who effectively banned bad actors from the server.

Pornography and suggestive photos were often posted on this server. No channels were marked as NSFW. This was so that any minors with their Discord account set as underage could still access all channels. There was a channel named "#irl-media" which was dedicated for members to post photos of themselves. This was generally used by members to post revealing or suggestive photos. This included members who were underage. The legality of these images is questionable.

No channels were marked as NSFW as the server was not NSFW and it was against the rules to post porn in the server, as established earlier, XDGAMER glossed over this fact, and it wouldn't be like he abided by that idealism anyway, considering he has posted porn and gore to minors before!

Cherry Picking screenshots from the server, 20, out of the thousands of messages sent there is an illogical attempt at painting a narrative that the server was a cesspool of NSFW, when in reality, everytime I joined the server, I saw no such thing. Why would I come onto the Cam account and openly preside over a server that I can actively see posting what XDGAMER is claiming was posted? Especially when I knew he would be stalking that account, and my paranoia was proved correct. The ‘legality of the images is not questionable’, because they weren’t illegal, XDGAMER purposely censored the images to make them look worse than they actually were in an attempt to spin a narrative that the server hosted inappropriate images of children, despite the fact that C*P was banned from the server as any normal server should enforce.

 Cam Today at 10:45
and can you attest that child porn wasnt allowed in the server because morons think it was Jefree epstiens island

 Pyro™ Today at 10:46
tf?
child porn wasn't allowed 💀💀💀

File is 1.5 gigabytes and has NSFW content. Any revealing or suggestive photos involving minors has been removed.*

Also what is this? “Any revealing or suggestive photos involving minors has been removed”, so if XDGAMER is trying to spin the narrative that the legality of the images is “questionable”, why did he have the images stored on his hard-drive? So his logic essentially contradicts his own statement, but that’s even more telling, is he shifted the goal post from claiming it was “inappropriate” to now it being “suggestive”, try and cling onto one narrative here XDGAMER, but then again, if you did preside over this content in which you’re overexaggerating the extent of, it wouldn’t be the worst image you have possession of, considering you posted C*P of Nat twice, and Parlo’s uncensored self harm images from when he was a child.

 Parlo Today at 20:03
The point is you posted child porn

 XDGAMER Today at 20:03
So what

XDGAMER is the same person who admitted to this by the way LOL.

Other members can attest to the unnecessary blurring of images which is purposely established to push the false motive that the images were worse than they actually were.

XDGAMER tried to push the motive that Pyro's abdominal progress pictures were "inappropriate" when he literally does exercise progress pictures, I mean this is the extent of lying that XDGAMER subjects people to, in order to try and control the narrative.

More proof that XDGAMER essentially overexaggerated the situation, as Sydiced has done before in similar situations, to try and demonize people for their own benefit.

Cam Today at 10:48

alright, and you saw no inappropriate images of minors in the server

Pyro™ Today at 10:48

none

Oh wow! Look at that, actual members of the server, who were active, can actually attest that XDGAMER lied about the situation! In order to get attention and clout on twitter for the 600th time! Isn't that actually crazy?

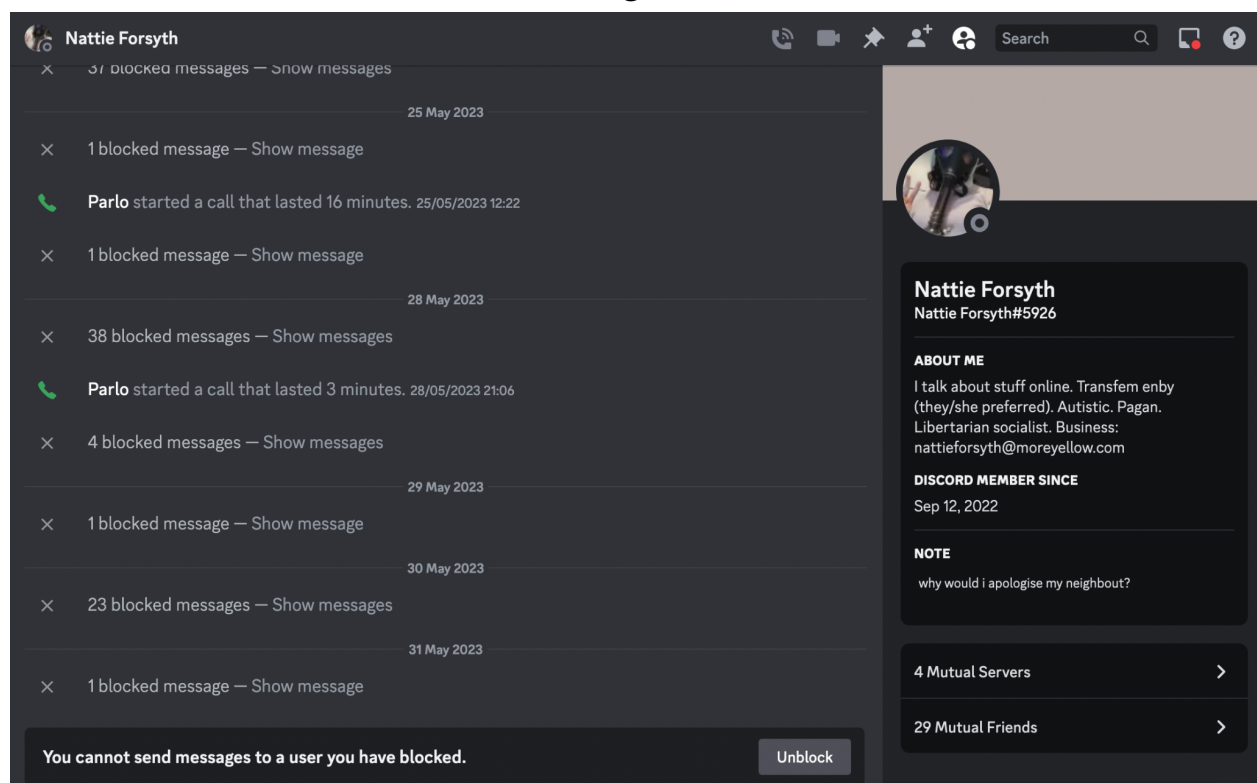

In conclusion, the server was not a NSFW discord server, it was SFW server, in which I was barely active in throughout it's tenure, the establishment that I facilitated a minor NSFW discord server is an utter lie, at best misinformed, at worst, downright slanderous and libel.

At worst, this situation shows that I was a lazy and non-active server owner, as if that was new information.

Friend of Parlo and alleged paedophile Nattie Forsyth was a moderator for the server. Nattie has continued to show no improvement and posted suggestive photos on the server full of minors. This comes only a few months after the Roblox YouTuber attempted to launch an OnlyFans account and promote their NSFW Twitter to their underage fans. Parlo still associates with Nattie Forsyth despite this.

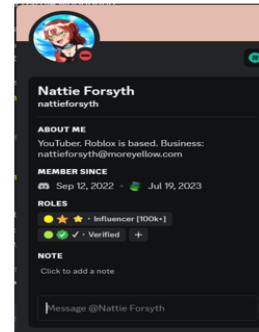

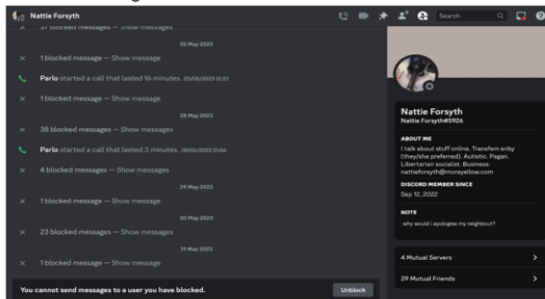

The server was deleted by Parlo soon after it was discovered. Parlo is a fully grown adult who understands that running a server like this and exposing minors to such content is inappropriate. Parlo has called others out for similar behaviour. He should be held accountable for his actions.

Nat asked for mod to sufficiently moderate the server and ensure no NSFW was posted, once I found out she posted lewds on the server once XDGAMER leaked the image, it became one contributing factor, along with the Ripull situation, that made me ultimately dissolve my remaining ties with her. I no longer associate with Nat - written in June, regained ties after she went over the situation systematically. But she claims she didn't read the rules which specified this was a SFW server, once again not the first time she didn't see the age.

Nat asked for mod to sufficiently moderate the server and ensure no NSFW was posted, once I found out she posted lewds on the server once XDGAMER leaked the image, it became one contributing factor, along with the Ripull situation, that made me ultimately dissolve my remaining ties with her. I no longer associate with Nat, but she claims she didn't read the rules which specified this was a SFW server, once again not the first time she didn't see the age.

Lie. You still talk with Nat to this day and you keep him in your main Parlo discord server. You even bothered to give him the Influencer role.

The worst part is-- you let a confirmed pedophile (Nattie) in your Homo-Topia discord server and let him talk to minors which could've turned out very badly, And yet, you still keep Nattie with a special role in your main discord server.

CONCLUSION:

This makes Parlo a crime partner for housing a pedophile (Nattie) in his discord server as of 08/08/23 and a proven liar.

Now after consulting Nat on multiple of her allegations we have remained in contact after the situation and regained ties. The claim this person makes that Nat is a "confirmed p*dophile", this is a slanderous lie, it was never confirmed and via the police report after the police have searched her socials and computer for 8 months consistently, the situation was deemed inconclusive and they have negated her of any culpability.

"A crime partner" this person has no idea what he is talking about, a CRIME partner of WHAT??

If Nat has been CONFIRMED as one, why not show proof CONFIRMING the assumptions.

I did not update this document after regaining ties with Nat, although it could seem as if it was a lie- it was not at the time of creating the document, this document had not been updated since June. As of July, Nat in calls ranging from 4-6 hours has gone over her situations. - 8/8/23 in your Homo-Topia discord server and let him talk to minors which could've turned out very badly, And yet, you still keep

More theoretical strawmanning and whataboutism, she didn't groom anyone, the insinuation this "COULD" have happened is also unsubstantiated and just included to make the situation and paint the narrative that it could have been worse than it actually was, just more word play and manipulation.

Any bad actors present in the server were promptly banned and Nat even banned weirdos coming into the server who were older than the age limit present as she consulted me about this as of August when going over the situation in its entirety again.

Now XDGAMER claims I'm a 'fully grown adult', despite that adult cognitive ability does not fully develop until the age of 25, and that I had just turned 18 less than 3 weeks prior to the incident, the inclination that I was a fully grown adult was a lie, and I had never called out another user for a similar incident to this. This is just a blatant example of XDGAMER formulating a strawman hypocrisy argument in which it did not hit. Additionally the incorporation of the idea that I was "a fully grown adult" is enforced to directly clash with the point that minors were present in the SFW server, to try and spin a narrative that I was a p*dophile, this obviously makes 0 sense, as the age gaps present in the server were less than 3 years and were 2 years, that is, if I even made any contact as such, which I did not.

ICD-10 criteria stipulate that the person with the disorder is at least 16 years old and at least five years older than the child or children who are the focus of their sexual preference.

Stop It Now

<https://www.stopitnow.org.uk> > ... > Get the facts

Definition of paedophilia (pedophilia) - Stop It Now

Legal definition and classification for someone to be a p*dophile is to be above 16 years of age and have a 5 year age gap. That does not fit with this situation.

The cherry picking of screenshots from the server was made to spin a narrative that the server was worse than what it actually was; I can assure with the time and out of context screenshotting talent XDGAMER has cultivated, I could do this to any DISCORD server and spin the narrative as well as he has in regards to comments made on the server.

XDGAMER is a complete hypocrite who preaches against the same things he can actively be seen doing, he'll attempt to hide under the guise of vigilantism as a way of justifying his immoral and illegal actions, whereas in reality, no one should take what this person says seriously.

Additionally some of my mutuals from the PARLO alias were in this server too, I wasn't "hiding" anything from public view, it was a publicly available community server.

The major use of censoring in the document made the images seem to be worse than they actually were, this is a great tactic utilized by people like XDGAMER. The images in which were allowed were not NSFW and were either cropped, or XDGAMER just utilized a black box and slammed it over the images to then lie and insinuate the uncensored image was much worse than it truly was.

EXAMPLE:

Now that the image has been “censored” anyone can just warp the narrative to claim the image was NSFW, because the original image purposely hasn’t been made apparent.

He tries to latch on to this situation to try and bolster the narrative that "Parlo is the P word" (I'm not and I have debunked this multiple times).

Bloxatron

Yeah it never stated explicitly that it was an nsfw server I know that already. I said though that enough bad actors used it in such a way that could give the impression that's the kinda server it was. Idk staff that were active and you weren't yourself. Like I said I think a lot of it not all the members coming from the femboy twitter didn't help them not be sexual upon joining the server. Was just degenerate and cancer and something in retrospect people could have made better decisions regarding, it definitely wasn't a porn server as the most explicit thing there to my knowledge were hips and stomach, but still for obvious reasons it wasn't exactly a well moderated kreekcraft family friendly server and essentially the mental health patients ended up actually being in charge of the asylum << Nat (who was on another alias trying to claim they were not Nat). Attested that the server was NOT advertised as a NSFW server, however that bad actors nit-picked certain aspects from the server such as a few screenshots from the channels, and attempted to push a false narrative that it was worse than it actually was, keep in mind the server had hundreds of messages, but only 40 screenshots were selected to push a narrative that it was entirely full with s*xual degeneracy. The server as specified by them though was NOT p*rnographic server however should have been more appropriately moderated.

The insinuation that the server was explicitly a NSFW server too, is debunked when considering the definition in which constitutes something to be 'Not safe for work'.

This coupled in with the fact that a NSFW channel was banned, 1 hour after server creation, and the fact that Discord TOS was adhered to in the rules listing of the server, shows how the intent of the creation of the server- by Parlo's logic, was intended to be a SFW hangout server, and not p*rnographic in ANY way.

^^Excerpt of XDGAMER, trying to claim that there was “no rule stating how the server wasn’t NSFW”.

^^ Discord community guidelines were apparent in the server rules.

4- Follow discord policies and do not share any content portraying/promoting illegal material <https://discordapp.com/guidelines>

<https://discord.com/guidelines>

- Do not solicit, share, or make attempts to distribute content that depicts, promotes, or attempts to normalize child sexual abuse. Also, do not post content that in any way sexualizes children. This includes real as well as manipulated media, animation (such as lolicon), and any type of digital creation.

We report child sexual abuse material (CSAM) and grooming to the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children.

- If you are under the age of 18, do not engage in sexual conduct or any conduct that puts your online or physical safety at risk. This includes consensual sexual interactions between teens, as well as any encouragement or coordination of potentially risky behaviors, such as vigilantism.

We want teens to be able to express themselves freely on Discord as much as possible, but given the risks associated with online dating, we will remove spaces that encourage or facilitate dating between teens.

- Do not solicit sexual content from or engage in any sexual conduct ("grooming") with anyone under the age of 18. We report child sexual abuse material (CSAM) and grooming to the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children.

- Do not make sexually explicit content available to anyone under the age of 18. You must be age 18 or older to participate in adult content on Discord.
You must apply an age-restricted label to any channels that contain sexually explicit content or any other content shared solely for the purposes of sexual gratification.

Do not post sexually explicit content in user avatars, custom statuses or bios, server banners, server icons, invite splashes, emoji, stickers, or any other space that cannot be age-restricted.

XDGAMER- The person who uses my Fathers name to make this document, tries to claim that there were no rules to establish how the server was NOT NSFW and was SFW, and he tries to claim I was lying about the situation. Well I revised check of the rules and you can see Rule No. 4 States; "follow discords policies", and we link Discords TOS.

- Do not make sexually explicit content available to anyone under the age of 18. You must be age 18 or older to participate in adult content on Discord.

Do not post sexually explicit content in user avatars, custom statuses or bios, server banners, server icons, invite splashes, emoji, stickers, or any other space that cannot be age-restricted.

It literally states here (ABOVE). "Do not make sexually explicit content available to anyone under the age of 18".

After 1 hour of the servers creation a moderator made a NSFW channel which was deleted, after I promptly told them this was a SFW server. Why would I delete a NSFW channel if the server was intended to be a NSFW server? The narrative XDGAMER attempts to go by is extremely misinformed and false here.

Additionally the person who made the rules channel- Dae, was banned from the server due to inappropriate actions on and off the server.

This server banned any individual perceived to be an adult. We wanted the server to contain people who were close of age.

Keep in mind one of the admins; Pyro, was 15, turning 16 in June. The server was originally 16+ but for Pyro to be allowed in the hangout server and for us not to be inconsistent in our rules and regulations in the server, we moved it to 15+. Another person who was 15 to my knowledge joined the server, however once again I was not active, no I never interacted with them.
